THE COMPANION BIBLE
"When thou goest, it shall lead thee;
When thou sleepest, it shall keep thee;
And when thou awakenest, it shall talk with thee."

PFD EDITION OF

THE COMPANION BIBLE

PUBLISHED BY

MARCH 2005
PREFACE.

The Companion Bible is a new Edition of the English Bible. Published originally in six Parts, it is now presented in one Volume, and the description which follows shows that the Work is a self-explanatory Bible designed for the general use of all English readers throughout the world.

It has an amount of information (much of it hitherto inaccessible to the ordinary English reader) in its wide margins not to be found in any edition of the A.V. extant. Its position, in these respects, is unique.

In size and weight, and type and paper, as well as price, it will compare favourably with all existing editions.

It is called The Companion Bible because its wide margin is intended to be a Companion to the Text; and the whole is designed as the Companion of all readers of the Bible.

The human element is excluded, as far as possible, so that the reader may realize that the pervading object of the book is not merely to enable him to interpret the Bible, but to make the Bible the interpreter of God's Word, and Will, to him.

To the same end this Edition is not associated with the name of any man; so that its usefulness may neither be influenced nor limited by any such consideration; but that it may commend itself, on its own merits, to the whole English-speaking race.

It is not a New Translation.
It is not an Amended Translation.
It is not a Commentary.

THE TEXT.

The Text is that of the Authorized Version of 1611 as published by the Revisers in their "Parallel Bible" in 1886.

There are no alterations in the Text beyond what can be effected by a variation in the character of the Type. Hence, there is nothing that affects the ear when reading it aloud; but only that which meets the eye in order to call attention to important facts and truths.

All ancient readings and new and amended renderings are confined to the margin; which, for this purpose, extends to one-half the width of the page.

There are no minute English or Greek "superior" letters to confuse the Text; or to perplex the reader when searching for the corresponding number or letter in the margin.
PREFACE.

The Types Employed in the Text.

1. These distinguish all the Divine Names and Titles. (See Ap. 4.)
2. All pronouns used for the above have their initials indicated by capital letters.
3. The pronouns, &c., emphasized in the Original are in special type.
4. Attention is given to the capital and small letters in other cases where they affect interpretation.
5. The words spoken or cited are placed within quotation marks.
6. Where the Hebrew Text is written in separate lines, these lines are preserved by being presented in the same way in the present Edition.
7. In the Book of Psalms, the Titles will be printed so as to present the super-scriptions and sub-scriptions as brought to light and demonstrated by Dr. J. W. Thistle.
8. In the New Testament, all quotations from the Old Testament will also be specially indicated.
9. Proper Names with their pronunciation, &c., are included in a special Appendix, No. 52.

The chapters and verses of the Authorized Version are retained; but spaces are introduced to mark them off into paragraphs; so that the advantages of both Verses and Paragraphs are retained. These paragraphs are not divided according to the usual Paragraph Bibles, but according to the Structures (see page viii), which are given in the right-hand margin; while the corresponding Index-letters are repeated in the left-hand margin, by the side of the Text with the number of the page where they may be found; so that the subjects of the various Paragraphs (or Members) may be seen at a glance, and be intelligently followed.

The Margin.

A small circle (°) against a word or words in the Text calls attention to the same word or words which are repeated in the right-hand margin, with the number of the verse to which they belong.

In order to save repetition, and economize valuable space in the margin, words in the Text on which a note has already been given in a preceding verse in the same chapter, and to which the same note applies, are marked with the number of the verse in which such note is given.

When these words are referred to there will be found no “views” expressed, but only facts which are incontrovertible, and information which is indispensable.

Where references are given, these are not merely to parallel passages, or to the same English words, which are often as unnecessary as they are misleading; but only to those passages which explain the words in the Original, and which throw light upon their truth and teaching.

If an amended rendering is suggested in the margin, and several references follow, then the reader knows that he has before him all the occurrences of such words in the Original. Where there is “&c.” at the end of such references, then he will know that the Hebrew or Greek word in question occurs too many times for all the passages to be given; but that a sufficient number is selected as evidence in favour of such amended rendering. Thus the reader will be able to judge for himself as to the accuracy of what is suggested: and the Bible becomes its own interpreter.
PREFACE.

THE MARGINAL NOTES.

1. In the Old Testament all the important readings will be given¹ according to Dr. C. D. Ginsburg's Massoretico-Critical Text of the Hebrew Bible².

2. In the New Testament all the important readings will be given according to the evidence of the great textual critics, Griesbach, Lachmann, Tischendorf, Tregelles, Alford, Westcott and Hort, and the Revisers' Greek Text.

3. There are no words in Hebrew or Greek characters to burden or hinder the English reader. But a complete system of Transliteration, generally approved by Oriental Scholars (see p. x), will enable him readily to put back all such words into the Original characters with ease and accuracy. The Hebrew words are given not in the Inflection found in the Text, but in the root-form in which they will be looked for in Lexicons.

4. All important emendations are given—
   (a) Whether required by the above readings,
   (b) Or demanded for the sake of uniformity in translation,
   (c) Or, where the current renderings are inadequate and open to amendment³: not otherwise, or merely for the sake of giving an alternative.

5. The facts and phenomena treasured up in the Massorah are for the first time presented in connection with the A. V.² (see Ap. 30).

6. All Figures of Speech are noted, and their bearing on interpretation¹. These are the Holy Spirit's own markings, calling attention to what is emphatic, and worthy of our deepest attention (see Ap. 6).

7. The spiritual significance of Numbers is pointed out¹ (see Ap. 10).

8. The principal synonymous words in the Original are distinguished, especially those bearing on sin, atonement, and psychology.

9. The first occurrences of important words and expressions are duly noted¹.

10. The most recent Archaeological discoveries in Assyria, Egypt, &c., are included.

11. Eastern manners and customs are explained, as they throw light on the Scriptures.

12. The meanings of Proper Names of persons or places are given where these are suggestive.

13. Money and Coins, Weights and Measures, are referred in every case to Appendix 51.

14. Chronology is dealt with on Biblical lines, which proceed on durations rather than dates. These are adhered to as given in the Bible itself, and are not adapted or made to conform to any system. This transforms a dry study into a subject of deepest interest. The various Charts and Tables are given in Appendix 50.

15. The Structures of the Books are given, and all their parts: which are the surest guide to their interpretation, and the strongest proof of their inspiration¹. (See p. viii.)

² These were inaccessible to the past generation of Commentators and Translators.
³ By copying out the A. V., and substituting these amended renderings, the student may make his own new Revised Version.
PREFACE.

The marginal notes do not record every possible Reading or Emendation, as these would only load the pages with a mass of needless matter. Only those new readings and renderings are given which will remove difficulties from the Text, enlighten the eyes, inform the mind, affect the conscience, instruct the head, and influence the life.

Several of the above points are, for the first time, placed within the reach of the ordinary English reader.

THE STRUCTURES

referred to on p. vii make The Companion Bible an unique edition, and require a special notice.

They give, not a mere Analysis evolved from the Text by human ingenuity, but a Symmetrical Exhibition of the Word itself, which may be discerned by the humblest reader of the Sacred Text, and seen to be one of the most important evidences of the Divine Inspiration of its words.

For these Structures constitute a remarkable phenomenon peculiar to Divine Revelation; and are not found outside it in any other form of known literature.

This distinguishing feature is caused by the repetition of subjects which reappear, either in alternation or introversion, or a combination of both in many divers manners.

This repetition is called “Correspondence,” which may be by way of similarity or contrast; synthetic or antithetic.

The subjects of the various Members are indicated by letters, which are quite arbitrary and are used only for conveniences. The subject of one Member is marked by a letter in Roman type, while the repetition of it is marked by the same letter in Italic type. These are always in line (vertically), one with the other.

When the alphabet is exhausted, it is repeated, as often as may be necessary.

The Structure of the whole book is given at the commencement of each book; and all the succeeding Structures are the expansion of this.

Each Structure is referred back to the page containing the larger Member, of which it is an expansion or development.

The large Members forming a telescopic view of the whole book are thus expanded, divided, and subdivided, until chapters and paragraphs, and even verses and sentences, are seen to form part of a wondrous whole, giving a microscopic view of its manifold details, and showing forth the fact, that while the works of the Lord are great and perfect, the Word of the Lord is the greatest of His works, and is “perfect” also (Psalm 19. 7).

THE APPENDIXES

contain a large amount of information bearing on the various questions raised by the phenomena of the Sacred Text.

Those issued with each of the six volumes pertain principally to such volumes. But in this complete Edition they are all placed together at the end.

The order of the Appendixes is determined for the most part by the order in which the subjects are raised in the Text of the Bible.

1 It is this repetition which has made possible the system of Bible-marking known by some as “Railways.”
EXPLANATIONS.

REFERENCES. Where there is no name of a book in the margin, the reference is always to the same book, and all the References in the margin are to The Companion Bible, not to any Edition of the A. V., or R. V.

SUPERIOR FIGURES, in the Text, always refer to the verse, so numbered, in the same chapter.

The repetition of the same subject in a note is sometimes indicated by its initial (capital) letter.

The figures in the left-hand margin relate to two separate matters. Those in brackets, with a "p," refer to the number of the page on which the corresponding letter and member will be found. The number of the page so indicated holds good until another page number is given.

The other figures refer to the B.C. dates.

THE TRANSLITERATION OF HEBREW WORDS.

With the aid of the following Table, any English reader who knows the Hebrew alphabet can put back the English letters into the Hebrew characters, by noting the exact equivalents:

The six consonants marked with an asterisk (*) have a dot (Dagesh) within them, when placed at the beginning of a word; but not when they are situated in any other part of the word (except when the letter in question is to be doubled, in which case it is doubled in the English).

As an example of the application of the above principles, the following is the first verse in the Hebrew Bible, the Hebrew being read from right to left:

Bere'shith bar'a 'elohim eth hashshámayim ve'eth ha'rez.

All Hebrew words are given, not in the Inflection which occurs in the Text, but in the root-form which will be looked for in the Lexicon.

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES,

CALLED

0. FIRST

IN the beginning "God" created the heaven and the earth.

2. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep.

And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3. And God said, "Let there be light:" and there was light.

4. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

And God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

6. And God said, "Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters." And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8. And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

2. And. Note the Fig. Polysyndeton (Ap. 6), by which the correct meaning of the first 6 verses is better understood.

God. Heb. Elohim, pl. First occurrence connects it with creation, and denotes, by usage, the Creator in relation to His creatures. See Ap. 4. The Heb. term Elohim places the emphasis, and gives pause, on "God" as being Himself the great worker, separating the Worker from His work.

which, in the 34 verses of this Introduction, each sentence has the important word "God" in v. 1. is carried like a lamp through the whole of this Introduction (1. — 2: 2).

-2. The Spirit of God moved (see Ap. 8) = the beginning of "the heavens and earth which are now" (2 Pet. 3: 7). It is even so in the New Creation. The Spirit moves (John 3: 3-5. Rom. 8: 9, 14. Gal. 4: 29. 2 Cor. 5: 17, 18).

3. God said (occurs 10 times in Introduction). This begins each day: 3rd day twice; 6th day four times. The second act is also of God (1 Pet. 1: 22-25). Ap. 5.

be light = become light (as in v. 2), not the verb "to be". Light not located till 4th day. was = became, as in v. 2. It is even so in the New Creation: His Word enters and gives light (Ps. 119: 134. 2 Cor. 4: 6, 4. 5). Occurs 2 times in Introduction. Ap. 5.

-5. God made beautiful (Ecc. 3: 11). divided. Occurs twice. Ap. 5. Each day's work called "good", except the 2nd, because nothing created on that day: only division made.

-7. first day = day one. The word "day" may refer to a prolonged period when used without any qualifying words. But when qualified with a numeral (cardinal or ordinal) it is defined and limited by it to a day of 24 hours. It is further limited here by its boundaries "evening and morning", as well as by the 7th day. Cp. Ex. 20: 9, 11. See Ap. 11.

8 Heaven = Heb. high, lofty.
9 And God said, “Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear.” and it was so.
10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called He Seas: and God saw that it was good.
11 And God said, “Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth;” and it was so.
12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
13 And the third day morning and evening were the third day.
14 And God said, “Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:
15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth;” and it was so.
16 And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: He made the stars also.
17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,
18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.
19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.
20 And God said, “Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.”
21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
22 And God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.”
23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.
24 And God said, “Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind;” and it was so.
25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
26 And God said, “Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.”
27 So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He them; male and female created He them.
28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, “Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.”
1. 29.

29 And God said, "Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And God saw every thing that He had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

2 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had made; and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it He had rested from all His work which God created and made.

(p. 5)

4 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens.

5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew:

a. for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

b. But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the earth.

c. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

d. And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there He put the man whom He had formed.

e. And out of the ground made the Lord God to bring every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

D

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the 6 But and mist = no mist = to water. The last of two or three negatives not necessary. Must be supplied by Fig. Ellipsis (Ap. 6. ili. 9), as in Deut. 33. 6. 1 Sam. 2. 3. Ps. 9. 18; 38. 1; 75. 5. Prov. 24. 12; 25. 27. Isa. 98. 18. &c.

10 river = the Persian Gulf, known as much to the Accedians, in which the river became four mouths (or heads) at spots where they flowed into the source which received and fed them.
2. 10. GENESIS. 3. 1.

The name of the first is of Pison, the name of the second is of Gihon, the name of the third is of Hiddekel, the name of the fourth is of Euphrates. And the Lord God took the man and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

18 And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, “Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat;” But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: For in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

20 And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an helper meet for him.

21 And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

22 And the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.

23 And Adam said, “This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.”

24 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

F 3 Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said unto the woman, 11 Pison = the river W. of the Euphrates, called Pallukat in reign of Nabonidos, last king of Babylon, or the Pallakopas Canal. compasseth. The Pallukat or Psion encircled the N. borders of the great sandy desert which stretched toward to the mountain chains of Midian and Sinai. Havilah = the region of Sand. Hiddekel = the great river.

12 onyx. Heb. she'hom, identified with Assy. sumtu, a gemstone.

13 Gihon = the river E. of the Tigris. The modern Kerkhah, and ancient Koospeus, rising in the mountains of the Kassian, Kas has been confused with the Heb. Cush. Cush is not the African Cush or Ethiopia, but the Accadian Kas.

14 Hiddekel = Accadian for the Tigris, which was Idiplt, or Idiqlat = “the encircling,” Assyria. Heb. Haskhur (Asshur). This is not Assyria, but the city of Assur, the primitive capital of Assyria which lay E. of the W. of the Tigris.

Euphrates. Heb. pe'rahîth. The Greek Euphrates comes from the old Persian Ufrato, and this from Pura or Paratu = the river. Sometimes Pura-num = the great river.

16 the man. Heb. hu’âdhâm (with art.) = the man Adam. See Ap. 14. i. freely. Heb. “Eating that mayest eat.” Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6) for emphasis, (see note on 26. 28). Here rightly marked by “freely”. Toned down by Eve in ch. 3. 3.

17 tree. Note the three trees: “Knowledge” (2. 9); man’s Ruin; “the Cross” (Acts 10. 39; 5. 36; 1 Pet. 2. 24), man’s Redemption; “the Tree of Life” (2. 9. Rev. 2. 7; 22. 2), man’s Regeneration.

good and evil. See on “knowledge”, v. 5. Obedience proving what was “good” (Deut. 6. 24), disobedience revealing what was “evil” (Rom. 3. 20).

in the day = when. See Ap. 18. Cp. 2. 4. 1 Kings 2. 17. Ezek. 36. 35, &c.

18 shall surely die. Heb. “lying thou shalt die”. Fig. Polyptoton, for emph. (Ap. 6). Cp. 30. 7; 26. 11. Ex. 19. 12; 21. 12, 14, 16, 17; 31. 14, 15. Judg. 13. 25; 15. 13; 21. 5. 1 Sam. 14. 39, 44; 22. 16. 18. 17. 42. 2 Kings 1. 4, 6, 10; 8. 10. Jer. 26. 8, 19; 38. 16. Ezek. 3. 18; 18. 13; 38. 8, 14. See note on ch. 26. 28 for the emphasis of this Figure exhibited in other ways; and cp. esp. note on Num. 26. 43. Here marked by the word “surely,” as in v. 16 by the word “freely.” This certainty changed by Eve in 3. 3 into a contingency.

19 meet = as his counterpart.

19 ground: giving the details of 1. 24.

24 Therefore, &c., quoted Matt. 19. 5, &c. 1 Cor. 6. 16. Eph. 5. 31.

25 naked. Heb. 'arâm, a Homonym. The same spelling as word rendered “subtil” in 3. 1.

"Yea, hath God said, 'Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?'"

2. And the woman said unto the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3. But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, 'Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.'"

4. And the serpent said unto the woman, "Ye shall not surely die:

5. For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, 'knowing good and evil.'"

6. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was to pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.

7. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked;

8. And they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

9. And the Lord God called unto Adam, and said unto him, "Where art thou?"

10. And he said, I heard Thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11. And He said, "Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?"

12. And the man said, "The woman whom Thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat."

13. And the Lord God said unto the woman, "What is this that thou hast done?" And the woman said, "The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat."

14. And the Lord God said unto the serpent, "Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life.

15. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her Seed; 'She shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise His heel.'

16. Unto the woman He said, "I will greatly multiply the pain of child-bearing with woman."

Not allegory: but literal history, emphasised by Figures of Speech.

Yes, hath God said — Can it be that God hath said. Not a Q., but Figure Erotesis (Ap. 6) for emph. Opposition to God's Word is Satan's sphere of activity. This is Satan's first utterance in Scripture. God — Elohim. 2 may eat. Misquoted from 2.16 by not repeating the emphatic Figure Polypetion (Ap. 8), and thus omitting the emph. "freely".

3 neither shall ye touch it. This sentence is added. Cp. 2.16, 17.

lest ye die. Misquoted from 2.16, 17, by not repeating the emphatic Figure Polypetion (Ap. 8), thus changing the emph. preserved in the word "surely".

4 Ye shall not surely die — Satan's second utterance. Contradiction of God's Word in 2.17. This has become the foundation of Spiritism and Traditional belief as to death. See note on 2.17.

5 ye shall be as gods — be as God, Heb. Elohim. This is the foundation of Satan's second lie: "The immortality of God in man."

6 good for food. See 1 John 2.16, "Lust of the flesh". Cp. Matt. 4.3.

7 pleasant to the eyes. See 1 John 2.16, "Lust of the eyes". Cp. Matt. 4.5.

gave. See 1 Tim. 2.14.

7 knew. Fig. Metonymy (of Subj.) Ap. 6. They knew before, but their knowledge now received a new meaning. Adam becomes "naked" by losing something of Elohim's glorious likeness. Rom. 8.5 may refer to this.

fig leaves. The man-made covering contrasted, in the structure, with the God-made clothing (v. 21).

aprons. Heb. word occurs only here.

8 voice = sound. (Ecc. 7.6 - cracking.) Here - footsteps, as in 2 Sam. 5.24. 1 Kings 14.6. 2 Kings 6.32.

9 Where art thou? The 1st Q. in O.T. comes from God to the sinner. Cp. 1st Q. in N.T. of the seeking sinner, "Where is He?" (Matt. 2.2).

11 blame to Jehovah as well as to his wife. 13 The serpent. See note on v. 1 and Ap. 19; and cp. 2 Cor. 11.5, 14.

13 said. God asks the serpent no question. There is no parley. Sentence at once pronounced. See Ap. 19. The words imply the utmost humiliation, as in Ps. 44.22. dust, &c. Fig. of utter defeat, as in Ps. 72.9. See Ap. 19.

15 lit. at the root of Malachi. the verb in sing. masc. shows that zer'a (seed) is here to be taken in singular, with Sept., i.e. Christ: see note on Gen. 17.7; 21.12, and Gal. 3.16. head, &c. heel. See Ap. 19.

No more literal than 1 Cor. 11.8, or Ps. 41.9, and John 18.18. They denote the temporary sufferings of the Seed, and the complete destruction of Satan and his works (Heb. 2.14. 1 John 3.8). Heel = lower part. Head = vital part. This is the first great promise and prophecy. Note its position in the centre of Scripture and the message.

17 And unto Adam He said, "Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, 'Thou shalt not eat of it:' " cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of all the days of thy life; 18 thorns also and thistles shalt thou bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; 19 in the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken; for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return."

20 And Adam called his wife's name "Eve;" because she was the mother of all living.

21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did the Lord God make coats of skins, and clothed them.

22 And the Lord God said, "Behold, the man is become as one of Us, to know good and evil; and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever:" 23 Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken. 24 So He drove out the man; and He placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

4 And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, "I have gotten a man from the Lord." 2 And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. 3 And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the Lord; 4 and Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. 5 And the Lord had respect unto Abel and to his offering: 6 But unto Cain and to his offering He had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell. 7 And the Lord said unto Cain, "Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?"

3 in process of time. Heb. at [the] end of days.

20 Eve = Heb. Chavvah = Life, Life-spring. Showing that he believed God. The name "Eve" occ. 4 times: here; 4:1; 2 Cor. 11:3; and 1 Tim. 2:13.

7 If thou dost well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou dost not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

9 And the Lord said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And He said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto Me from the ground.

11 And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand;

12 When thou liestest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee his strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the Lord, My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, Thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from Thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the Lord said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the Lord set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

16 And Cain went out from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Enoch; and he built a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch.

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat Lamech.

19 And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Tubal-cain: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ.

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-cain, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice; Ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: For I have slain a man to my wounding, And a young man to my hurt.

24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, Truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

25 And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: "For God," said she, "hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew."

26 And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos: then...
5 This is the Book of the Generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made He him;
2 Male and female created He them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.
3 And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Enoch;
4 And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters;
5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died.
6 And Seth lived an hundred and fifty years, and begat Enos:
7 And Seth lived after he begat Enos eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters:
8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.
9 And Enos lived ninety years, and begat Cainan:
10 And Enos lived after he begat Cainan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters:
11 And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years: and he died.
12 And Cainan lived seventy years, and begat Mahalaleel:
13 And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters:
14 And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.
15 And Mahalaleel lived sixty and five years, and begat Jared:
16 And Mahalaleel lived after he begat Jared eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters:
17 And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.
18 And Jared lived an hundred sixty and two years, and he begat Enoch:
19 And Jared lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:
20 And all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty and two years: and he died.
21 And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah:
22 And Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:
23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years:
24 And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.
25 And Methuselah lived an hundred eighty and seven years, and begat Lamech:
26 And Methuselah lived after he begat Lamech seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters:
27 And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years: and he died.
28 And Lamech lived an hundred eighty and two years, and begat a son:
29 And he called his name Noah, saying, "This same shall comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD hath cursed."
30 And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters:
31 And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven years: and he died.
32 And Noah was five hundred years old: and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

6 And it came to pass, when ^men began to multiply upon the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

3 And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he is also flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children unto them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

5 And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And it repented the LORD that He had made man on the earth, and it grieveth Him at His heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth Me that I have made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before Me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make of it. The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.
A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

And, behold, I, even I, will bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

But with thee will I establish My covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; for them shall be male and female.

Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee and for them.

Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

And the Lord said unto Noah, "Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thou hast I seen righteous before Me in this generation.

Of every clean shalt thou bring to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth."

And Noah did according unto all that the Lord commanded him.

And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;
19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man;

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

8 And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged;

2 The fountains also of the deep and the windows of the heavens were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained;

3 And the waters returned from the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made:

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground;

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark;

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf pluckt off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 And it came to pass in the sixth hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the seventh and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

20 altar. The first mentioned in Scripture.

15 God spake unto Noah, saying,

16 "Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth."

18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 And Noah builded an altar unto the Lord; and took of every clean beast, and of (p. 11) every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And the Lord smelled a sweet savour; and the Lord said in His heart, "I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake: for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done. 22 While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease."

9 And God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3 Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things.

4 But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man.

6 Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made He man.

7 And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply: bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.”

8 And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 "And I, behold, I establish My covenant with you, and with your seed after you; 10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth. 11 And I will establish My covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.”

12 And I God said, “This is the token of the covenant which I make between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations: 13 I do set My bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between Me and the earth; 14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud: 15 And I will remember My covenant, which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the sky; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between Me and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.”

18 And the sons of Noah, that went forth of the ark, were Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the sons of Noah: and of them was the whole earth overspread.

20 And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard:

21 And he drank of the wine, and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.

23 And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him.

25 And he said, "Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren."

26 And he said, "Blessed be the LORD God of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant."

27 God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant."

28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

And the whole °earth was of one "language, and of one speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed °from the east, that they found a plain in the land of °Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And they "said one to another, "Go to, let us make brick, and °burn them thoroughly."

1 earth = people of the earth. Fig. Metonymy (of Subject). Ap. 8; °"earth" put for inhabitants.

2 from the east = eastward.

3 said. Sin with their tongues punished in the same manner (v. 7).

burn, &c. Heb. °brick bricks, and burn a burning.

Fig. Polyptoton. Ap. 6, emphasising their determination. Burning in fire, not waiting for sun. See note on °"brick-kiln", 2 Sam. 12. 5.
11. 3. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.
4. And they said, "Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top "may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth."

5 And the LORD * came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

6 And the LORD said, "Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.
7 "Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech."

8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.
9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

26 And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 Now these are THE GENERATIONS OF TERAH: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot.
28 And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees.
29 And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah.
30 But Sarai was barren; she had no child.
31 And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan; and they came unto Haran, and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.

19 2 Now the Lord had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:

And I will make thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:

And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.'

4 So Abram departed, as the Lord had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all the substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan they came.

6 And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Sichem, unto the plain of Moreh. (And the Canaanite was then in the land.)

And the Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there built he an altar unto the Lord, who appeared unto him.

8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, having Bethel on the west, and Hai on the east: and there he built an altar unto the Lord, and called upon the name of the Lord.

9 And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

10 And there was a famine in the land: and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.
11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, “Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:
12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, ‘This is his wife’: and they will slay me, but they will save thee alive.
13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and ‘my soul’ shall live because of thee.”
14 And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she was very fair.
15 The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s house.
16 And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels.
17 And the Lord plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram’s wife.
18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, “What is this that thou hast done unto me? Why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?
19 Why saidst thou, ‘She is my sister’? so I might have taken her to me for wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.”
20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, his wife, and all that he had.

13 And Abram went up out of Egypt; and he called his wife Sarai, and his name; and Lot with him, unto the south.
2 And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.
3 And he went out, when he had made an end of his journey, from the south even to Bethel, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Hai;
4 Unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the Lord.
5 And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.
6 And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.
7 And there was a strife between the herdmen of Abram’s cattle and the herdmen of Lot’s cattle: (and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land).
8 And Abram said unto Lot, “Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen: for ‘I am a Saran’; separate thyself from me.
9 ‘Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if ‘thou wilt take’ the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if ‘thou depart’ to the right hand, then I will go to the left.”
10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere, before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar.
11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.
12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom.
13 (But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the LORD exceedingly.)

14 And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward:

15 For all the land which thou seest, will I give it to thee, and to thy seed for ever.

16 And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.

18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

14 And it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tiriel king of nations;

2 That these made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar.

3 All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea.

4 Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him, and smote the Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in Shaveh Kiriathaim.

6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto El-paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned, and came to En-mishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that dwelt in Hazezon-tamar.

8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (the same is Zoar;) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim;

9 With Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of slmepeits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled to the mountain.

11 And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took Lot, Abram’s brother’s son, who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

13 And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: and these were confederate with Abram.

14.1 came to pass in the days of. Heb. ’in yebi: occurs 6 times (see Ap. 10); always marks a time of trouble ending in blessing. Cp. Ruth 1.1, Isa. 7.1, Jer. 1.3, Est. 1.1, 2 Sam. 21.1 (cp. v. 14), in the days. Dated in the reign of a king of Babylon: the united forces led by a king of Elam. The Assyrian text says that Elam had conquered and overrun Babylonia. Amraphel reigned in N. (Shinar); Eri-Aku (Arioch), an Elamite prince, in the S. at Larsa (Ellasar). All the names here are found on one tablet.

15 Amraphel—Khammurabi of the Tablets. Ammurapi is Amraphel transcribed.

Arioch—Eri-aiku of the Tablets, in which it is found that his mother was sister to Chedorlaomer.

Chedorlaomer = the Kurud-Laghuugal of the Tablets.

Tidal—The Tadphila of the Tablets.

nations. The Tablet says he assembled the Ummananda, or the barbarian tribes of the Kushean mountains, and that he “did evil” to the land of Bel. The Assyrian tablets are therefore shown to be correct by their agreement with Genesis.

13 Hebrew. So called from ’Eber (11.14. Cp. 10.21; 18.14; 41.12. Num. 24.24), from ’abur, “to pass on” = “he who passed over from beyond” (Gr. hyper), i.e. beyond the Euphrates (Josh. 24.2). he: emph. in contrast with Lot. these: emph, = these also having a covenant with Abram. See 18.17.
14 And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighty-three, and pursued them unto Damascus.
15 And he divided himself against them, and they and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.
16 And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shaveh, which is the king's dale.

(18 And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the Most High God.)

19 And he blessed him, and said, "Blessed be Abram of the Most High God, the possessor of heaven and earth.
20 And blessed be the Most High God, Which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand." And he gave him tithes of all.
21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, "Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself.
22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted up mine hand unto the LORD, the Most High God, the possessor of heaven and earth.
23 That I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take anything that is thine, lest thou shouldst say, 'I have made Abram rich.'
24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mame; let them take their portion.

15 After these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in a vision, saying, "Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward."

2 And Abram said, "LORD God, what wilt Thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?"
3 And Abram said, "Behold, to me Thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir."

4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, "This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.
5 And He brought him forth abroad, and said, "Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them;" and He said unto him, "So shall thy seed be."

6 And he believed in the LORD; and He counted it to him for righteousness.

8 And he said, "Lord God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?"

9 And He said unto him, "Take Me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon."

10 And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not.

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcases, Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an angel of the Lord stood before him, and a smoking furnace and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.

13 In the same day Jehovah made a covenant with Abram, saying, "Unto thy seed shall I give this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates:

14 The Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites,

15 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims,

16 And the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."

16 Now Sarai Abram's wife bare him no children: and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar.

2 And Sarai said unto Abram, "Behold now, the Lord hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her." And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

4 And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress despised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, "My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the Lord judge between me and thee."

6 But Abram said unto Sarai, "Behold, thy maid is in thy hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee."

7. And He said unto him, "I am Jehovah, the Lord God, who brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it."

8 And he said, "Lord God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?"

9 And He said unto him, "Take Me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon."

10 And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not.

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcases, Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an angel of the Lord stood before him, and a smoking furnace and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.

13 In the same day Jehovah made a covenant with Abram, saying, "Unto thy seed shall I give this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates:

14 The Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites,

15 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims,

16 And the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."

16 Now Sarai Abram's wife bare him no children: and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar.

2 And Sarai said unto Abram, "Behold now, the Lord hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her." And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

4 And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress despised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, "My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the Lord judge between me and thee."

6 But Abram said unto Sarai, "Behold, thy maid is in thy hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee."

Non-circumcision was the “reproach” of Egypt (Josh. 5. 9).
11 And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant which I have made between Me and you.

12 And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: that my covenant may be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken My covenant.

15 And God said unto Abraham, “As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be.

16 And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her: yea, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of peoples shall be of her.”

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, “Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? And shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?”

18 And Abraham said unto God, “O that Ishmael might live before Thee!”

19 And God said, “Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

20 And as for Ishmael, “I have heard thee; Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall be born of him, and I will make him a great nation.

21 But My covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year.”

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

23 And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham’s house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as God had said unto him.

24 And Abraham was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son.

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

18 And the Lord appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day;

2 And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, “My Lord, if now I have found favour in Thy sight, pass not away, I pray Thee, from Thy servant:

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and refresh ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: therefore are ye come to your servant.” And they said, “So do, as thou hast said.”

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, "Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it; and make cakes upon the hearth."

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

9 And they said unto him, "Where is Sarah thy wife?" And he said, "A Behold, in the tent."

10 And He said, "I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son." And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, "After this manner shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?"

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, "O Abraham! Why did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which is old?"

14 "Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son."

15 Then Sarah denied, saying, "I laughed not;" for she was afraid. And He said, "Nay; but thou didst laugh."

16 And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the LORD said, "Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do; 18 knowing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?"

19 For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham which hath spoken of him."

20 And the LORD said, "Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous;

21 "I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto Me; and if not, "I will know."

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the LORD.

23 And Abraham drew near, and said, "Wilt Thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?"

24 "Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt Thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?"

25 That be far from Thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from Thee: Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

26 And the LORD said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then will I spare all the place for their sakes."

27 And Abraham answered and said, "Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto ⁰ the ⁰ LORD*, which am but ⁰ dust and ashes;

28 Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt Thou destroy all the city for lack of five?" And He said, "If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it."

29 And he spake unto Him, "Thee knoweth, and will speak: Peradventure there shall be found there." And He said, "I will not do it for forty's sake."

30 And he said unto Him, "And let not the ⁰ LORD be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there." And He said, "I will not destroy it for ten's sake."

32 And he said, "Oh let not the ⁰ LORD be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there." And He said, "I will not destroy it for ten's sake."

33 And the LORD went His way, as soon as he had commingled with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

19 And there came two angels to ⁰ Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the ⁰ gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

2 And he said, "Peradventure, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways." And they said, "Nay; but we will abide in the street all night."

3 And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house: and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, "Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may ⁰ know them."

6 And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

7 And said, "I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 Behold now, I have two daughters which have not ⁰ known ⁰ man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as ⁰ is good in your eyes; only unto these ⁰ men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my ⁰ roof."

9 And they said, "Stand back." And they said again, "This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a ⁰ judge: now will we deal ⁰ worse with thee, than with them." And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to ⁰ break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with ⁰ blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 And the men said unto Lot, "Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:

13 For we ⁰ will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the ⁰ face of the LORD; and ⁰ the LORD hath sent us to destroy it."

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said, "Up, get you out of this place; for ⁰ the LORD will destroy this city." But he seemed as "one that mocked unto his sons in law.

15 And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, "Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the "iniquity of the city."

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, "Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed."

18 And Lot said unto them, "Oh, not so, my LORD: 19 Behold now, Thy servant hath found grace in Thy sight, and Thou hast magnified Thy mercy, which Thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die: 20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto; and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither; (is it not a little one?) and 'my soul shall live."

21 And He said unto him, "See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for which thou hast spoken. 22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither." Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from 'the LORD out of heaven;

25 And He overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

26 But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

27 And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where he stood before 'the LORD:

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, 'lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that He remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot dwelt.

30 And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the firstborn said unto the younger, "Our father is old, and there is not a 'man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father."

one that mocked—talked nonsense. He had looked, and pitched his tent toward Sodom, had dwelt and made his home there, and married his daughters, and sat in its gate as a judge. No wonder he seemed as one that mocked. He chose Sodom (18, 11), and lingered in the place of his choice (v. 10). See note, 18.7.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night; and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, or when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, "Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father."

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also; and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.
And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name "Moab:; the same is the father of the Moabites unto this day.

And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name "Ben-ammi:; the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.

And Abraham journeyed from thence toward the south country, and dwelled between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

And Abraham  said of Sarah his wife, "  is my sister:"

and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.

3 But "God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, " Behold, thou hast done a wicked thing; for thou hast taken a wife, for whom I have not given thee."  Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, "I am the LORD, wilt Thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said I am not unto thee, "  is my sister?" and Abimelech heard the voice of Sarah, and said, "I am thy brother, in the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this."  And 3 said unto him in a dream, " Yea,  know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for  also withheld thee from sinning against Me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine.

And Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, " What hast thou done unto me? and what have I done unto thee? and thou hast brought an evil thing upon me by this thing.

And yet indeed she is my sister;  is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

And it came to pass, when  God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, ' This is thy kindness, which thou shalt shew unto me: at every place whither we shall come, say of me, '  is my brother.' "  "

And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and servants, and maidservants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

And Abimelech said, " Behold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee."  And unto Sarah he said, " Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold,  is to thee a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other;" thus she was reproved.

21 And the LORD visited Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as He had spoken.

2 For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac.

4 And when Isaac was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 And Isaac was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

6 And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me.

7 And she said, "Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children? for I have born him a son in his old age."

8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne unto Abraham, mocking.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, "Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir even with my son, Isaac."

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son.

12 And God said unto Abraham, "Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for in Isaac shall thy seed be called."

13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a nation, because he is thy seed."

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bow-shot: for she said, "Let me not see the death of the child." And she sat over against him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, "What ailed thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is."

12 Isaac . . . thy seed.  Here zôra is in the singular sense, because of the word "Isaac," and because of the sing. verb "it shall be called." Zôra is a collective noun (like Eng. "sheep"), but the context must determine whether it is singular or plural. It is to this verse Gal. 3. 14 refers; but not to 12. 7, where it is indefinite; or 17. 7 where the verb and pronoun show it is plural. See note there, and on Gal. 3. 16; and cp. Rom. 9. 7.  Heb. 11. 18.

"Thy seed" is therefore "Christ." The difference of the 90 years come in here: 490 to the Exodus (12. 40) from Gen. 12. 4, when Abraham was 75: 25 thence to Isaac's birth: and now, 5 to his recognition as the seed = 90 years.

22 And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech and Phichol the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, "God is with thee in all that thou doest:
23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the 'kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.'

26 And Abimelech said, "I 'wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard '3 of it, but to day.'

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; and 'both of them 'made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, "What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?"

30 And he said, "For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he called that place Beer-sheba; because there they sware of both them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

33 And Abraham planted a 'grob in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of 'the LORD, 'the everlasting GOD.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, "Abraham, Abraham." And he said, "Here am I.

12 And He said, "Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from Me."

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and beheld behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh: as it is said to this day, "In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen."

15 And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time,

16 And said, "By Myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withhold thy son, thine only son:

17 That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies;

18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed My voice."

19 So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

20 And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, "Behold, Milcah hath also born children unto thy brother Nahor:

21 Huz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, 22 And Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel."

23 And Bethuel begat Rebekah: these eight Milcah did bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

1 Sarah. The only woman whose age is mentioned in the Bible. In 22. 22 Rebekah is mentioned; one sun rising before the other sets.

23 And Sarah was an hundred and seven and twenty years old: these were the years of the life of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba; the same
And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spake unto the sons of Heth, saying, 4. "O my children of Heth, I bury my dead out of my sight; give me a possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight." 5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him, 6. "Hear us, my lord: thou art a mighty prince among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead; none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead." 7 And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth. 8 And he communed with them, saying, "If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight; hear me, and intreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar, 9. That he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field; for as much as money as it is worth he shall give it me for a possession of a buryingplace amongst you." 10 And Ephron dwelt among the children of Heth: and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, even of all that went in at the gate of his city, saying; 11. "Nay, my lord, hear me: the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee: in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead." 12 And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land. 13 And he spake unto Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, "But if thou wilt give it, I pray thee, hear me: I will give thee money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there." 14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying unto him, 15. "My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver: what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead." 16. And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant. 17 And the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made sure 18 Unto Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gate of his city. 19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan.
And he said, "O Lord, God of my master Abraham, I pray Thee, send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham. Behold, 3 stand here by the 4 well of water; and the daughters of the 5 men of the city 6 come out to draw water: And let it come to pass, 8 before he 9 done speaking, that, 10 behold, Rebekah came out, who was 11 born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder. And the damsel was very fair to look upon, a 12 virgin, neither had any 13 man known her: and she went down to the 14 well, and filled her pitcher, and came up. And the servant ran to meet her, and said, 'Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.' And she said, 'Drink, my lord;' and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink. And when she had done giving him drink, she said, 'I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.' And she hastened and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels. And she ran and filled the pitcher, and ran, and put it on the camels. And the servant likewise said to her, 'Drink, and I will tells thee of all this things, which the Lord hath wrought for Abraham.' And she quickly let down her pitcher from her hand, and said, 'The Lord hath shewed his good kindness to thee; tell me, I pray thee, of all this things, and of all that thou hast done for Abraham.' She said, 'These things he doeth toward me, because I have 14 called upon Jehovah, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, to shew me kindness.' She said, 'I am the daughter.

of 18 Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto 3 Nahor." 25 She said moreover unto him, "We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in."
26 And the 3 man bowed down his head, and worshipped 4 the LORD.
27 And he said, "Blessed be 7 the LORD God of my master Abraham, Who hath not left destitute my master of His mercy and His truth: 5 being in the way, 7 the LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren."
28 And the damsels ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.
29 And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was 5 Laban: and Laban ran out unto the 26 man, unto the 13 well.
30 And it came to pass, 0 when he saw the 22 camels and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, "Thus spake the 26 man unto me;" that he came unto the 26 man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the 13 well.
31 And 5 he said, "Come in, thou blessed of 7 the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for 3 have prepared the house, and room for the camels."
32 And the 26 man came into the house; and 0 he ungirded his camels, and gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the 5 men's feet that were with him.
33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, "I will not eat, until I have told mine errand." And he said, "Speak on."
34 And he said, "3 am Abraham's servant.
35 And 7 the LORD hath blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and He hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses.
36 And Sarah my master's wife bare a son to my master when she was old: and unto him hath he given all that he hath.
37 And my master made me swear, saying, 'Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land 3 dwell:
38 But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.'
39 And I said unto my master, 'Peradventure the woman will not follow me.'
40 And he said unto me, 1 'The LORD, before Whom 0 I walk, will send His angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house:
41 Then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.'
42 And I came this day unto the 13 well, and 8 said,

45 And before 3 had done speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the 13 well, and drew water:
46 and I said unto her, 'Let me drink, I pray thee.'
47 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also:' so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.
48 And I asked her, and said, 'Whose daughter art thou?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him:' and I put the earring upon her 0 face, and the bracelets upon her hands.
49 And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, Which had 0 led me in the right way to take my master's brother's 0 daughter unto his son.

GENESIS.

52. (P. 33)

And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and s raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

And they rose up in the morning, and he said, "Send me away unto my master." And his brother and his mother said, "Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go." And he said unto them, "Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master." And they said, "We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth." And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, "Wilt thou go with this man?" And she said, "I will go." And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his man.

Abraham's servant took Rebekah and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

And Isaac came from the way of the well of Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the south country.

And Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, the camels were coming.

And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she alighted off the camel.

For she had said unto the servant, "What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us?" And the servant had said, "It is my master." therefore she took a vail, and covered herself.

And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done.

And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

25. 1

Then again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah.

And she bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

And Jokshan begat Sheba, and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leumims. And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

5 And Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac.

6 But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto the east country.

7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years.

8 Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people.

9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre;
12 Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham:

13 And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

14 And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

15 Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah:

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; twelve princes according to their nations.

17 And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven years; and he gave up the ghost and died; and was gathered unto his people.

18 And they dwelt from Havilah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria: and he died in the presence of all his brethren.

19 And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham begat Isaac:

20 And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to him, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan-aram, the sister to Laban the Syrian.

21 And Isaac intreated the Lord for his wife; for she was barren: and the Lord opened her womb, and Rebekah her wife conceived.

22 And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to enquire of the Lord.

23 And the Lord said unto her, Two nations are they in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger.

24 And when her days were fulfilled that she should be delivered, the twins were in her womb.

25 And the first came out red, all over like hairy flesh; and they called his name Esau:

26 And after that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was three-score years old when she bare them.

27 And the boys grew: and Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man, dwelling in tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, because he loved of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob.

29 And Jacob said, I pray thee, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: and Esau said, Art thou indeed my soul? sell me this day thy birthright.

30 And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright.

31 And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me?
25. 33. GENESIS.

33 And Jacob said, “Swear to me by the LORD, this day, and he sware unto him: and he said to the LORD 31 his 30 birthright unto Jacob.

34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; 32 and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau 33 despired his 30 birthright.

26 And there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto 3 Abelmelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar.

F

2 And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, 3 Go not down into Egypt; dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of:

3 Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for 4 unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father;

4 And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed;

5 Because that Abraham obeyed My 6 voice, and kept My 7 charge, My 8 statutes, and My 9 laws.

6 And Isaac dwelt in Gerar:

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, 8 She is my sister: 9 for he feared to say, 10 She is my wife; 11 lest, said he, 12 the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; 13 because she was fair to look upon.

8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was 14 sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, 15 Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saist thou, 16 She is my sister? 17 And Isaac said unto him, 18 Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And Abimelech said, 19 What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and thou shouldst have brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and 2 the LORD blessed him.

13 And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great:

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants, and the Philistines envied him.

15 For all the wells which his father’s servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for thou art much mightier than we.

17 And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he called 19 their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 And Isaac’s servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac’s herdmen, saying, “The water is ours;” and he called the name of the well 2 Eshek; because they strove with him.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it 2 Sitnah.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it 2 Rehoboth; and he said, “For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.”

23 And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, ‘3 am the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for 3 am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for My servant Abraham’s sake.’

25 And he builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Isaac’s servants digged a well.

26 Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the chief captain of his army.

27 And Isaac said unto them, “Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and have sent away from you?’

28 And they said, ‘We saw certainly that the LORD was with thee: and we said, ‘Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt thee and us, and let us make a covenant with thee;

29 That thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: 4 then art thou blessed of the LORD.’

30 And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and sware one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac’s servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, “We have found water.”

33 And he called it Shebah: therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba unto this day.

34 And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beer-lahith, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hitite:

35 Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah.

27 And it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, “My son;” and he said unto him, “Behold, here am I.”

2 And he said, “Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death:

3 Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and take me some venison;

4 And make me savoury meat, 5 such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my soul may bless thee before I die.”

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, 1 “Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying, 2 ‘Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death.
8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command thee.
9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth:
10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.
11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother,
"Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man:
12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing."
13 And his mother said unto him, "Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them."
14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.
15 And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son:
16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:
17 And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.
18 And he came unto his father, and said, "My father;" and he said, "Here am I; who art thou, my son?"
19 And Jacob said unto his father, "I am Esau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me."
20 And Isaac said unto his son, "How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son?"
And he said, "Because the LORD thy God brought it to me."
21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, "Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not."
22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau."
23 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him.
24 And he said, "Art thou my very son Esau?"
And he said, "I am."
25 And he said, "Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee." And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.
26 And his father Isaac said unto him,"Come near, now, and kiss me, my son."
27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his blessing, and he blessed him, and said, "See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed:
28 Therefore God giveth thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine:
29 Let peoples serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee."
30 And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarcely gone out from before Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.
31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, "Let my father arise, and eat of the venison which I have brought, and bless me."
32 And Isaac his father said unto him, "Who art thou?" And he said, "*I am thy son, thy firstborn Esau."
33 And Isaac trembled exceedingly, and said, "Who? where is he that hath taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yes, and he shall be blessed."
34 And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, "Bless me, even me also, O my father."
35 And he said, "Thy brother came with subtlety, and hath taken away my blessing."
36 And he said, "Is it not rightly named
27. 36. GENESIS.

"Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing." And he said, "Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?"

37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, "Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him; and what shall I do now unto thy son?"

38 And Esau said unto his father, "Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father." And Esau lifted up his voice, and wept.

And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, "Behold, thy dwelling shall be the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above; and by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have dominion, that I will shatter his yoke from off thy neck."

41 And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, "The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob."

42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, "Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth prepare himself, purpose to kill thee."

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother to Haran; and tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away; until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence; "why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?"

44 And Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, "what good shall my life do me?"

And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, "Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan."

5 And Isaac sent away Jacob: and he went to Padan-aram unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

7 And that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan-aram;

8 And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father;

9 Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham’s son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife.

10 And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward Haran.

11 And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took one of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

12 And he dreamed, and beheld a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

13 And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed;

14 And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

15 And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

16 And Jacob arose out of his sleep, and said, Surely the LORD is in this place; and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place Bethel: but the name of that city was Luz at the first.

20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21 So that I come again to my father’s house in peace; then shall the LORD be my God:

22 And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be to God’s house: and of all that Thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto Thee.”

29 Then Jacob went on his journey, and came into the land of the people of the east.

2 And he looked, and beheld a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well’s mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well’s mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well’s mouth in his place.

4 And Jacob said unto them, “My brethren, whence be ye?” And they said, “Of Haran are we.”

5 And he said unto them, “Know ye Laban the son of Nahor?” And they said, “We know him.”

6 And he said unto them, “Is he well?” And they said, “He is well: and, behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.”
7 And he said, "Lo, it is yet high day; neither is there time that the cattle should be gathered together; water ye the sheep, and go and feed them."
8 And they said, "We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep."
9 And while he yet spake with him, Rachel came with "her father's sheep: for she kept them.
10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

(p. 41)
And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, "Now will I praise the LORD; therefore she called his name Judah; and left bearing.

And when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister; and said unto Jacob, "Give me children, or else I die."
And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel: and he said, "Am I in God's stead, Who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?"
And she said, "Behold my maid Bilhah, go in unto her; and she shall bear upon my knees, that she may have children also by her."
And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid to wife: and Jacob went in unto her.

And Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a son.

And Rachel said, "God hath judged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son:" therefore called she his name Dan.

And Bilhah Rachel's maid conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son.

And Rachel said, "With wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed:" and she called his name Naphtali.

When Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife.

And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a son.

And Leah said, "A troop cometh," and she called his name Gad.

And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a second son.

And Leah said, "Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed:" and she called his name Asher.

And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes."
And she said unto her, "Is it a small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldst thou take away my son's mandrakes also?" And Rachel said, "Therefore shall he lie with thee to night for thy son's mandrakes."
And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, "Thou must come in unto me; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes."
And he lay with her that night.

And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son.

And Leah said, "God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maid to my husband:" and she called his name Issachar.

And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son.

And Leah said, "God hath ended me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons:" and she called his name Zebulun.

And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

And God remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and opened her womb.
28 And he said, “Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it.”
29 And he said unto him, “Thou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me.
30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude; and the LORD hath blessed me since my coming: and now when shall I provide mine own house also?”

And he said, “What shall I give thee?”

And Jacob said, “Thou shalt not give me any thing: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock.
32 I will pass through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and of such shall be my hire.
33 So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me.”

34 And Laban said, “Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.”
35 And he removed that day the he goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons.
36 And he set three days’ journey betwixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban’s flocks.
37 And Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chesnut tree; and piled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.
38 And he set the rods which he had piled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs where the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.
39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstraked, speckled, and spotted.
40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban’s cattle.
41 And it came to pass, whosoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.
42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feeble were Laban’s, and the stronger Jacob’s.
43 And the man increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, and maid servants, and menservants, and camels, and asses.

And he heard the words of Laban’s sons, saying, “Jacob hath taken away all that was our father’s; and of that which was our father’s hath he gotten all this glory.”

2 And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and, “Behold, it was not toward him as before.
3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, “Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee.”

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock.
5 And said unto them, “I see thy father’s countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father hath been with me.
6 And I am great, and I have served thy father’s.
7 And thy father hath deceived me, and changed my wages ten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me.
8 If he said thus, ‘The speckled shall be thy wages;’ then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, ‘The ringstraked shall be thy hire;’ then bare all the cattle ringstraked.
9 Thus God hath taken away the cattle of thy father, and given them to me.
10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled, and grisled.
11 And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, ‘Jacob’: And I said, ‘Here am I.’
12 And he said, ‘Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grisled: for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.
13 And am the GOD of Beth-el, where thou anointest the pillar, and where thou vowest a vow unto Me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.’

14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, “Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father’s house?
15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money.”
18 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, both of us, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels; and he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan. And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel stole the images that were her father's. And Jacob stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled. So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river; and set his face toward the mount Gilead. And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled. And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead. And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, "Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad." Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead. And Laban said to Jacob, "What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away images unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?" Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp? And hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? thou hast now done foolishly in so doing. It is in the power of my hand to do

34 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, "Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me. With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, 4 let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee." For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them. And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maid-servants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and set upon them. And Laban searched all the tent, but found them not. And she said to her father, "Let it not displeasure my lord that I cannot rise up before thee; for the custom of women is upon me." And he searched, but found not the images. And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, "What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me? Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both. This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten. That which was born of beasts I brought not unto thee; 3 bare the loss of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night. Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.
41 Thus have I been thirty-two years in thy house; I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and thou hast changed my wages ten times. 42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. God hath seen mine affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked thee yesternight. 43 And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, "These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born? 44 Now therefore come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou: and let it be for a witness between me and thee."

45 And Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar. 46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, "Gather stones!" and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there upon the heap. 47 And Laban called it "Jegar-sahadutha: but Jacob called it "Galeed.

48 And Laban said, "This heap is a witness between me and thee this day." Therefore was the name of it called Galeed;

49 And "Mizpah; for "he said, ""The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another. 50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; see, God is witness between me and thee."

51 And Laban said to Jacob, "Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee; 52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness; that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm. 53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge betwixt us." And Jacob swore by the fear of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.

32. 1, 2. JACOB'S VISION AT MAHANAIM.

32. 3—33. 17 (f. p. 32). THE RECONCILIATION OF ESAU (Introversion and Alternation).
8 And said, "If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape."

9 And Jacob said, "O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the Lord which saidst unto me, 'Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee."

10 "I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which Thou hast shewed unto Thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands.

11 Deliver me, I pray Thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for fear of him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children.

12 And Jacob said, 'I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.'"

13 And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a present for Esau his brother;

14 Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, and ten milk camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bullocks, twenty asses, and ten foals.

15 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, "Pass over before me, and put a space between me, and put a space between the droves."" And he commanded the foremost, saying, "When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, 'Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?'

16 Then thou shalt say, 'They be thy servants Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, 'beloved, also he is behind us.'"

17 And so commanded he the second and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, "On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him.

18 And say ye moreover, 'Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us.'" For he said, "I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me."

19 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

20 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok.

21 And he took them, and sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had.

22 And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a Man with him until the breaking of the day.

23 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, He touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as He wrestled with him.

24 And He said, "Let Me go, for the day breaketh." And he said, "I will not let Thee go, except Thou bless me."
31 And as he passed over Penuel the sun rose upon him, and "he" halted upon his thigh.
32 And of the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because He touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

33 And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred "men."

1 And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids.
2 And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindmost.
3 And "he" passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.
4 And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, "and" kissed him: and they wept.
5 And "he" lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, "Who are those with thee?" And he said, "The children which God hath graciously given thy servant."
6 Then the handmaids came near, 7them and their children, and they bowed themselves. 8And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.
9 And he said, "What meanest thou by all this drove which I met?" And he said, "These are to find grace in the sight of my lord."
10 And "he" said, "I have "enough, my brother; keep that thou hast unto thyself."
11 And Jacob said, "Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.
12 Take, I pray thee, my blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have "enough."
13 And he urged him, and he took it. 14 And he said, "Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee."
15 And he said unto him, "My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me: and if "men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.
16 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant: and 17will lead on softly, according as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord unto Seir.
18 And Esau said, "Let me now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me." And he said, "What needeth it? let me find grace in the sight of my lord."
19 So Esau returned that day on his way unto Seir.
20 And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built him an 2house, and made 2booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.
21 And Jacob came to Shalem, a city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.
22 And he bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of 2Homer, Shchem's father, for an hundred pieces of money.
23 And he erected there an altar, and called it 2El-eboh-Isreal.
24 And Dinah the 2daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.
25 And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he took 3her, and lay with her, and defiled her.
26 And "his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake 3kindly unto the damsel.
27 And Shechem spake unto his father Hamor, saying, "Get me this damsel to wife."
28 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob held his peace until they were come.
6 And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.
7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had wrought folly in Israel in lying to Jacob's daughter; which thing ought not to be done.
8 And Hamor communed with them, saying,
"The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her to him to wife.
9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.
10 And ye shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before you: dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein.
11 And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, "Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.
12 Ask me never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife."
13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister:
14 And they said unto them, "We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for that were a reproach unto us:
15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised;
16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.
17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone." And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son.
19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and she was more honourable than all the house of his father.
20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying, 21 "These men are peaceable with us: therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein;
for the land, "behold, it is large enough for them;
let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.
22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as thy are circumcised.
23 "Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of theirs be ours? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us."
24 And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.
25 And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled
their sister.
28 They took their sheep, "and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field. And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.
29 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Ca-nanites and the Perizzites: and being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, ""and my house."
31 And they said, "Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?"
32 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the "edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.
27 °The sons of Jacob came upon the slain,
and spoiled the city, because they had defiled
their sister.
28 They took their sheep, "and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field. And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.
30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, and my house."
31 And they said, "Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?"
32 And God said unto Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto GOD, That appeared to thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother."
2 Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, "Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments:
3 And let us arise, and go up to Bethel: and I will make there an altar unto GOD, Who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went."
4 And they gave unto Jacob all the 2 stranger gods which were in their hand, and all their earings which were in their cars; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.

5 And they journeyed: and the terror of 0 God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

6 So 1 Jacob came to 0 Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Beth-el,

7 And he build there an altar, and called the place El-Beth-el: because there 3 God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of 4 his brother.

8 But 1 Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el under an oak: and the name of it was called 5 Allon-bachuth.

9 And 6 God appeared unto 1 Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him.

10 And 7 God said unto him, "Thy name is 1 Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but "Israel shall be thy name:" and He called his name 8 Israel.

11 And 6 God said unto him, "I am 9 GOD Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and 8 kings shall come out of thy loins;

12 And the land which 8 I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land."

13 And 7 God went up from him in the place where He talked with him.

14 And 9 Jacob set up a pillar in the place where He talked with him, even a pillar of stone: and he 10 poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon.

15 And 9 Jacob called the name of the place where 7 God spake with him, Beth-el.

And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was but a little way to come to 5 Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour.

17 And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, "Fear not: thou shalt have this son also."

18 And it came to pass, as 8 her soul was in departing, (for she died) that she called his name 8 Ben-oni: but his father called him 8 Benjamin.

19 And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is 8 Beth-lehem.

20 And 7 Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.

21 And 9 Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar.

22 And it came to pass, when 10 Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and 8 lay with Bilhah his father's concubine: and Israel heard it.

Now the sons of Jacob were 12 twelve:

23 The sons of Leah; Reuben, Jacob's first-born, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun:

24 The sons of Rachel; Joseph, and Benjamin:

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan, and Naphtali:

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid; Gad, and Asher: these are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Padan-aram.

27 And 7 Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre, unto the city of Arbah, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

28 And the days of Isaac were an hundred and fourscore years.

29 And Isaac gave up the ghost, and died, and 8 was gathered unto his people, being old.

37 And Jacob dwelt in the land where his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives: and Joseph brought unto his father their evil report.
3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many colours.
4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more.

And he said unto them, "Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed:
7 For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf rose, and also the sheaf stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf."
8 And his brethren said to him, "Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us?" And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.
9 And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, "Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun...
9 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?
10 And his brethren envied him; but his father observed the saying.

12 And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.
13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed their flock in Shechem? and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, "Here am I."
14 And he said to him, "Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and with the flocks; and bring me word again.
15 So he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.
16 And a certain man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seest thou?
17 And he said, "I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks."
18 And the man said, "They are departed hence; for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

19 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him, to slay him.
20 And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh.
21 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, 'Some evil beast hath devoured him': and we shall see what will become of his dreams."
22 And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands, and said, "Let us not kill him."
23 And Reuben said unto them, "Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him;" (that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again).
24 And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stripped Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many colours that was on him;
25 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.
26 And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Ishmeelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.
27 And Judah said unto his brethren, "What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood?
28 Then there passed by Midianites merchants; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he rent his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, "The child is not; and,
31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood;
32 And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, "This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no."
33 And he knew it, and said, "It is my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces.
34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.
35 And all his sons and all his daughters
And it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her. And she conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Er. And she conceived again, and bare a son; and called his name Onan. And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bare him.

And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar. And Judah's firstborn was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him. Then Judah said unto Tamar, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her; and raise up seed to thy brother.

And Onan knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

And the thing which he did displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also. Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

And in process of time the daughter of Shuaah Judah's wife died; and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to Timnah, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite. And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold thy father in law goeth up to Timnah to shear his sheep.

And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnah: for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face.

And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me? And he said, Will thou give me a pledge, till thou send it? And she said, Thy signet, and thy tokens, and thy staff that is in thine hand.

And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

that I gave her not to Shelah my son.” And he knew her again, no more. 27 And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb. 28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, “This came out first.” 29 And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, “How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee:” therefore his name was called Pharez. 30 And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zarah.

And Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither. 2 And the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord made all that he did to prosper in his hand. 4 And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand. 5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the Lord blessed the Egyptian’s house for Joseph’s sake; and the blessing of the Lord was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field. 6 And he left all that he had in Joseph’s hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat.

And Joseph was a goodly person, and well favoured. 7 And it came to pass after these things, that his master’s wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, “Lie with me.”

8 But he refused, and said unto his master’s wife, “Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand; 9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because then art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?”

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her. 11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within. 12 And she caught him by his garment, saying, “Lie with me;”

and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out. 13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth.

14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, “See, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice:
15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out.’
16 And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home.
17 And she spake unto him according to these words, saying, “The Hebrew servant, whom thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me:
18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.”
19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, "After this manner did thy servant to me." that his wrath was kindled.
20 And Joseph’s master took him, and put him into the prison. a place where the king’s prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

But the LORD was with Joseph, and shewed him “mercy, and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.
22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph’s hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it.
23 The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because the LORD was with him, and that which he did, the LORD made it to prosper.

And it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt.
2 And Pharaoh was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.
3 And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound.
4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward.
5 And they dreamed a dream both of them; each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream; the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.
6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, "Behold, they were sad.
7 And he asked Pharaoh’s officers that were with him in the ward of his lord’s house, saying, “Wherefore look ye so sadly to day?" 8 And they said unto him, “We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it.” And Joseph said unto them, “Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.”

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, “In my dream, behold, a vine was before me;
10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth: and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

11 And Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and “pressed them into Pharaoh’s cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh’s hand.”
12 And Joseph said unto him, “This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days:
13 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place; and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh’s cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.
14 But “think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:
15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.”
16 When the chief butler saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, “3 also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head:
17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bakemeats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.”
18 And Joseph answered and said, “This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets were three days. 19 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.”

20 And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh’s birthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh’s hand:

22 But he hanged the chief baker: as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgot him.

And it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed: and, “Behold, he stood by the river. 2 And, behold, there came out of the river seven well favoured kine and fatfleshed; and they fed in a meadow. 3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river. 4 And the ill favoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven well favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke. 5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, “Behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk;” rank and good. 6 And, “Behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them. 7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and, beheld, it was a dream. 8 And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

9 Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, “3 Do “remember my faults this day: 10 Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard’s house, both me and the chief baker: 11 And we dreamed a dream in one night, and: we dreamed each “man according to the interpretation of his dream. 12 And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret. 13 And it came to pass, “as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.”

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they “brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he “shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, “I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and 3 have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.” 16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, “It is not in me: “God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.”

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, “In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river: 18 And, “behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fatfleshed and well favoured; and they fed in a meadow: 19 And, “behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness:

20 And the lean and the ill favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine:
21 And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning.

So I awoke.

22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good:
23 And, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:
24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears; and I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me;”

25 And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, “The dream of Pharaoh is one: 16 God hath shewed Pharaoh what He is about to do.
26 The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.
27 And the seven thin and ill favoured kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine.
28 And, behold, 16 the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do He shall sheweth unto Pharaoh.
29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt:
30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land;
31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous.
32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God; and God will shortly bring it to pass.
33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.
34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plentiful years.
35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.
36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.”

30 seven years. This explains and confirma the hieroglyphic discovery by Wilbour at Khât (first century).
31 It is referred to in another inscription in the tomb of Bakh, at El-Kab, translated by Brugsch (History of Egypt, 1, 304). In July 1908, Brugsch Bey discovered inscriptions which tell how “for seven successive years the Nile did not overflow, and vegetation withered and failed; that the land was devoid of crops, and that during these years, famine and misery devastated the land of Egypt”. The date is given as 1700 b.c., which cannot be earlier, therefore, than the last year of the famine. The last year of the seven years of plenty was in a.c. 1709, according to Ussher (Gen. 41. 29), with which the inscription agrees. See further, Ap. 37, the land. Fig. Metonymy (of Subject). GENESIS.

41.  45.

"Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt. And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls. And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same. And Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering; for it was without number.

And unto Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On bare unto him. And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh: "For God hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house." And the name of the second called he Ephraim: "For God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction."

And the seven years of plenteousness, that was in the land of Egypt, were ended. And the seven years of dearth began to come, according to as Joseph had said: and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, "Go unto Joseph; what he saith to you, do." And the famine was over all the face of the land:

And Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt. And all countries came into Egypt to buy corn; because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

42.  1

Now when Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, "Why do ye look one upon another?"

And he said, "Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may live, and not die." And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren; for he said, "Lest peradventure mischief befal him."

And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

And Joseph was the governor over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and the famine was sore in all the earth.

bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake roughly unto them; and he said unto them, "Whence come ye?" And they said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food."

8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, "Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come."

10 And they said unto him, "Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come.

We are all one man's sons; we are true men, thy servants are no spies."
12 And he said unto them, “Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come."
13 And they said, "Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not."
14 And Joseph said unto them, "That I am that ye spake unto thy brother, saying, 'Ye are spies';
15 Hereby shall ye be proved: By the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither.
16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Pharaoh surely ye are spies."
17 And he put them all together into ward three days.
18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, "This do, and live; for 3 fear 4 God;
19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go, carry corn for the famine of your houses:
20 But bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die." And they did so.
21 And they said one to another, "Surely 5 there be guilty among us, because we are provoking the anger of this 6 God."
22 And Reuben answered them, saying, "Spake I not unto you, saying, 'Do not sin against the child;' and ye would not hear? therefore 7 he is dead; his blood be required."
23 And they knew not that Joseph 8 understood them; for 9 he spake unto them by an interpreter.
24 And he turned himself aside from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.
25 Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way;
26 And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.
27 And as one of them opened his sack to espie his money; for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth.
28 And he said unto his brethren, "My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack:" and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, "What is this that God hath done unto us?"
29 And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them; saying,
30 'The man, who is the lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.
31 And we spake unto him, 'We are true men; we are no spies:
32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father;
33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, 'Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take 10 food for the famine of your households, and be gone:
34 And bring your youngest brother unto me; then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men;' so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffic in the land.'
35 And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, 11 behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.
36 And Jacob their father said unto them, "My children are bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me."
37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, "Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver 12 him into my hand, and 3 will bring him to thee again."
38 And he said, "My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in which ye go, then shall ye bring down 13 my gray hairs with sorrow to 14 the grave."
39 And the famine was sore in the land.
40 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out.
of Egypt, their father said unto them, “Go again, buy us a little food.”

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, “The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, ‘Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.’”

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:

5 But if thou will not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, ‘Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.’”

6 And Israel said, “Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?”

7 And they said, “The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, ‘Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother?’ and we told him according to the tenor of these words: could we certainly know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, “Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.

9 ¶ will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever:

10 For except we had lingered surely now we had returned this second time.”

11 And their father Israel said unto them, “If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds:

12 And take double money in your hand; and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight:

13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man:

14 And GOD ALMIGHTY give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. If 3 be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.”

15 And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin;

and rose up, and went down to Egypt,

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, “Bring these 10 men home, and slay, and make ready; for these men shall dine with me at noon.”

17 And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the 10 men into Joseph’s house.

18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph’s house; and they said, “Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses.”

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph’s house, and they communed with him at the door of the house.

20 And said, “O sir, we came indeed at the first time to buy food:

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man’s money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.”

23 And be said, “Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money.” And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the 10 men into Joseph’s house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their ass provender.

25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their welfare, and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spake? Is he yet alive?"

28 And they answered, "Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive." And they 29 bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.
30 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said,
"Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me?" And he said, 29 God be gracious unto thee, my son."
30 And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and "wept there."
31 And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, "Set on my bread."
32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by themselves; because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an abomination unto the Egyptians.
33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth; and the men marvelling one at another.
34 And he took and sent messes unto them from before him: but Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

44 And he commanded the steward of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth."
2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.
3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, "Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, "Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?"
5 Is not this that in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he is divineth? ye have done evil in so doing."
6 And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.
7 And they said unto him, "Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing:
8 Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan; how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?
9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen."
10 And he said, "Now also let it be according unto thy words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless."
11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.
12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

33 they sat. Egyptian pictures show that it was the custom to sit at meals.
34 took and sent, &c. Heb. "lifted liftings." Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6), for emphasis—sent choice portions. five times. The number of grace. See Ap. 10, and cp. 41. 21; 45. 22; 47. 2, 8. were merry. Heb. drank abundantly. Cp. Hag. 1. 6. John 2. 10.

2 cup. Heb. q'det'a, out of which wine was poured; distinguishing from the smaller cups from which it was drunk. Jer. 35. 5. youngest. This was the third step to try them, and to prove they were the same brethren still, and would treat Benjamin as they had treated Joseph.
4 Wherefore. Fig. Erotesis. Ap. 6. Sept. and Syr. insert "Wherefore then have ye the silver cup?"
5 divineth. This was to confirm their belief that Joseph was an Egyptian. Emphasised by Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6). Hab. divining he divineth, evil. Heb. K'da'a. See Ap. 44. viii.
7 God forbid. No word for "God" here. Heb. = Far be it from thy servants.
8 Behold, Fig. Adetimos (Ap. 6).
9 let him die. This was the penalty in the Code of Khummurabi, with which they were acquainted in Canaan (§ 68); death for stealing from a palace. Property more sacred than life.
13 Then they rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; for we were yet there: and they fell before him on the ground.

15 And Joseph said unto them, "What deed
16 And Judah said, t "What shall we unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? 1 God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's servants, both me, and he also with whom the cup is found."

17 And he said, t "God forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, let him be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father."

18 Then Judah came near unto him, and said, "Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have ye a father, or a brother?'

20 And we said unto our lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.'

21 And thou saydest unto thy servants, 'Bring him down unto me, that I may see mine eyes upon him.'

22 And we said unto our lord, 'The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.'

23 And thou saydest unto thy servants, 'Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more.'

24 And it came to pass when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of our lord.

25 And our father said, 'Go again, and buy us a little food.'

26 And we said, 'We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.'

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, 'I know that my wife bare me two sons: 28 And the one went out from me, and I said, 'Surely he is torn in pieces; ' and I saw him not since: 29 And if ye take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.'

30 Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life; 31 It may come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die; and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant my father with sorrow to the grave.

32 For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, 'If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever.'

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34 For how shall I go up unto my father, and the lad be not with me? lest peradventure I see the evil that shall come on my father:'

45 Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, "Cause every man to go out from me." And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

2 And he wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.

3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, "Am not Joseph; doth my father yet live?" And his brethren could not answer him: for they were troubled at his presence.

4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, "Come near to me, I pray you." And they came near. And he said, "I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold me into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, at that ye sold me hither: 6 For God did before bring it to pass, saying, 'Seven years shall be of dearth; and three years shall be of plenteous harvest; and all the plenty that shall come shall be stored up for the seven years of dearth, that the land might not be desolate.' 7 Now therefore let my father and my brethren come into the land of Egypt, unto Pharaoh; 8 And I will cause you to know that your father and your brethren are". (p. 63) with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserve life.

6 For these two years hath the famine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be earring nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and He hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, 'Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not:

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen and thou shalt be near unto me, thy father, and thy children, and thy children's children and thy flock and thy herd, and all that thou hast.

11 And there I will nourish thee; for yet there are five years of famine; lest thou and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty.'

12 And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and bring down my father hither.'

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.

16 And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, 'Joseph's brethren are come': and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, 'Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan; 18 And take your father and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat the fat of the land.'

19 Now the art commanded, this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come. 20 Also regard not your stuff; for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours."

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, 'See that ye fall not out by the way.'

25 And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father, 26 And told him, saying, "Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt." And Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived:

28 And Israel said, "It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die."
And God spake unto Israel in the visions of the night, and said, "Jacob, Jacob." And he said, "Here am I." 2 And He said, "3 am God, the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt; for I will there make of thee a great nation: 3 will go down with thee into Egypt; and 3 will also "sue 'bring thee up again: and Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes." 5 And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and his little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. 6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt. 2 Jacob, and all his seed with him: 7 His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

8 And these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, 2 Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn. 9 And the sons of Reuben; Hanoch, and Phallu, and Zerah, and Shaul. 10 And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman. 11 And the sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 12 And the sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zarah: but Er and Onan died before they came into the land of Canaan. 13 And the sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul. 14 And the sons of Issachar; Tola, and Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron. 15 And the sons of Zebulun; Sered, and Elon, and Jaaleel. 16 And the sons of Gad; Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, and Eliada, and Ard. 17 And the sons of Asher; Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister: and the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malchiel. 18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter, and these bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel Jacob's wife; Joseph, and Benjamin. 20 And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath the daughter of Poti-parah priest of On bare unto him. 21 And the sons of Benjamin were Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, and Gera, and Naaman, and Ehi, and Rosh, and Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard. 22 These are the sons of Rachel, which were born to Jacob: all the souls were fourteen.

23 And the sons of Dan; Hushim. 24 And the sons of Naphtali; Jahzel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shillem. 25 These are the sons of Bilhah, which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these unto Jacob: all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came "out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were three-score and six:

27 And the sons of Joseph, which were born unto him...
28 And he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, to direct his face unto Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 And Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen, and presented himself unto him; and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

30 And Israel said unto Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive."

31 And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, "I will go up, and shew Pharaoh, and say unto him, 'My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me:"

32 And the men are shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have."

Then Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they are in the land of Goshen."

2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, "What is your occupation?" And they said unto Pharaoh, "Thy servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers."

4 They said moreover unto Pharaoh, "For to sojourn in the land we are come; for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen."

5 And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, "Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:"

6 The land of Egypt is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell; and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle."

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, "How old art thou?"

9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage."

10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families.

13 And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land..."
of Egypt and all the land of Canaan, he faint by reason of the famine.
14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh’s house.
15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.
16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you your cattle, if money fail.
17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses: and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.
18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from our lord, how that our money is spent; our lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is nought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands:
19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy we and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land not desolate.
20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh: for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh’s.
21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof.
22 Only the land of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion assigned unto them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands.
23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.
24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.
25 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of our lord, and we will be Pharaoh’s servants.
26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh’s.
27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly.
28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.
29 And the time drew nigh that Israel must die; and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him,
30 If now I have found grace in thy sight, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt:
31 But I will lie with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their buryingplace.” And he said, “I will do as thou hast said.”
32 And he said, “Swear unto me.” And he sware unto him. And Israel bowed himself upon the bed’s head.
48 And it came to pass "after these things, that one told Joseph, "Behold, thy father is sick." And he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

2 And one told Jacob, and said, "Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee;" and "Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed.

3 And Jacob said unto Joseph, "GOD ALMIGHTY appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me. And said unto me, "Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession."

5 And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine.

6 And thy issue, which thou begettest after them, shall be thine; and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath; the same is Beth-lehem."

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, "Who are these?"

9 And Joseph said unto his father, "They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place." And he said, "Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless them."

10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, "I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God hath let me see my face again.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and bowed himself with his face to the earth.

13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the firstborn.

15 And he blessed Joseph, and said, "God before Whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God Which fed me all my life long unto this day, 16 The Angel Which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lad; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth."

17 And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, "Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head."

19 And his father refused, and said, "I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people; and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations:"

20 And he blessed them that day, saying, "In thee shall Israel bless, saying, "God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh:" and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, "Behold, I die: but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers."
49 And *Jacob called unto his sons, and said, * Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you what shall befall you in the last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hearken unto Israel your father.

3 Reuben, thou art my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

5 Simeon and Levi are brethren; instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

6 O my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their selfwill they digged down a wall.

7 Cursed be his anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in *Israel.

8 Judah, thou *art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee.

9 Judah is a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up; he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

lawgiver. First occ. Cp. Num. 23. 18. Ps. 33. 7. "From between his feet" from his posterity. Put by Fig. Euphem. (Ap. 6). Sept. and Onk. read "from his thighs", i.e. "his seed". Cp. Deut. 28. 57. until Shiloh come; and He, Shiloh, comes. So Aq., Syr., Gr. Note the six Pentateuch titles: "Seed" (G. 10), "Shiloh" (40. 9), "Sceptre" (49. 10), "Shepherd" and "Stone" (49. 24), "Star" (Num. 24. 17), gathering. Heb. yehudah = obedience, submission (not kohab, as in Jer. 31. 10).

Note the Structure of this verse (Alternation).

a | The Sceptre shall not depart from Judah,
 b | Nor a Lawgiver from his seed,

11 wine. So plentiful in Judah, that people were without care in such matters. wine. Heb. yaqin (Ap. 27). There was more than enough to lavish.

Couching down among the folds; he preferred to pay tribute to the Canaanites rather than engage in the struggle to expel them.
18 Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes. (p. 69)
17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that biteth the horse's heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.
18 I have waited for Thy salvation, O Lord.

19 Gad, a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last. (Isa. 14:22.
33 Num. 22:23.)
20 Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.

21 Naphtali is a hind let loose: he giveth goodly words.
22 Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall:
23 The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him:
24 But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob; (from thence is the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel;) 25 Even by the God of thy father, Who shall help thee; and by the Almighty, Who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb:
26 The blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren.
27 Benjamin ravin as a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel: and this is it that their father spake unto them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

29 And he charged them, and said unto them, "I am to be gathered unto my people: bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite. 30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession of a buryingplace. 31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah. 32 The purchase of the field and of the cave that is therein was from the children of Heth." 33 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people. Refers to body, as the previous gathering (v. 32) refers to his feet. See on v. 29. He was aged 147.

3 for so, &c. Israelites never embalmed. Hence the need of this parenthetical explanation. See Ap. 6.
4 Joseph spake. He could not speak before, for, in mourning, Egyptians never shaved, and Joseph, therefore, was not presentable. See on 41:14.
5 Jo. 3. 5. My father made me swear, saying, "Lo, I die: in my grave which I have digged for me embalmed: and the Egyptians mourned for him threescore and ten days.
4 And when the days of his mourning were past. Joseph spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ear of Pharaoh, saying, 5 My father made me swear, saying, "Lo, I die: in my grave which I have digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again."

6 And Pharaoh said, "Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear."

7 And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, and all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: (only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.)

8 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

9 And they came to the threshingfloor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days.

10 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, "This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians:" wherefore the name of it was called Abel-mizraim, which is beyond Jordan.

11 And Joseph returned into Egypt, both he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them:

13 For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, and all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: (only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.)

15 And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, "Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we have done unto him."

16 And they sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, "Thy father did command before he died, saying,

17 'So shall ye say unto Joseph, 'Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: this and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of the 'God of thy father.'"

18 And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

19 And his brethren also went and fell down before his face; and they said, "Behold, we be thy servants."

20 And Joseph said unto them, "Fear not: for 'am I in the place of 'God?'

21 But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but 'God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

22 Now therefore fear ye not: '3 will nourish you, and your little ones." And he comforted them, and spake "kindly unto them."

23 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, both he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.

24 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation: and the children also of Machir the son of Manasseh were brought up upon Joseph's knees.

25 And Joseph said unto his brethren, "3 die: and 'God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which He sware to 'Abraham, to 'Isaac, and to 'Jacob."

26 And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, "'God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence."

27 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old:

and they embalmed 'im, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

THE SECOND BOOK OF *MOSES,
CALLED
EXODUS.

1 Now these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob. 2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, 3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, 4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. 5 And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already. 6 And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation. 7 And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied; and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

8 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph. 9 And he said unto his people, "Behold, the children of Israel are more and mightier than we: 10 Come on, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that when there be an out war, the join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them out of the land." 11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh storecities, Pithom and Raamses. 12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour: 14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in morter, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, 15 exceeding, was in brick, and in all manner of work in brick. 16 So the children of Israel groaned under their bondage; and cried: and their groaning was in unto the ears of God. 17 And God looked upon the children of Israel; and God remembered his covenant.

18 And God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. 19 And God looked upon the children of Israel; and God had respect unto them.

20 And he said, "I will go down now, and I will see whether it be so, that it is evil as they cry unto me, that it is evil as they tell me; and they have cast my name upon them." 21 So the Lord went down to see it, and what they did.

22 And the Lord said, "I have surely seen the affliction of my children, which is in Egypt; and I have heard their cry, and I have known their sorrow; and I am come down to save them.

23 And now come, I will go down, and I will shew you what I can do for them. And they answered God, and said, "We will go up now, and we will be your servants." 24 And God said, "My name shall be in the midst of them, and I will go down, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 25 And they shall know that I the Lord am the God of Israel, that went up from the heavens to the earth. 26 And they saw the God of Israel, and feared, and fell down to the earth, and worshipped. 27 And he said, "I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob. And they feared the Lord, and said, "We have spoken out of the heart of our fathers in this manner, but now we will rather serve the Lord."
1.14. EXODUS.

wherein they made them serve, was 13 with rigour.
15 And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiprah, and the name of the other Puah:
16 And he said, "When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a son, then ye shall kill him; but if it be a daughter, then she shall live."
17 But the midwives feared God, and did not as 12 the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive.
18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, "Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive?"
19 And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them."
20 Therefore God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.
21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that He made them 9 houses.
22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, "Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive."

11 grown; and learned in all the wisdom of Egypt, but not yet of God.
12 unto his brethren. Acts 7, 23. "It came into his heart", 13 looked on: more than merely saw = regarded with lively sympathy.
14 an Egyptian = a man (ish), an Egyptian (Ap. 14, ii).
16 he saw that there was no man: i.e. to help. Cp. same words in Is. 59, 16; 93, 5, and context there.
17 Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens; and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.
18 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.
13 And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews "strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, "Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?"

14 And he said, "O who is this prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian?" And Moses feared, and said, "Surely this thing is known."

15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well. The priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

17 And the shepherds came and "drew them away: but Moses stood up and "helped them, and watered their flock.

18 And when they came to "Reuel their father, he said, "How is it that ye are come so soon today?"

19 And they said, "An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock."

20 And he said unto his daughters, "And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may eat bread."

21 And Moses was "content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter.

22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name "Gershom: for he said, "I have been a stranger in a strange land."

23 And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel "sighed by reason of the bondage, and they "cried, and their "cry came up unto "God by reason of the bondage.

24 And "God heard their "groaning, and "God "remembered His covenant with Abraham, "with Isaac, and "with Jacob.

25 And "God "looked upon the "children of Israel, and "God "had respect unto them.

3 Now Moses "kept the flock of "Jethro his father in law, the priest of "Midian: and he led the flock to the "backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of "God, even to "Horeb.

2 And the "Angel of "the LORD "appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the "bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, "I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt."

4 And when "the LORD saw that he turned God, repeated five times. Also the Fig. Anthropopathia (Ap. 6).

3.1 kept the flock. Forty years, Acts 7. 30.

3. 4. EXODUS.

aside to see, “God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, “Moses, Moses.” And he said, “Here am I.”

5 And he said, “Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest 0 is holy ground.”

6 Moreover he said, “I am am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God.

7 And he said, “I have surely seen the affliction of My People which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows;

8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Caanaanites, and of the Hittites, and of the Amorites, and of the Perizzites, and of the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

9 Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto Me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.

10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth My People the children of Israel out of Egypt.”

11 And Moses said unto God, “Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?”

12 And he said, “Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people of the out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.”

13 And Moses said unto God, “Behold, when come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, ‘The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you;’ and they shall say to me, ‘What is His name?’ what shall I say unto them?”

14 And he said unto Moses, “I AM THAT I AM:” and he said, “Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, ‘I AM hath sent me unto you.’”

15 And God said moreover unto Moses, “Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, ‘The LORD your God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is My name forever, and this is My memorial unto all generations.”

Moses, Moses. Fig. Epiceneus (Ap. 6). Cp. Gen. 22. 11.

He (God = Elohim) said. Occ. four times in Ex. (3. 6, 6, 12, 14). Is. Heb. “it is”.

Holy. Separated, or set apart (for God). Always the rendering of Heb. kodesh (first occ. here) except Ps. 42. 4, where it is kodesh — holy day; and De. 33. 8, Ps. 16. 7; 86. 2; 89. 17; 145. 17, where it is hallowed — favour, or grace. Kodesh must have one identical meaning (as above) in all passages; and shall not imply moral quality except when used of God Himself. It is rendered “consecrated”, “dedicated”, “hallowed”, “holiness”, “saint”, and “sanctuary”, which are distinguished in the notes under their respective occurrences. g. I. Pronoun emphatic.

God = Elohim, the Creator. Note the five-fold repetition. (Ap. 10). Christ rounds the doctrine of Resurrection on this verse. See note on Matt. 22. 31, 32.

7 the Lord said = Jehovah said (Hab. “shammah, requiring the words spoken). This expression occurs forty-five “sundry times” in Exodus, and in ten “divers manners” (see Ap. 10), and cp. Lev. 1. 1; 6. 14, Num. 3. 40, and see note on 6. 10—

(1) The Lord said, 3. 7; 33. 21.

(2) To Moses (or “him”), 4. 2, 4, 6, 11, 19. 6. 1; 7. 1, 11; 9. 22; 10. 1, 12, 21; 11. 1, 9; 14. 26; 16. 4, 28; 17. 5; 19. 9, 10, 24; 24. 12; 32. 7, 9, 33; 33. 1, 17; 34. 1, 27.

(3) To Moses to say unto Aaron, 8. 16.

(4) To Moses to say unto Pharaoh, 4. 21 (cp. 22); 8. 20; 9. 1, 13.

(5) To Moses to rehearse to Joshua, 17. 14.

(6) To Moses to charge the people, 19. 21.

(7) To Moses to speak to the people, 11. 1 (cp. 2).

(8) To Moses to say to the children of Israel, 14. 15; 20. 22; 33. 5.

(9) To Moses and unto Aaron, 9. 8; 12. 43.

(10) To Aaron, 4. 27.

I have surely seen. Heb. “seeing I have seen”. Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6); see note on Gen. 26. 28. All begins with God. All is of His grace. Note the five-statement in v. 7, 8; and “My People”. Cp. Duot. 32. 8, 9 deliver. Connect this “serve” in v. 12; and connect both with I Thess. 1. 9, 10.

good. Five-fold description of the land: good, large, milk, honey, place of the nations. See Ap. 10.

milk and honey. Fig. Synecdoche (of Species). Ap. 6. Canaanites. Six nations named. The number of man (see Ap. 10).

Occupation with self is the cause of all distrust. Note these four instances. Cp. 4. 1, 10—13. Very different from the Moses of 2. 11—14. 12 I will be with thee. Here the meaning of name Jehovah is anticipated.

14 God (Elohim) said. This expression occurs twice in Ex., only Heb. “shammah = saher ‘shem’ I will be what I will be (or become). Ap. 48.

I AM. Heb. ‘echeh = I will be (speaking of Himself).

15 The Lord. Heb. Jehovah = He will be, spoken of by others. See Ap. 4 and cp. Rev. 1. 4, “which is” = continuance in time present; “which was” = continuance in time past: “which is to come” = continuance for ever. The French “le Nom de l’Eternel” is a much better rendering than Loan, which = Master and Owner. What will be the need be filled up, owing to the need of those with whom He is in covenant? He who becometh Saviour, Redeemer, Deliverer, Strengthened, Comforter, &c.

for ever. He changeth not.

Mal. 3. 6. He is therefore Israel’s God to-day, as then.
16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, 1 The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, "I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt:

17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey;"

18 And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, "The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may 'sacrifice to the LORD our God.'"

19 And 3 I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand.

20 And I will stretch out My hand, and smite Egypt with all My wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that he will let you go.

21 And I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty:

22 But every woman shall 'borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ye shall spoil the Egyptians.'

4 And Moses answered and said, "But, 6 behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, 'The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.'"

9 And 6 it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also 6 these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water shall become blood upon the dry land."

10 And 6 Moses said unto 3 the LORD, "O 3 my LORD, 3 am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since Thou hast spoken unto Thy servant: but 3 am 6 slow of speech, and of a 6 slow tongue.

11 And 3 the LORD said unto him, "Who hath made man's mouth? or Who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I, the LORD?"

12 Now therefore go, and 6 3 will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say."

13 And he said, "O 6 6 my LORD, send, I pray Thee, by the hand of Him Whom Thou wilt send."

14 And the anger of 3 the LORD was kindled against Moses, and 3 He said, "Is not Aaron 1491 "the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he come thither to meet thee; and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

15 And thou shalt speak unto him, and thou shalt put words in his mouth: and 3 will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach thee what ye shall do.

16 And 3 shall be the thy spokesman unto the People; and 3 shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of 5 God.

17 And thou shalt take this rod in thine hand, whereby thou shalt do signs."

E' 18 And Moses went and returned to Jethro, his father in law, and said unto him, "Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive." And Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."

19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Median, "Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which sought thy life."

20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and his ass, and went forth, and returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took the rod of 5 God in his hand.

F3 21 And the LORD said unto Moses, "When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put thee to do: but 2 will harden his heart, that he shall not let the People go.

22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, 4Thou shalt say, 1 the LORD is My son, even My firstborn:

23 And I say unto thee, 1 Let My son go, that he may serve Me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, 3 will slay thy son, even thy firstborn.""

E' 24 And it came to pass 4 by the way in the inn, that 1 the LORD met him, and said to kill 3 him.

25 Then Zipporah took a sharp 4 stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, "Surely a bloody husband art thou to me."

26 So 3 he go: then she said, "A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision."

F4 27 And the LORD said to 4 Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." And he went, and 3 met him in the mount of 5 God, and kissed him.

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of 1 the LORD Which had sent him, and all the signs which He had commanded him.

E' G (p. 79) 29 And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel: 30 And Aaron spake all the words which 1 the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the People.

H 31 And the People believed: and when they heard that 1 the LORD had 3 visited the 29 children of Israel, and that He had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.
And afterward Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, 'Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let My People go, that they may hold a feast unto Me in the wilderness.' And Pharaoh said, 'Who is the LORD, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will ² I let Israel go.'

And they said, 'The ¹ God of the Hebrews hath met us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the ¹ LORD our ¹ God; lest He fall upon us with pestilence, or with the ⁵ sword.'

And Pharaoh said, 'Who is the LORD, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go?'

And Pharaoh said, 'Behold, the People of the land now are many, and ye make them rest from their burdens.'

And Pharaoh commanded the same day the ¹ taskmasters of the People, and their ¹ officers, saying,

'⁴ Ye shall no more give the people ⁵ straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

And the ⁷ tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them: ye shall not diminish ⁸ ³ ⁹ thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, 'Let us go ⁴ and ⁴ sacrifice to our ¹ God.'

Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard ¹ vain words.'

And the ⁵ taskmasters went out, and their ¹ officers, and they spake to the People, saying, 'Thus saith Pharaoh, 'I will not give you ⁷ straw.'

Go ye get you ⁸ straw where ye can find it: yet not of your work shall be diminished.'

So the People were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather ⁶ stubble instead of straw.

And the ⁶ taskmasters hasted ⁶ them, saying, 'Ye shall work no more your daily tasks, as when there was straw.'

And the ¹ ¹ ¹ officers of the ⁹ children of Israel, which Pharaoh's ⁶ taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, 'Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and to day, as heretofore?'

Then the ¹ ¹ ¹ officers of the ¹ ¹ ¹ children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, 'Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

There is no ⁷ straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, 'Make brick: and, behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.'

But he said, 'Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ² ² shall we go and do ³ sacrifice to the ¹ ¹ ¹ LORD.'

Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the ⁶ tale of bricks.'

21 abhorred, &c. Heb. "stink in the eyes". Fig. Catachresis (Ap. 8) for emphasis.
22 LORD. One of the 184 places where Jehovah in the Primitive Text was altered to Adonai. See Ap. 32. wherefore...? why...? Fig. Erotia (Ap. 6). We, like Moses, are full of similar questions, to our sin and sorrow, evil entreated. Heb. Idiom - suffered to be evil entreated. Heb. Ra'a. Ap. 44. viii. See note on 4. 21.
23 delivered Thy People at all. Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6). Heb. "delivering Thou hast not delivered Thy People". Fig. used for great emphasis. See Gen. 29. 28.

2 God spake. Occurs only twice in Exodus: here, and 20. 1. See notes on 3. 7 and 6. 10.
3 Jehovah. Note the repetition five times in this revelation, vv. 2, 3, 5, 7, 8, and see Ap. 10.
4 known. Heb. - perceived or understood. The name Jehovah was known as the covenant name; but was not known so as to be understood. The Ellipsis may be better supplied "in the character of El Shaddai". Cp. 7. 6.
5 I have. Note the three repetitions in vv. 4, 5. See Ap. 10.
6 them - individually (see on Gen. 50. 24). This is why this revelation of Jehovah as "the God of the living" ensures their resurrection. See on ch. 3, 6, and cp. Deut. 44. 23.
7 dwell. They "sojourned" in Canaan, and they "dwelt" in Egypt.
8 and. Read "I also have:" i.e. as well as thou, children = sons.
9 remembered. My covenant. All Israel's blessings based on this. See 2. 24.
10 and. Note the Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6) in vv. 8-9, to emphasise every detail. Cp. Deut. 7. 8.
12 swear. Heb. "I lifted up mine hand". Fig. Metonymy (of Adjunct). Ap. 6. Act put for the thing accomplishing it: rightly rendered "swear". The Fig. Anthropopathia is also involved in it.

6. 9-12. 30 (Ex. 76, p. 75). MOSES AND AARON IN EGYPT (Repeated Alternation).

10. 10 the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Israel, and unto Pharaoh king of...
Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

14 These be the heads of their fathers' houses: The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel; Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi: these be the families of Reuben.
15 And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman: these are the families of Simeon.
16 And these are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari: and the years of the life of Levi were an hundred thirty and seven years.
17 The sons of Gershon; Libni, and Shimi, according to their families.
18 And the sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uziel; and the years of the life of Kohath were an hundred thirty and three years.
19 And the sons of Merari; Mahali and Mushi: these are the families of Levi according to their generations.
20 And Amram took him °Jochebed his father’s sister to wife; and she bare him Aaron and Moses: and the years of the life of Amram were an hundred and thirty and seven years.
21 And the sons of Izhar; Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri.
22 And the sons of Uziel; Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Zethri.
23 And Aaron took him Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Naashon, to wife; and she bare him Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
24 And the sons of Korah; Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korhites.
25 And Eleazar Aaron’s son took him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife; and she bare him Phinehas: these are the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families.
26 These are that °Aaron and Moses, to whom °the LORD said, °Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies. °
27 °First are they which spake to °Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt: these are that °Moses and Aaron.

7. 9. EXODUS.

9 "When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, 'Shew a miracle for you'; then thou shalt say unto Aaron, 'Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh,' and it shall become a "serpent.'"

10 And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the Lord had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

13 And he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; as the Lord had said.

14 And the Lord said unto Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the People go.

15 Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink against him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him, 'The Lord God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, 'Let My People go, that they may serve Me in the wilderness:' and, behold, hitherto wouldest not hear.'

17 Thus saith the Lord, 'In this thou shalt know that I am the Lord: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink of the water of the river.'"

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the Lord commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments:

and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the Lord had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also.

24 And all the Egyptians digged round about their streams = canals.

And the LORD spake unto Moses, "Go unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, 'Thus saith the LORD: 'Let My people go, that they may serve Me.'"

And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs:

And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy kneadingtroughs:

And the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.'"

Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, "Intreat the LORD, that He may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the People go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD."

And Moses said unto Pharaoh, "Glory over me: when shall I intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thine houses, that they may remain in the river only?"

And he said, "To morrow." And he said, "He it is according to thy word: thou mayest know that there is none like unto the LORD our God.

And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy fields; they shall remain in the river only.

And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which He had brought against Pharaoh.

And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

And they gathered together upon heaps: and the land stank.

But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

And the LORD said unto Moses, "Say unto Aaron, 'Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.'"

And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, "E'lis is the finger of God:"

and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.
20 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, 'Thus saith the LORD, 'Let My People go, that they may serve Me.'

21 Else, if thou wilt not let My People go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground wherein they are.

22 And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which My People dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put a division between My People and thy people: to-morrow shall this sign be.

24 And the LORD did so; and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the land of Egypt: and Pharaoh's servants, his priests, and all his people, saw a great multitude of these flies; and their hearts were amazed.

25 And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, "Go ye, 'sacrifice to your God in the land.'" 26 And Moses said, "It is not meet so to do: for we shall 'sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we 'sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?"

27 We will go 'three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as He shall command us.

28 And Pharaoh said, "I will let you go, that ye may 'sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness: only ye shall 'not go very far away': intreat for me.

29 And Moses said, "Behold, I will go out from thee, and I will intreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, his servants, and his people, to-morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the People go to 'sacrifice to the LORD.'

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the People go.
there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.
5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, "To morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land."
6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.
7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead.
8 And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the People go.
9 And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, "Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward heaven in the sight of Pharaoh; and it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt."
10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast.
11 And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.
12 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.
13 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, 'Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, 'Let My People go, that they may serve Me.'"
14 For I will at this time send all My plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; and thou mayest know that there is none like Me in all the earth.
15 For now will I stretch out My hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.
16 And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee My power; and that My name may be declared throughout all the earth.
17 As yet exaltest thou thyself against My People, that thou wilt not let them go?
18 Behold, to morrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.
19 Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.'"

22 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt."
23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.
24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.
25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.
26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.
27 And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, "I have sinned this time: the LORD is righteous, and 3 and my people are wicked.
28 Intreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more mighty thunders and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer."
29 And Moses said unto him, "As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the earth is the LORD’s.
30 But as for the thunders and the servants, I know not whether the LORD will yet fear the LORD God.
31 And the flax and the barley was smitten: for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was boiled.
32 But the wheat and the rye were not smitten: for they were not grown up.
33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.
34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants.
35 And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

Q1 v. (p. 80)

10 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Go in unto Pharaoh: for 3 have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might shew these My signs before him."
2 And that thou mayest tell in the ears of thy son, and of thy son’s son, what things I have wrought in Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them; that ye may know how that 3 am the LORD."
3 And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, "Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long will thou refuse to humble thyself before Me? "Let My People go, that they may serve Me.
4 Else, if thou refuse to let My People go, behold, to morrow will I bring the locusts into thy coast:
5 And they shall cover the face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and they shall eat the residue of that which is esd, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:
6 And they shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers’ fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day."
7 And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh.

w 7 And Pharaoh’s servants said unto him, "How long shall this man be a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?"
8 And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, "Go, serve the LORD your God: but who are they that shall go?"
9 And Moses said, "We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast unto the LORD."

10 And he said unto them, "Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look to it; for evil is before you.
11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD; for that ye did desire." And they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

12 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left."

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.
14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such.
15 For they covered the face of the whole..."

EXODUS.

7 But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, 'Get thee out, and all the People that follow thee: and after that I will go out.' And he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you; that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt."

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 "This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.

3 Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, 'In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house:

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take a lamb according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

6 And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.

7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire, and unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

9 Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof.

10 And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

11 And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it is the LORD's passover.

12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whatsoever is leaven found in the houses of Israel shall be unto you as if it were angels or blood.

16 And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation.
12. 16. EXODUS.

12. 38.

14. 9. be an holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat; that only may be done of you.

17. And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread;

(p. 86) 26. for in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt; therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

18. In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19. Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.

20. Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.'

21. Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, 'Draw out and take you a lamb according to your families, and kill the passover.

22. And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bason; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.

23. For I the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when He seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, I the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

24. And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

25. And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which I the LORD will give you, according as He hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26. And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, 'What mean ye by this service?'

27. That ye shall say, 'It is the sacrifice of I the LORD's passover, Who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when He smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses.' And thePeople bowed the head and worshipped.

28. And the children of Israel went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29. And it came to pass, that at midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

30. And Pharaoh rose up in the night, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31. And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, 'Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.'

32. Also 'take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also.'

33. And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, 'We be all dead men.'

34. And the People took their dough before it was leavened, their kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35. And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they 'borrowed of the Egyptians 'jewels of silver, and 'jewels of gold, and raiment:

36. And 'the LORD gave the People favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they 'lent unto them 'such things as they required. And they spoiled the Egyptians.

37. And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children.

38. And "a mixed multitude went up also with were the children of Israel, (who dwelt in Egypt), was four hundred and thirty years.

And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the Lord went out of the land of Egypt.

It is a night to be much observed unto the Lord for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the Lord to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.

And the Lord said unto Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof:

But every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

And a foreigner and an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof.

All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.

And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the Lord, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

One law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.'

By the Lord commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

And it came to pass the selfsame day, that the Lord did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Sanctify unto Me all the firstborn, whatsoever openseth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is Mine.'

And Moses said unto the People, "Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the Lord brought you out from this place: there shall no leavened bread be eaten.

This day shall be a memorial unto you; ye shall keep it a feast unto the Lord.

Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days, and in the seventh day shall be a feast unto the Lord.

Some codices, with Jon., Sept., and Syr., have this word, "even" in the text.

Sojourning. Commenced with Gen. 12. 1. Quite a different subject from the dwelling in Egypt. See Ap. 50. iii.

Israel = Fig. Synecdoche (of the Part), Ap. 6, by which one man's name, Israel, is put for his father and grandfather.

who dwelt in Egypt. Fig. Epigenon (Ap. 6). A form of Parenthesis used to further define the People and connect the two parts of their history.

The dwelling in Egypt was only 215 years (see Ap. 50), and is to be distinguished from the "sojourning", which was another 215 years. See note above.

The sojourn in Egypt was the fifteenth year of the seventh month. The years of the solar cycle show that it was the day that Abraham left "Er of the Chaldees".

Much observed. Heb. shimmurim, a night of watchings. Occurs only here.

One house = the same house. Cp. v. 4.

With thee. Some codices, with Sam., Jon., Onk., Sept., and Syr., read "with you".

Uncircumcised person shall eat. Were they circumcised during the three days' darkness and were the command then given, the word against which they did not rebel? (Ps. 105. 28).

Arms = hosts.

Sanctify. Fig. Metonymy (of Subject). Ap. 6. = Declare that I will sanctify (or set apart), which Moses did in ex. 11. 12.

Children = sons.

The Ordinance of Phylacteries (Extended Alternation).

And it shall be, "And it shall be," etc. Cp. Gen. 4. 1-7. Separation of days.

Thy son's instruction.

The Sign.

Reason, "For by a strong hand."

And it shall be," etc.

Separation of First-born.

Thy son's instruction.

The Token.

Reason, "For by strength of hand."

There are two pairs of Phylacteries, so called (in Greek) from their use — a prayer-fillet or band worn to-day on forehead and hands during prayer. First pair here, Ex. 13. 3-19 and 13. 11-16. Second pair in Deut. 6. 4-9 and 11. 13-21. Cp. the structures in De. 6. 4-9.

Leavened = fermented. Jewish tradition says that in this month Abram was called, Isaac was born, Israel delivered from Egypt, and Tabernacle reared up. The Talmud further says: "As in Nisan there had been redemption, so in Nisan there should be redemption." (Bab. fol. 11). John's preaching began and the Lord's death occurred in this month.

The Lord. Some codices, with Sam., Jon., and Sept., add "thy God."

Canaanites. The Perizzites and Girgashites not included in this list.

And. Note the Fig. Polygeneton in this verse. (Ap. 6)
13. 7. EXODUS.

13. ass. Fig. Synecdoche (of Species), Ap. 6, “ass” put for all animals not offered in sacrifice.
redeem = ransom. Heb. pāḏēth = to redeem (from bondage, by power). First occ. Not g’dal. See note on 6, 4.
all. Ellipsis to be supplied “every [beast]”.
16 token. See the Structure on p. 90.

13. 17-22 (m, p. 89). DEPARTURE: SUCCOTH TO ETHAM (Introversion).

18. The bones of Joseph.
harnessed = armed, as Josh. 1. 14. Judg. 7. 11, 1 Chron. 7. 21; or marshalled by fives, as in 2 Kings 1. 2. Isa. 5. 3 (the number of grace, see Ap. 10). To this day five is an evil number in Egypt. Whichever is the meaning, both point to order and organization. They were an ordered “host” (12. 4), and not a disorderly rabble.
24. took away. See note on 40. 36-38.

2. Children = sons Migdol. The great fortress on the “Shur” or wall, built to protect Egypt from Asia. The present geography of the Eastern Delta does not, to day, agree with the Biblical record. But its geography in the nineteenth dynasty is well known from papyri, and is in perfect accord with it, as given in Exodus.
3. For. The assault of the enemy foreseen and provided against by Jehovah.

22. He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the People.

14. And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2. “Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.
3. For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, ‘They are entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.’
4 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I will be honor unto Pharaoh, and I will set him over all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

5 And it was told the king of Egypt that the children of Israel were gone out of the land of Egypt. Now Pharaoh's heart was hardened; and he set his heart to make Israel to serve with rigor.

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an high hand.

9 But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

10 And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD.

11 And they said unto Moses, "Wherefore hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? what hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?"

12 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve Pharaoh? Is it better for us to serve Pharaoh, or are we better off with thee? Wherefore now are we dead, both we and our cattle?"

13 And Moses said unto the people, "Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

14 The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace."

15 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Wherefore criest thou unto Me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and follow after them; and I will set my hand upon Pharaoh, and upon his host, and upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am in the midst of the sea, and that I am the LORD; when I have gone honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen."

19 And the Angel of God, Which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.

22 And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

23 And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians.

25 And took off their chariot wheels, that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians."

26 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen."

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength..."
when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained of not so much as one of them.

29 But the children of Israel went out stiff armed out of the midst of the Egyptians, and did not so much as look behind them: and Pharaoh and his host came up after, and they stood by the sea shore.

30 And the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians: and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore.

31 And Israel saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD, and His servant Moses.

15 Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying,

2 "I will sing unto the Lord for He hath triumphed gloriously:
The horse and his rider hath He thrown into the sea.

3 The Lord is my strength and Song, And He is become my salvation:

It is my God, and I will prepare Him an habitation;

My father's God, and I will exalt Him.

4 The Lord is a man of war:

The Lord is His Name.

5 Pharaoh's chariots also are drowned in the Red Sea.

6 Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power:

Thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

7 And in the greatness of Thine excellency Thou hast overthrown them that rose up against Thee:

Thou sentest forth Thy wrath, which consumeth them as stubble.

8 And with the blast of Thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, The floods stood upright as an heap,

And the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy said, "I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; My lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them."

10 Thou didst blow with Thy wind, the sea covered them:

They sunk as lead in the mighty waters.

11 Who is like unto Thee, O Lord, among the gods?

28 not so much as one of them. This implies that Pharaoh himself did not come. See Ex. 15:21; 1 Kgs. 8:66. His body may have been washed up on the shore, cp. v. 30, and "also" in 15:4.

31 His servant Moses. First occ. See the five, Ex. 14:8, 10, 14, 22, 26, and cp. notes on Num. 13:8; Deut. 31:2, 1 Kgs 8:66. Neh. 10:29.

15. 1 Moses began and ended his wilderness career with a song. Cp. Deut. 32, which is "the" song referred to in Rev. 15, 3. The structure gives the scope:—

Fearful in praises, doing wonders?
12 Thou stretchedst out Thy right hand,
The earth swallowed them.
13 Thou in Thy mercy hast led forth the People which Thou hast redeemed:
Thou hast guided them in Thy strength unto Thy holy habitation.

Sorrows shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestine.
15 Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed;
The mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them;
All the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.
16 Fear and dread shall fall upon them;
By the greatness of Thine arm they shall be as still as a stone;
Till Thou pass over, O 1 LORD, Till the People pass over, which Thou hast purchased.
17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of Thine inheritance,
In the place, O 1 LORD, which Thou hast made for Thee to dwell in,
In the Sanctuary, 2 O LORD, which Thy hands have established.

EXODUS

15. 26.

26 1 And said, "If thou wilt 2 diligently hearken to the voice of 1 the LORD thy 2 God, and wilt do that which is right in His sight, and wilt give ear to His commandments, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for 3 am 4 the LORD That healeth thee."

27 And they came to Elim, where 5 were 6 twelve wells of water, and 7 threescore and 8 ten palm trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

16 And they took their 9 journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the 10 children of Israel came unto the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and 11 Sinai, on the 12 fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt:

2 And the whole congregation of the 1 children of Israel 2 murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness:

3 And the 4 children of Israel said unto them, "Would to God we had died by the hand of 5 the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, 6 and when we did eat 7 bread to the full; for ye have brought us out into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger."

4 Then 8 said 9 the LORD unto Moses, 0 Behold, I will rain 1 bread from heaven for you; and the People shall go out and gather a certain rate every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in My law, or no.

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that 1 which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily."

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the 1 children of Israel, "At even, then ye shall know that 2 the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of 3 the LORD; for that He heareth your murmurings against 4 the LORD: and 5 what are we, that ye murmur against us?"

8 And Moses said, "This shall be, when 2 the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that 3 the LORD heareth your 4 murmurings which ye murmur against Him: and what are we 5? your murmurings are not against us, but against 3 the LORD."

9 And Moses spake unto Aaron, "Say unto all the congregation of the 1 children of Israel, 'Come near before 3 the LORD: for He hath heard your murmurings.'"

10 And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the 1 children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, 4 beholding, the glory of 3 the LORD appeared in the cloud.

11 And 2 the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 12 "I have heard the murmurings of the 1 children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, 'At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and ye shall know that 3 am 4 the LORD your 5 God."

13. And it came to pass, that at even the quails came up, and covered the camp; and in the morning the dew lay round about the "host.

14. And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a "round thing, as "small as the hoar frost on the ground.

15. And when the "children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, "'It is manna': "for they "wist not what "it was. And Moses said unto them, "'This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.'

16. This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, "Gather of it every "man according to his eating, an "omer for every man, according to the number of your "persons; take ye every "man for them which are in his tents.'

17. And the "children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less.

18. And when they did mete it with an "omer, he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack; they gathered every man according to his eating.

19. And Moses said, "Let no man leave of it till the morning.'

20. Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses wroth with them.

21. And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, "it melted.

22. And it came to pass, "that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two "omeers for one "man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23. And he said unto them, "'This is that which the LORD hath said, "To morrow is "the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: "bake that which ye will bake to day, "and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over "lay up for you to be kept until the morning.'"

24. And they laid it up till the morning. "as Moses bade: and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25. And Moses said, "Eat that to day; for to day is "a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field.

26. Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, "which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.'

27. And it came to pass, "that there went out some of the People on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28. And the LORD said unto Moses, "'How long refuse ye to keep My commandments and My laws?"

29. 'See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore "giveth he you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the "sabbath day.'

30. So the People rested on the "sabbath day.

31. And "the house of Israel called the name thereof "Manna: and it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like "wafers made with honey.

32. And Moses said, "This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an "omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.'

33. And Moses said unto Aaron, "Take a "pot, and put an "omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before "the LORD, to be kept for your generations.'

34. As "the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before "the Testimony, to be kept.
35 And the children of Israel did eat manna forty years; until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan. 36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah. 17 And all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the Lord, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the People to drink. 2 Wherefore the People did chide with Moses, and said, “Give us water that we may drink.” And Moses said unto them, “Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt the Lord?” 3 And the People thirsted there for water; and the People murmured against Moses, and said, “Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?” 4 And Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, “What shall I do unto this People? they be almost ready to stone me.” 5 And the Lord said unto Moses, “Go on before the People, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith thou smostest the River, take in thine hand, and go. 6 Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the People may drink.” And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. 7 And he called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the Lord, saying, “Is the Lord among us, or not?” 8 Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim. 9 And Moses said unto Joshua, “Choose us out men, and go, fight with Amalek: to morrow 3 will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand.” 10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. 11 And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. 12 But Moses’ hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.
13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

15 And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi:
16 For he said, "Because the LORD hath sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation."

17 When Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard of all that the LORD had done for Moses, and for Israel His People, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt:
2 Then Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back,
3 And her two sons; of which the name of the one was Gershom; for he said, "I have been an alien in a strange land;"
4 And of the name of the other was Eliezer;
"for the LORD my father," said he, "was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh:"
5 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the mount of Jehovah:
6 And he said unto Moses, "And thy father in law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her."
7 And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare; and they came into the tent.
8 And Moses told his father in law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them:
9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.
10 And Jethro said, "Blessed be the LORD,
Who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, Who hath delivered the People from under the hand of the Egyptians.
11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly He was above them."
12 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for the LORD: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law before the LORD.
13 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the People: and the People stood by Moses from the morning "unto the even.
14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the People, he said, "What is this thing that thou dost to the People? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the People stand by thee from morning unto even?"

18. 1 When. This chapter is a parenthesis (Ap. 6).
Introduced here because Jethro, though he lived among the Amalekites, yet was not under their curse (17, 14-16).

The event occurred between Ex. 16 and Num. 13.
Jethro's counsel was given, and taken, when Israel was ready to depart from Sinai (Deut. 17-14).

17 And Moses' father in law said unto him, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death:

13 There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: 'tis when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.'

14 And Moses went down from the mount unto the People, and sanctified the People; and they washed their clothes.
15 And he said unto the People, "Be ready against the third day: come not at your will." They came not up.
16 And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the People that was in the camp trembled.
17 And Moses brought forth the People out of the camp, to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.
18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire; and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.
19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice.
20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, 'on the top of the mount; and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up.
21 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Go down, charge the People, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish.
22 And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them.'
23 And Moses said unto the LORD, "The People cannot come up to mount Sinai: for they charged us, saying, 'Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.'"
24 And the LORD said unto him, "Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, (Josh. and Aaron with thee: but let not the 'priests and the People break through to come up unto the LORD, lest He break forth upon them.'"
25 So Moses went down unto the People, and spake unto them.

20 And "God spake "all these words, saying,
(I.) 2 "to thee the LORD thy God, Which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
3 Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

(II.) 4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

Ap. 4. 2 the LORD (Heb. Jehovah) thy God. This must go with Com. I., or we should not have the five repetitions of it in the first five.

3 before Me = before My face. 4 make. The making is equally forbidden as the worshipping. graven image. Heb. pesel, a sculpture. First occ.
5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for 3 the LORD thy God am I a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me;

6 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

7 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

12 Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

13 Thou shalt not kill.

14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

15 Thou shalt not steal.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour’s house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour’s wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour’s.”

18 And all the People saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the People saw it, they removed, and stood afar off.

19 And they said unto Moses, “Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not 1 God speak with us, lest we die.”

20 And Moses said unto the People, “Fear not: for 1 God is come 3 to prove you, and that His fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.”

21 And the People stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where 1 God was.

22 And the LORD said unto Moses, “Thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, ‘9t two have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

23 Ye shall not make with Me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

24. An altar of earth thou shalt make unto Me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, and thy son's sacrifice, and thine oxen: in all places where I record My name will I come unto thee, and I will bless thee.

25. And if thou wilt make Me an altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of hewn stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it.

26. Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto Mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

21. Now these are the judgments which thou shalt set before them.

2. If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3. If he came in himself, he shall go out by himself: if it were married, then his wife shall go out with him.

4. If his master have given him a wife, and she have borne him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be his master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5. And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free:—

6. Then his master shall bring him unto the judges: he shall also bring him to the door, and unto the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an aul; and he shall serve him for ever.

7. And if a man sell his daughter to be a maid-servant, she shall not go out as the maidservants do.

8. If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation she shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.

9. And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10. Or she take him another wife; her food, her raiment, and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish.

11. And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

12. He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.

13. And if a man lie not in wait, but a God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

14. But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with his guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

15. And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

16. And he that stealeth a man, and selletteth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17. And he that curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18. And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed:

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

20 And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely punished.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for he is his money.

22 If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman’s husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine.

23 And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, or shall sin against them; he shall let him go free for his eye’s sake.

27 And if he smite out his manservant’s tooth, or his maidservant’s tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth’s sake.

28 If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die; then the ox shall be surely stoned, and his owner shall not be punished: but the owner of the ox shall be quit.

29 But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

30 If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him.

31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

32 If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master seven shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

33 And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 And if one man’s ox hurt another’s, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead be his own.

22 If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.

2 If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him.
22. 9. EXODUS.

9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, or ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or ox, or sheep, or any beast, to keep, and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

11 Then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour’s goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.

12 And if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.

13 If it be torn in pieces, then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

14 And if a man borrow of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good.

15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be an hired thing, it came for his hire.

16 And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, she shall surely endow her to be his wife.

17 If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

18 Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.

19 Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death.

20 He that sacrificeth unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

21 Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22 Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.

23 If thou afflict them in any wise, and they cry at all unto Me, I will surely hear their cry;

24 And My wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

25 If thou lend money to any of My People that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury.

26 If thou at all take thy neighbour’s raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by that the sun goeth down;

27 For that is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto Me, that I will hear; for I am gracious.

28 Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy People.

29 Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the first-born of thy sons shalt thou give unto Me, 30 Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it Me.

31 And ye shall be holy men unto Me: neither shall ye eat any flesh that is torn of beasts in the field; ye shall cast it to the dogs.

23 Thou shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

2 Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment:

3 Neither shalt thou countenance a poor man in his cause.

4 If thou meet thine enemy’s ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

5 If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to "help him, thou shalt "surely help with him.

6 Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause.

7 Keep thee far from a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the "wicked.

8 And thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the "wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

9 Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the "heart of a stranger, seeing we were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10 And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the "fruits thereof:

11 But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what ye leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, "and with thy oliveyard.

12 Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be "refreshed.

13 And in all things that I have said unto you "be circumspect: and "make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 That three times thou shalt keep a feast unto Me in the year:

15 Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, "as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the "month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and none shall "appear before Me "empty).

16 And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

17 Three times in the year all thy males shall appear "before THE LORD GOD.

18 Thou shalt not "offer the blood of My "sacrifice with leavened bread: neither shall the fat of My "sacrifice remain until the morning.

19 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of "the LORD thy "God.

20 Behold, I send an angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your "transgressions: for "My name is in him.

22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak: then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.

23 For "Mine angel shall go before thee. and bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off.

24 Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images.

25 And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and He shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee.

26 There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfill.

27 I will send My fear before thee, and will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee.

28 And I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee.

29 I will not drive them out from thee one year, lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.

30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.

31 And I will set thy bounds from the Red sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert unto the river: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into thy hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee.

32 Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

33 They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against Me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee.'"

24 And He said unto Moses, "Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off.

2 And Moses alone shall come near the LORD: but thine shall not come nigh; neither shall the People go up with him."

3 And Moses came and told the People all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments: and all the People answered with one voice, and said, "All the words which the LORD hath said will we do."

4 And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins: and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the People: and they

5-8 This is the subject of Heb. 9, 15-23, where "testament" should be rendered covenant, and the word "men", which is not in the text, should be "over the dead sacrifices" referred to here. (Gr. epi metarhos).

6 on the altar. This was pledging Jehovah to this conditional covenant. See Heb. 9, 18, where the book also is said to be sprinkled.

7 be obedient. Connect this with the sprinkling of the blood in next verse; and connect both with 1 Pet. 1, 2.

8 the blood = the other half of the blood. Fig. Syneddoche (of the Part), Ap. 6. See Heb. 9, 20.

the People. Thus pledging them to their part of the covenant, which was thereby made conditional; unlike that with Abraham in Gen. 15, which was unconditional. Behold. Fig. Asterismos (Ap. 6).

under. Was this seen from beneath?

said, "All that the LORD hath said will we do, and be obedient."

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the People, and said, "Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words."

9 Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; 10 And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under His feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness.
And upon the nobles of the children of Israel. He laid not His hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink.

And the Lord said unto Moses,

And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and Moses went up into the mount of God. And he said unto the elders,

And the glory of the Lord abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days:

And the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

And this is the offering which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass, And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

Oil for the light, spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense,

Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod, and in the breastplate,

And let them make Me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them.

According to all that I shew thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

And they shall make an ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou over-

THE FURNITURE OF THE TABERNACLE (Arrangement).

Note, in "M" we have furniture, for the worship, within; and in "N" the protection without. 10 ark.

Note the order in which these things were made, and the lesson arising therefrom. God begins from within; man from without, Matt. 16. 16-20. Here the work begins with the ark and ends with the gate 23, 18-20. So with the four great offerings. So with His work in the heart of the saved sinner. We begin from the "gate" and with the "sin-offering." God begins with the "ark" and the "burnt-offering."
lay it, and shalt make a crown of gold round about.
12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.
13 And thou shalt make staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.
14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.
15 The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.
16 And thou shalt put into the ark "the testimony which I shall give thee.
17 And thou shalt make a mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.
18 And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy seat.
19 And make one cherub upon the one end, and the other cherub upon the other end: even of the mercy seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof.
20 And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.
21 And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.
22 And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

23 Thou shalt also make a table of shittim wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half of the height thereof.
24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereon a crown of gold round about.
25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.
26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.
27 Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table.
28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.
29 And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof: to cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them.
30 And thou shalt set upon the table shewbread before Me alway.
31 And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knobs, and his flowers, shall be of the same.
32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side:

33 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like unto almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the candlestick.

34 And in the candlestick shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers.

35 And there shall be a knob under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick.

36 Their knobs and their branches shall be of the same: all it shall be one beaten work of pure gold.

37 And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof: and they shall light the lamps thereof, that they may give light over against it.

38 And the snuffers thereof, and the snuff-dishes thereof, shall be of pure gold.

39 Of a talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these vessels.

40 And look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount.

Moreover thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work shalt thou make them.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the taches: and it shall be one tabernacle.

7 And thou shalt make curtains of goats’ hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the backside of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 And thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams’ skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers’ skins.

15 And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.

17 Two tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north there shall be twenty boards:

21 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.
22 And for the "sides of the tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards.
23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two 22 sides.
24 And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.
25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.
26 And thou shalt make 5 bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one 22 side of the tabernacle.
27 And five 4 bars for the boards of the other 25 side of the tabernacle, and five 5 bars for the boards of the 26 side of the tabernacle, for the two 22 sides westward.
28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end.
29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the 56 bars with gold.
30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the 5 fashion thereof which was shewed thee in the mount.
31 And thou shalt make a 9 vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work: with cherubims 9 shall it be made:
32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.
33 And thou shalt hang up the 81 vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in therein 9 within the vail the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between 9 the holy place and 9 the most holy.
34 And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.
35 And thou shalt set the table without the vail, and the 3 candlestick over against the table on the 26 side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north 26 side.
36 And thou shalt make an 9 hanging for the 9 door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework.
37 And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, and their 9 hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of 3 brass for them.
27 And thou shalt make an altar of 2 shittim wood, five 5 cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and the height thereof shall be three cubits.
2 And thou shalt make the horns of it upon the four corners thereof: his horns shall be of the same: and thou shalt overlay it with 3 brass.
3 And thou shalt make his pans to receive his ashes, and his shovels, and his basons, and his fleshhooks, and his firepans: all the vessels thereof thou shalt make of 3 brass.
4 And thou shalt make for it a grate of network of 3 brass; and upon the net shalt thou make four brazen rings in the four corners thereof.
5 And thou shalt put it under the 9 compass of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.
6 And thou shalt make staves for the altar, staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with 3 brass.
7 And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two 26 sides of the altar, to bear it.
8 Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: as it was shewed thee in the mount, so shall they make it.
9 And thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle: for the 9 south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of an hundred 3 cubits long for one 9 side:
10 And the twenty pillars thereof and their twenty sockets shall be of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver.

11 And likewise for the north side shall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and his twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

12 And for the breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits: their pillars ten, and their sockets ten.

13 And the breadth of the court on the east side shall be fifty cubits:

14 The hangings of one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And on the other side shall be hangings fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 And for the gate of the court shall be an hanging of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework: and their pillars shall be four, and their sockets four.

17 All the pillars round about the court shall be filleted with silver; their hooks shall be of silver, and their sockets of brass.

18 The length of the court shall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty cubits every where, and the height five cubits of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass.

19 All the vessels of the tabernacle in all the service thereof, and all the pins thereof, and all the pins of the court, shall be of brass.

20 And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always.

21 In the tabernacle of the congregation without the veil, which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the LORD: it shall be a statute for ever unto their generations on the behalf of the children of Israel.

22 And thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother for glory and for beauty.

23 And thou shalt speak unto all that are wise hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron’s garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto Me in the priest’s office.

24 And these are the garments which they shall make; a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto Me in the priest’s office.

25 And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

26 And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cunning work. It shall have the two shoulderpieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together.

EXODUS.

28.9. 1431 grave on them the names of the children of Israel; 10 six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth. 11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel; thou shalt make them to be set in fourouches of gold. 12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a memorial. 13 And thou shalt make twelveouches of gold; 14 and two chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the twelveouches.

15 And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod shalt thou make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it. 16 Foursquare it shall be being doubled; a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof. 17 And thou shalt set in its settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row. 18 And the second row shall be an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. 19 And the third row a jasper, an agate, and an amethyst. 20 And the fourth row a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be set in gold in their inclosings. 21 And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes. 22 And thou shalt make upon the breastplate chains of gold at the ends of the breastplate. 23 And thou shalt make upon the breastplate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. 24 And thou shalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate. 25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the twoouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod before it. 26 And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and shalt put them upon the two ends of the breastplate in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward. 27 And two other rings of gold shalt thou make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forefront thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod. 28 And they shall bind the breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the ephod.

28.10. 29 And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holyplace, for a memorial before the LORD continually. 30 And thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim;
31 And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

32 And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an "habergeon, that it be not rent.

33 And beneath upon the hem of it thou shalt make "pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about the hem thereof; and bells of gold between them round about:

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a "pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

35 And it shall be upon Aaron to minister: and his sound shall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy place before 12 the LORD, and when he cometh out, that he die not.

36 And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and a "sheat upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO 12 THE LORD.

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be.

38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the children of Israel, which are consecrated unto him, to make atonement for them before the LORD.

39 And thou shalt embroder the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of needlework.

40 And for Aaron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make them girdles, and 20 bonnets shalt thou make for them, 2 for glory and for beauty.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto Me in the priest's office.

42 And thou shalt make them linen breeches to cover their nakedness; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach:

43 And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the altar to minister in the holy place; that they bear not iniquity, and die: it shall be a statute for ever unto him and his seed after him.

and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

29 And this is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto Me in the priest's office: Take one young bullock, and two rams 2 without blemish,

2 And unleavened bread, and 2 cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and water unleavened anointed with oil: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them into one basket,
10. And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

11. And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon the horns of the altar.

12. And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar.

13. But the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire without the camp: it is a sin offering.

14. Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

15. And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

16. And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and unto his head.

17. And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering unto the LORD: it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

18. And thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

19. Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

20. And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and it shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

21. Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration:

22. And one loaf of bread, and one cake of unleavened bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD:

23. And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD.

24. And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

25. And thou shalt wave them for a wave offering, before the LORD: and it shall be thy part.

26. And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons:

27. And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Israel: for it is an heave offering: and it shall be an heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the LORD.

28. And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

29. And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

30. And he shall put on the sacred garments: and he shall wave the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

31. And they shall sanctify the thing where-with the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy.

32. And if of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

33. And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them.

34. And thou shalt offer every day a bullock for a sin offering for atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an 32 atonement 3 for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it. 37 Seven days thou shalt make an 32 atonement for the altar, and sanctify it; and it shall be an altar most 39 holy; whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be 39 holy. 38 Now this is that which thou shalt 39 offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year 30 day by day continually. 39 The one lamb thou shalt 39 offer in the morning; and 39 the other lamb thou shalt 39 offer at even: 40 And with the one lamb a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink offering. 41 And the other lamb thou shalt 39 offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the 39 meat offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a 39 sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto 39 the LORD. 42 This shall be a 39 continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the 39 tabernacle of the congregation before 39 the LORD: where I will 1 meet 30 you, to speak there unto thee. 43 And there I will 42 meet with the 32 children of Israel, and 38 the tabernacle shall be sanctified by My glory. 44 And I will sanctify the 39 tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to Me in the priest's office. 45 And I will dwell among the 32 children of Israel, and will be their 39 God. 46 And they shall know that 3 am 41 the LORD their 45 God, That brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, 0 that I may dwell 0 among them: 3 am 41 the LORD their 45 God. 30 And thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon: of shittim wood shalt thou make it. 2 A 2 cubit shall be the length thereof, and a 2 cubit the breadth thereof; foursquare shall it be: and two 2 cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same. 3 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the top thereof, and the 2 sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt make unto it a 4 crown of gold round about. 4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal. 5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold. 6 And thou shalt put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, before the 0 mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee. 7 And Aaron shall 0 burn thereon 0 sweet incense every morning: when he dresseth the lamps, he shall 0 burn incense upon it. 8 And when Aaron lighteth the lamps 0 at even, he shall 0 burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before 39 the LORD throughout your generations. 9 Ye shall 0 offer no 0 strange incense thereon, for it 1 upon it. 37 holy. 15 "The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a 38 shekel, when they give an 2 offering unto 4 the LORD, to make an 8 atonement for your 9 souls. 16 And thou shalt take the 10 atonement money of the 10 children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the 11 children of Israel before 4 the LORD, to make an 12 atonement for your 9 souls."

17 And 11 the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 "Thou shalt also make 9 a laver of brass, and his 1 foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt put it between the 12 tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt pour water therein. 19 For Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet thereat. 20 When they go into the 16 tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not: or when they come near to the altar to minister, to 5 burn offering made by fire unto the 4 LORD:

21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations."

22 Moreover 11 the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 "Take thou also unto thee principal spices, of pure 4 myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of 5 sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels, 24 And of 6 cedars five hundred shekels, after the 11 shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive an 8 hin:

25 And thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary: it shall be an holy anointing oil.

26 And thou shalt anoint the 18 tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the ark of the testimony, 27 And the table and all his vessels, and the candlestick and his vessels, and the altar of incense, 28 And the altar of burnt offering with all his vessels, and the 38 laver and his foot.

29 And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy.

30 And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and 2 consecrate them, that they may minister unto Me in the priest's office. 31 And thou shalt speak unto the 12 children of Israel, saying, 'This shall be an holy anointing oil unto Me throughout your generations.

32 Upon 3 man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make any other like it, after the composition of it: it is holy, and it shall be holy unto you. 33 Whosoever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people.'"

34 And 8 the LORD said unto Moses, "Take unto thee 9 sweet spices, stacte, and 3 onycha, and galbanum; 4 these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be 9 a like weight:

35 And thou shalt make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the apothecary, 6 tempered together, 9 pure and holy:

36 And thou shalt beat some of it very small, and put of it before the testimony in the 10 tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with thee: it shall be unto thee holy for the 4 LORD.

37 And as for the perfume which thou shalt make, ye shall not make to yourselves according to the composition thereof: it shall be unto thee holy for the 4 LORD.

38 Whosoever shall make like unto that, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people."

31 And 9 the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 "And 9 I have called by name Bezaleel..."
12 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
13 "Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, 'Verily My sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD That doth sanctify you.
14 Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death; for whatsoever doeth any work therein, and the soul shall be cut off among his people.
15 Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.'
16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.
17 It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day He rested, and was refreshed."

32 And when the People saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the People gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, "Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him."

2 And Aaron said unto them, "Break off g the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me."

3 And all the People brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

4 And he received them at their hand, and
4. And they said, "These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt."

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, "To morrow is a feast to the LORD."

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have said, "These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt."

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, "I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people:

10 Now therefore let Me alone, that My wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation."

11 And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, "The LORD, why doth Thy wrath wax hot against Thy people, which Thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12 Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, "For mischief did He bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from Thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against Thy people."

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Thy servants, to whom Thou swarest by Thine own Self, and saidst unto them, "I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever."

14 And the LORD repented of the evil which He thought to do unto His people.

15 And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; one side and on the other were they written.

16 And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, "There is a noise of war in the camp."

18 And he said, "It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being overcome: but the noise of them that sing do I hear."
22 And Aaron said, “Let not the anger of my Lord wax hot: thou knowest the People, that th3y are set on mischief.

23 For they said unto me, ‘Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the ‘man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we ’wot not what is become of him.’

24 And I said unto them, ‘Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off.’ So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.”

Z n (p. 119)

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, “Who is on the Lord’s side? Let him come unto me.”

And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, “Thus saith the Lord: 11 God of Israel, ‘Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.’”

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses; and there fell of the People that day about three thousand men.

29 For Moses had said, “Consecrate yourselves to day to the Lord, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that He may bestow upon you a blessing this day.”

30 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the People, “Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the Lord; peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin.”

31 And Moses returned unto the Lord, and said, “Oh, this People have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold.

32 Yet now, if Thou wilt forgive their sin; and if not, blot me, I pray Thee, out of Thy book which Thou hast written.”

33 And the Lord said unto Moses, “Whosoever hath sinned against Me, ‘him will I blot out of My book.”

34 Therefore now go, lead the People unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee:

8 Abib

35 An 1 the Lord 2 plagued the People, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

36 And the Lord said unto Moses, “Depart, and go up hence, thou and the People which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘Unto thy seed will I give it;’

unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘Unto thy seed will I give it;’
4. And when the People heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on his ornaments.

5. For the Lord had said unto Moses, "Say unto the children of Israel, 'Ye are a stiffnecked People: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.'"

6. And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb.

7. And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the Lord went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

8. And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the People rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone out of the tabernacle.

9. And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the Lord talked with Moses.

10. And all the People saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the People rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door.

11. And the Lord spake unto Moses, "See, thou sayest unto me, 'Bring up this People,' and thou hast not let me know whom Thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, 'I know thee' by name, and thou hast also found grace in My sight.

12. Now therefore, I pray Thee, if I have found grace in Thy sight, shew me now Thy way, that I may know Thee, that I may find grace in Thy sight: and consider that this nation is Thy People."

13. And he said, "My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest."

14. And he said unto Him, "If Thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

15. For wherefore shall it be known here that I and Thy People have found grace in Thy sight? is it not in that Thou goest with us? so shall we be separated, I and Thy People, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth."

16. And the Lord said unto Moses, "I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in My sight, and I know thee by name."

17. And he said, "I beseech thee, shew me Thy glory."

18. And he said, "I will make all My goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the Lord before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy."

19. And he said, "Thou canst not see My face; for there shall no man see Me, and live."
33. 21. EXODUS.

21 And the LORD said, “Behold, there is a place by Me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock:
22 And it shall come to pass, while My glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cliff of the rock, and will cover thee with My hand while I pass by:
23 And I will take away Mine hand, and thou shalt see My back parts: but My face shall not be seen.”

34 2And the LORD said unto Moses, 3 ”Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first: and I will write upon these tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou braest.
2 And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to Me in the top of the mount.
3 And no man shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks feed before that mount.”
4 And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first;
5 and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.
6 And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD.
7 And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, 1 “The LORD, The LORD GOD, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth,
8 Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and That will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children’s children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.”

8 And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.
9 And he said, "If now I have found grace in Thy sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray Thee, go among us; for it is a stiffnecked People; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for Thine inheritance."

10 And He said, "Behold, I make a covenant: before all thy People I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the People among whom thou art shall see the work of the LORD: for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee.
11 Observe thou that which I command thee this day: behold, I drive out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite.
12 Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee:
13 But ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves:

14 For thou shalt worship no other god: for the LORD, Whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God:

15 Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice:

16 And thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods.

17 Thou shalt make thee no molten gods.

18 The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the month Abib: for in the month Abib thou camest out from Egypt.

19 All that openeth the matrix is Mine; and every firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male.

20 But the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb: and if thou redeem him not, then shalt thou break his neck. All the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou redeem. And none shall appear before Me empty.

21 Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in sixearting and in harvest thou shalt rest.

22 And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year’s end.

23 Three times shalt thou offer before the LORD thy God, the God of Israel.

24 For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy borders: neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thine God thrice in the year.

25 Thou shalt not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leaven: neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left over the morning:

26 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not set thee a kid in thy mother’s milk.

27 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel.

28 And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

29 And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai (with the two tables of testimony in Moses’ hand, when he came down from the mount), that Moses’ wist not that the skin of his face shone, while He talked with him.

30 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him.

brought bracelets, "and earrings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold: and every "man that offered "offered an offering of gold unto the LORD.
23 And every "man, whom was found blue, "and purple, and scarlet, and fine "linen, and goats' "hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them.
24 Every one that did "offer an offering of silver and brass brought the Lord's offering: and every man, with whom was found shittim wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the women that were wise hearted did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26 And all the women whose heart stirred up in wisdom spun goats' hair.

27 And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the breastplate;

28 And spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the Lord, every one man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the Lord had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

30 And Moses said unto the children of Israel, "See, the Lord hath called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;

31 And He hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;

32 And to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, 33 And in the cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work.

34 And He hath put in his heart that he may teach, both to, and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whom the Lord put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all the Lord had commanded.

2 And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the Lord had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it;

3 And they received of Moses all the offering, which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him free offerings every morning.

4 And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;

5 And they spake unto Moses, saying, "The People bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which the Lord commanded to make."

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, "Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary." So the People were restrained from bringing.

7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8 And every wise hearted man among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and 9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size.

10 And he coupled the five curtains one unto another: and the other five curtains he coupled one unto another.
11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.
12 Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.
13 And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches: so it became one tabernacle.
14 And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.
15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.
16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.
17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.
18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.
19 And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that.
20 And he made boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood, standing up.
21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.
22 One board had two tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.
23 And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward:
24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.
25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards.
26 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.
27 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward he made six boards.
28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.
29 And they were coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.
30 And there were eight boards; and their cunning work. See note on 26. 1.

sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.
31 And he made bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle.
32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.
33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.
34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.
35 And he made a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubims he made it of cunning work.
36 And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold; their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.
37 And he made an hanging for the tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of needlework; and the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their chapiters and their fillets with gold: but their five sockets were of brass.
37 And Bezaleel made the ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it:
2 And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about.
3 And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be

4 And he made staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.
5 And he put the staves into the rings by the 3-sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 And he made the 3-mercy seat of pure gold: two 3-cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one 3-cubit and a half the breadth thereof.
7 And he made two 3-cherubims of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy seat:
8 One cherub 3 on the end on this side, and another cherub 3 on the other end on that side: out of the mercy seat made he the cherubims on the two ends thereof.
9 And the 3-cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the 3-mercy seat, with their faces one to another; even to the mercy seatward were the faces of the 3-cherubims.
10 And he made the table of shittim wood: two 3-cubits was the length thereof, and a 3-cubit the breadth thereof, and a 3-cubit and a half the height thereof:
11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a 3-crown of gold round about.
12 Also he made thereunto a border of an 3-handbreadth round about; and made a 3-crown of gold for the border thereof round about:
13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.
14 Over against the border were the rings, the 3-places for the staves to bear the table.
15 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table.
16 And he made the vessels which were upon the table, his dishes, and his 3-spoons, and his bowls, and his 3-covers 3 to cover withal, of pure gold.
17 And he made the candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work made he the candlestick; his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, were of the same:
18 And six branches going out of the 3-sides thereof; three branches of the candlestick out of the one 3-side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other 3-side thereof:
19 Three bowls made after the fashion of almonds in one branch, a 3-knop and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds in another branch, a 3-knop and a flower: so throughout the six branches going out of the candlestick,
20 And in the candlestick were four bowls made like almonds, his knops, and his flowers:
21 And a 3-knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it.
22 Their 3-knops and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.
23 And he made his seven lamps, and his 3-snuffers, and his snuffdishes, of pure gold.
24 Of a 3-talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof.

25 And he made the incense altar of shittim wood: the length of it was a 3-cubit, and the breadth of it a 3-cubit; it was foursquare; and two 3-cubits was the height of it; the horns thereof were of the same.
26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the 3-sides thereof round about, and the horns of it; also he made unto it a 3-crown of gold round about.
27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two 3-sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal.
28 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.
29 And he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

19 And he made the altar of burnt offering of shittim wood: five 3-cubits was the length thereof, and five 3-cubits the breadth thereof; it was foursquare; and three 3-cubits the height thereof.
2 And he made the horns thereof on the four corners of it; the horns thereof were of the same: and he overlaid it with 3-brass.
3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basons, and the fleshhooks, and the firepans: all the vessels thereof made he of brass.
4 And he made for the altar a brased grate of network under the compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it.
5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, to be places for the staves.
6 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with brass.
7 And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal; he made the altar hollow with boards.
8 And he made the laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the lookingglasses of the women assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
9 And he made the court; on the south side southward of the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen; an hundred cubits in length and a hundred cubits in breadth, with their sockets.
10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brass sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.
11 And for the north side the hangings were an hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets were of brass twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.
12 And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.
13 And for the east side eastward fifty cubits.
14 The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.
15 And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and on that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.
16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen.
17 And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver; and the overlaying of their chapiters of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.
18 And the hanging for the gate of the court was needlework of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court.
19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapiters and their fillets of silver.
20 And all the pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass.

21 This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest.

22 And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses.
23 And with him was Aholiah, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.
24 All the gold that was occupied for the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.
25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was an hundred twenty and four talents, and a thousand seven hundred and three hundred and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:
26 A bekah for every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.
27 And of the hundred twenty and four talents and seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapiters, and filleted them.
28 And the hundred twenty and four talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the vail; an hundred sockets of the hundred twenty and four talents, a talent for a socket.
29 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made sockets for the altar, and overlaid the altar with brass.
30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, 7 sides. Heb. כְּתוּבָה, or side of the altar.

EXODUS.

39. And of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; as the LORD commanded Moses.

2 And he made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with cunning work.

4 They made shoulderpieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the curious girdle of his ephod, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moses.

6 And they wrought onyx stones inclosed in ouches of gold, graven, as signets are graven, with the names of the children of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the ehphod, that they should be stones for a memorial to the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

8 And he made the breastplate of cunning work, like the work of the ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was foursquare; they made the breast-plate double: a span was the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof, being doubled.

10 And they set it four rows of stones: the first row was a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an emerald, a saphire, and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a jasper, an agate, and an amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in their inclosings.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breastplate chains at the ends, of wreeken work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings; and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two wreeken chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreetheen chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the ehphod inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

21 And they did bind the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the ephod; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.

23 And there was an hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of an haubergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not rend.

24 And they made upon the hem of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen.

25 And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the hem of the robe, round about between the pomegranates;

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moses.

27 And they made coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons, 28 And a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of twined linen.

29 And a girdle of fine twined linen, and

30 And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and 2 wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, 2 HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the 3 mitre; 1 as the Lord commanded Moses.

32 Thus was all the work of the 4 tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished; 1 as the Lord had commanded Moses, so did they.

33 5 And they brought the 32 tabernacle unto Moses, the tent, and all his furniture, his 6 taches, his boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets,

34 And the covering of rams’ skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers’ skins, and the vail of the covering,

35 7 The ark of the testimony, and the staves thereof, and the 8 mercy seat,

36 9 The table, 9 and all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread,

37 9 The pure candlestick, 9 with the lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels thereof, and the oil for light,

38 10 The golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the 9 tabernacle 8 door,

39 11 The brasen altar, and his grate of brass, 9 his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot,

40 12 The hangings of the court, 9 his pillars, and his sockets, and the hanging for the court gate, 9 his cords, and his pins, and all the 13 vessels of the service of the 32 tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation,

41 14 The cloths of service to do service in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons’ garments, to minister in the priest’s office.

42 According to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the work.

43 And Moses did look upon all the work, and, behold, they had done it; 1 as the Lord had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.

10 And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar of 3most holy.

11 And thou shalt anoint the laver and his foot, and sanctify it.

12 And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the 2door of the 2tabernacle of the congregation, and 3wash them 4with water. And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and 5anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto Me in the priest's office.

13 And thou shalt bring his sons, and 6clothe them with coats:

14 And thou shalt anoint them, 6as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto Me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

16 Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.

17 And it came to pass in the 1first month, in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the 2tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moses reared up the 2tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; 6as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the 6mercy seat above upon the ark:

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; 6as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail.

23 And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; 6as the LORD had commanded Moses.

24 And he put the candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

25 And he lighted the lamps before the LORD; 6as the LORD commanded Moses.

26 And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the vail:

27 And he burnt sweet incense thereon; 6as the LORD commanded Moses.

28 And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle.

30 And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water thereunto to wash withal.

31 And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet thereat;

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; 6as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate.

So Moses finished the work.

34 Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went onward in all their journeys:

37 But if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up.

38 For the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

THE THIRD BOOK OF MOSES,
CALLED LEVITICUS.

1 And the LORD called unto Moses, and spake unto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,
2 "Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock.
3 If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.
4 And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him.
5 And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
6 And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces.
7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire:

No other book contains so many words of Jehovah: "Jehovah spake", thirty-six times (see note on 5:1); "I am Jehovah your God", twenty-one times; "I (Jehovah) am", three times; "I, Jehovah, do", twice, i.e. smaller than the others. This calling is in contrast with the thunders from Sinai. See note on 5:14, out of the tabernacle of the congregation. Heb. 'echel. See Ap. 40, not mishkan, therefore before 1491. There are four such calls: (1) from the burning bush (Ex. 3:4); (2) and (3) from Sinai (Ex. 19, 3, 20); and here. 2 children = sons. See note on Jer. 7, 22, 23. man. Heb. b'datan (Ap. 14), i.e. a descendant of Adam, not the priests. offering. Heb. korbân, admittance, entrance, or access offering. See Ap. 48, II. i. All the offerings were what God had first given to man; only such can be accepted by Him.

3-17 (E, p. 184). THE BURNT OFFERING.

3 Jehovah begins with the burnt offering and ends with the sin offering; we, in our approach, begin with the sin offering and end with the burnt offering. See Ap. 48, II. ii. male. A female permitted in some other offerings, but not here, because of the type. Christ not the sinbearer here, as in ch. 4, without blemish. Heb. tāmâh, said of all sacrifices, and the name of Noah, Gen. 6:9, his own voluntary will. Not the same as a freewill offering. This not a freewill offering. Here he is "to be accepted for him", i.e. in his stead. Cp. 8:1. Cp. Ex. 29, 28. Lev. 19, 5; 22, 18, 20, 22, 23, 11. There was a double transfer: the unworthiness of the offerer was transferred to the victim; and the acceptability of the offering was transferred to the offerer. This is confined to the burnt offerings and peace offerings; never with the sin offerings. 4 And. Note the Fig. Polyesymneton (Ap. 6) in vv. 4-9. But. Heb. lean, place, or press. It could not be done by proxy. This was all that the sinner could do. It was for God to accept. See note on Ex. 29, 33. No such thing as progress in justification. 5 he. The sacrificer himself killed: the priest received the blood, the priests, Aaron's sons. Heb. = the sons of Aaron, the priests. Occurs seven times: Lev. 1, 5, 8, 11; 2, 4; 3:2. Num. 10, 6. Josh. 21, 19. sprinkle = dash. Heb. throw or jerk. door = entrance. 6 flay = have it flayed. Skin not offered with burnt offering, only with the sin offering. Cut it . . . pieces. To show that all was without blemish. 7 priest. Some codices, with Sam., Šâm., Sept., and Syr., read plural, "priests".
8 And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

9 But his inwards and his legs shall he wash in water: and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish.

11 And he shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar.

12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall burn it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of fowls, then shall he bring his offering of turtle doves, or of young pigeons.

15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be poured out at the side of the altar:

16 And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes:

17 And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall not divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

2 And when any will offer a meat offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon:

2 And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handfull of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD:

3 And the remnant of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

4 And if thou bring an oblation of a meat offering baken in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.

5 And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken in a pan, it shall be of fine flour, unleavened, mingled with oil.

6 Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a meat offering.

7 And if thy oblation be a meat offering offering a memorial thereof, and shall offer it burn it up the altar; it is an offering made by fire, a sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 And that which is leﬅ of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons; it is a thing most holy of the offerings unto the LORD made by fire.

11 No meat offering, which ye shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering unto the LORD made by fire.

12 As for the oblation of the firstfruits, ye shall offer them unto the LORD: but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour.

13 And every oblation of thy meat offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offering; with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt of salt.

14 And if thou offer a meat offering of thy firstfruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the meat offering of thy firstfruits green ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of full ears.

15 And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a meat offering.

16 And the priest shall burn the memorial of it, part of the beaten corn thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

And if his oblation be a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or a female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD.

2 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about.

3 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards.

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

5 And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

6 And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering unto the LORD be of the flock; male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.

7 If he offer a lamb for his offering, then shall he offer it before the LORD.

8 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar.
3. 14.

LEVITICUS.

And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

And the priest shall burn them upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire for a sweet savour: all the fat is of the Lord's.

It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood.'

the commandments of the Lord concerning things which should not be done, and as guilty:

14 When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD: and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD.

15 And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation:

16 And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, even before the vail.

17 And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

18 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the altar.

19 And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a sin offering; so shall he do with this; and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

20 And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock: it is a sin offering for the congregation.

21 When a ruler hath sinned, and done somewhat through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD his God concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty;

22 Or if his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish:

23 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD: it is a sin offering.

24 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out his blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering.

25 And he shall burn all his fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall make an atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

26 And if any one of the common People sin through ignorance, while he doeth somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and is guilty;

27 Or if his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge: then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned.

28 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it in the place of the burnt offering.

29 And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar.

30 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour unto the LORD; and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

31 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.

32 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar:

33 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour unto the LORD; and the priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

This formula denotes another communication made at a different time, and gives a further development of the laws of the trespass offering.
Note that in this book Jehovah "spake" at thirty-five "sunny times", and in ten "divers manners" (see Ap. 10):--
(1) To Moses alone (5. 14; 6. 1, 10; 8. 1; 14. 1; 22. 29; 23. 20),
(2) To Moses, to speak to Aaron alone (16. 1).
(3) To Moses, to speak to "Aaron and his sons" (6. 8, 24; 22. 1).
(4) To Moses, to speak to "the priests, the sons of Aaron" (21. 1).
(5) To Moses, to speak to "Aaron and his sons, and to all the children of Israel" (17. 1; 21. 16 (cp. v. 24); 22. 17).
(6) To Moses, to speak to "the children of Israel" (1. 1; 4. 1; 7. 22, 28; 12. 1; 18. 1; 20. 1; 28. 1, 9, 23; 24. 1, 13; 25. 1; 27. 1).
(7) To Moses, to speak to "all the congregation of the children of Israel" (19. 1).
(8) To Moses and Aaron conjointly (13. 1; 14. 33).
(9) To Moses and Aaron, to speak to "the children of Israel" (11. 1; 15. 1).
(10) To Aaron alone (10. 8).
The reasons for these distinctions will be seen from the respective contexts.
15 trespass. Heb. mâ’dâ’āl, to act covertly; to be faithless, especially in covenant matters, either with God (Lev. 20. 26. Num. 31. 14. Deut. 29. 21, &c.) or between husband and wife (Num. 5. 12, 27). Not the same word as in vv. 4, 7, 10, 16, and below in this verse. holy things, &c., such as firstfruits, firstborn, &c. Ex. 29. 38. 17 And if a 8 soul 8 sin, and commit 8 any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; though he 8 wist it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his 8 iniquity.
18 And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy 8 estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest; and the priest shall 6° make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he 8 erred and 17° wist it not, and it shall be forgiven him.
19 It is a 8 trespass offering: he hath certainly 5° trespassed against 4 the LORD.

6 And the LORD 8 spake unto Moses, saying,

5 Or all that about which he hath sworn falsely: he shall even restore it in the principal, and shall 2 add the 5° fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it was 8 claimed, 8 in the day of his trespass offering.
6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto 2 the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy 8 estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest:
7 And the priest shall make an atonement for him before 2 the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

3 E (p. 134).

8 And the LORD 8 spake unto Moses, saying,
9 8 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, 8 This is the law of the burnt offering: 8 It is the burnt offering, because of the 8 burning upon the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be 8 burning in it.
10 And the priest shall put on his 8 linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath consumed 8 with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.
11 And he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp unto a clean place.
12 And the fire upon the altar shall be shekels. See Ap. 51, II.
13 harm that he hath done. Heb. chof.d. Ap. 44, i. add. In trespass in holy things sacrifice comes first (5, 10) and addition afterwards. In human affairs the addition comes first (6, 5) and sacrifice follows (6, 7).
14 any = any one of these things specified in v. 15. wist it not. This effectually disposes of the fallacy that it is only sincerity that matters. Note the repetition of the words in vv. 17-19 to emphasise this iniquity. Heb. "dshd. Ap. 44, iv.

Note the order of the "offerings", and their "laws". In the former (God's side), "peace" made, comes in first. In the latter, "sin" comes before "peace" experienced. See note on 7, 11.
6 estimation. See note on 5, 15.
7 burning = kept burning. Heb. yikd. to burn as an ordinary culinary fire.
8 linen garment. See 8, 13. Ex. 28, 4, 40; 29, 5-10, with the burnt offering. Abbreviation of Heb. word = "the offerings of Jehovah" (so Sam., Sept., and Vulg., and some codices).
10 fire. This fire was originally from heaven (9, 14), supernatural fire. Only this fire could be used to set fire to the incense on the golden altar. So only those who have atonement can pray or worship. Ever burning until rekindled by a special descent. [This is the origin of the perpetual light in Roman Catholic worship.] It was preserved till the destruction of the temple by Nebuchadnezzar; was one of the five things lacking in the second temple.

13 fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out.

14 And this is the law of the meat offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, before the altar.
15 And he shall take of it his handfull, of the flour of the meat offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meat offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the memorial of it, unto the LORD.
16 And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: it is with unleavened bread shall be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it.
17 It shall not be baken with leaven. I have given it unto them for their portion of My offerings made by fire; it is most holy, as is the sin offering, and as the trespass offering.
18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: every one that toucheth them shall be holy."
19 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
(20) "This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night.
21 In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baken, thou shalt bring it in: and the baken pieces of the meat offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD.
22 And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the LORD; it shall be wholly burnt.
23 For every meat offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.)

24 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
25 "Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD: it is most holy.
26 The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.
27 Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the holy place.
28 But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken: and if it be sodden in a brased pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water.
29 All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy.
30 And no sin offering, whereof any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile withal in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.

7 Likewise is this the law of the trespass offering: it is most holy.
2 In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill the trespass offering: the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about upon the altar.
3 And he shall offer of it all the fat thereof; the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards,
4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away:
5 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a trespass offering.
6 Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy.
7 As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement thereof shall have it.
8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered.
9 And all the meat offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is dressed in the fryingpan, and in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.
10 And every meat offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another.

G a (p. 134)

11 And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD.
12 If he offer for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried.
13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings.
14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for an heave offering unto the LORD, and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings.
15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.
16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten on the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten.
17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.
18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity.
19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.
20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that pertain unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.
21 Moreover the soul that toucheth any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of a man, or a swine, or a beast, or any unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

28. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

And he put the breastplate upon him: 1 he also put in the breastplate "the Umrim and the Thummim." 2 9 And he put the "mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, even upon his forefront, did he put the "golden plate, the "holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses.

10 And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them.

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them.

12 And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron’s head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.

13 And Moses brought Aaron’s sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

14 And he brought the bullock for the sin offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering.

15 And he slew it; and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.

16 And he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burnt it upon the altar.

17 But the bullock, and his hide, his flesh, and his dung, he burnt without the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses.

18 And he brought the ram for the burnt offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

19 And he killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

20 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

21 And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar; it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

23 And he slew it; and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron’s right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

24 And he brought Aaron’s sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25 And he took the fat, and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder.

26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder:

27 And he put all upon Aaron’s hands, and upon his sons’ hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD.

28 And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt offering; they were consecrations for a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD; for of the ram of consecration it was Moses’ part; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons’ garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons’ garments with him.

31 And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, “Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, ‘Aaron and his sons shall eat it.’

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire.

33 And ye shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall He consecrate you.

34 As He hath done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.'

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

And it came to pass on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel:

2 And he said unto Aaron, “Take thee a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, “Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering:

4 Also a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a meat offering mingled with oil:

5 And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation:

6 And Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do:

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, "Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the People: and the offering of the People, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

8 Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar:

10 But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar: as the LORD commanded Moses.

11 And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt offering; and Aaron’s sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 And he brought the Peace offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the People, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it according to the manner.

17 And he brought the meat offering, and took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning.

18 He slew also the bullock and the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the People: and Aaron’s sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about,
19 And the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inward parts, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver:

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a wave offering before the LORD: as Moses commanded.

22 And Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and burned them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

24 And there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat:

25 And there went out fire from the LORD, and devoured him; and they died before the LORD.

26 Then Moses said unto Aaron, What is this that thou hast done? this is nothing else but that thou hast gone to sin before God this is what the people speak, saying, The LORD hath not dealt with his servant Aaron, when he stickered them, and they died before the LORD.

27 And Moses said unto Aaron, Unto whom is this, unto whom is this done? call his brethren, and let him offer the burnt offering, and the罪 victim, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering, a sin offering.

28 And Aaron spoke unto Moses, saying, Behold, this day have they offered sin, and have committed a trespass for their brethren; and have smitten me.

29 And Moses said, Wherefore, brethren, do ye this thing? for the sin is not in all the congregation.

30 Cast not ye on me an evil thing; according to all the people do ye to your brother, cause the sin of your brethren to come against you.

31 And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take his sons, and put them near him, and let them be Instrumental in the office of the sanctuary, to assist him in the office thereof; for he is an unclean soul.

32 And this shall be a statute for it throughout your generations, that the man who sanctifieth himself in any he shall do, and cause his children to be sanctified.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go into the sanctuary, and come out thence after the death of his sons, and afterwards he shall come out thence, for he is an unclean soul.

34 And Aaron went into the sanctuary of the house of the congregation, and came out; and his sons Nadab and Abihu died.

35 And Moses said unto Aaron, This is the thing which the LORD hath spoken, saying, I will meet in a burning bush, and I will speak unto thee.

36 And Moses went and called Aaron, and said unto him, Come up into the mountain unto the LORD; and let not thy people come with thee, lest they see the glory of the LORD, and be destroyed.

37 And Aaron went unto the mountain unto the LORD, and his two sons with him, Nadab and Abihu, and their raiment.

38 And the glory of the LORD appeared unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto their raiment, when they came out of the tabernacle, and it burned the bush, but the bush was not consumed.

39 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before the LORD, that it may become living flesh, and it shall eat the sin offering: so thou shal atone for her.

40 And Aaron took his rod, and cast it before the LORD, and it became a snake; and Aaron cast down his rod, and he became living flesh, and ate the sin offering.

41 And thesons of Levi were with Aaron, and they were the only sons slain among the sin offering for their uncle.

42 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial for me; even upon the altar, and upon the door, and upon the gates of the city.
9 "Do not drink wine nor strong drink, nor eat the sons with you, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations:
10 And that ye may put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean;
11 And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses."

12 And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, "Take the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it;" (1) without leaven "beside the altar: for it is most holy:
13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire; for so I commanded.
14 And the wave breast and heave shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; (2) thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel.
15 The heave shoulder and the wave breast shall ye bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, by a statute for ever; (3) as the LORD hath commanded."

16 And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron which were left alive, saying,
17 "Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it to you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the Lord?"
18 "Behold, the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded."
19 And Aaron said unto Moses, "Behold, this day have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin offering to day, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?"
20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.

11 And "the LORD" spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, "Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, "These are the beasts which ye shall eat among all the beasts that are on the earth.

3 Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is clovenfooted, and cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ye eat.
4 Nevertheless these shall ye not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

4 not eat. These laws are not arbitrary. Food plays a chief part in health and sickness. It is our wisdom to obey these laws now, as far as possible. All are based on the preservation and health of the race. Some for sanitary reasons. Some from peculiarities of climate. Some for separating from other peoples.

then she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean. 3 And in the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. 4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled. 5 But if she bear a maid child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation:
and she shall continue in the blood of her “purifying * threescore and six days.

6 And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtle dove, for a ‘sin offering, unto the “door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest:

7 Who shall offer it before the LORD, and make an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the “issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath born a male or a female.

8 And if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt offering, and the other for a ‘sin offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.”

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like a plague of leprosy; then shall he be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests:

3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then shall the priest shut up him that hath the plague seven days:

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again:

8 And if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy.

9 When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest:

10 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be quick raw flesh in the rising:

11 Then in old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up; for it is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoe'er the priest looketh;
14 But "when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.
15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and "pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy.
16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the priest;
17 And the priest shall see him: and, "behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall "pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.
18 The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was a boil, and is healed,
19 And in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest;
20 And if, when the priest seeth it, "behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall "pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil.
21 But if the priest look on it, and, "behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but "be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:
22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall "pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.
23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning boil; and the priest shall "*pronounce him clean."
24 Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white;
25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, "behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall "pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.
26 But if the priest look on it, and, "behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but "be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days;
27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall "pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.
28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall "pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.
29 If a man or woman have a plague upon the head or beard;
30 Then the priest shall see the plague: and, "behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin; and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall "pronounce him unclean: it is a dry "scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard.
31 And if the priest look on the plague of the "scall, and, "behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague of the "*scall seven days:"
32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and, "behold, if the "scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the "*scall be not in sight deeper than the skin;"
33 He shall be shaven, but the "scall shall not shave; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the "*scall seven days more:"
34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the "scall; and, "behold, if the "scall spread not in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin; then the priest shall "pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.
35 But if the "*scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing:"
36 Then the priest shall look on him: and, "behold, if the "scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean.
37 But if the "*scall be in his sight at a stay, and there is black hair grown up therein; the "scall is healed, he is clean; and the priest shall "*pronounce him clean."
38 If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots, even white bright spots;
39 Then the priest shall look: and, "behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be "darkish white; it is a freckled spot that growtheth in the skin; he is clean.
40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he is bald; yet is he clean.
41 And he that hath his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead bald: yet is he clean.
42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.
43 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, "behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh;
44 Or is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall "pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head.
45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be "rent, and his head bare.
1490 and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, 'Unclean, unclean.'

46 All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone; without the camp shall he his habitation be.

47 The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woolen garment, or a linen garment;

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof; of linen, or of woollen; whether in a skin, or in any thing made of skin;

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest:

50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague seven days:

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, or in the skin, or in the warps, or in the woof, or in any thing made of skin; the plague is a fretting leprosy; it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether the warps, or the woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the priest shall look, and behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warps, or in the woof, or in any thing made of skin;

54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more:

55 And the priest shall look on the plague, after that it is washed: and, behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, and the plague be not spread; it is unclean; thou shalt burn it in the fire; it is fret inward, whether it be bare within or without.

56 And if the priest look, and behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warps, or out of the woof.

57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a spreading plague: thou shalt burn that wherein the plague is with fire.

58 And the garment, either the warp, or the woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

14 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 "This shall be the law of the leper "in the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought unto the priest:

3 And the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper;

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two "birds alive and clean, and a cedar wood, and "scarlet, and "hyssop:

5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water:

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water:

7 And he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall "pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose " into the open field.

8 And he that is to be cleansed shall "wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and "wash himself in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven days.

9 But it shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair shall he shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall "wash his flesh in water, and he shall be clean.

10 And on the eighth day he shall take two he lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth deals of fine flour for a "meat offering, mingled with oil, and one "log of oil.

11 And the priest that maketh him clean shall "present the man that is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

12 And the priest shall take one he lamb, and "offer him for a "trespass offering, and the tenth log of oil, and wave it for a "wave offering before the LORD:

13 And he shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place: for as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the "trespass offering: it is most holy:

14 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the "trespass offering, and the priest shall put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot:

15 And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand:

16 And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD:

17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the "trespass offering:

18 And the remnant of the oil that is in the priest's hand shall he pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed: and the priest shall "make an atonement for him before the LORD.

19 And the priest shall "offer the "sin offering, and "make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness; and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering:

20 And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meat offering upon the altar: and the priest shall "make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

21 And if he be "poor, and "cannot get so much; then he shall take one lamb for a "trespass offering to be waved, to "make an atonement for him, and one tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering, and a "log of oil;

22 And two turtle doves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get; and the one shall be a "sin offering, and the other a burnt offering.

23 And he shall bring them on the eighth day for his cleansing unto the priest, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD:

24 And "the priest shall take the lamb of the "trespass offering, and the "log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a "wave offering before the LORD:

25 And he shall kill the lamb of the "trespass offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the "trespass offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot:

26 And the priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand:

27 And the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD:

28 And the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the "trespass offering:

But a peculiar ritual phrase should obviously be rendered by the same English phrase. This is to be distinguished from "himself" in 14. 8; 15. 5, 6, 7, 16. 8, 10, 16, 17, 18, 19, 21, 22, 27; 17. 18. 10 eighth day. him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the LORD. 5. And he shall take the one of the turtledoves or of the young pigeons, such as he can get; 6. Even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meat offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the LORD. 7. This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

And spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, 9. When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give unto you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession; 10. And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, 'It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house.' 11. Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house: 12. And he shall look on the plague, and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow strakes, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall; 13. Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days: 14. And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house; 15. Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and shall cast them into an unclean place without the city: 16. And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off without the city into an unclean place: 17. And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house. 18. And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plastered; 19. Then the priest shall come and look, and, 'Behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the house: it is unclean. 20. And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

Moreover he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean until the even. 22. And he that lieth in the house shall wash his clothes; and he that eateth in the house shall wash his clothes.

33. | spake. See note on 5. 14. The law of cleansing persons addressed to Moses alone; that about houses, &c., addressed to Aaron as well. 34. | When ye be come, &c. Here we have the first of four prospective laws, having no immediate bearing. See 19. 23; 20. 10; 26. 2. Hence it is separated from the law for leprous men and garments, in the form of an appendix.

plague. | House leprosy is here represented as being supernatural. This was peculiar to Israelites and to houses of Israelites. The Targum of Jonathan renders this: "And if there be a man who buildeth his house with stolen goods, then I will put", &c.

36. | Before, &c. This law was most benign in its intention.

37. | hollow strakes = sunken places than the wall = Fig. Ellipsis, Ap. 6. ii. a. = "deeper than [the surface of the wall]."

39. | the seventh day = on the seventh day. Note the frequency of this number throughout, and see Ap. 16. spread. | This is a bad sign in noting the presence and workings of our inward corruption.

40. | They. | Of the verbs in these three verses, note that are in the singular, vix. v. 42. "he shall take", and "he shall plaster". Hence the authorities of the second temple interpreted the plural of the owners of the "party-wall", and the singular of the owner of the affected house.

42. | he. | See note on v. 40.

44. | behold. | Fig. Asterismos. Ap. 6. spread. | The same criterion as in the case of men and garments. See note on v. 37 and 13. a.

46. | shall come. | Heb. coming in shall come in. Fig. Polyptdton. (Ap. 6.) = shall actually come in.

49. | And. | Note the Fig. Polyptdton (Ap. 6) in vv. 48-58.

51. | 52. | Note the emphasis put upon this ceremony by the Structure (an Introversion). Note also the Fig. Polyptdton. (Ap. 6.) cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet.
53 But he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an atonement for the house: and it shall be clean.
54 This is the law for all manner of plague of leprosy, and scall,
55 And for the leprosy of a garment, and of a house,
56 And for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot:
57 "To teach "when it is unclean, and "when it is clean: this is the law of leprosy."

15 And "the LORD "spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,
2 "Speak unto the "children of Israel, and say unto them, "When any "man hath a running issue out of his "flesh, because of his issue he is unclean.
3 And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his "flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.
4 Every bed, whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean: and every "thing, whereto he sitteth, shall be unclean.
5 And whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and "bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
6 And he that sitteth on any thing whereto he sat that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and "bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
7 And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and "bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
8 And if he that hath the issue "spit upon him that is clean; then shall wash his clothes, and "bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
9 And what "saddle soever he rideth upon that hath the issue shall be unclean.
10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth any of those things shall wash his clothes, and "bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
11 And whomsoever he toucheth that hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and "bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
12 And the vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be "rinsed in water.

13 And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and "bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.
14 And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before "the LORD unto the "door of the "tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest:
15 And the priest shall "offer them, the one for a "sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall "make an atonement for him before "the LORD for his issue.
16 And if any "man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall "wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.
17 And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.
18 The woman also with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall "both "bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the even.
19 And if a woman have an issue, and "her issue in her "flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days: and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the even.

in her separation shall be unclean: every thing also that she sitteth upon shall be unclean.
21 And whosoever toucheth her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
22 And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
23 And if it be on her bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the even.
24 And if any man lie with her at all, and her flowers be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and all the bed whereon he lieth shall be unclean.
25 And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she shall be unclean.
26 Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her issue shall be unto her as the bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation.
27 And whosoever toucheth those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

P

28 But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.
29 And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtle-doves or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
30 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for her before the LORD for the issue of her uncleanness.
31 Thus shall ye separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile My tabernacle that is among them.
32 This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith;
33 And of her that is sick of her flowers, and of him that hath an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lieth with her that is unclean.'

16 And spake unto Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD, and died;
2 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the vail before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat.
3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

R

4 He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on.
5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.
6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make an atonement for him, and for his house.
7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the scapegoat.
9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon 1490 which 1 the LORD'S lot 2 fell, and 3 offer him for a 1 sin offering.
10 But the goat, on which the lot 9 fell 8 to be the 8 scapegoat, shall be 1 presented alive before 1 the LORD, to 4 make an atonement 3 with him, and 7 to let him go for a 8 scapegoat into the 9 wilderness.

11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the 3 sin offering, which 3 is for himself, and shall 6 make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the 3 sin offering which 3 is for himself:
12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of 2 fire from off the altar before 1 the LORD, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring 9 it within the vail:
13 And he shall put the incense upon the 15 fire before 1 the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the 1 mercy seat that 2 is upon the testimony, that he die not:
14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the 3 mercy seat eastward; and before 1 the 3 mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.

15 Then shall he kill the goat of the 3 sin offering, that 3 is for the people, and bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the 2 mercy seat, and before the 3 mercy seat:
16 And he shall 6 make an atonement for the 7 holy place, because of the uncleanness of the 2 children of Israel, and because of their 21 transgressions in all their 3 sins: and so shall he do for the 7 tabernacle of the congregation, that remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness.
17 And there shall be no 3 man in the 7 tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to 4 make an atonement in the 2 holy place, until he come out, and have 8 made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.
18 And he shall go out unto the altar that 3 is before 1 the LORD, and 6 make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about.
19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and 5 hallow it from the uncleanness of the 2 children of Israel.
20 And when he hath made an end of 2 reconciling the 2 holy place, and the 7 tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:
21 And Aaron shall lay 2 both his hands upon the head of the 7 live goat, and confess over him all the 4 iniquities of the 2 children of Israel, and 9 all their 21 transgressions in 2 all their 3 sins, putting 15 them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of 9 a fit man into the 10 wilderness:
22 And the goat 7 shall bear upon him 21 all their 21 iniquities unto a 7 land not inhabited: and he shall 3 let go the goat in the 21 wilderness.
23 And Aaron shall come into the 7 tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the 2 holy place, and shall leave them there:
24 And he shall 7 wash his flesh with water in the 7 holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and 4 make an atonement for himself, and for the people.

25 And the fat of the ^sin offering shall be burnt upon the altar.
26 And he that let go the goat for the scapegoat shall wash his clothes, and  bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp.
27 And the bullock for the ^sin offering, and the goat for the ^sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall one carry forth  without the camp; and they shall  burn  in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung.
28 And he that  burned  them shall wash his clothes, and  bathe  his flesh in water, and and afterward he shall come into the camp.
29 And  this shall be a statute for ever unto you: that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall  afflict  your  souls, and  do  no  work  at  all, whether  it  be  one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you:
30 For on that day shall the priest  make an atonement for you, to cleanse you,  that ye may be clean from all your  sins  before the LORD.
31 ^It shall be a ^sabbath of rest unto you, ye shall  afflict  your  souls, by a statute for ever.
32 And the priest, whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall  consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the  holy  garments:
33 And he shall  make  an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall  make  an atonement for the ^tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar, and he shall  make  an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.
34 And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to  make  an atonement for the children of Israel for all their  sins  once a year. And he did  as  the LORD commanded Moses.

17 And  the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 "Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them;  This is the thing which  the LORD hath commanded, saying,
3 "What man soever there be of the house of Israel, that  killeth  an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or that killeth  it  out of the camp,
4 And bringeth it not unto the door of the ^tabernacle of the congregation, to  offer  an offering unto  the LORD  before  the ^tabernacle of  the LORD; blood shall be imputed unto that man; he hath shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people:"
5 To the end that the ^children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which  they  offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto  the LORD, unto the ^door of the ^tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and  offer  them  for peace offerings unto  the LORD.
6 And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of  the ^Lord  at the ^door of the ^tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a  "sweet savour" unto  the LORD.

13 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's sister: she is thy mother's near kinswoman.

14 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she is thy father's near kinswoman.

15 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter in law: she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

16 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's wife: it is thy brother's nakedness.

17 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are thy near kinswomen: it is wickedness.

18 Neither shalt thou take a wife to thy sister, to vex her, to uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her life time.

19 Also thou shalt not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is put apart for her uncleanness.

16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereon, thou shalt kill the beast, and slay the woman: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

17 And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see her nakedness; it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their People: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

18 And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their People.

19 And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's sister, nor of thy father's sister: for he uncovereth his near kins: they shall bear their iniquity.

20 And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

21 And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.
And the Lord said unto Moses, "Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people: but for his father, for his mother, and for his sons, and for his daughter, and for his brother, and for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had no husband; for her may he be defiled.

But he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself. They shall not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and the burnt offerings and sin offerings and consecrations of their God, they shall do offer: therefore they shall be holy.

And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she shall be burnt with fire.

And he that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes:

Neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother:

Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him:

And the Lord do sanctify him.'"

5 Or whosoever toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath;
6 The soul which hath touched any such shall be unclean until even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he wash his flesh with water.
7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things; because it is his food.
8 That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith:
9 They shall therefore keep Mine ordinance, lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: "3 the LORD do sanctify them.
10 There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.
11 But if the priest buy any soul with his money, "he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house: "or shall eat of his meat.
12 If the priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger, "she may not eat of an offering of the holy things.

13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.
14 And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then shall he put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the holy thing.
15 And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto "the LORD:

L 2 Whatsoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his freewill offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt offering;

19 Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the beees, of the sheep, or of the goats.

20 But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer; for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD to accomplish his vow, or for a freewill offering in beees or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein.

M 22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD.

23 Either a bullock or a lamb that hath any thing superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make any offering thereof in your land.

25 Neither from a stranger's hand shall ye offer the Lord that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; but shall make any offering thereof in your land.

26 And when ye offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your own will.

30 On the same day it shall be eaten up; ye shall leave none of it until the morrow: I am the LORD.

K 31 Therefore shall ye keep My commandments, and do them: I am the LORD.

32 Neither shall ye profane My holy name; but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I am the LORD Which hallow you.

33 That brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD."

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 "Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are My feasts.

1 the seventh day (sabbath rest). See note on 5.14. 2 children. Heb. sons of the LORD. This was their primal name; but in the day of Christ's rejection they had become "feasts of the Jews." John 5.1; 2.13; 6.4; 11.55. proclaim. Cause to be publicly heard. Occurs outside the Pentateuch only in Nehemiah.

2 holy. See note on Ex. 9.5. convocation = a calling together, assembly. 3 sabbath of rest. See note on Ex. 16.23.
4 These are the feasts of the Lord, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

5 In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the Lord's passover.

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the Lord: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

7 In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

9 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

10 "Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest:

11 And he shall wave the sheaf before the Lord, to be accepted for you; on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12 And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf an he lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering unto the Lord.

13 And the meat offering thereof shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the Lord for a sweet savour: and the drink offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of an hin.

14 And ye shall eat neither bread, parched corn, nor green ears, until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15 And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the Lord.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baken with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the Lord.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the Lord, with their meat offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the Lord.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits for a wave offering before the Lord, with the two lambs: they shall be holy unto the Lord for the priest.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation: you shall do no servile work therein: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleanings of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the Lord thy God.'

23 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

24 "Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation.
28. 25. LEVITICUS. 24. 4.

25 Ye shall do no servile work therein: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD."

W3 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

27 "Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And ye shall do no work in that same day: for it is a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God.

29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people.

30 And whatsoever soul it be that doeth any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people.

31 Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, ye shall celebrate your sabbath."

33 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

34 "Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, 'The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD.

35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

36 Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a solemn assembly; and ye shall do no servile work therein.

37 These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, and a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon his day:

38 Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.

39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.

40 And ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

41 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths:
5 And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake.
6 And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the LORD.
7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
8 Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.
9 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute.

10 And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this son of the Israelitish woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp;
11 And the Israelitish woman's son blasphemed the name of the LORD, and cursed. And they brought him unto Moses: (and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan;) And they put him in ward, that the mind of the LORD might be shewed them.
12 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
13 Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp; and let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.
14 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God shall bear his sin.
15 And he that killeth a beast, he shall make it good; but he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.
16 And if a man curse his neighbour in his name; as he hath done, so shall it be done to him;
17 Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a breach in a man, so shall it be done to him again.
18 And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it: and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.
19 Ye shall have one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for the Lord your God.

20 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

21 And the LORD spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,
22 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which the LORD your God give you; then shall the land keep a sabbath unto the LORD.
25. 3.

LEVITICUS.

3 Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof; 5 But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard. 7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

8 And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years. 10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family. 11 A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which growth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.

12 For it is the jubile; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field. 13 In the year of this jubile ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 And if thou sell ought unto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbour's hand, ye shall not oppress one another: 15 According to the number of years after the jubile thou shalt buy thy neighbour's hand, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee: 16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD thy God. 18 Wherefore ye shall do My statutes, and keep My judgments, and do them; and ye shall dwell in the land in safety.

19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather together, 21 Then I will command My blessing upon thee in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for thee three years. 22 And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of old store.

23 The land shall not be sold for ever: the land is Mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with Me. 24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

25 If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold. 26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and himself be able to redeem it;
27 Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession.

28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubilee; and in the jubile it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.

29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubilee.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee.

32 Notwithstanding the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

33 And if a man purchase of the Levites a house in a city of their possession, they may redeem that which was bought of them among the cities of Levites: these are their perpetual possession.

34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.

35 And if thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with thee; then shalt thou relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee.

36 Take thou no usury of him, or increase: but fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee.

37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.

38 I am the LORD your God, Which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and fallen into decay with thee; thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bondservant:

40 But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubile:

41 And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

42 For I am My servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be bondmen unto me.

43 Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy God.

44 Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, whom thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you; of them shalt ye buy bondmen and bondmaids.

45 Moreover of the children of strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they beget in your land: and they shall be your possession.

46 And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; they shall be your bondmen 25 for ever: but over your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

47 And if a sojourner or stranger wax rich by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger’s family:

48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him:

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle’s son, may redeem him, or any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if he be able, he may redeem himself.
50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubile: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, according to the time of an hired servant shall it be with him.

51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubile, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigor over him in thy sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the year of jubile, both he, and his children with him.

55 For unto Me the children of Israel are servants; they are My servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: \\ 3 am I the LORD your God.

6 peace, or prosperity.

7 enemies = foes. First occurrence in Leviticus.

8 Five. See Ap. 10, this promise enlarged in Deut. 32. 20. Josh. 23. 10. Cp. 2 Sam. 23. 8, 18. 1 Chron. 11. 11. 15. 1 Sam. 30. 17.

9 Have respect = turn unto you, as rendered in Ezek. 46. 2; the only other place where this form occurs.

My soul = Myself, or I. Fig. Anthropopathia. Ap. 6.

12 walk. Fig. Anthropopathia. Ap. 6; or, literally, as in Eden. See Gen. 5. 8. Ap. 4. Quoted 2 Cor. 6. 16.

13 broken = broken in pieces. Heb. shabar, as in Ex. 19. 26; not peser, as in ver. 15, 24.

14, 15 (G1, above). DISOBEDIENCE.

The above structure (D, above) allows God's fivefold threatening for disobedience. We have the fivefold execution in Isa. 5. 25; 9. 13, 17, 21; 10. 4; and His fivefold lamentation in Amos 4. 6–12.
15 And if ye shall despise My statutes, or if ye shall not do all My commandments, but that ye break My covenant:

16 I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

17 And I will set My face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

18 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto Me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

19 And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass:

20 And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.

21 And if ye walk contrary unto Me, and will not hearken unto Me;

I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.

22 I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your high ways shall be desolate.

23 And if ye will not be reformed by Me by these things, but will walk contrary unto Me;

24 Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

25 And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of My covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you: and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

26 When I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.

27 And if ye will not for all this hearken unto Me, but walk contrary unto Me;

28 Then will I walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chaste you seven times for your sins.

29 And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

30 And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and My soul shall abhor you.

31 And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

32 I. Emphatic: I myself.

33 heathen: nations.

32 And 3 will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonisned at it.

33 And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.
34 Then shall the land "enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths. 35 As long as it lieth desolate it shall "rest; because it did not "rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it. 36 And upon them that are left alive of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth. 37 And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth; and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies. 38 And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. 39 And they that are left of you shall pine away in their "iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the "iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them. 40 If they shall confess their "iniquity, and the "iniquity of their fathers, with their "trespass which they "trespassed against Me, and that also they have walked "contrary unto Me; 41 And that I also have "walked "contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their "iniquity: 42 Then will I remember My covenant with Jacob, and also My covenant with Isaac, and also My covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. 43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their "iniquity: because, even because they despised My judgments, and because their soul abhorred My statutes. 44 And yet for all that, "when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break My covenant with them; for I am the LORD their "God. 45 But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the "heathen, that I might be their "God: "I am the LORD. 46 These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which the LORD made between Him and the children of Israel "in mount Sinai by the hand of Moses."
1490 bring an offering unto the Lord, all that any man giveth of such unto the Lord shall be holy.
10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, for a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the Lord, then he shall present the beast before the priest:
12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as thou valuest it, so shall it stand.
13 But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

14 And when a man shall sanctify his house unto the Lord, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.
15 And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the Lord some part of a field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: an homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.
17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jubile, according to thy estimation it shall stand.
18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubile, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubile, and it shall be abated from thy estimation.
19 And if he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.
20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more.
21 But the field, when it goeth out in the jubile, shall be holy unto the Lord, as a field devoted; the possession thereof shall be the priest’s.
22 And if a man sanctify unto the Lord a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his possession;
23 Then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of thy estimation, even unto the year of the jubile: and he shall give thee an estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the Lord.
24 In the year of the jubile the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong.
25 And all thy estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.

26 Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be the Lord’s firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the Lord’s.

20 Reuben. Lost his dignity in Gen. 49. 3, 4; not many in number here.
21 Simeon was greatly diminished by sin in Num. 26. 4, and Moses does not mention him in Deut. 33.

Those that were numbered of them: Some codices, with two early printed editions, Ock., Jon., Sept., and Syr., omit this clause. Cp. vs. 20, 24, 36, &c.
24 Gad takes the place of Levi here.
25 fifty. Gad is the only tribe who has "tens", all the others "hundreds". In the case of the firstborn (3, 43) we have not only tens but units.
26 Judah. His number is greatest (Gen. 49. 8).
27 Joseph. "The fruitful vine" (Gen. 49. 26) has two tribes (not merely "families"), and thus Joseph has "the double portion" (1 Chron. 5. 1, 2).
28 Ephraim. Blessed first (Gen. 48. 19, 20), is here named first, and is increased more than Manasseh (Deut. 33. 17).

14 Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of Deuel.
15 Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan."

16 These were the named of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel.

17 And Moses and Aaron took these 5 men which are expressed by their names:

18 And they assembled all the 5 congregation together on the 1 first day of the second month, and declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their 2 polls.

19 As 1 the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the 2 children of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their 2 polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

21 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

22 Of the 2 children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

23 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

24 Of the 2 children of Gad, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

25 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Gad, were forty and five thousand six hundred and fifty.

26 Of the 2 children of Judah, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

27 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Judah, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

28 Of the 2 children of Issachar, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

29 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Issachar, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

30 Of the 2 children of Zebulun, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

31 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

32 Of the 2 children of Joseph, namely, of the 2 children of Ephraim, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

33 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand and five hundred.

34 Of the 2 children of Manasseh, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

35 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

36 Of the 2 children of Benjamin, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

37 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

NUMBERS.

42 Of the children of Dan, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;
43 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Dan, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.
44 Of the children of Asher, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;
45 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Asher, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.
46 Of the children of Naphtali, throughout their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;
47 But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them.
48 For the LORD had spoken unto Moses, saying,
49 "Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel:
50 But thou shalt appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof; and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle.
51 And when the tabernacle setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.
52 And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts.
53 But the Levites shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony, that there be no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony."

54 And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

5 “And those that do pitch next unto him shall be the tribe of Issachar: and Nethaneel the son of Zuar shall be captain of the children of Issachar.”

6 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

7 o Then the tribe of Zebulun: and Eliab the son of Helon shall be captain of the children of Zebulun.”

8 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and seven thousand and four hundred.

9 All that were numbered in the camp of Judah were an hundred thousand and four score thousand and six thousand and four hundred, throughout their armies. “These shall first set forth.

10 On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their armies: and the captain of the children of Reuben shall be Eliazar the son of Shedeur.”

11 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

12 “And those which pitch by him shall be the tribe of Simeon: and the captain of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.”

13 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

14 “Then the tribe of Gad: and the captain of the sons of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Reuel.”

15 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and five thousand and six hundred and fifty.

16 All that were numbered in the camp of Reuben were an hundred thousand and fifty thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. “And they shall set forth in the second rank.

17 Then the tabernacle of the congregation shall set forward with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camp: “as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place by their standards.

18 On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their armies: and the captain of the sons of Ephraim shall be Elisama the son of Ammihud.”

19 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty thousand and five hundred.

3 east. The order proceeds according to the course of the sun: east, south, west, north.

Judah. The sign, a lion (Gen. 49. 9. Ezek. 1. 10. Rev. 4. 7). The standard, the colours of the three stones of the second row, Ex. 28. 18. For the order, see Ap. 45.

5 Issachar, brother of Judah (same mother, Leah). Gen. 35. 22. Sign on standard = Cancer.

7 Then. This word, according to some codices, with gen., should not be in italics. Cp. ch. 14, 22, 29.

10 south. See note on “east”, v. 3.

Reuben. The centre of the south side, with standard in the colours of stones of first row of Ex. 28. 17; and sign, a man (Gen. 30. 14) = Aquarius in Zodiac.

12 Simeon, the brother of Reuben (same mother, Leah). Gen. 35. 23. Sign = Pisces.

Reuel. Some codices, with one early printed edition, Onk., Jon., and Vulg., have “Deuel”, as in ch. 1. 14; 7. 42; 10. 20; the ג (Resh, R) being mistaken for ג (Dalet, D). Probably called, indifferently, by either name.

17 tabernacle of the congregation. See note on v. 2. This was in centre. So is the tent of the chief of the tribe to this day. The manner of its being carried is shown in ch. 10. 17, &c.

Levites. The order of the Levites' camping is shown in ch. 8, their marching in ch. 10. Their sign was Libra, or more anciently the “altar”, as = according as.

18 west. See note on v. 3. Heb. = sea, that being west.

Ephraim. The centre on the west side. The colours of the stones in fourth row of Ex. 28. 20. The sign, an ox (Deut. 32. 17. Ezek. 1. 10. Rev. 4. 7). In the Zodiac, Ephraim and Manasseh are the two horns of Taurus, the bull. Ephraim, the younger, bears the standard, according to the blessing in Gen. 48. 14-20.

20 Manasseh, brother of Ephraim by same mother (Gen. 41. 51, 52). Sign, see v. 18.

22 Benjamin, sons of Rachel, all on west side. Sign, Gemini.

20 “And by him shall be the tribe of Manasseh: and the captain of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzar.”

21 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

22 “Then the tribe of Benjamin: and the captain of the sons of Benjamin shall be Abidan the son of Gideoni.”

23 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

24 All that were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were an hundred thousand and eight thousand and an hundred, throughout their armies. “And they shall go forward in the third rank.

27 "And those that encamp by him shall be the tribe of Asher: and the captain of the children of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran."

28 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.

29 "Then the tribe of Naphtali: and the captain of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahiram the son of Enan.

30 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

31 All they that were numbered in the camp of Dan were an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred. "They shall go hindmost with their standards."

32 These are those which were numbered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers: all those that were numbered of the camps throughout were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

34 And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses: so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one after their families, according to the house of their fathers.

3 These also are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the LORD spake with Moses in mount Sinai. 2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests which were anointed, whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office. 4 (And Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the sight of Aaron their father.)

5 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 "Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him. 7 And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle. 8 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 And thou shalt give the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him out of the children of Israel.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest's office: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, which Moses 5 and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

40 And 4 the LORD said unto Moses, (p. 182)
  "Number all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And thou shalt take the Levites for me (73 am 4 the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel."

42 And Moses numbered, 0 as 1 the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel.

43 And all the firstborn males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were two thousand and two hundred and threescore and thirteen.

44 And 1 the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
  "Take the Levites 4 instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be Mine: 73 am 4 the LORD.

46 And for those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of the children of Israel, and which are more than the Levites;

47 Thou shalt even take five shekels apiece by the poll, after the shekel of the sanctuary shall thou take them: (the shekel is twenty gerahs:)

48 And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons.

49 And Moses took the redemption money of them that were over and above them that were 6 redeemed by the Levites:

50 Of the firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money; a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

51 And Moses gave the money of them that were 6 redeemed unto Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, 4 as 1 the LORD commanded Moses.

3 From thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation:

4 This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, about the most holy things:

39 and Aaron. These two words are dotted in the Hebrew. See Ap. 81. The command was given to Moses alone (v. 14, 15), and was carried out by him alone (v. 16). As Aaron took part, according to 1. 2, 4, and 4. 41; 43, 45, his name was included here by some ancient copyist; and later scribes dotted the words rather than leave them out.

commandment. Heb. "mouth," put for what was spoken by it by Fig. Metonymy (of Cause), Ap. 6.

40 the LORD said = Jehovah said. Heb. 'dmar (not ddvar, spake). 'dmar is followed by the words spoken, ddvar is not. This expression, Jehovah said, occurs eighteen "sundry times" and in five "divers manners" in this book of Numbers. Cp. note on 1. 1

1) To Moses (alone), 3. 49; 7. 11; 11. 16, 19; 12. 14; 14. 11; 15. 33; 17. 10; 21. 8, 34; 25. 4; 27. 12, 18.

2) To Aaron, 18. 1.

3) To Balaam, 20. 4, 18.

4) He said, 12. 6.

5) I Jehovah have said, 14. 35.

With the fifty-six times "Jehovah spake" (see 1. 1), these eighteen make seventy-four times, and sixteen manners. See note on 22. 5, for "God said" (four times, making seventy-eight in all).

And shall put thereon the covering of badgers’ skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put in the staves thereof.

And upon the table of shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and the covers to cover withal: and the continual bread shall be thereon:

And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the candlestick of the light, and his lamps, and his tongs, and his snuffdishes, and all the oil vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it:

And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the candlestick of the light, and his lamps, and his tongs, and his snuffdishes, and all the oil vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it:

And they shall take all the instruments of ministry, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers’ skins, and shall put them on a bar:

And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon:

And they shall put it upon a bar:

And upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers’ skins, and shall put to the staves thereof:

And they shall take all the instruments of ministry, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers’ skins, and shall put them on a bar:

And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon:

And they shall put it upon all the vessels thereof, wherewith they minister about it, even the censers, the fleshhooks, and the shovels, and the basins, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers’ skins, and put to the staves of it.

And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to be moved forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it: but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation.

And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest pertaineth the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily meat offering, and the anointing oil, and the oversight of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein is, in the sanctuary, and in the vessels thereof.

And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

“Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites:

But thus do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach unto the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint every one to his service and to his burden:

3. Then they shall confess their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense the trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

5. And every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his.
6. And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be his.
7. And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
8. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him,
9. And a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner;

23 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.
24 Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar:
25 And the priest shall take an handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.
26 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that, if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her People.

12 And he shall consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass offering, but the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

13 And this is the law of the Nazarite, when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

14 And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings,

15 And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings.

16 And the priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering;

17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his meat offering, and his drink offering.

18 And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings.

19 And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven:

20 And the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD: this is for the Nazarite, with the wave breast and heave shoulder: and after that the Nazarite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD for his separation, beside that that his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.”

22 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 ‘Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, ‘On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them,

24 ‘The LORD bless thee, and keep thee;

25 ‘The LORD make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee;

26 ‘The LORD lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.’

27 And they shall put My name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them.”
and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every "man according to his service."

6 And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites.

7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the sons of Gershon, according to their service:

8 And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

9 But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none: because the service of the sanctuary belonging into them was that they should bear upon their shoulders.

11 And the LORD said unto Moses, "They shall offer their offering, each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar."

12 And he that offered his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah:

13 And his offering was one silver charger, the weight thereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a burnt offering:

14 One spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense:

15 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

16 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

17 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

18 On the second day Nethaneel the son of Zuar, prince of Issachar, did offer:

19 He offered for his offering one silver charger, the weight thereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a burnt offering:

20 One spoon of gold of ten shekels, full of incense:

21 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

22 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

23 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

24 On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, prince of the children of Zebulun, did offer:

25 His offering was one silver charger, the weight thereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a burnt offering:

26 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

27 On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, prince of the children of Reuben, did offer:

28 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

29 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

30 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

31 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

32 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

33 On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, prince of the children of Simeon, did offer:

34 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

35 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

36 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

37 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:
40 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:
41 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Shemuel the son of Zurishaddai.

42 On the sixth day Eliasaph the son of Deuel, prince of the 30 children of God, offered:
43 His offering was one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:
44 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:
45 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:
46 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:
47 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

48 On the seventh day Elishama the son of Ammihud, prince of the 30 children of Ephraim, offered:
49 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:
50 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:
51 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:
52 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:
53 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

54 On the eighth day offered Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, prince of the 30 children of Manasseh:
55 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:
56 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:
57 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:
58 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:
59 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

60 On the ninth day Abidan the son of Gideoni, prince of the 30 children of Benjamin, offered:
61 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

62 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:
63 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:
64 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:
65 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

66 On the tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, prince of the 30 children of Dan, offered:
67 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:
68 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:
69 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:
70 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:
71 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

72 On the eleventh day Pagiel the son of Ocran, prince of the 30 children of Asher, offered:
73 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:
74 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:
75 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:
76 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:
77 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Pagiel the son of Ocran.

78 On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, prince of the 30 children of Naphtali, offered:
79 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:
80 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:
81 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:
82 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:
83 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.
84 This was the dedication of the altar, in the day when it was anointed, by the princes of Israel: twelve chargers of silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve spoons of gold:

85 Each charger of silver weighing an hundred and thirty shekels, each bowl seventy: all the silver vessels weighed two thousand and four hundred shekels, after the 15 shekel of the sanctuary:

86 The golden spoons were twelve, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, after the 15 shekel of the sanctuary: all the gold of the spoons was an hundred and twenty shekels.

87 All the oxen for the burnt offering were twelve bullocks, the rams twelve, the lambs of the first year twelve, with their meat offering: and the kids of the goats for sin offering twelve.

88 And all the oxen for the sacrifice of the peace offerings were twenty and four bullocks, the rams sixty, the he goats sixty, the lambs of the first year sixty. This was the dedication of the altar, after that it was anointed.

89 And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the "mercy seat" that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubims: and He spake unto him.

90 And "the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

1 "Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the candlestick."

3 And Aaron did so; he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick, as the LORD commanded Moses.

4 And this work of the candlestick was of beaten gold, unto the shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was beaten work: according unto the pattern which the LORD had shewed Moses, so he made the candlestick.

5 And "the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 "Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them."

7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with his meat offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering.

9 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together:

10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the LORD: and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites:

11 And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD for an offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the LORD:

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt

15 And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony:

and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning.

16 So it was alway:

the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed:

as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents.

And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.

And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle;

according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed:

whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the hand of Moses.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

11 And it came to pass on the 17th day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony.

12 And the children of Israel 6 took their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran.

13 And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

14 In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 And the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, bearing the tabernacle.

18 And the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elizur the son of Shdeur.

19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary: and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came.

22 And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

25 And the standard of the camp of the children of Dan set forward, which was the rewarad of all the camps throughout their hosts: and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Napthali was Ahira the son of Enan.

28 Thus were the journeys of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they set forward.

29 And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses’ father in law, ‘We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good; for 1 the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel.’

30 And he said unto him, ‘I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred.’

31 And he said, ‘Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us instead of eyes.

32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.’

33 And they departed from the mount of the LORD three days’ journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days’ journey, to search out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp.

35 And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses spake, ‘Rise up, 1 LORD, and let Thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate Thee flee before Thee.’

36 And when it rested, he said, ‘Return, O 1 LORD, unto the many thousands of Israel.”
11. 1. NUMBERS.

11 And when the People complained, it displeased the LORD; and the LORD heard it; and His anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.
2 And the People cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, the fire was quenched.
3 And he called the name of the place Taberah: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.
4 And the midst multitude that was among them fell a lusting; and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, "Who shall give us flesh to eat?"
5 We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic:
6 But now our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, beside this manna, before our eyes."
7 The people murmured against Moses.
8 And the People went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil.
9 And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

10 Then Moses heard the People weep throughout their families, every "man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; and Moses also was displeased."
11 And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast Thou afflicted Thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favour in Thy sight, that Thou layest the burden of all this People upon me?
12 Have I conceived all this People? have I begotten them, that Thou shouldst say unto Me, Carry them in thine bosom, as a nursing father beareth the sucking child, unto the land which Thou swarest unto their fathers?
13 Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this People? for they weep unto me, saying, 'Give us flesh, that we may eat.'
14 I am not able to bear all this People alone, because it is too heavy for me.
15 And if Thou deal thus with me, kill me, I pray Thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in Thy sight; and let me not see my wretchedness."

16 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the People, and officers over them; and bring them unto me.

21 And Moses said, 'The People, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand male; and 'two hun dred thousand men and women; and 'five hun dred thousand six hundred shepherds:
22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?'
23 And 'the LORD said unto Moses, 'Is the LORD's hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether My word shall come to pass unto thee or not.'

24 And Moses went out, and told the People the words of 'the LORD, and gathered the seventy 'men of the elders of the People, and set them round about the 'tabernacle.
25 And 'the LORD came down in a cloud, and 'spake unto him, and 'took of the 'spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders; and it came to pass, 'that, when the 'spirit rested upon them, they prophesied: and 'it did not cease.
26 But there remained two of the 'men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other was Melech; and the 'spirit rested upon them: and 'they were of 'them that were 'written, but 'went not out unto the 'tabernacle: and 'they prophesied 'in the camp.
27 And there ran 'a young man, and told Moses, and said, 'Eldad and Melech do prophesy in the camp.'
28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, "My lord Moses, forbid them."
29 And Moses said unto him, "'Enviest thou my sake?" would God that all 'the People were prophets, and that 'the LORD would put His 'spirit upon them!"
30 And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

31 And there went forth a 'wind from 'the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, six hundred thousand thousand (of quails); for they consumed them all round about the camp, and as it were two 'cubits 'high upon the face of the earth.

32 And the People stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered quails: he that gathered least gathered ten 'homer; and they spread 'them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.
33 And while the 'flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of 'the LORD was kindled against the People, and 'the LORD smote the People with a very great plague.
34 And he called the name of that place 'Kibroth-hattaavah: because there they buried the People that lusted.
35 And the People journeyed from Kibroth-hattaavah unto Hazeroth; and abode at Hazeroth.

2 And they said, "Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath He not spoken also by us?'' And the LORD heard it.

3 (Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 And the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, and came out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation." And they three came out.

5 And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

6 And He said, "Hear now My words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make Myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream."

7 "My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all Mine house.

8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the "similitude of the LORD shall be with him: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against My servant Moses?"

9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and He departed.

10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle:

11 And Aaron said unto Moses, "Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have "sinned.

12 Let her not be as one "dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb."

13 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, "Heal her now, O GOD, I beseech Thee."

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, "If her father had but "spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again."

15 And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the People journeyed not till Miriam was "brought in again.

16 And afterward the People removed from Hazereth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty days.

26 And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him, and said, "We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

28 Nevertheless the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of Anak there.

29 The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south: and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains: and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan."

30 And Caleb stilled the People before Moses, and said, "Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it."

31 But the men that went up with him said, "We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we."

32 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, "The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it were men of a great stature.

33 And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which came of the giants: and we were in our own sight as locusts, and so we were in their sight."

14 And all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night.

2 And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, "Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness! 3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?"

4 And they said one to another, "Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt." 5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, "The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

8 If the LORD delight in us, then He will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey.

9 Only rebel not ye against the LORD, neither fear ye the people of the land: for they are bread for us: their defense is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: fear them not."

10 But all the congregation bade stone them with stones.
And the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

11 And the LORD said unto Moses, "How long will this People provoke Me? and how long will it be ere they believe Me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them?"

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of them a greater nation and mightier than they."

13 And Moses said unto the LORD, "Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for Thou hast brought up this People in Thy might from among them;) and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that the LORD is among this People, that the LORD art seen face to face, and that His cloud standeth over them, and that the LORD goeth before them by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

14 Now if Thou shalt kill all this People as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of Thee will speak, saying, "Because the LORD was not able to bring this People into the land which He sware unto them, therefore He hath slain them in the wilderness."

15 And now, I beseech Thee, let the power of my LORD be great, according as Thou hast spoken, saying,

16 "The LORD is great and suffering, and great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation;"

17 Pardon, I beseech Thee, the iniquity of this People according unto the greatness of Thy mercy, and as Thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now."

18 And the LORD said, "I have pardoned according to thy word:

21 But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD.

22 Because all those men which have seen My glory, and My miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted Me twenty times, now these ten times, and have not hearkened to My voice;

23 Surely they shall not see the land which I sware unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked Me see it:

24 But My servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed Me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto went; and his seed shall possess it."

25 (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwelt in the valley.) "To morrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea."

26 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

27 "How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against Me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against Me.

28 Say unto them, "As truly as I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in Mine ears, so will I do to you:

20 Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against Me, 30 Doubtless ye shall not come into the land, concerning which "I swear to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

31 But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have despised.

32 But as for you, your carcases, they shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness.

34 After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even 40 days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years, and ye shall know My breach of promise."

35 "The Lord have I said, I will surely do it unto this evil congregation, that are gathered together against Me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die."

36 And the men, which Moses sent to search the land, returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land.

37 Even those 25 men that did 37 bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the Lord.

38 But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of the men that went to search the land, lived still.

39 And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel: and the People mourned greatly.

40 And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, "Lo, we be here, and will go up unto the place which the Lord hath promised: for we have 3 sinned."

41 And Moses said, "Wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the Lord? but it shall not prosper.

Go not up, for the Lord is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: because ye are turned away from the Lord, therefore will the Lord not be with you."

44 But they presumed to go up unto the hill top: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and Moses, departed not out of the camp.

45 Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites which dwelt in that hill, and smote them, and discomfited them, even unto Hormah.

46 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 "Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, "When ye be come into the land of your habitations, which I give unto you,

3 And will make an offering by fire unto the Lord, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or in a freewill offering, or in your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savour unto the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock:

4 Then shall he that offereth his offering unto the LORD bring a meat offering of a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of oil.

5 And the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice, for one lamb.

6 Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare for a meat offering two tenth deals of flour mingled with the third part of an hin of oil.

7 And for a drink offering thou shalt offer the third part of an hin of wine, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

8 And when thou preparest a bullock for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or peace offerings unto the LORD:

9 Then shall he bring with a bullock a meat offering of three tenth deals of flour mingled with half an hin of oil.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

11 Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid.

12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one according to their number.

13 All that are born of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; as ye do, so he shall do.

15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth with you; an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD.

16 One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

17 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 "Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, 'When ye come into the land whither I bring you,

19 Then it shall be, that, when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up an heave offering unto the LORD.

20 Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough for an heave offering; as ye do the heave offering of the threshingfloor, so shall ye heave it.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD an heave offering in your generations.

22 And if ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments, which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses,

23 Even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and hence forward among your generations:

24 Then it shall be, if ought be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his meat offering, and his drink offering, according to the manner, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering.

25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and the priest shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance:

26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.

27 And if any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering.

28 And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

29 Ye shall have one law for him that sinneth through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them.

30 But the soul that doeth ought presumptuously, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproacheth the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

31 Because he hath despised the word of the LORD, and hath broken His commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him.'" that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation of Israel to minister unto them?

9 Seemeth it . . .? Fig. Erothes. Ap. 6.

10 And He hath brought thee near to Him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also?

11 For which cause both thou and all thy congregation are gathered together against the LORD: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?"

12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab:

which said, "We will not come up:

13 "Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether a prince over us?

14 Moreover thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey; or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: will thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up."

15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, "Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them."

16 And Moses said unto Korah, "Be thou also among thy company, and thy brethren, and Aaron, to morrow:

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censer."

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD. And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

21 "Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment."

22 And they fell upon their faces, and said, "O LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man's sin, and will Thou be wroth with all the congregation?"

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 "Speak unto the congregation, saying, 'Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.'"

25 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, "Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins."

27 So they got up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

28 And Moses said, "Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine own mind."

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hath not sent me.

30 But if the LORD make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.

31 And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them:

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertain unto Korah, and all their goods.
33 And all that appertaineth to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, "Lest the earth swallow us up also." And there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

36 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

37 "Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder; for they are hallowed.

38 The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the Lord, therefore they are hallowed; and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel."

39 And Eleazar the priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar.

40 To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the Lord; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: so the Lord said unto him, "Thou art not Korah's company.

41 But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, "Ye have killed the People of the Lord."

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the Lord appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

45 "Get thee up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And they fell upon their faces.

46 And Moses said unto Aaron, "Take a censer, and put fire therein out of the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lord; the plague is begun."

47 And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the People: and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the People.

48 And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed.

49 Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, beside them that died about the matter of Korah.

And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was stayed.

him a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness. Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a token of the rebels; and thou shalt quite "take away their murmuring from Me, that they die not.

11 And Moses did so: as the LORD commanded him, so did he.

12 And the two children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, "Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish.

13 Whosoever cometh any thing near unto the tabernacle of the LORD shall die: shall we be consumed with dying?"

19 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 "This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, 'Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never came yoke:

3 And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face:

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times:

5 And one shall burn the heifer in sight; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn:

6 And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

8 And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin.

10 And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even:

W and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

V a 11 He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days.

12 And he shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.

b 13 Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him.

20 Then came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month:

and the people abode in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there.

2 And there was no water for the congregation: and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

3 And the people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, "Would God that we had died when our brethren died before the LORD!

4 And why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?

5 And what have ye made us to come out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink."

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.

7 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

8 "Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock; so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink."

9 And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as He commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, "Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch water out of this rock?"

11 And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

12 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, "Because ye believed Me not, to sanctify  Me in the eyes of the children of Isra" of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.”

13 This is the water of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and He was sanctified in them.

14 And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, “Thus saith thy brother Israel, ‘Thee knowest all the travel that hath befallen us:

15 How our fathers went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers:

16 And when we cried unto the LORD, He heard our voice, and sent an Angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border:

17 Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells; we will go by the king’s high way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders.’”

18 And Edom said unto him, “Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.”

19 And the children of Israel said unto him, “We will go by the high way: and if ye will send a word to the king’s house, we will go by the king’s high way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders.”

20 And he said, “Thou shalt not go through.” And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand.

21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel turned away from him.

22 And the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh, and came unto Mount Hor.

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, by the coast of the land of Edom, saying, 24 “Aaron shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye rebelled against my word at the water of Meribah.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up unto Mount Hor:

26 And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son: and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there.”

27 And Moses did as the LORD commanded: and they went up into Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

28 And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount.

29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead,
21. 2. NUMBERS. 21. 20

2 And Israel vowed a vow unto the Lord, and said, "If Thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities."

3 And the Lord hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place Hormah.

4 And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the People was much discouraged because of the way.

5 And the People spake against God, and against Moses. Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread.

6 And the Lord sent fiery serpents among the People, and they bit the People; and much people of Israel died.

7 Therefore the People came to Moses, and said, "We have sinned, for we have spoken against the Lord, and against thee; pray unto the Lord, that He take away the serpents from us." And Moses prayed for the People.

8 And the Lord said unto Moses, "Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live."

9 And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

10 And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in Oboth.

11 And they journeyed from Oboth, and pitched at Ije-abarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrising.

12 From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of Zared.

13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the Lord, "What He did in the Red sea, And in the brooks of Arnon, And at the stream of the brooks that goeth down to the dwelling of Ar, And lieth upon the border of Moab."

16 And from thence they went to Beer:

17 Then Israel sang this song, "Spring up, O well; Sing ye unto it:"

18 The princes digged the well, The nobles of the People digged it, By the direction of the lawgiver, with their staves."

2 And Israel vowed a vow unto the Lord, Fig. Polyphoton (Ap. 6), for emphasis - made a solemn vow, the Lord. Heb. Jehovah. Ap. 4, wilt indeed deliver = same Fig. Polyphoton (Ap. 6), only here it is translated and emphatically expressed by the word "indeed". Heb. = "a delivering Thou wilt deliver".

Hormah = utter destruction.

5 God = Elohim. They had lost sight of the covenant God, Jehovah. Ap. 4. 1. 11.

8 fiery serpents = burning. Heb. nachashim saraphim. Fig. Metonymy (of Effect), Ap. 6, because the effect of the bite was a burning sensation. Heb. saraph (see Ap. 49. 1 viii). The Seraphim so called in Isa. 6. 2, because they were burning ones: hence the name for these serpents. In the same way nachash, shining one, is also used for serpents, because they are shining ones in appearance. See Gen. 3. 1, and cp. Ap. 19.

T sinned. See Ap. 44. 1.

8 said. See note on 3. 46.

9 serpent = Heb. nachash, a shining thing of brass, as in Deut. 8. 18, 2 Kings 18. 4, &c.: so that nachash is synonymous with saraph, and both words are thus used of serpents.

10 children = sons. 13 coast = border.

14 of the wars of the Lord. This may commence the quotation, thus: "the wars of Jehovah [were with] Eth-Vaheb by the Red sea (or with a whirlwind, Heb. Supha. Cp. Amos 1. 14, Isa. 66. 15. Nah 1. 2. Jer. 4. 13) and by the brooks of Arnon," Eth-Vaheb may be the proper name of the king of the Amorites, who took Heshbon, as in v. 24.

the brooks of Arnon = the outpouring of the torrents.

10 they went. This Ellipsis is wrongly supplied. It should be "from thence toward Beer". No mention is made of Beer in the list of journeys in ch. 30.

spake. See note on 1. 1.

17 this song. See note on Ex. 15. 1.

18 they went. No mention is made of any of these places in the itinerary in ch. 38. Why not supply "(the waters or streams) went" in all these places? See v. 14. The Structure shows the scope of this member to be an "event": "journeys" are the subject of the preceding member. Cp. note on Ex. 15. 27.

Note the Alternation, which gives the interpretation: The princes dug the well;

The nobles of the people dug it,

With the lawgiver

[They dug it] with their staves.

20 country = field.

Jeshimon = wilderness.
21 And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, 22 "Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's high way, until we be past thy borders."

23 And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel. 24 And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the 10 children of Ammon: for the border of the 10 children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof. 26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that speak in proverbs say, "Come into Heshbon, Let the city of Sihon be built and prepared: For there is a fire gone out of Heshbon, A flame from the city of Sihon: It hath consumed Ar of Moab, And the lords of the high places of Arnon. Woe to thee, Moab! Thou art undone, O people of Chemosh: He hath given his sons that escaped, And his daughters, into captivity Unto Sihon king of the Amorites. We have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even unto Dibon, And we have laid them waste even unto Nophah, Which reacheth unto Medeba."

31 Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites. 32 And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites that were there. 33 And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei. 34 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon."

35 So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him alive: and they possessed his land.

22 And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in the plains of Moab on this side Jordan by Jericho.

2 And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. 3 And Moab was sore afraid of the People, because they were many: and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab said unto the elders of Midian, "Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field." And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

5 He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor to Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, 21 went. Without waiting for the condition given by the Lord in v. 20. Hence God's anger. See v. 22.

22 And "God's anger was kindled because he went: and the Angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him.

Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

23 And the ass saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way, and His sword drawn in His hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field:

and Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way.

24 But the Angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

25 And when the ass saw the Angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall:

and he smote her again.

26 And the Angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the ass saw the Angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam:

and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.

28 And the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam:

"What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten these three times?"

29 And Balaam said unto the ass, "Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee."

30 And the ass said unto Balaam, "Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee?"

31 And he said, "Nay."

32 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel of the Lord standing in the way, and His sword drawn in His hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face.

33 And the ass saw Me, and turned from Me these three times: unless she had turned from Me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved my alive."

34 And Balaam said unto the Angel of the LORD, "I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease Thee, I will get me back again."

35 And the Angel of the Lord said unto Balaam, "Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak."

So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the utmost coast.

37 And Balak said unto Balaam, "Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able indeed to promote thee to honour?"

38 And Balaam said unto Balak, "Lo, I am come unto thee: have I now any power at all to say any thing? the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak."
40 And Balak *offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see "the utmost part of the People.

23 And Balaam said unto Balak, "Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven rams."

2 And Balak did *as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam *offered on every altar a bullock and a ram.

3 And Balaam said unto Balak, "Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will go: peradventure the LORD will come to *meet me: and whatsoever He sheweth me I will tell thee." And he went to an high place.

4 And *God *met Balaam: and he said unto Him, "I have prepared seven altars, and I have *offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram."

5 And *the LORD *put a word in Balaam's mouth, and *said, "Return unto Balak, and thus thou shalt speak."

6 And he returned unto him, and, *lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, and all the princes of Moab.

7 And he took up his parable, and said, "Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram, Out of the mountains of the east, saying, 'Come, curse me Jacob, and come, defy Israel.'"

8 *How shall I *curse, whom *God hath not *cursed? Or how shall I *defy, whom *the LORD hath not *defied?

9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, And from the hills I behold him: *Lo, the People shall dwell alone, And the MB shall not be reckoned among the nations.

10 *Who can count the dust of Jacob, And *the number of the fourth part of Israel?

Let *me die the death of the righteous, And let my last end be like his!"

11 And Balak said unto Balaam, "What hast thou done unto me? I took thee to *curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast blessed them altogether."

12 And he answered and said, "Must I not take heed to speak that which *the LORD hath *put in my mouth?"

13 And Balak said unto him, "Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, from whence thou mayest see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: and *curse me them from thence."

14 And he brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, "What hath the 3 LORD spoken?"

18 And he took up his parable, and said, "Rise up, Balak, and hear; Heurken unto me, thou son of Zipor:
19 4 GOD is not a man, that He should lie; 5 Neither the son of man, that He should repent:
6 7 Hath He said, and shall He not do it? Or 8 hath He spoken, and shall He not make it good?

20 Behold, I have received 9 commandment to bless: and 10 He hath blessed; And I cannot reverse it.

21 He hath not beheld 11 iniquity in Jacob, Neither hath He seen 12 perverseness in Israel:
7 8 The 3 LORD 13 is with him, And the shout of a king is among them.

22 GOD brought them out of Egypt; He hath as it were the 9 strength of an 10 unicorn.

23 Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob. Neither is there any divination against Israel:
14 15 According to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, 'What hath 3 GOD wrought!'

24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a great lion, And lift up himself as a young lion: He shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, And drink the blood of the slain."

25 And Balak said unto Balaam, "Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all."

26 But Balaam answered and said unto Balak, "Told not I thee, saying, 'All that 3 the LORD speaketh, that I must do?'

27 And Balaam said unto Balak, "Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another place; And look, 10 enchanter it will please 3 God that thou mayest 11 curse me from thence.

28 And Balaam brought Balaam unto the top of Peor, that looketh toward 10 Bashan.

29 And Balaam said unto Balak, "Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams."

30 And Balak did 12 as Balaam had said, and 10 offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

31 And when Balaam saw that the 3 LORD 13 to bless Israel, he went not, as at 14 other times, 15 to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

32 And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel abiding 16 in his tents 17 according to their tribes; and 18 the Spirit of 3 God came upon him, 33 And he took up his parable, and said, "Balaam the son of Beor hath said, And the man 19 whose eyes are 20 open hath said: 21 He hath said, which heard the words 22 of 3 GOD, 23-24 (5, p. 215). BALAAM'S SECOND PARABLE.

Deut. and Fig. BALAAM’S Introduction.

The Hos. 2 48. And lions. See Valleys, Dan. 78. How will destroy the Fig. 5 the | curseth. The Rev. but, balaam, and his son shall be in many waters, And his king shall be higher than Agag, And his kingdom shall be exalted.

And 5 'GOD brought him forth out of Egypt; He hath as it were the strength of an 6 unicorn:

He shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, And pierce them through with his arrows.

And 9 He couched, he lay down as a lion, And as a great lion: who shall stir him up?

Blessed is he that blesseth thee, And cursed is he that curseth thee.'

10 And Balak’s anger was kindled against Balaam, and he smote his hands together: and Balak said unto Balaam, “I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, “I behold, thou hast 6 altogether blessed them these three times.

Therefore now fce thou to thy place: I thought to 6 promote thee unto great honour; but, “lo, I the LORD hath kept thee back from honour.”

12 And Balaam said unto Balak, “Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest unto me, saying,

‘If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the LORD, to do either good or bad of mine own mind; but what I the LORD saith, that will I speak?’

And now, 10 behold, I go unto my people: come therefore, and | I will advertise thee what this People shall do to thy People in the latter days.”

16 He spake of the Most High, Which saw the vision of the AMIGHTY, ‘Falling into a trance, but having his eyes 3 open:

17 I shall see Him, 6 but not now: I shall behold Him, 6 but not nigh: There shall come a Star out of Jacob, And a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel,

And shall smite the corners of Moab, And 6 destroy all the children of Sheth.

18 And Edom shall be a possession.
24. 18.

NUMBERS.

19 Out of Jacob. In Heb. there is the Ellipsis of the Participle (Ap. 6); "shall come" is implied and should be repeated from the previous clause. R.V. is literal.

20 the first: i.e. the first that smote Israel. Ex. 17. 3. "Not the first in time or importance, but he that was first to resist and suffer destruction." Cp. Ex. 17. 16.

21 Kenites. With the word "nest" forms the Fig. Paronomasia (Ap. 6). Heb. běn kōên. nest. Heb. kēn.

22 took up. This is not a fifth parable, but part of the fourth.

23 abode: i.e. dwell after Moses' death. Cp. Josh. 2. 1; 3. 1, and see Mic. 6. 5.

Shittim. Called Abel-shittim in 33. 49.

with = to (Heb. 'el). Requiring the supply of the Ellipsis "to join themselves to", from v. 3.

24 they: i.e. the daughters of Moab.

25 And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab.

26 And they called the People unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the People did eat, and bowed down to their gods.

27 And Israel joined himself unto Baal-peor:

a and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, "Take all the heads of the People, and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel."

29 And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, "Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Baal-peor."

30 And, behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

31 And when Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand;

32 And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel.

33 And those that died in the plague were twenty and four thousand.

34 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
11 "Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned My wrath away from the children of Israel, while he was zealous for My sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Israel in My jealousy.
12 Wherefore say, "Behold, I give unto him My covenant of peace:
13 And "he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for His God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel.'"

14 Now the name of the Israelite that was slain, even that was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a chief house among the Simeonites.
15 And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was head over a people, and of a chief house in Midian.
16 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
17 "Vex the Midianites, and smite them:
18 For they vex you with their wiles, whereby they have beguiled you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midian, their sister, which was slain in the day of the plague for Peor's sake."

26 And it came to pass after the plague, that the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying,
2 The children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, throughout their fathers' house, all that are able to go to war in Israel:" And Moses and Eleazar the priest spake with them in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying,
4 "Take the sum of the People, from twenty years old and upward; as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt."

5 Reuben, the eldest son of Israel: the children of Reuben; Hanoch, of whom cometh the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the family of the Palluites;
6 Of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.
7 These are the families of the Reubenites: and they that were numbered of them were forty and three thousand and seven hundred and thirty.
8 And the sons of Pallu; Eliab.
9 And the sons of Eliab; Nethueel, and Dathan, and Abiram. This is that Dathan and Abiram, which were famous in the congregation, who strove against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they strove against the LORD:
10 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died, what time the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men: and they became a sign.

13 he shall have it. See Ps. 106. 70, 71 and Mal. 2. 4, 5. Cp. 1 Chron. 6, 4-15. 1 Sam. 22, 18. 1 Kings 2. 27 with 1 Sam. 14. 17. Also 1 Chron. 6, 4-15. Ezra was of his line (Ezra 7. 1, 5).
14 everlasting priesthood. Restored to Phinehas, and remained with him, after Zili. See note on Ex. 29. 33.

13 c 51. The total number.
14 a 1. after the plague. Cp. 26. 5.
3 Take the sum. For the order of the tribes see Ap. 5. Moses received them by number, Ex. 38. 26; so now, when preparing to die, he delivers them over by number. This was the third numbering.
4 Take the sum. The correctly supplies the Ellipsis from v. 2. See Fig. Ellipses, Ap. 6. 11. 1.
5 Reuben. Cp. Gen. 46. 8. Ex. 6. 14. The order is the same as in 1. 26, except that Ephraim and Manasses are reversed. See Ap. 43. family. See note on "house", v. 2, and throughout the chapter.
6 Of Hezron. = To Hezron [pertained], and so throughout. Cp. vs. 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 20, 21, 23, 24, 26, 28, 29, 30, 31. 12.
7 forty and three, &c. = 43,730 In Num. 1. 21 = 46,500, decrease of 2,770. This is an undesigned evidence of accuracy: an uninspired writer would have made an increase.
8 sons. A special reading of MS. called Serir reads "son". See Ap. 84.
9 which were famous, &c. = Heb. "of the called of the congregation". No Ellipsis.
10 And the earth. This tenth verse is a Parenthesis. See Ap. 8.

18 In the first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein:

19 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt offering unto the LORD: two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish:

20 And their meat offering shall be of flour mingled with oil: three tenth deals shall ye offer for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram;

21 A several tenth deal shall thou offer for every lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

22 And one goat for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you.

23 Ye shall offer these beside the burnt offering in the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.

24 After this manner ye shall offer daily, throughout the seven days, the meat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: it shall be offered beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

25 And on the seventh day ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work.

26 Also in the day of the firstfruits, when ye bring a new meat offering unto the LORD, after your weeks be out, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work.

27 But ye shall offer the burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year;

28 And their meat offering of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto one bullock, two tenth deals unto one ram,

29 A several tenth deal unto one lamb, throughout the seven lambs;

30 And one kid of the goats, to make an atonement for you.

31 Ye shall offer them beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, (they shall be unto you without blemish) and their drink offerings.

29 And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: it is a day of blowing the trumpets unto you.

2 And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

3 And their meat offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram,

22 atonement. See note on Ex. 29, 33.

23 besede. In addition to, as in v. 31 (not "upon"), as in ex. 10, and 24.

26 in the day at the time. See Ap. 18.

7 And ye shall have on the tenth day of this seventh month an holy convocation; and ye shall afflict your souls: ye shall not do any servile work therein:

8 But ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD for a sweet savour; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year; they shall be unto you without blemish:

9 And their meat offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals to a bullock, and two tenth deals to one ram,

10 A several tenth deal for one lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

11 One kid of the goats for a sin offering;
1452 12 And on the 15th day of the seventh month ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work, and ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days:

13 And ye shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; thirteen young bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year; they shall be without blemish:

14 And their meat offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three-tenth deals unto every bullock of the thirteen bullocks, two-tenth deals to each ram of the two rams,

15 And a several third deal to each lamb of the fourteen lambs:

16 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; 11 beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering.

17 And on the second 16th day ye shall offer twelve young bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without spot:

18 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

19 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; 11 beside the continual burnt offering, and the meat offering thereof, and their drink offerings.

20 And on the third day eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

21 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

22 And one goat for a sin offering; 6 beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.

23 And on the fourth day ten bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

24 Their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

25 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; 6 beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering.

26 And on the fifth day nine bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without spot:

27 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

28 And one goat for a sin offering; 6 beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.

29 And on the sixth day eight bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

30 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

31 And one goat for a sin offering; 6 beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.

32 And on the seventh day seven bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

33 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

34 And one goat for a sin offering; 6 beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering.

35 On the eighth day ye shall have a solemn assembly: ye shall do no servile work therein:

36 But ye shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: one bullock, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

37 Their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

38 And one goat for a sin offering; 6 beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.

39 These things ye shall do unto the LORD in your set feasts, beside your vows, and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meat offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.

40 And Moses told the children of Israel according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.
And Moses spake unto the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded.

2 If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or swear an oath by his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth;

4 And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she had at all an husband, when she vowed, or uttered ought out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace in the day that he heard it; then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

8 But if her husband disallowed her on the day that he heard it; then she shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect: and the LORD shall forgive her.

9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace in the day that he heard it; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband hath utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict her soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them.

15 But if he shall any ways make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity.

16 These are the statutes, which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 "Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shalt thou be gathered unto thy people."

3 And Moses spake unto the People, saying, "Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of Midian. Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war."
5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, an armed for war.
6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, that "the Lord had given war.
7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the Lord commanded Moses; and they slew all the males.
8 And they slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zu, and Hur, and Reba. Five kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword.
9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.
10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, with fire.
11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.
12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, unto Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho.
13 And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, "Have ye saved all the women alive?

16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the Lord in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the Lord.

17 Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known a man by lying with him.

18 But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

19 And do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day.

20 And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

21 And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, "This is the ordinance of the law which the Lord commanded Moses;

22 Only the gold, and the silver, the "iron, the tin, and the lead, 23 Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make "it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified with the fire. The article of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water.

24 And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp."

25 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

26 "Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of men and of beast, thou and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation:

27 And divide the prey into two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation:

28 And levy a "tribute unto the Lord of the men of war which went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beehives, and of the asses, and of the sheep:

29 Take it of their half, and give it unto Eleazar the priest, for an heave offering of the Lord.

30 And of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beehives, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Levites, which keep the charge of the tabernacle of the Lord."

31. 5. NUMBERS. 31. 30.
31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did 'as the LORD commanded Moses.
32 And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the "men of war" had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep.
33 And threescore and twelve thousand beeves.
34 And threescore and one thousand asses.
35 And thirty and two thousand 'persons in all, of women that had not known "man by lying with him."
36 And the half, which was the portion of those that went out "to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep:
37 And 'the LORD'S thirtieth of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen.
38 And the beeves were thirty and six thousand; of which 'the LORD'S thirtieth was threescore and twelve.
39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which 'the LORD'S thirtieth was threescore and one.
40 "And the 'persons were sixteen thousand; of which 'the LORD'S thirtieth was thirty and two persons.
41 And Moses gave the thirtieth, which was 'the LORD'S heave offering, unto Eleazar the priest, 'as 'the LORD commanded Moses.
42 And of the 'children of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the 'men that warred,
43 (Now the half that pertained unto the congregation was three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred sheep.)
44 And forty and six thousand beeves.
45 And thirty thousand asses and five hundred.
46 And sixteen thousand forty persons;"
47 Even of the 'children of Israel's half, Moses took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and 'gave them unto the Levites, which kept the charge of the tabernacle of 'the LORD; 'as 'the LORD commanded Moses.
48 And the officers which were over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto Moses:
49 And they said unto Moses, "Thy servants have taken the sum of the 'men of war which are under our charge, and there lacketh not one "man of us.
50 We have therefore brought an 'oblation for 'the LORD, what every man hath gotten, of "jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, to make an 'atonement for "our souls before 'the LORD."
51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, even all wrought "jewels.
52 And all the gold of the 'offering that they 'offered up to 'the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty "shekels.
53 (For the 'men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself;)
54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, for a memorial for the 'children of Israel before 'the LORD.

32 Now the 'children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of "cattle: and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that, "behold, the place was a place for "cattle;
2 The "children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying,
3 "'Ataroth, 'Dibon, and 'Jazer, and 'Nmimrah, and "Heshbon, and "Elealeh, and "Shobam, and "Nebo, and "Beon,
4 'Even the country which "the LORD smote before the congregation of Israel, "is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle:" "

28 And the 'children of Gad and the 'children of Reuben spake unto Moses, saying, "Thy servants will do 'as my lord commandeth.
28 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead:
27 But thy servants 'will pass over, every man armed for war, before 'the LORD to battle, as my lord saith."
28 So concerning 'that Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the 'children of Israel:
29 And Moses said unto them, "If the 'children of Gad and the 'children of Reuben will pass with you over Jordan, every man armed to battle, before 'the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession:
30 But if they will not pass over with you armed, 'they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan."
31 And the 'children of Gad and the 'children of Reuben answered, saying, "As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so will we do.
32 We will pass over armed before 'the LORD into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be ours."
33 And 'Moses gave unto them, even to the 'children of Gad, and to the 'children of Reuben, and unto half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over Jordan."

6 And Moses said unto the 'children of Gad and to the 'children of Reuben, "Shall your brethren go to war, and shall ye sit here?
7 And wherefore discourage ye the heart of the 'children of Israel from going over into the land which 'the LORD had given them?
8 Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.
9 For when they went up unto the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the 'children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which 'the LORD had given them.
10 And 'the LORD’s anger was kindled against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all 'the generation, that had done 'evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed.
11 And, 'behold, ye are risen up in your fathers’ stead, an 'increase of 'sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of 'the LORD toward Israel.
12 For if ye turn away from after Him, He will yet again 'leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this People."
16 And they came near unto him, and said, "We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones:
17 But we ourselves will go ready armed before the 'children of Israel, until we have brought them in their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities because of the inhabitants of the land.
18 We 'will not return unto our houses, until the 'children of Israel have inherited every 'man his inheritance.
19 For we will not inherit with them on yonder side Jordan, or forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan eastward."
20 And Moses said unto them, "If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before 'the LORD to war,
21 And will go all of you armed over Jordan before 'the LORD, until He hath driven out His enemies from before Him,
22 And the land be subdued before 'the LORD: then afterward ye shall return, and be guiltless before 'the LORD, and before Israel; and this land shall be your possession before 'the LORD.
23 But if ye will not do so, 'behold, ye have sinned against 'the LORD: and be sure your sin will find you out.
24 Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which hath proceeded out of your mouth."

2 "Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, 'When ye come into the land of Canaan; (this is the land that shall fall unto you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan with the coasts thereof;)

3 Then ye south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the coast of Edom, and your south border shall be the outmost coast of the sea eastward:

4 And your border shall turn from the south to the ascent of Akrabbim, and pass on to Zin: and the going forth thereof shall be from the south to Kadesh-barnaa, and shall go on to Hazar-addar, and pass on to Azmon:

5 And the border shall fetch a compass from Azmon unto the river of Egypt, and the goings out of it shall be at the sea.

6 And as for the western border, ye shall even have the great sea for a border: this shall be your western border.

7 And this shall be your north border: from the great sea ye shall point out for you mount Hor:

8 From Mount Hor ye shall point out your border unto the entrance of Hamath; and the goings forth of the border shall be to Zedad:

9 And the border shall go on to Ziphron, and the goings out of it shall be at Hazar-enan: this shall be your north border.

10 And ye shall point out your east border from Hazar-enan to Shepham:

11 And the coast shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain; and the border shall descend, and shall reach unto the side of the sea of Chinnereth eastward:

12 And the border shall go down to Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at the salt sea: this shall be your land with the coasts thereof round about."

13 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, "This is the land which ye shall inherit by lot, which the LORD commanded to give unto the nine tribes, and to the half tribe:

14 For the tribe of the children of Reuben, according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance; and half the tribe of Manassah have received their inheritance:

15 The two tribes and the half tribe have received their inheritance on this side Jordan near Jericho eastward, toward the sunrising."

28 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedahel, the son of Ammihud.
29 These are they whom the Lord commanded to divide the inheritance unto the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

35 And the Lord spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab, by Jericho, saying,
2 Command the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites, two cities out of their possession cities to dwell in; and ye shall give also unto the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them.
3 And the cities they shall have to dwell in; and the suburbs of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts.
4: And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits round about.
5 And ye shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand four hundred cubits, and on the south side two thousand four hundred cubits, and on the west side two thousand four hundred cubits, and on the north side two thousand four hundred cubits; and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.

6 And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites there shall be six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither: and to them ye shall add forty and two cities.
7 So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall be forty and eight cities: from them ye shall give their suburbs.
8 And the cities which ye shall give shall be of the possession of the children of Israel: from them that have many ye shall give many; but from them that have few ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites according to his inheritance which he inheriteth.

9 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan;
11 Then ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth any person at unawares.

12 And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger; that the manslayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment.

13 And of these cities which ye shall give six cities ye shall have for refuge;
14 Ye shall give three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge.
15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them:
that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither.

16 And if he smite him with an instrument of iron, so that he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

17 And if he smite him with throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The 26. The "revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him.

20 But if he thrust him 0 of hatred, or hurl at him by 0 laying of wait, that he die; 21 Or in enmity smite him with his hand, that he die; he that smote him shall surely be put to death; for 0 he is a 26 murderer: the 26. The "revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him.

22 But if he thrust him suddenly 0 without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without 0 laying of wait, 23 Or with any stone wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him, that he die, and 0 was not his enemy, neither sought his harm:

24 Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the 26. the "revenger of blood according to these judgments:

25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the 26. the "revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, which was anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the 26. the "revenger of blood find him without the borders of his city of refuge, and the 26. the "revenger of blood kill the slayer; he shall not be guilty of blood:

28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be for a 0. statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your 0. dwellings.

30 Whoso killeth any 0. person, the 26. murderer shall be put to death by the 0. mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die.

31 Moreover ye shall take 0. no satisfaction for the 0. life of a 26. murderer, 0. which is guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death.

32 And ye shall take 0. no satisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the high priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are: for 0. blood it defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

34 0. Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein 3. dwell: for 3. the LORD dwell 0. among the 0. children of Israel.

36 And the 0. chief fathers of the families of the 0. children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the 0. sons of Joseph, came near, and spake before Moses, and before the princes, the 0. chief fathers of the 0. children of Israel:

2 And they said, 0. The LORD commanded 0. my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the 0. children of Israel: and 0. my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters.

3 And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when the jubilee of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers."

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, "The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath said well.

6 This is the thing which the LORD doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, 'Let them marry to whom they think best; only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry.

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Israel shall keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.'"

10 Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad: 11 For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto their father's brothers' sons:

12 And they were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the commandments and the judgments, which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses unto the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho. Epilogue (p. 171)

THE FIFTH BOOK OF "MOSES, CALLED "DEUTERONOMY."

1 These be the words which Moses spake unto all Israel on this side Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain over against the Red sea, between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab. (See Ap. 2. 3-47.)

2 (There are eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of mount Seir unto Kadesh-barnea.)

3 And it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them;

4 After he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Ashtaroth in Edrei;

5 On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 "The LORD our God spake unto us in Horeb, saying, 'Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount:

7 'Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and unto all the places nigh thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto the great river, the river Euphrates.'

8 "Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after them.'

9 And I spake unto you at that time, saying, 'I am not able to bear you myself alone:

10 "The LORD your God hath 'multiplied you, and, behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude.'

11 "The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as He hath promised you.)

Title. Moses. See Ap. 2. 47. Called: by the Sept. translators, and from them by Jerome, in the Vulgate.

Deuteronomy = Second Law, from 17. 18, where "copy of the law" is so rendered from Rabbinic mishnah, a notabiling.

Hebrew Title = Ḥaddēbārim = "the words." It is the fifth book, concluding the five books of the Pentateuch (see Ap. 10). No scroll of the Pentateuch ever seen with more than these five. See Ap. 48 and 47.

The whole history of the book took place in the eleventh month of the fortieth year. Only the last fifteen chapters of Numbers refer to the time of Deut.

22 every one. &c. - all of you. See note on v. 1.

28 Whither shall we go up? o our brethren have discouraged our heart, saying, This people is greater and taller than we: the cities are great and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakims there.'

29 Then I said unto you, 'Dread not, neither be afraid of them.

30 'The LORD your God which goeth before you, shall cleave the heavens before you, and take your enemies by their necks, and destroy them before you: yea, He shall deliver you out of the hand of your enemies.

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

32 Yet in this thing ye did not believe the LORD your God, 33 Who went in the way before you, to search out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.

34 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and sware, saying, 35 Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see the good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers, 36 Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath wholly followed the LORD.'

37 (Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, 'Thou also shalt not go in thither.

38 'But Joshua the son of Nun, which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.'

39 Moreover your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which as yet knew not good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.

41 Then ye answered and said unto me, 'We have sinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us.' And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill.

42 And the LORD said unto me, 'Say unto them, 'Go not up, neither fight; for I am among you.' For ye have snuffed at my nose.

43 So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and went presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Amorites, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah.

45 And ye returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you.

taller = greater. Some codices, with Sam. and Sept., read 'more in number'.

walled, &c. Fig. Hyperbole. Ap. 6.

Anakims. First occurrence; elsewhere, 2, 10, 11, 21; 9, 2, Josh. 11, 21, 22; 14, 12, 15. See Ap. 25. For 'sons of Anak', see note on Num. 13, 22.

31 see. Num. 11, 12, and cp. Isa. 63, 9 and Acts 13, 18.

32 the LORD. Heb. 'in the Lord' (=Jehovah).

34 in, in fire by night. See Ex. 13, 21, 22. Num. 10, 33, 34.

35 was wroth. See Num. 14, 20-25 and Ps. 86, 8-11.

37 children = sons.

38 This and the next verse are put in a Parenthesis (Ap. 6).

42 we will go up. Cp. Num. 14, 40-42.

43 ready. Heb. hat. Occurs only here = rash, or presumptuous.

46 bees. Heb. with art. 'the bees'. Art. of species. destroyed you = beat you down. Heb. kathath.

47 abode in Kadesh. This is not a summary of the thirty-eight years wandering, but of what happened before then. How solemn the word 'abode' when the command had been 'go up'.

48 pass through = cross the border. Num. 20, 4, 14-17.

2, 1 turned = faced about. Cp. 1, 7.

2, 4-3, 38. [For Structure see next page.] 4 pass through = cross the border. Num. 20, 4, 14-17.

Judg. 11, 17. children = sons.

46 So ye abode in Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

47 K e

2 Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea, as the LORD spake unto me: and we compassed mount Seir many days.

2 And the LORD spake unto me, saying, 3 Ye have compassed this mountain long enough: turn you northward.

4 And command thou the People, saying, 1 Be ye to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore:
2.5. DEUTERONOMY.

1. Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth; "because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession.
6. Ye shall buy of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.
7. For "the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: He knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years "the Lord thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.'"
8. And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plain from Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.
9. And o the Lord said unto me, o Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have given Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession.'

10. The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims;
11. Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites call them Emims.
12. The Horims also dwelt in Seir beforetime; but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead; as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which o the Lord gave unto them.
13. o Now rise up,' said I, 'and get you over the brook Zered.' And we went over the brook Zered.
14. And the space in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over this brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the Lord spake unto them.
15. For indeed the hand of the Lord was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed.
16. So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the People,
17. That the Lord spake unto me, saying,
18. 'Lest thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day:

19. And when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession.'
20. (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in old time; and the Ammonites call them Zamzummims;
21. A people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims; but the Lord destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead:
22. As He did to the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, when He destroyed the Horims from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day:
23. And the Avims which dwelt in Hazerim...
22. & 23. DEUTERONOMY.

24. *Rise ye up, *take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into thine hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: I begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle:

26. This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee.

28. And I *sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying,

29. *Let me pass through thy land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

30. Thou *shalt sell me *meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through on my feet.

31. As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me; until I shall pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God giveth us.

32. Then Sihon *came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz.

33. And the LORD our God delivered him before us; and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

34. And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly *destroyed the *men, and the women, and the little ones, of every city, we left none to remain:

35. Only the cattle we took for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took.

36. From *Aroer, which is by the brink of the river of Arnon, and from *the city that is by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God delivered all unto us:

37. Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto any place of the river Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, nor unto whatsoever the LORD our God forbad us.

M | 3. 4.

34. destroyed - devoted to destruction. Heb. םיראש. Cp. 8. 2; 20. 17.

35. a prey. For the law governing this see Num. 31.

36. Aroer. Num. 32. 34. The name is on the Moabite Stone. See Ap. 54.

4. three score cities. They can all be seen, and counted to-day. (See Dr. Porter's Giant Cities of Bashan, region. Heb. י"אר, Put by Fig. Metonymy of Cause), Ap. 6, for the region marked out by it.

3. 1-29 (M, above). THE CONQUEST OF OG. (Inversion.)

3. 20. Send messengers unto Sihon king of Heshbon, that he may come out to meet me: that we may make peace, or fight against him, according to the will of Jehovah.

3. 21. And the king of Bashan came out to meet us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei:

3. 22. And the king of Bashan said unto us, ' Fear not, I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.'

3. 23. So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining.

3. 24. And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, three score cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

241
5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside unwalled towns a great many.
6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city.
7 But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.
8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon;
9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion; and the Amorites call it Shenir;)
10 All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salcha and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 And Marduk, who was in Gilgal, I besought, saying, 12 And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites.
13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh: all the region of Arphad, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants.
14 (Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob unto the coast of Geshuri and Maachath; and called them after his own name, Bashan-havoth-jair, unto this day.)
15 And I gave Gilead unto Machir.
16 And unto the Reubenites and unto the Gadites I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon half the valley, and the border even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon;
17 The plain also, and Jordan, and the 11 coast thereof, from Chinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, under Ashdoth-pisghah eastward.
18 And I commanded you at that time, saying, 19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you;
20 Until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and then shall ye return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.'
21 And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, 22 Ye shall not fear them: for the LORD your God 3 shall fight for you.'

26 But 'the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and 'the LORD said unto me, 'Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto Me of this matter.'

27 Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan.'

28 But 'charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this People, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.'

29 So we abide in the valley over against Beth-peor.

4 Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which 'the LORD God of your fathers gave you.

2 Ye shall not add unto the word which 'command ye, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of 'the LORD your God which 'command ye.

3 Your eyes have seen what 'the LORD did because of Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, 'the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you.

4 But 'that did cleave unto 'the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my 'God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them;

for this is your wisdom and your 'understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and 'understanding People.'

7 For 'what nation is there so great, who hath 'God so 'nigh unto them, as 'the LORD our 'God is in all things that we call upon Him for?

8 And 'what nation is there so great, that hath 'statutes and 'judgments 'so righteous as all this law, which 'set before you this day?

9 Only 'take heed to thyself, and keep 'thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons:

1 the LORD said unto me, 'Gather Me the People together, and I will make them hear My words, that they may learn to fear Me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children,'

11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and 4 thick darkness,

12 And 1 the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; only ye heard a voice.

13 And He declared unto you His covenant, which He commanded you to perform, even ten commandments; and He wrote them upon two tables of stone.

14 And 1 the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

15 Take ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; for ye saw no manner of similitude on the day that 1 the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire:

16 Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female,

17 The likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the air,

18 The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou liftest up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldst be driven to worship them, and serve them, which 1 the LORD thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

20 But 1 the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto Him a People of inheritance, as this day.

21 Furthermore 1 the LORD was w angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which 1 the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance:

22 But 3 must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of 1 the LORD your God, which He made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which 1 the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.

24 (For 1 the LORD thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous GOD.)

25 When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and ye shall have remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and shall do evil in the sight of 1 the LORD thy God, to provoke Him to anger:

26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And 1 the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither 1 the LORD shall lead you.
28 And there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if from thence thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt find Him, if thou seek Him with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient unto His voice;

31 (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God; He will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which He sware unto them.

32 For as many of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that the Lord created man upon the earth, and asked from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been heard like it?

33 Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live?

34 Or hath God assayed to go and take a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terror, according to all that the Lord thy God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that the Lord thy God is God; there is none else beside Him.

36 Out of heaven He made thee to hear His voice, that He might instruct thee: and upon earth He shewed thee His great fire; and thou hearest His words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because He loved thy fathers, therefore He chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in His sight with His mighty power out of Egypt;

38 To drive out nations from before thee greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

39 Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the Lord thy God is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

40 Thou shalt keep therefore His statutes, and His commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, "for ever."

19 The great temptations which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out; and shall the LORD thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid.

20 Moreover the LORD thy God will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed.

21 Thou shalt not be affrighted at them:

for the LORD thy God is among you, a mighty God and terrible.

244
22 And the LORD thy God will put out those nations before thee by little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee.

23 But the LORD thy God shall deliver them unto thee, and thou shalt destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed.

24 And He shall deliver their kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them.

25 The graven images of their gods ye shall burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God.

26 Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.

8 All the commandments which I command thee this day shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldst keep His commandments, or no.

3 And He humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that He might make thee know that a man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.

4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years.

5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, to walk in His ways, and to fear Him.

7 For the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains, and depths that spring out of valleys and hills; a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey;

8 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without sorrow, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

7. commanded i. Heb. abode did unto this place, ye have been rebellious against 3 the LORD.

8. Also in Horeb ye provoked 8 the LORD to wrath, so that 3 the LORD was angry with you to have 8 destroyed ye.

9. When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which 2 the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10. And 2 the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone 2 written with the finger of 2 God; and on them was written according to all the words, which 3 the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

11. And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that 3 the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

12. And 3 the LORD 3 said unto me, 'Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy Peop|e which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.'

13. Furthermore 3 the LORD 3 spake unto me, saying, 'I have seen this People, and, 3 behold, it is a stiffnecked People:

14. 'Let Me alone, that I may 8 destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they.'

15. So 3 I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16. And I looked, and, 3 behold, ye had 8 sinned against 3 the LORD your 3 God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which 3 the LORD had commanded you.

17. And 6 I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18. And I fell down before 3 the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your 10 sins which ye 10 sinned, in doing 8 wickedly in the sight of 2 the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

19. For I was 6 afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith 3 the LORD was wroth against you to 8 destroy you.

20. But 3 the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

21. And 3 the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have 6 destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

22. And I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and 6 burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that 6 descended out of the mount.

23. 3 And at 6 Taberah, and at 6 Massah, and at 6 Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked 8 the LORD to wrath.

24. Likewise when 2 the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barneah, 3 saying, 'Go up and possess the land which I have given you;' then ye rebelled against the 3 commandment of 2 the LORD your 2 God, and ye believed Him not, nor hearkened to His voice.

25. Ye have been rebellious against 3 the LORD from the day that I knew you.)

26. Thus I fell down before 3 the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because 3 the LORD had said He would 8 destroy you.

27. 6 I prayed therefore unto 3 the LORD, and said, 'O 3 Lord 4 GOD, 8 destroy not Thy People and Thine inheritance, which Thou hast redeemed through Thy greatness, which Thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

28. Remember Thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the 3 stubbornness of these people, nor to their 8 wickedness, nor to their 10 sin:

29. Lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, 'Because 3 the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which He promised them, and because He hated 3 them, He hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.'

30. Yet they are Thy People and Thine inheritance, which Thou broughtest out by Thy mighty power and by Thy stretched out arm.'
At that time the Lord said unto me,
Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto Me into the mount, and make thee an ark of wood.
And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark.
And I made an ark of shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, having the two tables in my hand.
And He wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the Lord spake unto you in the day of the assembly: and the Lord gave them unto me.
And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made: and there they be, as the Lord commanded me.
And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera: there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead.
From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jothbah, a land of rivers of waters.
At that time the Lord separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to stand before the Lord to minister unto Him, and to bless in His name, unto this day.
Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; 1the Lord is his inheritance, according as I the Lord thy God promised him.
And 1stood in the mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the Lord hearkened unto me at that time also, 2and I the Lord would not destroy thee.
And the Lord said unto me, Arise, 3take thy journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give unto them.
And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear 1the Lord thy God, to walk in all His ways, and to love Him, and to serve 1the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul,
To keep the commandments of the Lord, and His statutes, which I command thee this day.

And the Lord your God = Jehovah your 'Elohim (Ap. 4).

14 Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is 1the Lord's thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is.
Only 1the Lord had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and He chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.
Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked.
For 1the Lord your God is a great God, and a Lord of lords, a great 'GOD,

20. Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God; ye shall serve him, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name.

21. And ye shall fear his name, and keep his charge, and His statutes, and His judgments, and His commandments, alway.

Therefore thou shalt love the LORD thy God, and keep His charge, and His statutes, and His judgments, and His commandments, alway.

And know ye this day: for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your God, His greatness, His mighty hand, and His stretched out arm,

And His miracles, and His acts, which He did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

And what He did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how He made the water of the Red sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD hath destroyed them unto this day;

And what He did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place;

And what He did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel:

But your eyes have seen all the acts of the LORD which He did.

that ye may be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither ye go to possess it;

And that ye may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs:

But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven:

A land which the LORD thy God careth for: the eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently unto My commands which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul,

That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.

12 These are the statutes and judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, all the days that ye live upon the earth.
2 Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every "green" tree:
3 And ye shall overthrow their altars, and "break" their "pillars", and burn their "groves" with fire; and ye shall hew down the "graven" images of their gods, and "destroy" the names of them out of that place.
4 Ye shall not do unto the LORD your God.

b 5 But unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put His name there, even unto His habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come:
6 And thither ye shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your burnt offerings, and your tithes, and your heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks:
7 And there ye shall eat before ye shall put your hand unto, and your households, wherein ye shall dwell:
8 Ye shall not do after all the things which ye do here this day, every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes.
9 For ye are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD your God giveth you.
10 But when ye go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God giveth you to inherit, and when He giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety;
11 Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause His name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all the tithe of your burnt offerings, and your tithes, and your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD:
12 And ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your servants, and your maidservants, and your Levites that are within your gates; forasmuch as he hath no part nor inheritance with you.

4 ° These are the beasts which ye shall eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat.
5 ° The hart, and the ° roebuck, and the ° fallow deer, and the wild goat, and the ° pygarg, and the ° wild ox, and the ° chamois.

° And every beast that ° parteth the hoof, and ° cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that ye shall eat.

° Nevertheless these ye shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof; as the camel, and the hare, and 1452 the "coney"; for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they are unclean unto you.

8 And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase.
9 These ye shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales shall ye eat:
10 And whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye may not eat; it is unclean unto you.
11 Of all clean birds ye shall eat.
12 But these are they of which ye shall not eat: the eagle, and the "ossifrage, and the ospray, 13 And the "glede, and the "kite, and the "vulture after his kind,
14 And every raven after his kind,
15 And the "owl, and the night hawk, and the "cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,
16 The little owl, and the great owl, and the "swan,
17 And the pelican, and the "gier eagle, and the cormorant,
18 And the stork, and the "heron after her kind, and the "lapwing, and the bat.
19 And every creeping thing that lieth "is unclean unto you: they shall not be eaten.
20 But of all clean fowls ye may eat.

21 Ye shall not eat of any thing that dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien: for thou art an "holy people unto the LORD thy God.

22 Thou shalt not "see the a kid in his mother's milk.

X n 22 Thou shalt truly "tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year by year.
23 And thou shalt "eat before the LORD thy God, in the place which he shall choose to place his name there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the firstlings of thy herds and of thy flocks; that thou mayest learn to fear the LORD thy God always.

24 And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it; or if the place be too far from thee, which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there, when thou hast journeyed there, then shall the LORD thy God bless thee:
25 Then shalt thou "turn it into money, and bind up the money in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose:
26 And thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever "thy soul lusteth after, for oxen, or for sheep, or for "wine, or for "strong drink, or for whatsoever "thy soul desireth: and thou shalt eat there before the LORD thy God, and thou shalt rejoice, thou, and thine household,
27 And the Levite that is within thy gates; thou shalt not forsake him; for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee:
28 At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay it up within thy gates:
for 5 the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which 5 the LORD thy 5 God giveth thee for an inheritance to thee; this day.

6 For 5 the LORD thy 5 God giveth thee, as He promised thee, and thou shalt 5 lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt 5 reign over many nations, but they shall not 5 reign over thee.

7 If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which 5 the LORD thy 5 God giveth thee,

8 Thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother:

9 Beware that there be not a 5 thought in thy 5 wicked heart, saying, 5 The Seventh year, the year of 5 release, is at hand; 5 and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry unto 5 the LORD thy 5 God, and it shall be 5 sin unto thee.

10 Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing 5 the LORD thy 5 God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

11 For the poor 5 never cease out of the land:

therefore 3 command thee, saying, 5 Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.

12 And if thy 5 brother, an 5 Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:

14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy 5 floor, and out of thy 5 winepress: of that wherewith 5 the LORD thy 5 God hath blessed thee thou shalt give unto him.

15 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and 5 the LORD thy 5 God redeemed thee: therefore 3 command thee this thing 5 to day.

16 And it shall be, 5 if he say unto thee, 5 I will not go away from thee; 5 because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee:

17 Then thou shalt take an 5 aul, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant 5 for ever. And also unto thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise.

18 It shall not seem hard unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; for he hath been worth a 5 double hired servant to thee, in serving thee six years: and 5 the LORD thy 5 God shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

19 6 All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto 5 the LORD thy 5 God:

thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep.

20 Thou shalt eat it before the LORD thy God year by year in the place which the LORD shall choose, thou and thy household.

21 And if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God.

22 Thou shalt eat it within thy gates: the unclean and the clean person shall eat it alike, as the roe, and as the hart.

23 Only thou shalt not eat the blood thereof; thou shalt pour it upon the ground as water.

16 Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the LORD thy God:

2 Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the passover unto the LORD thy God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose to place His name there.

3 Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste; that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life.

4 And there shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coast seven days; neither shall there any thing of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst the first day at even, remain all night until the morning.

5 Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee:

6 But at the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place His name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of Egypt.

7 And thou shalt roast and eat it in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose: and thou shalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents.

8 Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread: and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly unto the LORD thy God; thou shalt do no work therein.

9 Seven weeks shall thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn.

10 And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God with a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the LORD thy God, according as the LORD thy God hath blessed thee:

11 And thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to place His name there.

12 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt:

and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

13 Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates:

then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the LORD thy God shall choose:
And thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and enquire; and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgment:

10 "And thou shalt do according to the sentence, which they of that place which the LORD shall choose shall shew thee; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee:
11 According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand, nor to the left.

12 And the man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the priest that standeth to minister there before the LORD thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel.
13 And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

14 When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, "and shalt say, 'I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me';" thou shalt not set thee a king over thee, which of thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set any stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

15 Thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee, whom the LORD thy God shall choose: one from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

16 But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, 'Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.'

17 Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.
18 And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book out of that which is before "the priests the Levites:
19 And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them:
20 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left, to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

18 The priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings the LORD made by fire, and His inheritance.
2 There shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the LORD is their inheritance, as He hath said unto them.
3 And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.
4 The firstfruit also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him.
5 For the LORD thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

7 Then he shall minister in the name of the Lord his God, as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there in the name of the Lord.

8 They shall have like portions to eat, beside that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

9 When thou art come into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations.

10 There shall not be found among you anyone that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch.

11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

12 For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord: and because of these abominations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

13 Thou shalt be perfect with the Lord thy God.

14 For these nations, which thou shalt possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners; but as for thee, the Lord thy God hath not suffered thee so to do.

15 The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; into Him ye shall hearken;

16 According to all that thou desiredst of the Lord thy God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, 'Let me not hear again the voice of the Lord my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not.'

17 And the Lord said unto me, 'They have well spoken that which they have spoken.

18 I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put My words in His mouth; and He shall speak unto them all that I shall command Him.

19 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hear unto My words which He shall speak in My name, he shall be unto Me as this stony city.

20 But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in My name, whom I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, 21 Even that prophet shall die.

3. Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and divide the coasts of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

4 And this is the case of the slayer, which shall flee thither, that he may live: Whoso killeth his neighbour ignorantly, whom he hated not in time past;

5 As when a man goeth into the wood with his neighbour to Hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slippeth from the helve, and lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die;

6 Lest the avenger of the blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past.

7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee.

8 And if the LORD thy God enlarge thy coast as He hath sworn unto thy fathers, and give thee all the land which He promised to give unto thy fathers;

9 If thou shalt keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk ever in His ways;

then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, beside these three:

10 That innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee.

11 But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities:

12 Then the elders of the city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

13 Thine eye shall not pity him, but thou shalt put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with thee.'

14 Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's landmark, which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

15 One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth:

at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.

16 If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong;

17 Then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, which shall be in those days;

18 And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother;

19 Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you.

20 And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you.

21 And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.
20. 1. DEUTERONOMY.

2 And it shall be, when ye are come nigh unto the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak unto the people, 3 And shall say unto them, 'Hear, O Israel, gr approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts be faint, fear not, and do not tremble, neither be ye terrified because of them; 4 For the LORD your God is He that goeth with you, "to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.' 5 And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, 'What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. 6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it. 7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.' 8 And the officers shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, 'What man is there that is fearful and fainthearted? let him go and return unto his house, lest his brethren's heart faint as well as his heart.' 9 And it shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking unto the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

10 When thou comest nigh unto a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace unto it. 11 And it shall be, if it make thee answer of peace, and open unto thee, then it shall be, that all the people that is found therein shall be tributaries unto thee, and they shall serve thee. 12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it: 13 And when the LORD thy God hath delivered it into thine hands, thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword: 14 But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take unto thyself; and thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the LORD thy God hath given thee. 15 Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations.

16 But of the cities of these people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth; 17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them; namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That they teach not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye sin against the LORD thy God.

19 When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be subdued.

21 If one be found slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him:
21. 2.

DEUTERONOMY.

2 Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain:

d 3 And it shall be, that the city which is next unto the slain man, e even the elders of that city shall take an heifer, which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not been drawn in the yoke;

4 And the elders of that city shall bring down unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley:

5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto Him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried:

6 And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

7 And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

8 Be merciful, O LORD, unto Thy people Israel, whom Thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood unto Thy people of Israel's charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them.

9 So shalt thou put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

10 When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and the LORD thy God hath delivered them into thine hands, and thou hast taken them captive,

11 And seest among the captives a beautiful woman, and hast a desire unto her, that thou wouldest have her to thy wife;

12 Then shalt thou bring her home to thine house; and she shall shave her head, and pare her nails;

13 And she shalt put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thine house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife.

14 And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go whither she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her.

15 If a man have two wives, one beloved, and another hated, and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be hers that was hated:

16 Then it shall be, when he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the hated, which is indeed the firstborn:

17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath before.

21. 17. DEUTERONOMY. 22. 10.

18 If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them:
19 Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place; 20 And they shall say unto the elders of his city, 'This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard.'
21 And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die:

22 And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree:
23 His body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for he that is hanged is accursed of God;) that thy land be not defiled, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

22 Thou shalt not see thy brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt in any case bring them again unto thy brother.
24 And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again.
25 In like manner shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his raiment; and with all lost thing of thy brother's, which he hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise: thou mayest not hide thyself.
26 Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again.

1 The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

6 If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young: 7 But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days.

8 When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thine house, if any man fall from thence.

13 If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and hate her, and give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say,
'I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid: ' 15 Then shall the damsel of the father, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate:
16 And the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, 'I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hatcheth her;
And, 'Lo, thy father hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, 'I found not thy daughter a maid,' and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity.' And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.
18 And the elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him;
19 And they shall smite him in an hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days.
20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel:
21 Then shall they bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die: because she hath wrought folly in Israel, to play the whore in her father's house: so shalt thou put away evil from among you.
22 If a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil from Israel.
23 If a damsel that is a virgin be betrothed unto an husband, and a man find her in the city; and lie with her;
24 Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ye shall stone them with stones that they die: the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city: and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbour's wife: so shalt thou put away evil from among you.
25 But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her: then the man only that lay with her shall die:
26 But unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so is this matter:
27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried, and there was none to save her.
28 If a man find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found;
29 Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

When thou dost lend thy brother any thing, thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge.

Thou shalt stand abroad, and the man to whom thou didst lend shall bring out the pledge abroad unto thee.

And if the man be poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge:

In any case thou shalt deliver him the pledge again when the sun goeth down, that he may sleep in his own raiment, and bless thee: and it shall be righteousness unto thee before the LORD thy God.

Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates:

At his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it: lest he cry against thee unto the LORD, and it be sin unto thee.

Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of the stranger, nor of the fatherless; nor take a widow's raiment to pledge:

But thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee thence: therefore thou shalt do this thing.

When thou cuttest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow:

16 This day the LORD thy God hath commanded thee to do these statutes and judgments: thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

17 Thou hast avouched the LORD this day to be thy God, and to walk in His ways, and to keep His statutes, and His commandments, and His judgments, and to hearken unto His voice:

18 And the LORD hath avouched this day to be His peculiar people, as He hath promised thee, and that thou shouldst keep all His commandments;

19 And to make thee high above all nations, which He hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; that thou mayest be an holy people unto the LORD thy God, as He hath spoken.

And all the people shall answer and say, 'Amen.'

28 And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all His commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

3 O Blessed shall thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

4 Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

5 Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store.

6 Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

7 The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thee: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways.

8 The LORD shall command the blessing upon thee in thy houses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and He shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

9 The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto Himself, as He hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in His ways.

12 The LORD shall open unto thee His good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and they shall not borrow.

13 And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

14 And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

15 But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all His commandments and His statutes which I command thee this day;

16 Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

17 Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store.

18 Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

19 Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

20 The LORD shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken Me.

21 The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until He have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

22 The LORD shall smite thee with consumption, and with fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

23 And thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

24 The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

25 The LORD shall smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the scales, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

26 And thy carcase shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

27 The LORD will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the scales, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.
and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed always.

34 So that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

35 The LORD shall smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore boil that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head.

36 The LORD shall bring thee the pestilence, and a fiery tongue, which shall not be quenched; and he shall consume thee in every path wherein thou goest.

37 And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations whither I the LORD shall lead thee.

38 Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it.

39 Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but thou shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them.

40 Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with the oil; for thine olive shall cast his fruit.

41 Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity.

42 All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the locust consume.

43 The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low.

44 He shall lead thee, and thou shalt not lead him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

45 Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hast not hearkened unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded thee.

46 And they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever.

47 Because thou servest not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things;

48 Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which I the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things; and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

49 The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

50 A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young:

51 And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.

52 And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

53 And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee:

54 So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave:

55 So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

56 The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

57 And toward her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in thy gates.

61 Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will I the LORD bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

62 And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God:

63 And it shall come to pass, that 4 as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

64 And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people, from one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

65 Among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:

66 And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life:

67 In the morning thou shalt say, 7 Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, 8 Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

68 And the LORD shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, 4 thou shalt see it no more again; and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall 6 buy you.

These are the words of the 6 covenant, which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the covenant which He made with them in Horeb.

2 And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, 4 9: have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land;

3 The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles:

4 Yet the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot.

6 Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I am the LORD your God.

61 the book of this law = this book of the law.

64 all people = all kinds of peoples. Put by Fig. Synecdoche (of Genus). Ap. 6.

66 fear. Heb. Homonym: pahad, to fear, here and Job 59. 12; but rejeles, Isa. 60. 2 (op. A.V. and R.V.), Hos. 3. 8. 67 Would God. Fig. Euche. Ap. 6.

68 into Egypt. So Hos. 8. 13; 9. 5. May be put by Fig. Metonymy for servitude.

7 And when ye came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them:

8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh.

9 Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do.

10 Ye shall stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel,

11 Your little ones, your wives, and your strangers that are in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water:

12 That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into His oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day:

13 That He may establish thee this day for a people unto Himself, and that ye may be unto a holy God, as He hath said unto thee, and as He hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

14 Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath:

15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day:

16 For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by;
29. 17. DEUTERONOMY.

17 And ye have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood;

19 And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, 'I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst;'

20 'The LORD will not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and His jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD shall blot out his name from under heaven.

21 And 'the LORD shall separate him unto everlast ing out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law:

22 So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which 'the LORD hath laid upon it;

23 And that whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor borne, nor any grass growth thereof like this desert whereof Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which 'the LORD overthrew in His anger, and in His wrath:

24 Even all nations shall say, 'Wherefore hath 'the LORD done thus unto this land? what meaneth 'the heart of this great anger?'

25 Then men shall say, 'Because they have forsaken the covenant of 'the LORD and God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them forth out of the land of Egypt:

26 For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and whom He had not given unto them:

27 And the anger of 'the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book:

28 And 'the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.'

29 The secret things belong unto 'the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever,

30 And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, whither 'the LORD thy God hath driven thee:

2 And shalt return unto 'the LORD thy God, and shalt obey His voice according to all that of "the Lord, and do all His commandments which I command thee this day. 9 And 1 the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for 1 the Lord will again rejoice over thee for good, as He rejoice over thy fathers: 10 If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of 1 the Lord thy God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in 1 this book of the law, and if thou turn unto 1 the Lord thy God all thine heart, and with all thy soul. 11 For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off.

I 12 12 It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, 'Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?'

J 13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, 'Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?'

h 14 But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

G 15 'See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil; 16 In that 1 I command thee this day to love 1 the Lord thy God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes, and His judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and 1 the Lord thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it. 17 But if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them; 18 I 'denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it. 19 I 'call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

m 20 That thou mayest love 1 the Lord thy God, and that thou mayest obey His voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto Him: for 8e is thy life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land which 1 the Lord sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee.'
4 And the LORD shall do unto them as he did to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, whom he destroyed.

5 And the LORD shall give them up before your faces, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have commanded you.

6 Be strong of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

7 And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.

8 And the LORD, he it is that doth go before thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

9 And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the solemnity of the year of release, in the feast of tabernacles, 11 When all Israel is come to appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing.

12 Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law:

13 And that their children, which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law:

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Be hold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge." And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Be hold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will forsake Me, and break My covenant which I have made with them.

17 Then My anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will 'hide My face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many 'evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, 'Are not these 'evils come upon us, because our God is not among us?'

18 And 3 will surely 'hide My face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.
19. Now therefore 1 write ye 2 this song for you, and 3 teach it the 13 children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for Me against the 13 children of Israel.

20. For when I shall have brought them 1 into the land which I sware unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke Me, and break My covenant.

21. And it shall come to pass, when many 17 evils and troubles are 17 befallen them, that 2 this song shall 2 testify against them as a witness: for it shall 2 not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imagination which they go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which 2 I sware.

22. Moses therefore 6 wrote 6 this song the same day, and taught it the 13 children of Israel.

23. And 6 He gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, 6 Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the 13 children of Israel into the land which 3 sware unto them: and I will be with thee.

24. And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of 6 writing the words of this law 6 in a book, until they were finished,

25. That Moses commanded 6 the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of 6 the LORD, saying,

26. 6 Take 6 this book of the law, and put it 6 in the side of the ark of the covenant of 6 the LORD your 6 God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

27. For 6 I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff neck: 6 behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against 6 the LORD; and how much more after my death?

28. Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call 6 heaven and earth to record against them.

29. For 6 I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and 6 evil will befall you in 6 the latter days; because ye will do 6 evil in the sight of 6 the LORD, to provoke Him to anger through 6 the work of your hands.

30. And 6 Moses spake in the ears of all the 6 congregation of Israel the words of 6 this song, until they were ended.

32. 1-43 [For Structure see next page.]

My speech = the words of my mouth.

as the dew. Cp. Mic. 5. 7.

3. the LORD = Jehovah. See Ap. 4. II.

God = Elohim. See Ap. 4. 1.

4. Rock. Omit "He is", and read "The Rock, His work is perfect". Used of Jehovah: in this song five times (the number of Grace. See Ap. 10), vv. 4, 15, 16, 30, 31. Used twice in irony (Ap. 6), vv. 31, 37. Cp. 2 Sam. 22. 31, 32.

GOD = Heb. 'el. See Ap. 4. IV.

inquity. See Ap. 44. vi.

5. They have, &c. The Nom., "generation", is put last by Fig. Hyperbaton (Ap. 6), for emphasis, in contrast with "The Rock" of v. 4, which is there put first. Cp. v. 20. Render the verse thus:

"A perverse and crooked generation hath corrupted itself:
[To be] no sons of His is their blemish."

spot = blemish. children = sons.

For all His ways are judgment:
A. GOD of truth and without "iniquity, just and right is He."

5. They have corrupted themselves, their "spot is not the spot of his" children: They are a perverse and crooked generation.

6. Do ye thus require the LORD, O foolish People and unwise? Is not He thy Father that hath bought thee? Hath He not made thee, and established thee?
7. Remember the days of old,
Consider the years of many generations:
Ask thy father, and he will shew thee;
Thy elders, and they will tell thee.

9. For the LORD'S portion is His People;
Jacob is the lot of His inheritance.

10. He found him in a desert land,
And in the waste howling wilderness;
He led him about, He instructed him,
He kept him as the apple of His eye.

13. He made him ride on the high places of the earth,
That he might eat the increase of the fields;
And he made him to suck honey out of the rock,
And oil out of the flinty rock.

15. But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked:
Thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness;
Then he forsook God Which made him,
And lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

16. They provoked Him to jealousy with strange gods,
DEUTERONOMY.

GōD = 'elōhīm. See Ap. 4.
gods = 'elōhām. Ap. 4. I.
new = recent, lately. Heb. kārōb, as in Judg. 5. 8.
newly = recently.
of. Gen. of origin = the provocation produced by the conduct of His People.
20 hide My face. See note on 31. 17.
froward = perverse. Heb. ḥāpākapāk. First occ.
21 Note the alternation of the four lines, marked by "jealousy, anger, jealousy, anger".
not GōD = no šē. Ap. 4. IV. not a People = no People. Cp. Rom. 10. 19; 11. 11.
See Ap. 35.

destroy = bereave.
25 I feared. Fig. Anthropopatheia (Ap. 6).
behave themselves strangely = mistake it. Heb. nākār, a Homonym with three meanings: (1) to mistake, Deut. 82. 27; (2) to acknowledge, Job 34. 19; (3) to deliver. 1 Sam. 23. 7. Both A.V. and R.V. miss the first (R.V. = misdeem), admit the second and third (though the R.V. margin suggests "alienated" for "delivered").
the LORD = Jehovah. Note the five Divine Titles in this song. Ap. 4. counsel = deliberation. Heb. 'āz'āz.

34 Is not this. Fig. Erotēia. Ap. 6.
35 To Me. Hebrew text is l..."to Me", but Dr. Ginsburg thinks it is an abbreviation for ἴγων, "for the day", as seems evident from Sam., Onk., and Sept., and from agreeing with the next line. So that vv. 34, 35 will read:
"Is not this laid up in store with Me, Sealed up in My treasures? For the day of vengeance and recompence, For the time when such shall be seized?"
This shows that the Elipsis is wrongly supplied in the A.V.; and that the R.V. misses the point 31 For their 15 rock is not as our 15 Rock, Even our enemies themselves being judges.

32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, And of the fields of Gomorrah:
Their grapes are grapes of gall, Their clusters are bitter:
33 Their wine is the poison of dragons, And the cruel venom of asps.
34 Is not this laid up in store with Me, And sealed up among My treasures?
35 To Me belongeth vengeance, and recompence;

With abominations provoked they Him to anger.
17 They sacrificed unto 16 devils, not to 16 D; To 16 gods whom they knew not, To 16 new gods that came newly up, Whom your fathers feared not.
18 Of the 16 Rock That begat thee thou art ungrateful, And hast forgotten 16 GōD That formed thee.
19 And when 16 the LORD saw it, He 16 abhorred them, Because of the provoking 16 of His sons, and of His daughters.

For they are a very 16 froward generation, Children in whom is no faith.
21 They have moved Me to 16 jealousy with that which is 16 not GōD; They have provoked Me to anger with their vanities; And 16 will move them to jealousy with those which are 16 not a People; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

For a fire is kindled in Mine anger, And shall burn unto the lowest 16 hell, And shall consume the earth with her increase, And 16 set on fire the foundations of her mountains, I will heap 16 mischiefs upon them; I will spend Mine 16 arrows upon them.
24 They shall be burnt with hunger, And devoured with 16 burning heat, And with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, With the poison of 16 serpents of the dust.
25 The sword without, And the terror within, Shall 16 destroy both the young man and the virgin, The sucking also with the 16 man of grey hairs.

I would 16 scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among 16 men:
27 Were it not that 16 I feared the wrath of the enemy, Lest their adversaries should 16 behave themselves strangely, And lest they should say, Our hand is high, And 16 the LORD hath not done all this.
28 For they are a nation void of 16 counsel, Neither is there any understanding in them.
29 O that they were wise, that they understood this, That they would consider their latter end! How should 16 one chase a thousand, And two put ten thousand to flight, Except their 16 Rock had sold them, And 16 the LORD had shut them up?
Their foot shall slide in due time:
For the day of their calamity is at hand,
And the things that shall come upon them make haste.
36 For the Lord shall judge His People,
And repent Himself for His servants,
When He seeth that their power is gone,
And there is none shut up, or left.
37 And He shall say, Where are their gods,
Their rock in whom they trusted,
38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices,
And drank the wine of their drink offerings,
And let them rise up and help you,
And be your protection.
39 See now that 3, even 3, am I.
And there is no god with Me:
3 I kill, and I make alive;
2 I wound, and 3 heal;
Neither is there any that can deliver out of My hand.
40 For I lift up My hand to heaven,
And say, 3 live for ever.
41 If I whet My shining sword,
And Mine hand take hold on judgment,
I will render vengeance to Mine enemies,
And will reward them that hate Me.
42 I will make Mine arrows drunk with blood,
And My sword shall devour flesh;
And that with the blood of the slain
And of the captives,
From the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.
43 Rejoice, O ye nations, with His people:
For He will avenge the blood of His servants,
And will be merciful unto His land, and to His people.
44 And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, is, and Hoshea the son of Nun.
45 And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel:
46 And he said unto them, "Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law.
47 For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your life: and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it."

1452 And for the precious things of the lasting hills,
16 And for the precious things of the earth and fulness thereof,
And for the good will of Him That dwelt in the bush:
Let the blessing come upon the head of Joseph,
And upon the top of the head of him that was separated from his brethren.
17 His glory is like the firstling of his bullock,
And his horns are like the horns of unicorns:
With them shall he push the people together to the ends of the earth;
And they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh.

18 And of Zebulun he said,
"Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy going out; And Issachar, in thy tents."
19 They shall call the blessing of the mountain;
There they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness: For they shall suck of the abundance of the seas,
And of the treasures hid in the sand."

20 And of Gad he said,
"Blessed be He That enlighteth Gad: He dwelleth as a lion,
And teareth the arm of the crown of the head.
21 And he provided the first part for himself, Because there, in a portion of the lawgiver, was he seated;
And he came with the heads of the people, He executed the justice of the LORD, and His judgments with Israel."

22 And of Dan he said,
"Dan is a lion's whelp: He shall leap from Bashan."

23 And of Naphtali he said,
"O Naphtali, satisfied with favour,
And full with the blessing of the LORD: Possess thou the west and the south."

24 And of Asher he said,
"Let Asher be blessed with children; Let him be acceptable to his brethren,
And let him dip his foot in oil.
25 Thy shoes shall be iron and brass; And as thy days, so shall thy strength be."

26 There is none like unto the GOD of Jeshurun,

34. 1-7 (D, p. 286). MOSES DEATH AND BURIAL. (Introversion and Alteration.)

Who is like unto thee, O people saved by the LORD,
The shield of thy help, And who is the sword of thy excellency! And thine enemies "shall be found liars unto thee;
And they shall tread upon their high places."

34 And Moses went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho.
And the LORD shewed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan.
2 And all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea,
3 And the south, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto Zoar.
4 And the LORD said unto him, "This is the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, 'I will give it unto thy seed.' I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither."
5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.
6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.
7 And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old when he died:

8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: so the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.
9 And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.
10 And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,
11 In all the signs and the wonders, which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, 12 And in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses shewed in the sight of all Israel.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA.

1 Now after the death of Moses the servant of the Lord it came to pass, that the Lord spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses’ minister, saying,

2 Moses My servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this People, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel.

3 Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.

4 From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.

5 There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

6 Be strong and of a good courage: for unto this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give them.

7 Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, which Moses My servant commanded thee; turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest.

8 This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then shalt thou make thy way prosperous, and then shalt thou have good success.

9 Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the People, saying,

11 Pass through the host, and command the People, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this

The great subject of the Book is the Land, as that of the Pentateuch was the People.

1 Now. Heb. “And”. Linked on to Pentateuch as the books of Pentateuch are thus linked on to each other; and as the four books of Joshua are linked on to Joshua. See Ap. 1. Joshua not necessarily the author, but doubtless is so, as asserted by Talmud.

Book referred to in Old and New Testament: Judg. 18. 31. 1 Sam. 1. 5, 8; 24; 3. 21. Ps. 44. 2, 3; 64. 12, 13; 78. 44, 70; 114. 1-4. Isa. 29. 1. Heb. 3. 11-13. Acts 7. 45; 13, 15. Heb. 11. 22. Jas. 2. 25.

No MS. of the five books yet found with Joshua bound up with them, making a sixth (or a so-called and hitherto unheard of “Hexateuch”).

Moses the servant of the Lord. See note on Deut. 34. 6, and cp. Heb. 3, 5.

Jehovah spake at four sundry times, and in three divers manners:

To Joshua. 1. 1; 4. 1. To Joshua to command the priests, 4. 15.

To Joshua to speak to the sons of Israel, 20. 1.

I do give = I, even I, am giving.

children—sons.

3 as=according as. Cp. Deut. 11. 24.

coast=border or boundary.

6 thou. Emphatic. This is the great subject of the book. 7 observe =take heed.

Some codices, with two early printed editions, Sept., Syr., and Vulg., read “observe and do”. prosper=deal wisely. 8 This book of the law: i.e. the five books referred to as such throughout the Old Testament. 9 And she said unto the men, "I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land have faint because of you.
10 For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed.
11 And as soon as we heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.
12 Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the LORD, since I have shewed you kindness, that ye will also shew kindness unto my father's house, and give me a true token:
13 And that ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our "lives from death."

14 And the men answered her, "Our life for yours, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that we will deal "kindly and truly with thee."

15 Then she let them down by a "cord through the window: for her house was upon the town wall, and she dwelt "upon the wall.

16 And she said unto them, "Get you to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned: and afterward may ye go your way."

17 And the men said unto her, "We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear.
18 Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this 'line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by: and thou shalt "bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, "home unto thee.
19 And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him.
20 And if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear."

21 And she said, "According unto your words, so be it."

And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window.

And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned:

and the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not.

15 cord = the rope. Cp. Sept. here with Acts 9, 25, and 2 Cor. 11, 33. Cp. 1 Cor. 11, 16, upon the town wall = [built] into the hōmah; i.e. the outer or lower wall.

16 Behold. Fig. Asterisms. Ap. 6. line. Heb. "hope", put by Fig. Metonomy (of Adjunct), Ap. 6, for the line which was the token of it.

by = through: referring to the window. Cp. v. 31, bringing = gather. home = unto the house. The "line" was outside, for Joshua to see: not for the inmates. Cp. Ex. 12, 13, "When I see, &c." So the ground of our assurance is not experience within, but the token without.

4. 1—9 [For Structure see next page.]

1. were clean passed over — were finished passing over.

spake. See note on 1. 1.

all the People were clean passed over Jordan.

4. And it came to pass, when all the People were clean passed over Jordan, that the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,
2 "Take you twelve men out of the People, out of every tribe a man, and command ye them, saying, 'Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the priests’ feet stood firm, twelve stones, and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging place, where ye shall lodge this night.'"

Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man:

5 And Joshua said unto them, 'Pass over before the ark of the Lord your God into the midst of Jordan, and take ye up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:

6 That this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, 'What mean ye by these stones?'

7 Then ye shall answer them, 'That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the Lord; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever.'

8 And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, 'as the Lord spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodging, and laid them down there:

9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

10 For the priests which bare the ark stood in the midst of Jordan, until every thing was finished that the Lord commanded Joshua to speak unto the People, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the People hasted and passed over.

11 And it came to pass, when all the People were clean passed over, that the ark of the Lord passed over, and the priests, in the presence of the People.

12 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed before the children of Israel, 'as Moses spake unto them:

13 About forty thousand prepared for war passed over before the Lord unto battle, to the plains of Jericho.

14 'On that day the Lord magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.

15 And the Lord spake unto Joshua, saying,
5 And it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, which were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of all the children of Israel.

2 At that time 1 the LORD said unto Joshua, "Make thee sharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time."

3 And Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: All the People that were men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 Now all the People that came out were circumcised: but all the People that were born in Egypt were not circumcised. For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the People that were men of war, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD sware, that he would not shew them the land, which the LORD sware unto their fathers that He would give us, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

6 And their children, whom He raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way.

7 And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the People, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole.

8 And 1 the LORD said unto Joshua, "This day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you." Wherefore the name of the place is called Gilgal unto this day.

9 And the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at even in the plains of Jericho.

10 And they did eat of the old corn of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes, and parched corn in the selfsame day.

11 And the manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land. And there was not the children of Israel manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

12 And it came to pass, 1 when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a Man over against him with His sword drawn in His hand:

13 And he went unto Him, and said unto Him, "Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?"

14 And He said, "Nay; but as Captain of the host of 1 the LORD am I now come."
6. 2. JOSHUA.

2 And the LORD said unto Joshua, "See, I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour.

3 And ye shall compass the city, all ye men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days.

4 And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven trumpets of 'ram's horns: and on the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets.

5 And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the 'ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the People shall ascend up every man straight before him."

6 And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said unto them, 'Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of 'ram's horns before the ark of the LORD.'

7 And he said unto the People, "Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that is armed pass on before the ark of the LORD."

8 And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the People, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of 'ram's horns passed on before the ark of the LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9 And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the re-eward came after the ark, the priests: going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

10 And Joshua had commanded the People, saying, 'Ye shall not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout.'

11 So the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it one time: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.

12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

13 And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of 'ram's horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the re-eward came after the ark of the LORD, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did six days.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.

16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the People, "Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city.

26 And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, "Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it."

27 So the LORD was with Joshua; and his name was noised throughout all the country.

7. 1-26 (G2, p. 296). THE TRESPASS OF ACHAN. (Introduction.)

But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing: for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel.

2 And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-aven, on the east side of Beth-el, and spake unto them, saying, "Go up and view the country." And the men went up and viewed Ai.

3 And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, "Let not all the People go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; and make not all the People to labour thither; for they are but few."

4 So there went up thither of the People about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the People melted, and became as water.

6 And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads.

And Joshua said, "Alas, O Lord God, therefore hast Thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? " would to God we had been content, and dwelt on the other side Jordan!
8 O LORD, what shall I say, when Israel turneth their backs before their enemies! For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt Thou do unto Thy great name?"

10 And the LORD said unto Joshua, "Get thee up; wherefore liest thou upon thy face? 11 Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. Now they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff. 12 Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turneth their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

13 Up, sanctify the People, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves against to morrow: for thus saith the LORD, God of Israel, 'There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.'

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the LORD taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households: and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man.

15 And it shall be, that he that is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought folly in Israel.'"

16 So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken: 17 And he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zarhites: and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man; and Zabdi was taken: 18 And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Joshua said unto Achan, "My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the LORD, God of Israel, and make confession unto Him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me."

20 And Achan answered Joshua, and said, "Indeed 3 have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and make confession unto Him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me.

21 When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under "it.""

22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent; and, behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under 24 it. 23 And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD. 24 And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them unto the valley of Achor. 25 And Joshua said, "Why hast thou troubled us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day." And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned him with fire, after they had stoned him with stones. 26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day.
8 And the LORD said unto Joshua, "Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, I have given it into thy hand, the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land: 2 And thou shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst unto Jericho and her king: only the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city behind it."

3 So Joshua arose, and all the People of war, to go against Ai: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night. 4 And he commanded them, saying, "Behold, ye shall lie in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready: 5 And it shall come to pass, when they go out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them; 6 (For they will come out after us) till we have drawn them from the city; for they will say, 'They flee before us, as at the first.' therefore we will flee before them, and they will say, 'They overtook us as at the first.' and they will not stand, but will flee before us. 7 And ye shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. 8 And it shall be, when ye have taken the city, that ye shall set the city on fire: according to the commandment of the LORD shall ye do. 'See, I have commanded you.'

9 Joshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the People. 10 And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the People, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the People to Ai. 11 And all the People, even the people of war that were with him, went up, and drew near, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai. 12 And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of the city. 13 And when they had set the People, even all the host that was on the north of the city, and their liers in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley. 14 And it came to pass, when the king of Ai saw it, that they hastened and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his People, at a time appointed, before the plain; but the wist not that there were liers in ambush against him behind the city.
And Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city.

And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city, and took it, and hasted and set the city on fire.

And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the People that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers.

And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and slew the men of Ai.

And the other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they 'let none of them remain or escape.'

And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap for ever, even a desolation unto this day.

And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until eventide: and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and raise thereon a great heap of stones, 'that remaineth' unto this day.

Joshua built an altar unto the Lord God of Israel in mount Ebal, as it is written in the book of the Law of Moses, an altar of whole stones, over which no man hath lift up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings unto the Lord, and sacrificed peace offerings.

And he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

And all Israel, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, as well the stranger, as he that was born among them; half of them over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded before, that they should bless the People of Israel.

And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law.

And it came to pass, when all the kings which were on this side Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the great sea over against Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard thereof;
That they gathered together to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.

And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho and to Ai.

And the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, "What good ye (Gibeon) shall dwell among us: and how shall we make a league with you?"

And they said unto Joshua, "The are thy servants." And Joshua said unto them, "Who are ye? and from whence come ye?"

And they said unto him, "From a very far country thy servants are come because of the name of the LORD thy God: for we have heard the fame of Him, and that all He did in Egypt.

And all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, which was at Ashtaroth.

Wherefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spake to us, saying, 'Take victuals with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say unto them, 'Why are you servants?'"

Therefore now make ye a league with us.

This our bread we took not for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now, 'Behold, it is dry, and it is mouldy: And these bottles of wine, which we filled, were new; and, behold, they be rent: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey.'

And the men took of their victuals, and asked not counsel at the mouth of the LORD.

And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation swore unto them.

And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.

And the children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim.

And the children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes.
23 Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondman, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God.

24 And they answered Joshua, and said, "Because it was certainly told thy servants, how that the LORD thy God commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were sore afraid of our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

25 And now, behold, we are in thine hand: as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, so.

26 And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27 And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the LORD, even unto this day, in the place which He should choose.

Now it came to pass, when Adoni-zedec king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them;

2 That they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.

3 Wherefore Adoni-zedec king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 "Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon:

for it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel."

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, saying, "Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us:

for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us."

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 And the LORD said unto Joshua, "Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand; there shall not a man of them stand before thee."

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.
11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-boron, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than their whose the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when he the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, “Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; And thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.”

13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed,

Until the People had avenged themselves upon their enemies.

Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not down to a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.

15 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, “The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.”

18 And Joshua said, “Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them:

19 And stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.”

20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities.

21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

22 Then said Joshua, “Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.”

23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, “Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings.” And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, “Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage; for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.”

26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave’s mouth, which remain until this very day.

28 And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, him, and all the souls that were therein; he let...

3 From "Sihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekrion northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: five lords of the Philistines: the Gazathites, and the Ashdothites, the Eshkalonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites: From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that is beside the Sidonians, unto Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites: And the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon toward the sunrise, from Baal-gad under mount Hermon untoward unto the entering into Hamath. All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon unto Misrephoth-maim, and all the Sidonians, them will I drive out from before the children of Israel: only divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee. Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh, with whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, beyond Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them; From Aroer, that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba unto Dibon; And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon; And Gilead, and the border of the Gadites and Machathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcb; All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, whom remained of the remnant of the giants: for these did Moses smite, and cast them out. Nevertheless the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day. Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the sacrifices of the Lord God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as He said unto them. And Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families. And their coast was from Aroer, that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba; Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain, Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth- baal-meon, Ahab and Jahaza, and Kedemoth, and Me phaath, And Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zarethsahar in the mount of the valley, And Beth-peor, and Ashdoth-pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth, And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and 14 And these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them.

2 By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

5 As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

6 Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said unto him,

"Thou knowest the thing that the Lord said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea.

7 Forty years old was I when the Lord sent me from Kades-barnea to espy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the People melt: but I wholly followed the Lord my God.

9 And Moses spake on that day, saying, Surely the Land whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the Lord my God.

10 And now, behold, the Lord hath kept me alive, as He said, these forty and five years, even forty and five years the Lord spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now, 10, 3 am this day fourscore and five years old.

11 As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength then was, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out, and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the Lord spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how the Lord would give the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land, into thine hand.

13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance.

14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite unto this day, because that he wholly followed the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba; which Arba was a great man among the Anakims. And the land had rest from war.
15.

15 This then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families; even to the border of Edom the wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast.

2 And their south border was from the shore of the salt sea, from the bay that looketh southward:

3 And it went out to the south side to Maaleh-kerria, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kadesh-barnea, and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa:

4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast.

5 And the border westward was the salt sea, even unto the end of Jordan. And their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of Jordan:

6 And the border went up to Beth-hogla, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben:

7 And the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is before the going up to Adummim, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the waters of En-shemesh, and the goings out thereof were at Enrogel:

8 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom unto the south side of the Jebusite; the same is Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants northward:

9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the fountain of the water of Nephthoah, and went out to the cities of mount Ephron; and the border was drawn to Baalah, which is Kirjath-jearim:

10 And the border compassed from Baalah westward unto mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jearim, which is Chephalon, on the north side, and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed on to Timnah:

11 And the border went out unto the side of Ekron northward: and the border was drawn to Shicron, and passed along to mount Baalah, and went out unto Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea.

12 And the west border was to the great sea, and the coast thereof. This is the coast of the children of Judah round about according to their families.

13 And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the Lord to Joshua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron.

14 And Caleb drove thence the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.

15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher.
And Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim; fourteen cities with their villages:

37 Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-gad, 38 And Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel, 39 Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon, 40 And Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Kithlish, 41 And Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah; six cities with their villages:

42 Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan, 43 And Jiphtah, and Ashnah, and Nezib, 44 And Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah; nine cities with their villages:

45 Ekron, with her towns and her villages: 46 From Ekron even unto the sea, all that lay near Ashdod, with their villages: 47 Ashdod with her towns and her villages, Gaza with her towns and her villages, unto the river of Egypt, and the great sea, and the border thereof:

48 And in the mountains, Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh, 49 And Dannah, and Kirjath-sannah, which is Debir, 50 And Anah, and Eshtemoah, and Anim, 51 And Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh; eleven cities with their villages:

52 Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean, 53 And Janum, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphek, 54 And Humta, and Kirjath-arba, which is Hebron, and Zior; nine cities with their villages:

55 Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttah, 56 And Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah, 57 Carn, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities with their villages:

58 Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor, 59 And Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon; six cities with their villages:

60 Kirjath-baal, which is Kirjath-jearim, and Rabbah; two cities with their villages:

61 In the wilderness, Beth-arabah, Middin, and Seccach, 62 And Nibshan, and the city of Salt, and Engedi; six cities with their villages:

63 As for the Jebusites the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out: but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem unto this day.

16 And the lot of the children of Joseph fell from Jordan by Jericho, unto the water of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goeth up from Jericho throughout mount Beth-el,

2 And goeth out from Beth-el to Luz, and passeth along unto the borders of Archi to Ataroth,

3 And goeth down westward to the coast of Japhleti, unto the coast of Beth-horon the nether, and to Gezer: and the goings out thereof are at the sea,

4 So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

5 And the border of the children of Ephraim according to their families was thus: even the border of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth-addar, unto Beth-horon the upper;

6 And the border went out toward the sea to Michmethath on the north side; and the border went about eastward unto Taanath-shiloh, and passed by it on the east to Janohah;

7 And it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to Naarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at Jordan.

8 The border went out from Tappuah westward unto the river Kanah; and the goings out thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And they drew not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and serve under tribute.

17 There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for it was the firstborn of Joseph; to wit, for Machir the firstborn of
17. 1. JOSHUA.

Manasseh, the father of Gilead; because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan.

2 There was also a lot for the rest of the children of Manasseh by their families; for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida: these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families.

3 But Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan;

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons:

7 and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

8 And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, that lieth before Shechem;

9 And the coast descended unto the river Kanah, southward of the river: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: the coast of Manasseh also was on the north side of the river, and the outgoings of it were at the sea:

10 Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is his border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east.

11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher Bethshean and her towns, and Ibleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countries.

12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites dwelt in that land.

13 Yet it came to pass, that when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out.

14 And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing 2 Great People? forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed me hitherto?

15 And Joshua answered them, If thou be a Great People, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both they who are of Bethshean and her towns, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a Great People, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot only:

18 But the mountain shall be thine; for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down; and the outgoings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.*

Shiloh = tranquillity or rest. Cp. Gen. 49. 10; eight times in this book. See 18. 1, 8, 9, 10; 19. 51; 21. 2; 22. 9, 12. See note on Judg. 18. 31.

Tabernacle. Heb. odel = tent (Ap. 40). It remained here (Judg. 21. 19; 1 Sam. 1. 3; 3. 1) till the Philistines took the ark (1 Sam. 4. 11). In the days of Saul it was at Nob (of Benjamin, 1 Sam. 21. 1; 22. 19), and at Gibeon at beginning of Solomon's reign (1 Kings 3. 5; 2 Chron. 1. 3). Cp. Ps. 78. 60, 67, 68. Jer. 7. 12.
18. 2.  JOSHUA.

Israel seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, "How long are ye slack to go to possess the land, which the Lord God of your fathers hath given you?"

4 Give out from among you three men for each tribe: and I will send them, and they shall rise, and go through the Land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they shall come again to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts: Judah shall abide in their coast on the south, and the house of Joseph shall abide in their coasts on the north.

6 And shall therefore describe the Land into seven parts, and bring the description hither to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the Lord our God.

7 But the Levites have no part among you; for the priesthood of the Lord is their inheritance: and Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the Lord gave them."

K M (p. 313)

8 And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the Land, saying, "Go and walk through the Land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the Lord in Shiloh."

9 And the men went and passed through the Land, and described it by cities into seven parts in a book, and came again to Joshua to the host at Shiloh.

N

10 And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the Lord: and there Joshua divided the Land unto the children of Israel according to their divisions.

M 11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the coast of their lot came forth between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12 And their border on the north side was from Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of Beth-aven.

13 And the border went over from thence toward Luz, to the side of Luz, which is Bethel, southward; and the border descended to Ataroth-adar, near the hill that Leeth on the south side of the nether Beth-horon.

14 And the border was drawn thence, and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that Leeth before Beth-horon southward; and the goings out thereof were at Kirjath-baal, which is Kirjath-jearim, a city of the children of Judah: this was the west quarter.

15 And the south quarter was from the end of Kirjath-jearim, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the well of waters of Nephtoah:

16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that Leeth before the valley of the son of Hinnom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of Jebus on the south, and descended to En-rogei.

17 And was drawn from the north, and went forth to En-shemesh, and went forth toward Geillon, which is over against the going up of Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben,

18 And passed along toward the side over against Arabah northward, and went down unto Arabah:

19 And the border passed along to the side of Beth-hoglah northward: and the goings out of the border were at the north bay of the salt sea at the south end of Jordan: this was the south coast.

20 And Jordan was the border of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz, 19 And the second 8 lot came forth to Simeon, even for the tribe of the 9 children of Simeon according to their families; and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the 9 children of Judah.

10 And they had in their inheritance Beer-sheba, and Beeroth, and Moladah,

11 And Hazar-shual, and Balah, and Azem,

12 And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,

13 And Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susah,

14 And Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen; thirteen cities and their villages:

15 And Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages:

16 And all the villages that were round about these cities to Baalath-beer, Ramath of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the 9 children of Simeon according to their families.

17 Out of the portion of the 9 children of Judah was the inheritance of the 9 children of Simeon: for the part of the 9 children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the 9 children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them.

18 And the third lot 8 came up for the 9 children of Zebulun according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid:

19 And their border went upward toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river that is before Jokneam;

20 And turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrise unto the border of Chisloth-tabor, and then goeth out to Daberath, and goeth up to Japhia,

21 And from thence passeth on along on the east to Gittah-hepher, to Ittahe-kazin, and goeth out to Remmon-thenbo to Neah;

22 And the border compasseth it on the north side to Hannathon: and the outgoings thereof are in the valley of Jiphthah-el:

23 And Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Beth-lehem: twelve cities with their villages.

24 This is the inheritance of the 9 children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

25 And the fourth lot 8 came out to Issachar, for the 9 children of Issachar according to their families.

26 And their border was toward Jezer, and Chesulloth, and Shunnem,

7 And they appointed Kedesh in Galilee in mount Naphtali, and Shechem in mount Ephraim, and Kirjath-arba, which is Hebron, in the mountain of Judah.
8 And on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.
9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.

21 Then came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel;
21. 2.  JOSHUA.  21. 31

2 And they spake unto them at "Shiloah in the land of Canaan, saying, "The LORD commanded the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle."

3 And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.

5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

6 And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

7 The children of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

8 And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses,

9 And they gave out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name,

10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot.

11 And they gave them the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it.

12 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the son of Ja- phunneh for his possession.

13 Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the priest Hebron with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Libnah with her suburbs,

14 And Jattir with her suburbs, and Eshtemoa with her suburbs,

15 And Holon with her suburbs, and Debir with her suburbs,

16 And Ain with her suburbs, and Juttah with her suburbs, and Beth-shemesh with her suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with her suburbs, Geba with her suburbs, 18 And Anathoth with her suburbs, and Almon with her suburbs; four cities.

19 And the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim, 21 For they gave them Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gezer with her suburbs.

22 And Kibzaim with her suburbs, and Bethhoron with her suburbs; four cities.

25 And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with her suburbs, and Gath-rimon with her suburbs; two cities.

26 All the cities were ten with their suburbs for the families of the children of Kohath that remained.

27 And unto the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Beeshterah with her suburbs; two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbs, Dabareh with her suburbs, 29 And Jarmuth with her suburbs, En-gannim with her suburbs; four cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbs, Abdon with her suburbs, 31 Helkath with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs; four cities.

21. 32. JOSHUA.

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh, in Galilee with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hammoth-dor with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs; three cities.
33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs.
34 And unto the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulon, Jokneam with her suburbs, and Kartah with her suburbs, 35 Dimnah with her suburbs, Nahalal with her suburbs; four cities.
36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with her suburbs, and Jahazah with her suburbs, 37 Kedemoth with her suburbs, and Mephaath with her suburbs; four cities.
38 And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Mahanaim with her suburbs, 39 Heshbon with her suburbs, Jazer with her suburbs; four cities in all.
40 So all the cities for the children of Merari by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.
41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their suburbs.
42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus were all these cities.
43 And the LORD gave unto Israel all the Land which He sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.
44 And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that He sware unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; so the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.
45 There failed not of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

22 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh,
2 And said unto them, "Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you:
3 Ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.
4 And now the LORD your God hath given rest unto your brethren, as He promised unto them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto your tents, and unto the Land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side Jordan.
5 But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, and to cleave unto Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul." 6 So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto their tents.

And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them.
8 And he spake unto them, saying, "Return with much riches unto your tents, and with much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren."

Canaan, to go unto the country of Gilead, to the Land of their possession, wherein they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

10 And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see to.

d 11 And the children of Israel heard say, "Behold, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel."

12 And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them.

c 13 And the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, 14 And with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel; and each one was an head of the house of the fathers among the thousands of Israel.

15 And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying,

16 Thus saith the whole congregation of Israel to you, "The LORD, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might rebel this day against the LORD?"

17 Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,

18 But that ye must turn away this day from following the LORD, and it will be, seeing ye rebel to day against the LORD, that to morrow He will be wroth with the whole congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if the Land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD'S tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar beside the altar of the LORD our God.

20 Did not Achai the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.""

f 21 Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh answered, and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel,

24. 1-28 (D, p. 319). ADDRESS TO ELDERS

24 And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

2 And Joshua said unto all the People, "Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Náchor: and they served other gods.

3 And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac.

4 And I gave unto Isaac Jacob and Esau; and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, to possess it. But Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

5 I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out.

6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt; and ye came unto the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red sea.

7 And when they cried unto the LORD, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderness a long season.

8 And I brought you into the Land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their Land; and I destroyed them from before you.

9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you;

10 But I would not hearken unto Balaam;
JOSHUA.

1435 to 1484

therefore he blessed you still; so I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand.

12 And I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

13 And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not did ye eat.

14 Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD.

15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

16 And the People answered and said, "God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods:

17 For the LORD our God. Yet it is that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed:

18 And the LORD drove out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: and therefore will we also serve the LORD; for is our God."

19 And Joshua said unto the People, "Ye cannot serve the LORD: for is an holy God; is a jealous God; He will not forgive your trespasses nor your sins.

20 If ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then He will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that He hath done you good.

21 And the People said unto Joshua, "Nay; but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the People, "Ye are witnesses against yourselves that have chosen you the LORD, to serve him."

23 And they said, "We are witnesses."

24 "Now therefore put away," said he, "the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel."

25 And the People said unto Joshua, "The LORD our God will we serve, and His voice will we obey."

26 So Joshua made a covenant with the People that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

27 And Joshua wrote these words in "the Book of the Law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

32 And Joshua said unto all the People, "Ye Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us; for it hath heard all the words of the LORD, which He spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God."

33 So Joshua let the People depart, every man unto his inheritance.

29 And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of Gaash.

31 And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that overlived Joshua, and which had known all the works of the LORD, that He had done for Israel.
32 And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for an hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.

33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in a hill that pertained to Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.

But the sons of Israel departed every one to their place, and to their own city. And the sons of Israel worshipped Astarte (i.e. the Asherah; see Ap. 49) and Ashtaroth, and the gods of the nations round about them; and the Lord delivered them into the hands of Eglom king of Moab, and he ruled over them eighteen years.

BOOK OF JUDGES.

1 Now after the death of Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, "Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them?"

2 And the LORD said, "Judah shall go up; behold, I have delivered the land into his hand."

3 And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, "Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot." So Simeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him; and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, "Threescore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table: as I have done, so hath God requited me." And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword; and set the city on fire.

9 And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the south, and in the valley.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron: (now the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba;) and they slew Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher.

12 And Caleb said, "He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife."

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

TITLE. Judges. The Heb. name is Shôph-tîm—rulers; from verb to put right and then rule. Not Judges, as modern English. For origin and description of name, cp. 2.7–19. In Sept. = ἱστατικόν; Latin, Liber Judicum. The office peculiar to Israel. The book records the history of thirteen Judges (twelve called of God and one a usurper), whose names by Gen. make a multiple of eight and thirteen (see Ap. 10); six "evil" doings (see note on 2.11); six oppressors and oppressions (see note on 2.14); and six deliverances (see note on 2.16).

14 And it came to pass, when she came "to him, that she moved him to ask of her father "a field: and she lighted off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, "What wilt thou?"
15 And she said unto him, "Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water." And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.
18 And the children of the Kenite, Moses' father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.
17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. (And the name of the city was called Hormah.)
18 Also Judah took Gaza with the coast thereof, and Askelon with the coast thereof, and Ekron with the coast thereof. And 19 the LORD was with Judah; and he drave out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron. 20 And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak.
22 And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Beth-el: and 1 the Lord was with them.
23 And the house of Joseph sent to descry Beth-el.
24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, "Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and we will shew thee mercy."
25 And when he shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let go the man and all his family.
26 And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which is the name thereof unto this day.
27 Neither did Manasseh drive out the inhabitants of Bethshean and her towns, nor Taanach and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns: but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.
28 And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out.
29 Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.
30 Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

34. Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath; but he dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land:

nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became tributaries unto them.

34 And the Amorites forced the children of Dan unto the mountain: for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley:

35 But the Amorites would dwell in mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim:

yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became tributaries.

36 And the Amorites were from the going up to Akrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

2 And an Angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, "I made you go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I sware unto your fathers; and I said, 'I will not break My covenant with you.'

2 And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars,' but ye have not obeyed My voice: 'why have ye done this?'

3 Wherefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they shall be as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare unto you.'

4 And it came to pass, when the Angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place Bochim: and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6 And when Joshua had let the People go, the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land.

7 And the People served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that He did for Israel.

8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill Gaash.

12 forsok = forsok. God of their fathers. Which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger.

12 And they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, Which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger.
13 And they 15sought the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

14 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers who spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.

15 Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed.

16 Nevertheless the LORD raised up judges, which delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them.

17 And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so.

18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, then the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it repented the LORD because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

19 And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they returned, and corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way.

20 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and he said to his people, "Because that this people hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice; therefore will I drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died:"

22 That through them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not." Then the LORD raised up judges, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies.

3 Now these were the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan:

2 Only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing thereof;

3 Namely, five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath.

4 And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which He commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites:

24 When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they said, "Surely he covereth his feet in his summer chamber."

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed: and, behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour; therefore they took a key, and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped unto Seirath.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mount, and he before them.

28 And he said unto them, "Follow after me: for the LORD hath delivered your enemies, and the Moabites into your hand." And they went down after him, and took the fords of Jordan toward Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over.

29 And they slew of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, all lusty, and all 20 men of valour; and there escaped not a 30 man.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel.

And the land rested fourscore years.

9 And she said, "I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for I the LORD shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman."
And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men after him, and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab the father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh.

12 And they shewed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, “Up; for this is the day in which the LORD hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: is not the LORD gone out before thee?” So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And Jael, Heber’s wife, took a tent peg, and a mallet in her hand; and she went softly unto Sisera, and smote him with the tent peg, and smote the nail into his head, for he was fast asleep. And so he died.

16 And Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword; and there was not a man left.

17 Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him; “Turn, my lord, turn in to me; fear not.”

19 And when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a tent peg.

20 And she said unto him, “Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty.” And she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

21 Again he said unto her, “Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and enquire of thee, and say, ‘Is there any man here?’ then thou shalt say, ‘No.’”

22 And, behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, “Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest.”

23 And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the tent nail was in his temples.

24 So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel.

11 And there came an Angel of the Lord, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abi-zerite:

12 And the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him, and said unto him, 1 "The Lord is with thee, thou mighty man of valour."

13 And Gideon said unto Him, "Oh my Lord, if the Lord be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all His miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, 'Did not I the Lord bring us up from Egypt?' but now the Lord hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites."

14 And the Lord looked upon him, and said, "Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have I not sent thee?"

15 And he said unto Him, "Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house."

16 And the Lord said unto him, "Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man."

17 And he said unto Him, "If now I have found grace in Thy sight, show me a sign that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart not hence, I pray Thee, until I come unto Thee, and bring forth my present, and set it before Thee."

19 And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

20 And the Angel of God said unto him, "Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth." And he did so.

21 Then the Angel of the Lord put forth the end of the staff that was in His hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the Angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.

"O Lord, "GOD! "for because I have seen an Angel of the LORD face to face."

And the LORD said unto him, "Peace be unto thee; fear not; thou shalt not die."

Then Gideon built an altar there unto the Lord, and called it Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

And it came to pass the same night, that the Lord said unto him, "Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it:

And build an altar unto the Lord thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down."

Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the Lord had said unto him: so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

And they said one to another, "Who hath done this thing?"

And when they enquired and asked, they said, "Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing."

Then the men of the city said unto Joash, "Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it."

And Joash said unto all that stood against him, "Will ye plead for Baal? will ye save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar."

Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, "Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar."

Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel.

But the Spirit of the Lord came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Abi-ezer was gathered after him.

And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

38 And it was so: for he rose up early on the following morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and winged the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

39 And Gideon said unto God, "Let not Thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray Thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew."

40 And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

7 Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the People that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

4 And 2 the LORD said unto Gideon, "The People are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, 'This shall go with thee,' the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, 'This shall not go with thee,' the same shall not go."
21 And they stood every man in his place round about the camp: and all the host ran, and cried, and fled.

22 And the three hundred blew the trumpets: and the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-shittah in Zererah, and to the border of Abel-meholah, unto Tabbath.

23 And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites.

24 And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ephraim, saying, "Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan." Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan.

25 And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

8 And the men of Ephraim said unto him, "Why hast thou calledst us, that thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply.

2 And he said unto them, "What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gathering of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?

3 God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you?" Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.

4 And Gideon came to Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men that were with him, faint, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said unto the men of Succoth, "Give, I pray you, bread of the hand unto the people that follow me; for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian."

6 And the princes of Succoth said, "Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thine army?"

7 And Gideon said, "Therefore when the LORD hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers."

8 And he went up thence to Peniel, and spoke unto them likewise: and the men of Peniel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered him.

9 And he spake also unto the men of Peniel, saying, "When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower."

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of all the host of the children of the east: for there fell an hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.

11 And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and smote the host: for the host was secure.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the host.

13 And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle before the sun was up, and came unto the camp.

14 And caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he described unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen men.

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, "Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men that are weary?'"

16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth.

17 And he beat down the tower of Peniel, and slew the men of the city.

18 Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, "What manner of men were they whom ye slew at Tabor?" And they answered, "As thou art, so were they; each one resembled the ten children of a king."

19 And he said, "Ye were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you."

20 And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and slay (thou) But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Rise (thou), and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength." And Gideon arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the 7 ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

22 Then the 7 men of Israel said unto Gideon, "Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian." And Gideon said unto them, "I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the LORD shall rule over you.

24 And Gideon said unto them, "I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the "earrings of his prey." (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

25 And they answered, "We will willingly give them." And they spread 18 a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his prey.

26 And the weight of the golden 24 earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold; besides ornaments, and collars, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were about their camels' necks.

27 And Gideon made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel went thither a whoring after it: which thing became a snare unto Gideon, and to his house.

28 Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel. And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had threescore and ten sons of his body begotten: for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine that was in Shechem, 5 the also bare him a son, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

33 And it came to pass, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the 18 children of Israel turned again, and went a whoring after Baal, and made Baal-berith their god.

34 And the 18 children of Israel remembered not the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:

29 And he said to Abimelech, "Increase thine army, and come out." 30 And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech privately, saying, "Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren be come to Shechem; and, behold, they fortify the city against thee. Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field:

32 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them as thou shalt find occasion."

34 And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city:

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, "Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains." And Zebul said unto him, "Zoë, see the shadow of the mountains as if they were men." 37 And Gaal spake again and said, "See there come people down by the middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of Meonim." 38 Then said Zebul unto him, "Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray thee, now, and fight with them."

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entering of the gate. 41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they did not dwell in Shechem.

44 And Abimelech, and the company that was with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields, and slew them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and beat down the city, and sowed it with salt.

46 And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into an hold of the house of the god. 47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech got him up to mount Zalmon, and all the people that were with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, "What ye have seen me do, make haste, and do as I have done."

And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them; that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

7 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon.

8 And that year they vexed and oppressed the children of Israel: eighteen years, all the children of Israel that were on the other side Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

9 Moreover the children of Ammon passed over Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sore distressed.

11 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valour, and yea was the son of an harlot: and Gilead begat Jephthah. 2 And Gilead's wife bare him sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said unto him, "Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of a strange woman."

3 Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there were gathered vain men to Jephthah, and went out with him. 4 And it came to pass in process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob:

6 And they said unto Jephthah, "Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon."

7 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, "Did ye not hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distress?"

8 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, "Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, "If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them into my hand, then shall I be your head."

10 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, "The LORD be witness between us, if we do not so according to thy words."

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words before the LORD in Mizpeh.

And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab: but he would not consent: and Israel abode in Kadesh. 18 Then they went along through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

1 children — sons.

14 and he had forty sons and thirty nephews, that rode on threescore and ten ass colts:

and he judged Israel eight years.

15 And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

16 And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

344
And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and bare not.

And the Angel of the Lord appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, "Behold now, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son.
Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing:
For, lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head: for "the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb: and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines."

Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, "A Man of God came unto me, and His countenance was like the countenance of an Angel of God, very terrible:
But I asked Him not whence HE was, neither told He me His name:
But He said unto me, "Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb of his day to his death."

Then Manoah intreated the Lord, and said,
"O my Lord, let the Man of God Which thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born."

And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the Angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her.
And the woman made haste, and ran, and told her husband, and said unto him, "Behold, the Man hath appeared unto me, That came unto me the other day."
And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto Him, "Art thou the Man that spakest unto the woman?" And He said, "I am."
And Manoah said, "Now let Thy words come to pass. How shall we order the child, and how shall we do unto him?"
And the Angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, "Of all that I said unto the woman I must command her lest she hear a word.
She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded her let her observe."

And Manoah said unto the Angel of the Lord, "I pray Thee, let us detain Thee, until we shall have made ready a kid for Thee."
And the Angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, "Though thou detain Me, I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it unto the Lord."
For Manoah knew not that He was an Angel of the Lord.

And Manoah said unto the Angel of the Lord, "What is Thy name, that when Thy sayings come to pass we may do Thee honour?"

And the Angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, "When thou hast gathered the fruit of the vine, make thee no wine nor strong drink, nor let this unclean thing come to pass unto thee."

And Manoah did his whole work, and made thereon a burnt offering unto the Lord.
And Manoah took some of the firstfruits of the fruit of the tree, and offered them for a burnt offering:
And Manoah and his wife did eat of that which was eaten for a burnt offering, and the child died.
And Manoah knew not that he had eaten of any thing: for Manoah and his wife did eat of it."
18 And the Angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, "Why askest thou thus after My name, seeing it is "secret?"

19 So Manoah took a kid with a meat offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the LORD:

and the Angel did wonders (and Manoah and his wife looked on).

20 For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the Angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground.

21 But the Angel of the LORD did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife.

Then Manoah knew that was an Angel of the LORD.

22 And Manoah said unto his wife, "We shall surely die, because we have seen God." And his wife answered him, "If the LORD were pleased to kill us, He would not have received a burnt offering and a meat offering at our hands, neither would He have shewed us all these things, nor would as at this time have told us such things as these:"

24 And the woman bare a son, and called his name Samson: and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him.

And the Spirit of the LORD began to move him at times in the camp of Dan between Zarah and Eshtaol.

14 And Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.

2 And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, "I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore get thee for me wife." And his father and his mother told unto him, "Is there never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my People, that thou goest to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines?" And Samson said unto his father, "Get her for me; for she pleaseth me well."

4 But his father and his mother knew not that it was the LORD, that he sought an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

5 Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and behold, a young lion roared against him.

6 And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and had nothing in his hand:

but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

7 And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

8 And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion: and behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcase of the lion.

9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went

12 And Samson said unto them, "I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if ye can certainly declare it unto me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then will I give you thirty "sheets and thirty change of garments:

13 But if ye cannot declare it, then shall ye give me thirty "sheets and thirty change of garments." And they said unto him, "Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it."

14 And he said unto them, "Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness." And they could not in three days expound the riddle.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, "Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us to take that which we have?" "Is it not so?"

16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, "Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me." And he said unto her, "Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?"

17 And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she pressed upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey? And what is stronger than a lion?"

And he said unto them, "If ye had not plowed with my heifer, Ye had not found my riddle."

19 And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.

20 But Samson's wife was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

15 But it came to pass within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a "kid;" and he said, "I will go in to my wife into the chamber." But her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father said, "Verily I thought that thou hadst utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? take her, I pray thee, instead of her."

3 And Samson said, "Concerning them, now shall I be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure."

4 And Samson went and caught three hundred "foxes, and took "firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails.

5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives.

6 Then the Philistines said, "Who hath done this?" And they answered, "Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion." And the Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire.

7 And Samson said unto them, "Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will cease."

8 And he went down and dwelt in the "top of the rock Etam.

and he went down and dwelt in the "top of the rock Etam.
9 Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi.
10 And the men of Judah said, "Why are ye come up against us?" And they answered, "To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us."
11 Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, "Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers over us? what is this that thou hast done unto us?" And he said unto them, "As they did unto me, so have I done unto them."
12 And they said unto him, "We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines." And Samson said unto them, "Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves."
13 And they spake unto him, saying, "No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee." And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.
14 And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands loosed from off his hands.
15 And he found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith.

18 And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, "Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of Thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?"

24 And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and went away with them, bar and all, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of an hill that is before Hebron.
25 And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.
26 And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, "Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him: and we will give thee every one of us six hundred pieces of silver."

17 Ramath-lehi = the lifting of the jawbone.
6 And Delilah said to Samson, "Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee."

7 And Samson said unto her, "If they bind me with seven green withs that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man."

8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green withs which had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

9 Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber. And she said unto him, "The Philistines be upon thee, Samson."

And he brake the withs, as a thread of tow is broken when it toucheth the fire. So his strength was not known.

10 And Delilah said unto Samson, "Behold, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound."

11 And he said unto her, "If they bind me fast with new ropes that never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man."

12 Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, "The Philistines be upon thee, Samson."

And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber.

13 And he brake them from off his arms like a thread.

14 And she fastened it with the pin, and said unto him, "The Philistines be upon thee, Samson."

15 And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web.

16 And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death;

17 That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, "There hath not come a rasor upon mine head; for 3 have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart."

Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand.

19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him.

20 And she said, "The Philistines be upon thee, Samson." And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, "I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself."

And at his wist not that 7 the LORD was departed from him.
21 But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house.

22 Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaven.

23 Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, "Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand."

24 And when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, "Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, which slew many of us."

25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, "Call for Samson, that he may make us sport." And they called for Samson out of the prison house, and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars.

26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, "Suffer me, I pray thee, one more time to make me sport, and I will let thee know how I will make sport before thee.

27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport.

28 And Samson called unto the LORD, and said, "O Lord, God, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O Lord, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes."

29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines." And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were there. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than three thousand which he slew in his life.

31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the buryingplace of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.

17 And there was a man of mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah.

2 And he said unto his mother, "The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from thee, about which thou cursedst, and spakest of also in mine ears, "behold, the silver is with me; 'I took it.'" And his mother said, "Blessed be thou of the LORD, my son."

3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, "I had wholly dedicated the silver unto the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image: now therefore I will restore it unto thee."

4 Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother took two hundred

5 And the man Micah had an house of gods, and made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.

6 In those days there was no king in Israel; but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

7 And there was a young man out of Beth-lehem-Judah, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there.

And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem-judah to sojourn where he could find a place: and he came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.

And Micah said unto him, "Whence comest thou?" And he said unto him, "I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place."

10 And Micah said unto him, "Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and thy victuals."

So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons.

12 And Micah consecrated the Levite; and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

18 In those days there was no king in Israel:

and in those days the tribe of the Danites, inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coast, men of valour, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, "Go, search the land:"

3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite; and they turned in thither, and said unto him, "Who brought thee hither? and what maketh thee in this place? and what hast thou here?"

And he said unto them, "Thus and thus dealt Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his priest."

5 And they said unto him, "Ask counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the priest said unto them, "Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go."

7 Then the five men departed, and came to a house of gods. The true house of God was neglected, and as hard to find as it is to-day (21. 19); and, when found, dancing was the prominent feature, not sacrifice or worship (21. 21-23).

"Laish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians; "quiet and secure; and there was no magistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man."

8 And they came unto their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, "What say ye?"

9 And they said, "Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good; and are ye still? be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land."

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth."
11 And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with weapons of war.
12 And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim.
13 And they passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah.
14 Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, "Do ye know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what ye have to do."
15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and saluted him.
16 And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.
17 And the five men went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.
18 And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the carriage before them.

22 And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.
23 And they cried unto the children of Dan, "What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?"
24 And he said, "Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, 'What aileth thee?'"
25 And the children of Dan said unto him, "Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest we waxen guilty in our business.
26 And they went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house.

27 And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people that were at quiet and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.
28 And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Zidon, and they had no business with any man: and it was in the valley that lieth by Beth-rehob. And they built a city, and dwelt therein.
29 And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the first.

19 And it came to pass in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Beth-lehem-judah.

2 And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there four whole months,

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house: and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father in law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son in law, "Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way.

6 And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsel's father had said unto the "man, "Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry."

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged him: therefore he lodged there again.

8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart: and the damsel's father said, "Comfort thine heart, I pray thee." And they tarried until afternoon, and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the damsel's father, said unto him, "Behold, now the day draweth toward eve, I pray you tarry all night: behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go home."

10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against Jebus, which is Jerusalem; and there were with him two sons saddled, his concubine also was with him.

11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, "Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in into this city of the Jebusites, and lodge in it."

12 And his master said unto him, "We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger, that is not of the children of Israel; we will pass over to Gibeah."

13 And he said unto his servant, "Come, and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in Ramah."

14 And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them when they were by Gibeah, which belongeth to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside thither, to go in and lodge in Gibeah: and when he went in, he sat him down in a street of the city: for there was no man that took him into his house to lodging.

16 And, behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even, which was also of mount Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeah: but the men of the place were Benjamites.

17 And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, "Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou?"

18 And he said unto him, "Be are passing from Beth-lehem-judah toward the side of mount Ephraim; from thence am I; and I went to Beth-lehem-judah, but am now going to the house of the Lord: and there is no man that receiveth me to house.

19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man which is with thy servants: there is no want of any thing."

20 And the old man said, "Peace be with
20. Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the Lord in Mizpeh.

2 And the chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that drew sword.

3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) Then said the children of Israel, “Tell us, how was this wickedness?”

4 And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, “I came into Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, and my concubine, to lodge.

5 And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me: and my concubine have they forced, that she is dead.

6 And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her into all the coasts of Israel.

7 Behold, ye are all children of Israel; give here your advice and counsel.”

8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, “We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his house.

9 But now this shall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up by lot against it:

10 And we will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the People, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel.”

11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent ten men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What wickedness is this that is done among you?”
13 Now therefore deliver us the 10 men, the children of Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel."

But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel:

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

And the children of Benjamin were numbered that at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men lefthanded; every one could sling stones at a "hair brevth, and not miss.

And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.

18 And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, "Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin?" And the LORD said, "Judah shall go up first."

19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the People the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother?" And the LORD said, "Go up against him.")

24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 Then all the children of Israel, and all the People, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the Lord, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord.

27 And the children of Israel enquired of the Lord, (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days,"}

28 And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, "Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease?" And the Lord said, "Go up; for to morrow I will deliver them into thine hand."

29 And Israel set liers in wait round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.
31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the People, and were drawn away from the city, and they began to smite of the People, and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which one went up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, "They are smitten down before us, as at the first."

But the children of Israel said, "Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways."

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar:

and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore; but they knew not that evil was near them.

35 And the Lord smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah.

37 And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, "Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle."

40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven.

41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them.

43 Thereby they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down with ease over against Gibeah toward the sunrise.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men: all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon:

and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them.

46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned again.
Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpeh, saying, “There shall not any of us give his daughter unto Benjamin to wife.”

2 And the people came to the house of God, and abode there till even before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept sore:

3 And said, “O LORD God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be to day one tribe lacking in Israel?”

4 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the People rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5 And the children of Israel said, “Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the congregation unto the LORD?” For they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, “He shall surely be put to death.”

6 And the children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, “There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.”

7 How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?”

8 And they said, “What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to the LORD?” And, behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly.

9 For the People were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, “Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

11 And this is the thing that ye shall do. Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that hath lain by a man.”

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins, that had known no man by lying with any male; and they brought them unto the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Benjamin that were in the rock Rimmon, and to call peaceably unto them.

14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead: and yet so they sufficed them not.

15 And the People repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 Then the elders of the congregation said, of Benjamin, saying, "Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;"
21. And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

22. And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, 'Be favourable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should be guilty.'"

23. And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught:

and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them.

21 dance in dances. This is what "religion" had come to in those days of apostasy, by which we must judge it.
22 at this time, &c.: i.e. "at the time when ye would have incurred guilt [by so doing]."
23 repaired = rebuilt, or built up.
25 no king. Note the structural arrangement of the four occurrences of this expression. See note on 18. 1.
did = did continually. This is the Divine summing up of the whole book, by way of Epilogue. All the evil follows as the result of the disobedience in 1. 27-36.

24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

25 In those days there was no king in Israel: every man "did that which was right in his own eyes."

1 Now it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Beth-lehem-judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, by his wife, and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Beth-lehem-judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.

3 And Elimelech Naomi's husband died; and she was left, and her two sons.

B 4 And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them; and the woman was left of her two sons and her husband.

A 6 Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard that the Lord had visited His People in giving them bread.

7 Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her; and they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah.

B a 8 And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, 'Go, return each to her mother's house: 'the Lord deal kindly with you, 'as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me.

9 'The Lord grant you that ye may find rest, each of you in the house of your husband.' Then she kissed them;

b And they lifted up their voice, and wept.

10 And they said unto her, 'Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.'

A 11 And Naomi said, 'Turn again, my daughters: 'why will ye go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should have an husband also to night, and should also bear sons;

13 'Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? 'would ye stay for them from having husbands? 'nay, my daughters; for it grieved me much for your sakes that the hand of the Lord is gone out against me.'

b 14 And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother in law; but Ruth clave unto her.

TITTLE, Book. For its place in the Hebrew Canon, see Ap. 1. The second of the five Megilloth, or Scrolls. Read at the Feast of Pentecost. Their order determined by the order of the feasts. Written as being necessary for the link it affords in the Genealogy of David and Christ the son of David, Matt. 1. 1-16. Placed in the Canon after Judges by the Sept. Followed by all the versions.

Ruth. Two books with names of women: Ruth, a Gentile, marries a Hebrew husband; Esther, a Jewess, marries a Gentile husband. Two tokens that Gentiles, as such, were to be blessed only through Abraham's seed, according to Gen. 12. 2; 19. 16; 22. 18; 29. 4.

15 And she said, "Behold, thy sister in law is returneth to her People, and unto her gods: return thou after sister in law."

16 And Ruth said, "Intreat me not to leave thee, or to turn back from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy People shall be my People, and thy God my God:

17 Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if thou but death part thee and me."

18 When she saw that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, then she left speaking to her.

19 So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem.

20 And she said unto them, "Call me not Naomi, call me Mara: for the ALMIGHTY hath dealt very bitterly with me:

21 I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the ALMIGHTY hath afflicted me."

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

2 And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz.

3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her maid was light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

4 And, behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, "The LORD be with you." And they answered him, "The LORD bless thee."

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, "Whose damsel is this?"

6 And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, "She is the Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

7 And she said, 'I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now, that she tarried a little in the house.'

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, "Hear me thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn."

9 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, "Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldst take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger?"

10 And Boaz answered and said unto her, "It hath fully been shewed me, all that thou hast done unto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband: and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a People which thou knewest not heretofore.

11 The LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under Whose wings thou art come to trust."

6 And she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her.
7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her head down.
8 And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himself: and behold, a woman lay at his feet.
9 And he said, "Who art thou?" And she answered, "I am Ruth thine handmaid: spread therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou art a near kinsman.
10 And he said, "Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter: for thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or rich.
11 And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requestest: for all the city of my People doth know that thou art a virtuous woman.
12 And now it is true that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I.
13 Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, as the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning."
3.14

RUTH.

14 And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, "Let it not be known that a woman came into the door."

15 Also he said, "Bring the vail that thou hast upon thee, and hold it." And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

16 And when she came to her mother in law, she said, "Who art thou, my daughter?" And she told her all that the man had done to her.

17 And she said, "These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, 'Go not empty unto thy mother in law.'"

18 Then said she, "Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he have finished the thing this day."

4

Then went Boaz up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, "the kinsman of whom Boaz spake by; unto whom he said, 'Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here.'" And he turned aside, and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, "Sit ye down here." And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, "Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's:

4 And I thought to advertise thee, saying, "Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my People. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it; but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it beside thee; and if I am after thee.""

And he said, "I will redeem it."

5 Then said Boaz, "What day thou buyst the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance."

6 And the kinsman said, "I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to myself; for I cannot redeem it."

7 Now this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, "Buy it for thee." So he drew off his shoe.

9 And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the People, "Are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and 'from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.'

11 And all the People that were in the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses."

NOTE ON "THE GENERATIONS OF PHAREZ".

If Salmon married Rahab in the year of the entry into the land (1451 B.C.); and the birth of David was in 960 B.C.; then, according to the above Table of Generations, the period of 461 years is covered by only four lives; viz. Salmon, Boaz, Obed, and Jesse.

The inference therefore seems clear that, as in a Royal line it is not necessary to include every link (as it is in the case of an ordinary man), certain names are omitted in this pedigree, in order that "the generations of Pharez" may be reckoned as ten generations, to accord with the principle which we observe from Adam to Zedekiah (viz. Adam to Noah, ten; Shem to Abraham, ten; Solomon to Zedekiah, twice ten). So here Pharez to David is given in ten generations.

We see the same principle at work in other Tables of our Lord's ancestry, names are omitted in order to make uniform reckonings.

For example, in Matt. 1:1-17 we have three counts of "fourteen generations"; see notes there. In v. 1 we have the whole given in two links (David and Abraham). Ruth herself is omitted in v. 17, above.

* It is necessary that the two books should be treated as one; because, in the Hebrew Canon (as given in the MSS. and early printed editions of the Hebrew text) the two are, and always have been, presented and reckoned as one book. They were first divided, and treated as two, by the Septuagint Translators (cent. 3 a.C.). And this division has been followed in all subsequent versions. Probably, scrolls were more or less equal in length; and, as Greek requires at least one-third more space than Hebrew, one scroll was filled before the translation of the one long book of fifty-five chapters was completed. Hence, the poor division. Of the thirty-four Sedarim (or cycles for public reading), the twentieth begins with 1 Sam. 30. 25 and ends with 2 Sam. 2. 6, showing no break in the text.

The same applies to the two so-called Books of Kings; for Kings also made a long book of forty-seven chapters, and came to be divided in the same way, the four being numbered respectively the "First, Second, Third, and Fourth Book of the Kingdoms"; and, in the Vulgate, "of the Kings". In no Hebrew MS. or early printed edition is the book found divided into two. The thirty-five divisions, called Sedarim, are numbered throughout without regard to any division; the nineteenth beginning with 1 Kings 22. 43 and ending with 2 Kings 2. 14. This division must have been governed by the exigencies of the parchment, or the break would not have been made in the midst of the reign of Ahaziah and the ministry of Elijah.

The one book, Chronicles, consisting of sixty-five chapters, came under the same treatment. There are twenty-five Sedarim (or cycles for public reading), of which the eleventh begins with 1 Chron. 28. 10 and ends with 2 Chron. 2. 2, showing no break in the text. For the division of the book Ezra—Nehemiah, see notes on p. 616.

1 The Structure of these four "BOOKS OF THE KINGDOMS" may be exhibited thus:

X | Y | 2 Sam. 2. 1—4. 12. The Divided Kingdom.
| Z | 2 Sam. 5. 1—24. 25. The United Kingdom.

1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite: 2 And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. 3 And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there. 4 And when the time was that Elkanah offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and daughters, portions: 5 But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion; for he loved Hannah: (but the LORD had shut up her womb,) 6 And her adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb. 7 And as he did so year by year, when he went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked him; therefore she wept, and did not eat. 8 Then said Elkanah her husband unto her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than ten sons? 9 So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat upon a post by the entrance of the temple of the LORD.
10 And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore.

11 And she vowed a vow, and said, "O Lord of hosts, if Thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of Thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget Thine handmaid, but wilt give unto Thine handmaid a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head."

12 And it came to pass, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth.

13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.

14 And Eli said unto her, "How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee."

15 And Hannah answered and said, "No, my lord; I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD.

16 Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of Belial: for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I spoken lighthly."

17 Then Eli answered and said, "Go in peace, and the "God of Israel grant thee thy petition that thou hast asked of Him."

18 And she said, "Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight." So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad.

19 And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house.

20 Wherefore it came to pass, when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, saying, "Because I have asked him of the LORD."

21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.

22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, "I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever."

23 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, "Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only the LORD establish His word." So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

24 And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and an ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shiloh: ("and the child was young.

25 And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, "Oh my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD."

27 For this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of Him:

28 Therefore also I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the LORD." And he worshipped the LORD there.

2 And Hannah prayed, and said, "My heart rejoiceth in the LORD, mine horn is exalted in the LORD:

My mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; Because I rejoice in Thy salvation.
2.2. I. SAMUEL.

2 There is no holy as the LORD: for there is none beside Thee; neither is there any rock like our God.

3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth:

For the LORD is a GOD of knowledge, and by Him actions are weighed.

4 The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumble are girded with strength.

5 They that were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they that were hungry ceased:

So that the barren hath born seven; and she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

6 The LORD killeth, and maketh alive; He bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

7 The LORD maketh poor, and maketh rich; He exalteth, and he bringeth low, and lifteth up.

8 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill,

To set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory;

For the pillars of the earth are the LORD’s, and He hath set the world upon them.

9 He will keep the feet of His saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness;

For by strength shall no man prevail.

10 The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken to pieces; out of heaven shall He thunder upon them.

The LORD shall judge the ends of the earth.

And He shall give strength unto His King, and exalt the horn of His Anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the child dide minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest.

12 Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial; they knew not the LORD.

13 And the priests’ custom with the people was, that when any man offered sacrifice, the priest’s servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand;

And he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fleshhook hekkouk came up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither.

15 Also before they burnt the fat, the priests’ servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, “Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have ‘sodden flesh of thee, but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force.”

17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD: for men abhorred the offering of the LORD.

18 But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, girded with a linen ephod.

19 Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and k

2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see;
3 And ere the \( \text{lamp of } \) God went out in \( \text{the temple of } \) the \( \text{Lord, where the ark of } \) God was, and Samuel was laid down to sleep;
4 That \( \text{the } \) Lord called Samuel; and he answered, "Here am I."
5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, "Here am I; for thou callest me." And he said, "I called not; lie down again." And he went and lay down.

6 And \( \text{the } \) Lord called yet again, "Samuel." And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here am I; for thou didst call me." And he answered, "I called not, my son; lie down again."
7 Now Samuel did not yet know \( \text{the } \) Lord, neither was the word of \( \text{the } \) Lord yet revealed unto him.
8 And \( \text{the } \) Lord called Samuel the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here am I; for thou didst call me." And Eli perceived that \( \text{the } \) Lord had called the child.
9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, "Go, lie down; and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, 'Speak, \text{Lord; } for Thy servant heareth.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And \( \text{the } \) Lord came, and stood, and called as at other times, "Samuel." Then Samuel answered, "Speak; for Thy servant heareth."

11 And \( \text{the } \) Lord said to Samuel, "Behold, \( \text{three } \) will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall \( \text{tingle.} \)
12 In that day I will perform against \( \text{Eli } \) all \( \text{things } \) which I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end.
13 For I have told him that \( \text{three } \) will judge his house for ever for the \( \text{iniquity which he knoweth; } \) because his sons \( \text{made themselves vile, } \) and he restrained them not.
14 And therefore I have sworn unto the house of \( \text{Eli } \) that the \( \text{iniquity of } \) Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

15 And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of \( \text{the } \) Lord. And Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision.
16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, "Samuel, my son." And he answered, "Here am I."
17 And he said, "What is that \( \text{thing that } \) the \( \text{Lord } \) hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: \( \text{God do so to thee, } \) and more also, if thou hide \( \text{any } \) thing from me of all the things that He said unto thee."
18 And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him.
19 And he said, "Surely \( \text{the } \) Lord hath sent me to feed his people with bread."
20 And all Israel from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that \( \text{Samuel } \) was established to be a prophet of \( \text{the } \) Lord.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand \( \text{men} \).

3 And when the People were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies."

4 So the People sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, "What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews?" And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, "God is come into the camp." And they said, "Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore.

8 "Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.""}

10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11 And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

12 And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the wayside watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, "What meaneth the noise of this tumult?"

15 And the young man came hastily, and told Eli.

16 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes were dim, that he could not see.

17 And the young man said unto Eli, "Am not I he that came out of the army, and ... and mine son?"

18 And the messenger answered and said, "Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the People, and thy two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken."

And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Eben-ezer unto Ashdod.

2. When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

3. And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the Lord; and they took Dagon, and set him in his place again.

4. And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the Lord; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only the stump of Dagon was left to him.

5. Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that came into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day.

6. But the hand of the Lord was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and He destroyed them, and smote them with emerods, even Ashdod and the coasts thereof.

7. And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for His hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our god."

8. They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" And they answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath." And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

9. And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the city with a very great destruction: and He smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10. Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, "They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people."

11. So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay not us, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.

12. And the men that died not were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

K Meg 2 And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, "What shall we do to the ark of the Lord? tell us wherewith we shall send it to its place."

h 3 And they said, "If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty; but in any wise return Him a trespass offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why His hand is not removed from you."

land; and ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure He will lighten His hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land.

6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when He had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them:

8 And take the ark of the Lord, and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which ye return Him for a trespass offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go.

9 And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to Beth-shemesh, then ye hath done us a great evil; but if not, then we shall know that it is not His hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us."

10 And the men did so; and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home:

11 And they laid the ark of the Lord upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their emerods.

12 And the kine took the straight way to the way of Beth-shemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh.

13 And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt offering unto the Lord.

15 And the Levites took down the ark of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the Lord.

16 And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 And these are the golden emerods which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering unto the Lord; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one;

18 And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of country villages, even unto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the Lord: which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua, the Beth-shemite.

19 And He smote the ten men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the Lord, even He smote of the People fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the Lord had smitten many of the People with a great slaughter.

20 And the ten men of Beth-shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before this holy Lord? and to whom shall he go up from us?"

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, saying, "The Philistines have brought again the ark of the Lord; come ye down, and fetch it up to you."

7 And the men of Kirjath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the Lord.

2 And it came to pass, while the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years:

and all the house of Israel lamented after the Lord.

8. 5. I. SAMUEL.

5. 1. “make us a king to judge us like all the nations.”

6. But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, “Give us a king to judge us.” And Samuel prayed unto the LORD.

7. And the LORD said unto Samuel, “Hearken unto the voice of the People in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected me, but they have rejected thee, that I should not reign over them.”

8. According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

9. Now therefore hearken unto their voice: and howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.”

10. And Samuel said all the words of the LORD unto the People that asked of him a king.

11. And he said, “This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

12. And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to be rulers over your land, and to reap your harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13. And he will take your daughters to be confectioners, and to be bakers, and to be brewers.

14. And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

15. And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants.

16. And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17. He will take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall serve his officers; and ye shall be servants unto him.

18. And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the LORD will not hear you in that day.

19. Nevertheless the People refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, “Nay; but we will have a king over us; That we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.”

21. And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD.

22. And the LORD said to Samuel, “Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king.”

And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, “Go ye every man unto his city.”

9. Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power.

And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.

3. And the asses of Kish Saul’s father were lost.

And Saul said to his servant, “Take now one of my servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses.”

4. And he passed through the mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5. And when they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, “Come, and let us return; lest my father...”

leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, "Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man; all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

7 Then said Saul to his servant, "But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we?"

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, "Behold, I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver; that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way." 9 (Before time in Israel, when a man went to enquire of God, thus he spake, "Come, and let us go to the seer:" for he that is now called a Prophet was beforetime called a seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his servant, "Well said; come, let us go.

3 So they went unto the city where the man of God was.

p3 (p. 376)

11 And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, "Is the seer here?"

q3 (p. 377)

12 And they answered them, and said, "He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; and there is a sacrifice of the people to day in the high place.

13 As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; for about this time ye shall find him.

14 And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

W2 A (p. 377)

15 Now the Lord had told Samuel in his ear two days before Saul came, saying,

16 "To morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him to be captain over My people Israel, that he may save My people out of the hand of the Philistines; for I have looked upon My people, because their cry is come unto Me."

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, he said unto him, "Behold the man whom I spake to thee of! this same shall reign over My People." 18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, "Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is."

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, "Am the seer: go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to day, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.

seer. Heb. ro'eh = a seer of visions. Another name for seer was choch, which referred rather to spiritual apprehension of what was seen. In 1 Chron. 29. 29 all three words occur in the same verse.

Prophet. Hev. na'āt = one who spoke for or was moved by God.

10 let. Some codices, with one early printed edition, and Sept., read "and let us." 11 up the hill = by the ascent of.

2-13 (B, p. 377), DIRECTIONS BY SAMUEL.

Introduction.

B | w | 2-4. Signs given.
   | x | 7. Command.
   w | 8. Appointment.

1. thou shalt find. Three signs given (cp. Mark 14. 8) to indicate the coming change.

lo. Fig. Asterismos. Ap. 6.
3. plain = oak, or terebinth; growing generally alone, becomes a conspicuous landmark.

Beth-el = House of God. Evidently a place of worship, in the absence of any "place", according to Deut. 12. 5, &c.
4. salute. Heb. ask after thy peace.
5. the garrison. So the Sept., Aram., and Syr., but Heb. text has pl.
a company of prophets. The first occurrence of this expression. Probably a school established by Samuel (cp. Acts 3. 24; 13. 20). The head of such school called "father" (cp. 10. 12; 19. 20), or "master" (2 Kings 2. 3).
Such communities found later at Beth-el, Jericho, Gilgal (2 Kings 2. 3, 5; 4. 38); and probably here at Gibeah and Ramah (cp. 1 Sam. 19. 18, 20).

psaltery = viol. A stringed instrument, same as lute.

sacrifices of peace offerings: seven days shall thou tarry, till I come to thee, and shew thee what thou shalt do."

9. 22. I. SAMUEL.

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.
23 And Samuel said unto the cook, "Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, 'Set it by thee.'"
24 And the cook took up the shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, "Behold that which is left! set it before thee, and eat: for unto this time hath it been kept for thee since I said, 'I have invited the People.'" So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.
25 And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel communed with Saul upon the top of the house.
26 And they arose early in the morning, and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, "Up, that I may send thee away." And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.
27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Bid the servant pass, (and) he passed on;) but stand thou still a while, that I may shew thee the word of God."
9 And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, 2 God gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day.

10 And when they came thither to the hill, 4 behold, a company of prophets met him; and the Spirit of 3 God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, 2 behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the People said one to another, 2 "What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? 2 Is Saul also among the prophets?"

12 And one of the same place answered and said, "But who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb, 4 "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 And Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, 4 "Whither went you?" And he said, "To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel;"

15 And Saul's uncle said, "Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you." 4 And Saul said unto his uncle, "He told us plainly that the asses were found." But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

17 And Samuel called the People together unto 1 the LORD to Mizpeh;

18 And said unto the 2 children of Israel, 4 "Thus saith 1 the LORD God of Israel, 2 3 brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

19 And ye have this day rejected your 2 God, Who Himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations; and ye have said unto Him, 4 " Nay, but set a king over us.'

20 Now therefore present yourselves 6 before 1 the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands."

21 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

22 When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, 4 and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

23 Therefore they 6 enquired of 1 the LORD further, if the 6 man should yet come thither. And 1 the LORD answered, 4 " Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff."

24 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the People, he was higher than any of the People from his shoulders and upward.

25 And Samuel said to all the People, 4 "See ye him whom 1 the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the People?"

26 And all the People shouted, and said, "4 God save the king."

27 Then Samuel told the People the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before 1 the LORD.

18 children = sons.

Thus saith the LORD. This rehearsal is to show that they had sinned, although He was giving a king. Their sin was not in asking, but in forestalling Jehovah's already expressed purpose to give them a king (see Deut. 17. 15 and cp. Gen. 49. 10).

1 the men. Heb. 'ḥasher. Ap. 14. II. Those who had not obeyed the summons of Judg. 21. 8 were extinguished, and their daughters given to remnant of Benjamin. This gave them a claim on Saul, who was a Benjamite.

And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts 4 God had 2 touched.

27 But the 18 children of Belial said, 4 "How shall this man save us?" And they despised him, and brought him no presents. But 2 he held his peace.

11 Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-gilead:

And all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, "Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee."
2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, saying, "Surely I have even done wrong this one thing, but let it be for my life: the men of Israel will come again to fight against me, and I shall be weak among them."

3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, "Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the borders of Israel: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee."

4 Then came the messengers of Gibeon to Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices, and wept.

5 And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, "What art thou that criest against me?" And they told him the tidings, saying, "The men of Jabesh put seven days' respite on them, and sent them out: and, lo, if they tarry, all is well; if they tarry not, then we know that they have been visited by some evil thing."

6 And the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the borders of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, "Whosoever cometh not forth with oxen, to aid Saul against the men of Jabesh-gilead, he and his household shall be put to death."

8 And when he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

9 And they said unto the messengers that came, "Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, 'To morrow, by that time the sun be hot, ye shall have 'seven yoke,' and the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, "To morrow we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.'"

11 And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the People in three companies; and they came into the midst of the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 And the People said unto Samuel, "Who is he that said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring the men, that we may put them to death."

13 And Saul said, "There shall not a man be put to death this day: for to day the Lord hath wrought salvation in Israel."

14 Then said Samuel to the People, "Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there."

15 And all the People went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king before the Lord in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the Lord; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

16 And Samuel said unto all Israel, "Henceforth I will no more go about to fetch a king over you; and, lo, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said unto me, and have made a king over you."

2 And now, behold, the king walketh before you:

2 a covenant. Some codices, with Sept., Syr., and Vulg., read this word in the text, which actually implies it.

3 And he said unto them, "The Lord is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found out in my hand."

4 And they answered, "He is witness."
12. 7.  I. SAMUEL.  13. 3.

emos acts of the LORD, which He did to you and to your fathers.

8 When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they forgot the LORD their God, He dealt with them by the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and by the hand of Pharaoh's servant, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried unto the LORD, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served Baalim and Ashhtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve Thee.

11 And the LORD sent Jerubbaal, and Barak, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 And when ye saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Nay; but a king shall reign over us: when the LORD your God was your king.

13 Now therefore behold the king whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired! and, behold, the LORD hath set a king over you.

14 If ye will fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey His voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you continue following the LORD your God:

15 But if ye will not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall the hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 Now therefore stand and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not wheat harvest to day? I will call unto the LORD, and He shall send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

18 So Samuel called unto the LORD; and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and all the People greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the People said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask us a king.

20 And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness: yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart;

21 And turn ye not aside: for then should ye go after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain.

22 For the LORD will not forsake His people for His great name's sake: because it hath pleased the LORD to make you His People.

23 Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way:

24 Only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things He hath done for you.

25 But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both ye and your king.

13 Saul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel,

2 Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel: whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in Mount Bethelman, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeon of Benjamin: and the rest of the people sent every man to his tent.

3. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!"

4. And all Israel heard say that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

5. And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and men as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, eastward from Beth-aven.

6. When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the People were pressed,) then the People did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

7. And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the People followed him trembling.

8. And he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the People were scattered from him.

9. And Saul said, "Bring hither a burnt offering to me, and peace offerings." And he offered the burnt offering.

10. And it came to pass, that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might 15 salute him.

11. And Samuel said, "What hast thou done?" And Saul said, "Because I saw that the People were scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash;

12. Therefore said I, 'The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the LORD: I forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt offering.'"

13. And Samuel said to Saul, "Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which He commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

14. But now thy kingdom shall not continue; if the LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart, and if the LORD have commanded him to be captain over His People, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee.

15. And Samuel arose, and set him up from Gilgal unto Gibeon of Benjamin.

16. And Saul numbered the People that were present with him, about six hundred men.

17. And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the People that were present with them, abode in Gibeon of Benjamin:

but the Philistines encamped in Michmash.
14. Now it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, "Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side." But he told not his father.

2 And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in Migron; and the People that were with him were about six hundred men;

3 And Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, I-chabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Boezz, and the name of the other Senneh.

5 The forefront of the one was situate northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, "Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for they have restrained us against the LORD to save by many or by few."

7 And his armourbearer said unto him, "Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart."

8 Then said Jonathan, "Behold, we will pass over unto these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them."

9 If they say thus unto us, "Tarry until we come to you: then will we stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them."

10 But if they say thus unto us, "Come up unto us: then will we go up: for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a sign unto us."

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, "Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves."

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, "Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing." And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, "Come up after me: for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand."

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were an half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

15 And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the People that were with him, "Number now, and see who is gone from us." And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, "Bring hither,..."
14. 18. I. SAMUEL.

Assemblage. It was not that noise that was in the host of the Philistines that went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, "Withdraw thine hand." 20 And Saul and all the people that were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle:

Moreover the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

So the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over unto Beth-aven.

And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had adjured the People, saying, "Cursed be the man that eateth any food until evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies." So none of the People tasted any food.

And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was honey upon the ground. And when the People were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped: but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the People feared the oath.

But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the People with the oath: wherefore he put forth his hand at the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened.

Then answered one of the People, and said, "Thy father straitly charged the People with an oath, saying, 'Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day.'"

And the People were faint. Then said Jonathan, "My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

How much more, if haply the People had eaten freely to day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?"

And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon:

and the People were very faint.

14. 32.

32 And the People flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the People did eat with the blood.
33 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the People sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, "Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day."
34 And Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, 'Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheepl and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood.'" And all the People brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there.
35 And Saul built an altar unto the LORD: the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.
36 And Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them." And they said, "Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee."

Then said the priest, "Let us draw near hither unto the LORD."
37 And Saul asked counsel of the Lord. "Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt Thou deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But he answered him not that day.
38 And Saul said, "Draw ye near hither, all the chief of the People: and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day.
39 For, as the LORD liveth, Which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die." But there was not a man among all the People that answered him.
40 Then said he unto all Israel, "Be ye on one side, and 3 and Jonathan my son will be on the other side." And the People said unto Saul, "Do what seemeth good unto thee."
41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, "Give a perfect lot." And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the People escaped.
42 And Saul said, "Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son." And Jonathan was taken.
43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what thou hast done." And Jonathan told him, and said, "I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and, lo, I must die."
44 And Saul answered, "God do so and more also: for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan." 45 And the People said unto Saul, "Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: as the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with this God this day." So the People rescued Jonathan, that he died not.
46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.
47 So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them.
48 And he gathered an host, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.
49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchi-shua: and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the westborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal:
50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz:
51 And "Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.
52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul
14. 52. I. SAMUEL. 15. 17.

998-974 saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him.

15 Samuel also said unto Saul, "The Lord sent me to anoint thee to be king over His People, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the Lord.

2 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, "I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.""

4 And Saul gathered the People together, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men ofJudah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley.

6 And Saul said unto the Kenites, "Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them:

d for shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt." So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah until thou comest to Shur, that is over against Egypt.

8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the People spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10 Then came the word of the Lord unto Samuel, saying,

11 "If repenteth Me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following Me, and hath not performed My commandments." And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the Lord all night.

12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, "Saul came to Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal."

13 And Samuel came to Saul:

14 And Samuel said, "What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?"

15 And Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed."

16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, "Stay, and I will tell thee what the Lord hath said to me this night." And he said unto him, "Saw on." And Samuel said, "When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast then not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel.

18 And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed.

19 Wherefore didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the LORD?

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, "Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the People took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to deliver unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal."

22 And Samuel said, "Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in hearkening to the voice of the LORD? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken unto the voice of the LORD, than to sacrifice the flesh of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, He hath also rejected thee from being king."

24 And Saul said unto Samuel, "I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words; because I feared the People, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD."

26 And Samuel said unto Saul, "I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel."

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, "The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for it is not a man, that should repent."

30 Then he said, "I have sinned: yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my People, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God."

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

32 Then said Samuel, "Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites." And Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

33 And Samuel said, "As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women." And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

34 Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death:

nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the LORD repented that He had made Saul king over Israel.

16 And the LORD said unto Samuel, "How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite for I have provided Me a king among his sons."
2 And Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hear it, he will kill me." And the Lord said, "Take an heifer with thee, and say, 'I am come to sacrifice to the Lord.'

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee,"

4 And Samuel did that which the Lord spake, and came to Bethlehem, and the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, "Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he said, "Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the Lord: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said, "Surely the Lord's anointed is before him.

7 But the Lord said unto Samuel, "Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; for I have rejected him: for the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart."

8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, "Neither hath the Lord chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. And he said, "Neither hath the Lord chosen this.

10 Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, "The Lord hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, "Are here all thy children?" And he said, "Thou art the young man: and the Lord hath chosen thee, and thy keepeth the sheep.

12 And Saul was ruddy, and without a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look on. And the Lord said, "Arise, anoint him: for this is he.""

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit of the Lord came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14 But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, "Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, which are before thee, to seek out a man, who is a cunning player on a harp:

17 And Saul said unto his servants, "Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me."

18 Then answered one of the servants, and said, "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is 16 X in playing, 16 man, and a mighty valiant 16 man, and a 16 man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him."

19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, "Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep." And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.
21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him; and he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight."

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

17 Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shobach, which belongeth to Beth-elim, and pitched between Shobach and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

4 And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

5 "And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass.

6 And he had greaves upon his legs, and a target of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the staff of his spear was like a weaver’s beam; and his spear’s head was of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, "Who is able among you to go down to阵前 with me, and to smite the Philistine? and it shall be that the armourbearer shall go down with me.""

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if he prevail against me, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, "Come thou, and fight with me, one against one.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

17. 13.  I. SAMUEL.  17. 33.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 And David was the youngest:
and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistines drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, "Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren; and carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge."

19 Now Saul, and Ishbosheth, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.

21 For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army.

22 And David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion of the Philistine Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words: and David heard them.

24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid.

25 And the men of Israel said, "Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely he defied Israel: is he come up? and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel."

26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, "What shall be done to this man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defie the armies of the living God?"

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, "So shall it be done to this man that killeth him."

28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the 12 men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, "Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thine heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle."

29 And David said, "What have I now done? Is there not a cause?"

30 And he turned from him toward another, and spake after the same manner:
and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him.

32 And David said to Saul, "Let no man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

33 And Saul said to David, "Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth."
34 And David said unto Saul, “Thy servant kept his father’s sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock:
35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.
36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.’
37 David said moreover, ‘The LORD That delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, Æ will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine.’ And Saul said unto David, ‘Go, and the LORD be with thee.’
38 And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.
39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he was assayed to go: for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, ‘I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them.’ And David put them off him.
40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd’s bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand:
and he drew near to the Philistine.
41 And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him.
42 And when the Philistine looked on David, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance.
43 And the Philistine said unto David, ‘Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.
44 And the Philistine said to David, ‘Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.’
45 Then said David to the Philistine, ‘Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with an shield; but I Æ come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, Whom thou hast defied.
46 This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will Æ give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know there is a God in Israel.
47 And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD’S, and He will give you into our hands.’
48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.
49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.
50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.
51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and Æ drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith.

And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.
52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and went up to Gath, and smote Ekron: and the children of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.
53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to the camp of David; but he put his armour in his tent.
55 And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistines, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, "Abner, whose son is this youth?"
And Abner said, "As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell."
56 And the king said, "Inquire therefore whose son the stripling is."
57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.
58 And Saul said to him, "Whose son art thou?"
And David answered, "I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

18 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.
2 And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house.
3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.
4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.
5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the People, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.
6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of musick.
7 And the women answered one another as they played, and said, "Saul hath slain his thousands, And David his tens thousands."

8 And Saul was very wroth, and said the saying displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom?"
9 And Saul eyed David from that day forward.
10 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.
11 And Saul * cast the javelin; for he said, "I will smite David even to the wall with it."
And David avoided out of his presence twice.
12 And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him.

And was departed from Saul.
13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand;
and he went out and came in before the People.

54 Jerusalem. Jerusalem (west of Moriah) had been taken by Judah, who dwelt there. The Jebusites were still holding Jebus, or Zion, the mount immediately south of Moriah. Cp. Josh. 15. 62. Judg. 17, 8. Zion was taken later by David. See 2 Sam. 5, 7, and Ap. 98.
55 whose son...? Though Saul had just had an interview with David, he did not know his father, whom he had promised (v. 25) to make free in Israel. Note in all these passages (vv. 55, 56, 58) Saul's inquiry is not about David, but about David's father.

Jonathan. At this time he was about forty; and about fifty-three or fifty-four when he died. He was about twenty-four years older than David, and his love was maternal in character. Ish-bosheth, Saul's second son, was forty at his father's death (2 Sam. 2. 10).

14 And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and 15 the LORD was with him.
15 Wherefore when Saul saw that 15 behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before him.
17 And Saul said to David, "Behold my elder daughter Merab, [for] will I give thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me, and fight the Lord's battles." For Saul said, "Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him."
18 And David said unto Saul, "Who am I and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?"
19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto Adriel the Meholathite to wife.
20 And Michal Saul's daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.
21 And Saul said, "I will give her him, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him."
22 Wherefore Saul said to David, "Thou shalt this day be my son in law in the one of the twain."
23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, "Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?"
24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, "On this manner spake David."
25 And Saul said, "Thus shall ye say to David, 'The king desireth not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies.'" But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.
26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law: and the days were not expired.
27 Wherefore David arose and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.
28 And Saul saw and knew that the Lord was with David, and that Michal Saul's daughter loved him.
29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy continually.
30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much set by.

3 And all shall go out and stand before my father in the field where they art, and all will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee."
4 And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, "Let not the king's sin against his servant, against David: because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good:
5 For he did put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and the Lord wrought a great salvation for all Israel; thou sawest it, and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?"
6 And Saul heartened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul spake, "As the Lord liveth, he shall not be slain."
7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things.
8 And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past.
9 And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.
10 And the evil spirit from the Lord was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand.

5 And David said unto Jonathan, "Behold, to morrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at even.

6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, 'David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Beth-lehem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'

7 If he say thus, 'It is well;' thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, slay me myself; for why shouldst thou bring me to thy father?'

9 And Jonathan said, "Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell thee roughy?"

10 Then said David to Jonathan, "Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly?"

11 And Jonathan said unto David, "Come, and let us go out into the field." And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, "O! the LORD God of Israel, when I have sounded my father about to morrow any time, or if the third day and, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and shew it thee; the LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the LORD be with thee, as He hath been with my father.

13 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth."

16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "Let the LORD even require it at the hand of David's enemies."

17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, "To morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty.

19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself: when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone Ezel.

20 And there will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And, 'Behold, I will send a lad, saying, 'Go, find out the arrows.' 'If I expressly say unto the lad, 'Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them;' then come thou for there is peace to thee, and no hurt; as the LORD liveth.

22 But if I say unto the young man, 'Behold, the arrows are beyond thee;' go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away, and I am not with thee.'

23 And as touching the matter which thou and have spoken of, 'Behold, the LORD be between thee and me for ever.'

24 So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Ahimelech sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul spake: neither any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath beenfallen him, he is not clean; surely he is not clean.
27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty; and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, "Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to eat meat, neither yesterday, nor to day?"

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, 'Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren.' Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table."

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, "Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die."

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, "Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?"

33 And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, "Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot." And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, "Is not the arrow beyond thee?"

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, "Make speed, haste, stay not." And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 And Jonathan gave his "artillery unto his lad, and said unto him, "Go, carry them to the city."

41 And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and went one with another, until David exceeded.

42 And Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the Lord, saying, 'The Lord be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever.' And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city."

30 Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman is a son of rebellious perversity: i.e. a rebel like David. Cp. note on 18. 19.

3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is present."

4 And the priest answered David, and said, "There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from women."

5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, "Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel."

6 So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the shewbread, that was taken from before the Lord, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the Lord; and his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul.

8 And David said unto Ahimelech, "And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste."

9 And the priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the Valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here." And David said, "There is none like that; give it me."

10 And David arose, and fled that day "for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath."

11 And the servants of Achish said unto him, "Is not this the David the king of the land? did they not sing one another of him in dances, saying, 'Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?'"

12 And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of "Achish the king of Gath."

13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scrabbleth on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Achish unto his servants, "Lo, ye see the man is mad; wherefore then have ye brought him "unto me?"

15 "Have ye need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?"

22 David therefore departed thence, and escaped to the cave "Adullam; and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him.

2 And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, "Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me."

4 And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, "Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds;"

8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that sheweth me that my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that "is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?"

9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

10 And he enquired of "the LORD for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.
22. 12.

I. SAMUEL.

12 And Saul said, “Hear now, thou son of Ahitub.” And he answered, “Here I am, my lord.”

13 And Saul said unto him, “Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?”

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, “And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king’s son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?”

15 “Did I then begin to enquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute anything unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more.”

16 And the king said, “Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father’s house.”

17 And the king said unto the 5 footmen that stood about him, “Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me.” But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said to Doeg, “Turn (thou), and fall upon the priests.” And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did wear a linen ephod.

19 And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar shewed David that Saul had slain the LORD’s priests.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, “I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: 2 3 have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father’s house.

23 Abide thou with me, fear not: for be that seeketh my life seeketh thy life: but with me thou shalt be in safeguard.”

23 Then they told David, saying, 3 “Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and rob the threshingfloors.”

2 Therefore David enquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go and smite these Philistines?” And the LORD said unto David, “Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.”

3 And David’s 5 men said unto him, “Behold, we be afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?”

4 Then David enquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, “Arise, go down to Keilah; for 3 will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.”

5 So David and his 5 men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech 8 fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand.

7 And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah, and Saul said, “Now David hath delivered him into mine hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars.”

8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his 5 men.

9 And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring hither the ephod.”

10 Then said David, “O LORD 2 God of Israel, Thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake.

11 Will the 5 men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as Thy servant hath heard? O 2 LORD 2 God of Israel,
I. I beseech Thee, tell Thy servant.” And the LORD said, “He will come down.”

II. Then said David, “Will the Philistines deliver me up and my three men into the hand of Saul?” And the LORD said, “They will deliver thee up.”

III. Then David and his three men, which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go.

And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbore to go forth.

IV. And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand.

And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

And Jonathan Saul’s son arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God.

And he said unto him, “Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be king over Israel, and shalt be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father knoweth.”

And they two made a covenant before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, “Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon?

Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king’s hand.”

And Saul said, “Blessed be ye of the LORD; for ye have compassion on me.

Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his heart is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very subtilly.

Wherefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will bring him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.”

And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his three men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.

Saul also and his three men went to seek him. And they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his three men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his three men compassed David and his two men round about to take them.

But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, “Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have invaded the land.”

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Sela-hammahlekoth.

29 And David went up from thence, and dwelt in strong holds at En-gedi.

24 And it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, “Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.”

3 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave.

23. 11. I. SAMUEL. 24. 3.
And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, Z will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privately.

And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

And he said unto his men, The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD.

So David stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.

And David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to day into mine hand in the cave: and some bade me kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the LORD's anointed.

Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou hastest my soul to take it.

The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea.

The LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of thine hand.

And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept.

And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil.

And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: therefore as much as when the LORD had delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me not. For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away?

Therefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day.

24 And now, behold, I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand.

21 Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house."

22 And David swore unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men gat them up unto the hold.

25 And Samuel died; and all the Israelites were gathered together, and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah.

And David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Paran.
25. 2.

I. SAMUEL.

2. And there was a man in Moab, whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3. Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish and evil in his doing: and he was of the house of Caleb.

4. And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did shear his sheep.

5. And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, "Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name:"

6. And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperity, "Peace be to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast."

7. And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8. Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be."

9. So David’s young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings.

10. And Nabal answered David’s servants, and said, "Who is this David? and who is the son of Jesse? be there many servants now a days that break away every man from his master."

11. Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?"

12. And David said unto his servants, "Gird ye on every man his sword." And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the stuff.

13. But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal’s wife, saying, "Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he railed on them.

14. But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields:

15. They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

16. Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him."

19. And she said unto her servants, "Go on before me; behold, I come after you." But she told not her husband Nabal.

20. And it was so, as the asses came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them.

21. Now David had said, "Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath requited me evil for good.

22. So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall."
23 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David, and bowed herself to the ground.
24 And fell at his feet, and said, “Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be: and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid.
25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this handmaid, for as his name is, so is his to me: but Nabal is his name, and folly is with him, and God hath hidden it from him. But I pray thee, consider the handmaids of the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send.
26 Now therefore, my lord, as the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the Lord hath withheld thee from coming to shed blood, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. And now this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it be even given unto the young men that follow my lord.
27 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the Lord will certainly make my lord a sure house; because my lord fought against the enemies of my lord, the Lord his God.
28 Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the Lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the Lord thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall He sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.
30 And it shall come to pass, when the Lord shall have done with my lord according to all that He hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel;
31 That this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeth, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the Lord shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.
32 And David said to Abigail, “Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, Which sent thee this day to meet me: And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thine heart, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.
34 For in very deed, as the Lord God of Israel liveth, Which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hasted and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall.”
35 So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, “Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.”
36 And Abigail came to Nabal; and, “Behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal’s heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.
37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And it came to pass about ten days after, that the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.
39 And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Blessed be the Lord, That hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept His servant from evil: for the Lord hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head.” And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.
40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, “David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife.”
41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, “Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.
42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.
43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives.
44 But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David’s wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, which was of Gallim.

26 And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, “Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon?”
2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.
3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 Therefore did Saul sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

5 And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the People pitched round about him.

6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp?" And Abishai said, "I will go down with thee." And Abishai answered David, "God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time." And David said to Abishai, "Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?"

10 David said furthermore, "As the Lord liveth, the Lord shall smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle, and perish. 11 The Lord forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the Lord's anointed; but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the "cruse of water, and let us go." 12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they got them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awakened: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the Lord was fallen upon them.

13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off; a great space being between them:

14 And David cried to the People, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Answerest thou not, Abner?" Then Abner answered and said, "What art thou that criest to the king?"

15 And David said to Abner, "Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the People in to destroy the king thy lord. 16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the Lord liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the Lord's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster."

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, "Is this thy voice, my son David?" 18 And David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."

Thus pursue after his servant; for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand? 19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the Lord have stirred thee up against me, let Him accept the offering; but if they be the children of "men, cursed be they before the Lord; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.' 20 Now therefore, let not my blood be shed within the face of the Lord: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains."

21 Then said Saul, "I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because thy soul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly."

22 And David answered and said, "Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it. 23 O the Lord render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the Lord delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the Lord's anointed. 24 And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the Lord, and let Him deliver me out of all tribulation."
25 Then Saul said to David, "Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevail." So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27 And David said in his heart, "I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape the land of the Philistines, and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.

2 And David arose, and he passed over with the six hundred men that were with him unto Achish, the son of Maachah, king of Gath.

3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, and he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Saul's wife.

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more for him.

5 And David said unto Achish, "If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee?"

6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day.

7 And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months.

8 And David and his men went up, and invaded the Geshurites, and the Gezrites, and the Amalekites: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, "Whither have ye made a road to day?" And David said, "Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Jerahmeelites, and against the south of the Kenites."

11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, "Lest they should tell on us, saying, "So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.'"

12 And Achish believed David, saying, "He hath made his People Israel utterly to abhor him: therefore he shall be my servant for ever."

13 Saul also said, "Bring these men the corn of their harvest, and let them go." And David said unto Saul, "Thou knowest my enmity and my hatred, which I have against Saul thy servant."

14 And Saul said, "Is this thy kindness which thou shewest to thy servant?" And David said, "Who am I, and what is my life, or my parent's life, in thy sight, that I shouldest deal so sheweth me this day?"

15 And Saul cast out of his sight all the seed of Jesse, and took him for his son in law, to mediums and to soothsayers.

16 And Saul perceived that the Lord was turned against him. Therefore Saul hath taken an oath in the Lord, saying, "The Lord shall be punished for me of the sword, if I do not punish David to day."

17 And his servants said unto Saul, "Shall the king of Israel today put his servant at naught? As the Lord liveth, there is but a step between me and him."

18 And Saul said, "Is there no one that brings me news of David?" And one of his servants said, "And I have news for thee to day, of David the son of Jesse; which is the prince of the House of Israel; he is the one that smote the Philistines, and said, "Who is like the king of Israel, that hath a bed to lie on, and a city to dwell in, while I lie on the earth?"

19 And Saul was very angry. Therefore certain of the servants of Saul said to him, "Hast thou not still the Zizpah as father in law? Thou hast David to-day, and tomorrow shalt thou have kings over Israel."

20 And Saul said, "Is there any one that brings me news of David?" And one of his servants said, "David is in the forest of Ziph, there is a band of prophets there, of whom the Lord hath said, "Go and array the young men in their garments, and bring them down to me, that I may smite David to morrow, and I will bring back the king.""

21 And Saul said, "Is there not a seer here? Let him go to them. Perhaps the Lord will shew me by his hand." And one of his servants said, "Look, there is a woman that belongeth to the son of Zeruiah, of the house of David, she is wise in wise counsel."

22 And Saul said to her, "Am not I thy father? have I not caused thee to swear by the Lord, saying, 'Thou shalt not see my face again?"' And she answered Saul, and said, "Am I a woman, that thou shouldst put me to the scorn of all Israel? as I am a woman, behold, my soul shall be full of wisdom."}

23 And the woman answered Saul, and said, "Hast thou not shewed unto thine handmaid how Saul besought the Lord for thee? and the Lord hath兴起 Saul against thee this day in the battle."

24 And the Lord shall deliver the enemies of David to day into his hand; and Saul shall smite the enemies of the Lord with the edge of the sword; and the servants of the Lord shall be in safety with their master."

25 And Saul said to the woman, "Go thy way." And she went to the door of the house. And it was told Saul that David was come to Horesh. And Saul said, "Is he come even here?"

26 And Saul said, "Whose son is this dumb fellow? that I may go to him, and smite him with the sword, that he may suffer death also with me, I and my father's house." And David said unto him, "Thou art not a great man, my lord the king: why dost thou be angry at thine own servant, and at all this people? for as thou art a great king, so also is thy servant." Therefore Saul said, "I have determined to make thee thenceforward the servant of the Lord."

27 And David said unto Saul, "Shall not the king's servant know that Saul's son Jonathan hath loved me? As the Lord liveth, there is but a step between me and him."

28 And Saul said, "I will make thee my son in law to-day; will I give thee Belial's daughter, to be thy wife."

29 And Saul harkened unto the voice of the Lord, and said, "It is certain that David hath made himself a nest against me, and my hand shall be against him."

30 And Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Come, my son, and let us go down into the field together, and I will tell thee what the Lord hath spoken to me. And it shall be, that the spirit of God shall come upon me, and I will tell thee what the Lord shall say to me."

31 And Jonathan and David went on morn-

17 host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.
18 Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst His fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hast thou the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.
19 Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shall thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the 29 Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands:

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, "What do these Hebrews here?" And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, "Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these days, or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell unto me unto this day?"

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, "Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the heads of these men?"

5 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying:

'Saul slew his thousands, And David his ten thousands?"

6 Then Achish called David, and said unto him, "Surely, as of the Lord liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless the lords favour thee not.

7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou displease not the lords of the Philistines."

8 And David said unto Achish, "But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

9 And Achish answered and said to David, "I know that thou art good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.'"
4 Then David and the People that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David’s two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed; for the People spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the People was “grieved,” every man for his sons and for his daughters:

but David encouraged himself in the Lord his God.

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech’s son, “I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod.” And Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David.

8 And David enquired at the Lord, saying, “Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them?” And He answered him, “Pursue; for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all.”

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind stayed.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor.

11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David; and gave him bread, and he did eat; and made him drink water;

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his soul came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, “To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou?” And he said, “I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days ago I fell sick.

14 So she made an invasion upon the south of the Cherethites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.”

15 And David said to him, “Canst thou bring me down to this company?” And he said, “Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company.”

16 And when he had brought him down, he beheld, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

17 And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled.

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.

20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which he had recovered, and drove them aforetime: and he brought forth the people that were with him, and they were in good heart.

21 And David came to the two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the People that were with him: and when David came near to the People, he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the wicked men and men of Belial, of those that went with David, and said, “Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart.”

23 Then said David, “Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath given us, Who hath preserved us, Who hath given us, and delivered us out of the hand of all those that were against us.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarryth by the stuff: they shall part alike.”

25 And it was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

26 And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold a present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the Lord.”
The Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa.

And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Melchishua, Saul’s sons.

And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers.

Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, "Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me." But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his 1 men, that same day together.

And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people.

And they put his armour in the house of Ashtaroth: and they fastened "his body to the wall of "Beth-shan.

And when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard of that which the Philistines had done to Saul;

All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and burnt them there.

And they took their bones, and buried them under a tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL, OTHERWISE CALLED, THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS.
I. 4.

II. SAMUEL.

L 1-2

17. 1-27 (5, p. 408). THE LAMENTATION OF "THE BOW." (Repeated Alteration.)

Title | L 1 | 17. The Lament.
     | L 2 | 18. The Lamentation.

Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men who were with him.
And they mourned, and wented, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the People of the Lord, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

And David said unto the young man that told him, "Whence art thou?" And he answered, "I am an Amalekite."
And David said unto him, "How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thine hand to destroy the Lord's anointed?"
And David called one of the young men, and said, "Go near, and fall upon him." And he smote him that he died.

And David said unto him, "Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, 'I have slain the Lord's anointed.'"

17. And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son:
(Also he bade them teach the children of Judah "the use of the bow"; behold, it is written in the book of Jasher.)

How are the mighty fallen!
Tell it not in Gath, Publish it not in the streets of Askelon; Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, Neither let there be rain, upon you, Nor fields of offerings:

In the bow of Jonathan, there is no swifter, in the bow of Jonathan, there is no stronger.

For there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, The shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil.

22. From the blood of the slain, From the fat of the mighty, The bow of Jonathan turned not back, And the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23. Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, And in their death they were not divided: They were swifter than eagles, They were stronger than lions.

24. Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, Who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights, Who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

25. How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places.
1. 26.

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: Very pleasant hast thou been unto me: Thy love to me was wonderful, Passing the love of women.

27 How are the mighty fallen, And the weapons of war perished!

(4. 10)

2 And it came to pass after this, that David enquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?" And the LORD said unto him, "Go up." And David said, "Whither shall I go up?" And He said, "Unto Hebron." 2 So David went up thither, and his two wives also, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the Carmelite. 3 And his men that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah.

5 And they told David, saying, That "the men of Jeshub-gilead were they that buried Saul." 5 And David sent messengers unto the men of Jeshub-gilead, and said unto them, "Blessed be ye of the LORD, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him.

6 And now the LORD show kindness and truth unto you: and I will also requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing. 7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.”

8 But Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul’s host, took Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim; 9 And made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

960 10 Ish-bosheth Saul’s son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years.

958 But the house of Judah followed David.

11 And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

B g 12 And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met together by the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Joab, “Let the young men now arise, and play before us.” And Joab said, “Let them arise.”

15 Then there arose and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.
III. SAMUEL.

23 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

24 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all the land of Gilead, and came to Mahanaim.

25 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and thirty men died.

32 And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at brake of day.

Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 And unto David were born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

3 And his second, Chileab, of Abigail the daughter of Nahash the Carmelitess; and the third, Adonijah the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

4 And the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shaphatiah the son of Abital;

5 And the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and "Ish-bosheth" said to Abner, "Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's concubine?"

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head, which against Judah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to day with a fault concerning this woman?"

9 So do "God to Abner, and more also, except ye be as the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I do to him;"

10 To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba."

11 And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, "Whose is the land?"
saying also, "Make thy 0 league with me, and, 0 behold, my 0 hand shall be with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee."

13 And he said, "Well; 3 will make a 12 league with thee: but one thing 3 require of thee. Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face."

14 And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, "Deliver me my wife, Machil, which I espoused to me for an hundred foreskins of the Philistines."

15 And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from her husband, even from 0 Phaltiel the son of Laish.

16 And her husband went with her "along weeping behind her to Bahurim. Then said Abner unto him, "Go, return." And he returned.

17 And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, "Ye sought for David in times past to be king over you:
18 Now then 0 do it: for 0 the Lord hath spoken of David, saying, 'By the hand of My servant David I will save My people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of hand of all their enemies.'"

19 And Abner also spake in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole assembly of Israel.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty 0 men with him. And David made Abner and the 0 men that were with him a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, "I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a 12 league with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that 'thine heart desireth.' And David 0 sent Abner away: and he went in peace.

22 And, 12 behold, the servants of David and Joab came from 0 pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had 21 sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace."

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, "What hast thou done? 12 behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it 0 that thou hast 21 sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest."

26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly, and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 And afterward when David heard it, he said, "3 and my kingdom are guiltless before the Lord for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner:
29 Let it 0 rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that 0 falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread."

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.
II. SAMUEL.

33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, “Died Abner as a fool dieth? 34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: As a man falleth before wicked men, so fellest thou.” And all the People wept again over him.

35 And when all the People came to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, “So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else, till the sun be down.” 36 And all the People took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the People.

37 For all the People and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, “Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel? 39 And 3 am this day weak, though anointed king; and these 20 men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: 9 the LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.”

4 And when Saul’s son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.

2 And Saul’s son had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beeroithe of Benjamin: (for Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin:

3 And the Beeroithites fled to Gittaim, and were sojourneers there until this day.)

4 And Jonathan, Saul’s son, had a son that was a lame of his feet. He was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beeroithe, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon.

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they smote him under the fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and got them away through the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, “Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, which sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.”

9 And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beeroithe, and said unto them, “As the LORD liveth, Who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10 When one told me, saying, “Behold, Saul is dead,’ thinking to have brought good tidings, I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? shall I not therefore now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?”

12 And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

Then came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, “Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

19 And David enquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt Thou deliver them into mine hand?” And the LORD said unto David, “Go up: for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.”

20 And David came to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, “The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters.” Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

21 And there they left their images, and David and his six men burned them.

22 And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when David enquired of the LORD, he said, “Thou shalt not go up; but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

24 And let it be, when thou hearest the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then shall the LORD go out before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines.”

25 And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from Geba until thou came to Gazer.

6 Again, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2 And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, whose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts That dwelleth between the cherubims.

3 And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

4 And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab which was in Gibeah, accompanying the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark.

5 And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

6 And when they came to Nachon’s threshingfloor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen shook it.

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God.

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, “How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?”

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David:
6. 11. II. SAMUEL. 7. 4.

and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.
12 And it was told king David, saying, "The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God."

So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.
13 And it was so, that when they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.
14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod.
15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.
16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw king David dancing and before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.
17 And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.
18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the People in the name of the LORD of hosts.
19 And he dealt among all the People, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as to men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

So all the People departed every one to his house.
20 Then David returned to bless his household.
And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovered himself!"
21 And David said unto Michal, "It was before the LORD, Which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the People of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play before the LORD."
22 And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and of the maidservants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour.
23 Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

7 And it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the LORD had given him rest round about from all his enemies;
2 That the king said unto Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains."
3 And Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that is in thine heart; for the LORD is with thee."
4 And it came to pass that night, that the LORD.

word of the Lord came unto Nathan, saying,

5 "Go and tell My servant David, 'Thus saith the Lord, "Shall thou build Me an house for Me to dwell in?"

6 Whereas I have not dwelt in any house since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle. 7 In all the places wherein I have walked with all the children of Israel spake I a word with any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed My People Israel, saying, 'Why build ye not Me an house of cedar?'

8 Now therefore so shalt thou say unto My servant David, 'Thus saith the Lord of hosts, "I took thee from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My People, over Israel:

9 And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 Moreover I will appoint a place for My People Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime.

11 And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over My People Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the Lord telleth thee that He will make thee an house.

12 And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom for ever.

13 ¶ He shall build an house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14 ¶ He shall be my son, and I will establish his throne for ever.

15 But My mercy shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.

16 And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.""

17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

18 Then went king David in, and sat before the Lord, and said, "'Who am I, O Lord God? and what is my house, that Thou hast brought me hither to?"

19 And this was yet a small thing in Thy sight, O Lord God; but Thou hast spoken also of Thy servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the manner of man, O Lord?

20 And what can David say more unto Thee? for 2Theu, O Lord God, knowest Thy servant.
22 Wherefore Thou art great. O Lord God, for there is none like Thee, neither is there any 2 God beside Thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And what one nation in the earth is like Thy People, even like Israel, whom 2 God went to redeem for a People to Himself, and to make Him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for Thy land, before thy People, which thou redeemedst from Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

24 For Thou hast confirmed Thyself a People Israel to be a people unto Thee for ever: and 3 them, 1 Lord, art become their 2 God.

25 And now, 2 O Lord, 2 God, the word that Thou hast spoken concerning Thy servant, and concerning his house, establish it for ever, and do as Thou hast said.

26 And let Thy name be magnified for ever, saying, 8 The Lord of hosts is the 2 God over Israel: and let the house of Thy servant David be established before Thee.

27 For 3 them, 1 O Lord of hosts, 2 God of Israel, hast revealed to Thy servant, saying, 9 I will build thee an house: therefore hath Thy servant 2 found in his heart to pray this prayer unto Thee.

w 29 Therefore now let it please Thee to bless the house of Thy servant, that it may continue for ever before Thee: for 3 them, 1 O Lord 2 God, hast spoken it: and with Thy blessing let the house of Thy servant be blessed for ever."

8 And after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took 5 Meteh-annah out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two 5 lines measured he to put to death, and with one full 5 line to keep alive. And so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 And David smote also Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his 5 border at the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

b 6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus:

c and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought 5 gifts.

d And 5 the Lord preserved David whithersoever he went.
9 And David said, "Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

2 And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba. And when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, "Art thou Ziba?" And he said, "Thy servant is he.

3 And the king said, "Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew the kindness of God unto him?"

And Ziba said unto the king, "Jonathan hath yet a son, which is lame on his feet.

4 And the king said unto him, "Where is he?"

And Ziba said unto the king, "Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar."
9.6  II. SAMUEL

6 Now when Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, “Mephibosheth.” And he answered, “Behold thy servant!”

7 And David said unto him, “Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father’s sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.”

8 And he bowed himself, and said, “What is thy servant that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am?”

9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul’s servant, and said unto him, “I have given unto thy master’s son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master’s son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master’s son shall eat bread always at my table.” Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, “According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do.” “As for Mephibosheth,” said the king, “he shall eat at my table, as one of the king’s sons.”

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Michah. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth.

13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king’s table; and was lame on both his feet.

10

And it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

2 Then said David, “I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me.”

And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David’s servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, “Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?”

Therefore Hanun took David’s servants, and shaven off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, “Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.”

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand foemen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelve thousand men. And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and of Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.

When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians:

And the rest of the People he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, “If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the 13 And Joab drew nigh, and the People that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city.

So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river: and they came to Helam; and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam.

And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there.

19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

And it came to pass, after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed seven children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah.

11 But David tarried still at Jerusalem.

2 And it came to pass in an evening-tide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

3 And David sent and enquired after the woman. And one said, "Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her; for she was purged from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, "I am with child."

6 And David sent to Joab, saying, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Uriah, "Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet." And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of meat from the king.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying, "Uriah went not down unto his house," David said unto Uriah, "Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?"

11 And Uriah said unto David, "The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing."

brickkiln = brick-house; hence, brick pavement or paved area (R.V. marg.). Not brickkiln; no brickkilns in Palestine. All bricks there are sun-dried. Only once spoken of as burnt—as being a strange thing (Gen. 11, 3, and marg.). Heb. mal ben, occurs only here, Jer. 43, 9, and Nah. 3, 14, the former at "entry" of royal palace, the latter said to be "fortified". Both out of the question, and quite incongruous for a brickkiln. The very paved area of Jer. 43, 9 was discovered at Tel-Ashpat by Flinders Petrie in 1886, where Nebuchadnezzar did exactly what David did here and in ch. 8, 2 and 1 Chron. 26, 3, thus did he: i.e. as in 8, 2, with Moab, so here; he caused the captives to pass by before him, he seated on a pavement of brick-work, or paved area, where he appointed them to the various departments of labour for which they were suited. Cp. Jer. 43, 9-11. These were the "strangers" (i.e. foreigners) and the "abundance of workmen" referred to in 1 Chron. 22, 2, 13. Cp. Deut. 29, 11. Josh. 27. 21. Amnon. Son of Ahinoam (3, 2).
3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of "Shimeah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very "subtil man.

4 And he said unto him, "Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me?" And Amnon said unto him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

5 And Jonadab said unto him, "Lay thee down on thy bed, and 6 make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, 'I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the 'meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.'"

6 So Amnon lay down, and 6 made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, "I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of 'cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand."

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him 6' meat.'"

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took 8 flour, and kneaded it, and made 8 cakes in his sight, and did bake the 8 cakes.

9 And she took 'a pan, and 6 poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, "Have out all 6 men from me." And they went out every 6 man from him.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, "Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat at thine hand." And Tamar took the 8 cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, "Come lie with me, my sister." And she answered him, "Nay, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thrust me this day.

13 And 3, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee."

14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, "Arise, be gone."

16 And she said unto him, "There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me." But he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, "Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her."

18 And she had a garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and 6 laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, "Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; regard not this thing." So Tamar remained 6' desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, "Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, thee see, and his servants go with thy servant."

25 And the king said to Absalom, "Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be 6' chargeable unto thee." And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26 Then said Absalom, "If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said unto him, "Why should he go with thee?"

27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go 6' with him.

28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, "Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, 'Smite Amnon;': then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded thee? be courageous, and be 6' valiant."

29 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon 6' as Absalom had commanded.
Then all the king's sons arose, and every man got him up upon his mule, and fled. And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, "Absalom hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left." Then the king arose, and tarried in the field; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent. And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom this hath been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead."

But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came many people by the way of the hill side behind him. And Jonadab said unto the king, "Behold, the king's sons come as thy servant said, so it is." And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking that, "behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept very sore."

But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day. So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years. And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Absalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom.

And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, "I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead:

And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him." So Joab put the words in her mouth.

And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, "Help, O king!"

And the king said unto her, "What aileth thee?"

And she answered, "A woman of Tekoah had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.

And then all the king's sons arose, and every man got him up upon his mule, and fled. and on my father's house: and the king and his throne be guiltless."

And the king said, "Whosoever saith "ought unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more."

II. Therefore said she, "I pray thee, let the king remember "the Lord thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the "revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son."

And he said, "As "the Lord liveth, there shall "not one hair of thy son fall to the earth."

Then the woman said, "Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king." And he said, "Say on."

And the woman said, "Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the People of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished."

For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither doth "any person: yet doth He devise means, that His banished be not expelled from Him.

Now therefore that I am come unto the king, it is because the People have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, 'I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.

For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the 'man that would destroy me' and my son together out of the inheritance of God.'

Then thine handmaid said, 'The word of my lord the king shall now be call in hand: for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God will be with thee.'"

Then the king answered and said unto the woman, "Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that shall ask thee." And the woman said, "Let my lord the king now speak."

And the king said, "Is not the 'hand of Joab with thee in all this?" And the woman answered and said, "As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, 'none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

'To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing; and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.'"

And the king said unto Joab, "Behold now, 'I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again."

And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab said, "To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant."

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him; and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king:

and the king kissed Absalom.

15 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate; and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, "Of what city art thou?"

And he said, "Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel."

3 And Absalom said unto him, "See, thy matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee."

4 Absalom said moreover, "Oh that I were deputed of the king to hear all the business of the people, which come to the king for judgment! I would set them

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment:

so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And it came to pass after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, "I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron."

8 For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, "If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then will I serve the LORD."

9 And the king said unto him, "Go in peace." So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, 'Absalom reigneth in Hebron.'"

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city, even from Gilon, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the People increased continually with Absalom.

13 And there came a messenger to David, saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom."

14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword."

15 And the king's servants said unto the king, "Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint."

16 And the king went forth, and all his house—hold after him. And the king left ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the People after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him: and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

19 Then said the king to Ittai the Gittite, "Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also an exile.

20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: "mercy and 'truth be with thee.'"

21 And Ittai answered the king, and said, "As the Lord liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be."

22 And David said to Ittai, "Go and pass over." And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the People passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the People passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

24 And lo Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God: and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, "Carry back the ark of God into the city: 'if I shall find favour in the eyes of the Lord, He will bring me again, and shew me both it, and His habitation:"

26 But if He thus say, 'I have no delight in thee;' 15 behold, here am I, let Him do to me as seemeth good unto Him."

27 The king said also unto Zadok the priest, "Art not thou a seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

28 "See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me."

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.

30 And David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot: and all the People that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.

31 And one told David, saying, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom,"

32 And David said, "O LORD, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness."

33 And it came to pass, that when David was come to 'the top of the mount,' where he worshipped God, behold, "Hushai the Archite came near to him with his coat rent, and earth upon his head:

34 Unto whom David said, "If thou passest on with me, then shalt be a burden unto me:

16. 1. II. SAMUEL. 16. 20.
21. And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, "Go in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house, and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father; then shall the hands of all that are with thee be strong."

22. So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. 23. And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had enquired at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17. Moreover Ahithophel said unto Absalom, "Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night: 2. And I will come upon him while he is weary and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the People that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only: 3. And I will bring back all the People unto thee: the man whom thou seestkest is as if all returned; so all the People shall be in peace. 4. And the saying pleased Ahithophel well, and all the elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, "Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith." 6. And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, "Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not; speak thou." 7. And Hushai said unto Absalom, "The counsel that Ahithophel hath given is not good at this time. 8. For," said Hushai, "if thou knowest thy father to be a mighty man, and thy men be chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field; and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the People. 9. Behold, Hushai is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, then they that are with thee will say, 'There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.' 10. And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

11. Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even unto Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that thou go to battle in thine own person. 12. So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground; and of him and of all the men that be with him there shall not be left so much as one. 13. Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there."

14. And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For the LORD had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.
Quickly, and came to a man's house in Baarim, which had a well in his court; whether they went down.

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, "Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" And the woman "said unto them, "They be gone over the brook of water." And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, "Arise, and pass quickly over the water; for thus hath Absalom counselled against you."

22 Then David arose, and all the People that were with him, and they passed over Jordan; by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

23 And when Absalom saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and got him home to his house, to his city, and "put his household in order, and himself; and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then David came to Mahanaim.

And Absalom passed over Jordan, §e and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son, whose name was Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse.

28 And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the People that were with him, to eat: for they said, "The People is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness."

29 And David numbered the People that were with him, and set captains of hundreds and captains of thousands over them.

30 And David sent forth a third part of the People under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the People, "3 will surely go forth with you myself also."

3 But the People answered, "Thou shalt not go with us; if we we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou succour us out of the city."

4 And the king said unto them, "What seemeth you best I will do." And the king stood by the gate side, and all the People came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abshai and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom." And all the People heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the People went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the wood of Ephraim.

7 Where the People of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.
And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.

And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, "Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak."

And Joab said unto the man that told him, "And, behold, thou savest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten shekels of silver, and a girdle." And the man said unto Joab, "Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not lift up my hand against the king's son: for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, "Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.'

12 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldst have set thyself against me."

Then said Joab, "I may not tarry thus with thee." And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

And Joab blew the trumpet, and the People returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the People. And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, "I have no son to keep my name in remembrance:" and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's seat.

Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, "Let me now run, and bear the king tiding, how that the LORD hath avenged himself of his enemies."

And Joab said unto him, "Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead."

Then said Joab to Cushi, "Go tell the king what thou hast seen." And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran.

And Joab said, "Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready?"

11 And King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, 'Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king; every to his house.
12 ¶ ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?"
13 And say ye to Amasa, "Art thou not of my bone and of my flesh? Art thou not of the house of Ziba?"
14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, "Return, and all thy servants."
15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to "Gilgal," to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

16 And "Shimei the son of Gera," a Benjamite, which was of Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand six hundred men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king.

18 And there went over a ferry boat to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good.

19 And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he came over Jordan;
20 And said unto the king, "Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart.

21 For thy servant doth know that thou hast sinned: therefore, I am come the first this day of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king."
22 But "Abishai the son of Zeruiah" answered and said, "Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD'S anointed?"

23 And David said, ""What have I to do with ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day disown me, and make me an oath? Shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel?"

24 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, "Thou shalt not die." And the king sware unto him.

25 And "Mephibosheth," the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace.

26 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, "Wherefore wentest thou not thou with me, Mephibosheth?"

27 And he answered, "My lord, 0 king, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, 0 king, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because thy servant is lame.

28 And he hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes.

29 For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king: yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table. What right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king?"
19. 29. 41. And the king said unto him, "Why spakest thou any more of thy matters? " I have said," said Zeraiah and Ziba divide "the land.""

P 30. And Mephibosheth said unto the king, "Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house."

N s 31. And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32. Now Barzillai was a aged man, even fourscore years old: and he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man.

33. And the king said unto Barzillai, "Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem."

34. And Barzillai said unto the king, "How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem?"

35. And this day fourscore years old: and can I discern between good and evil? can I taste what is pleasant or what is bitter? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? therefore thou shouldst serve me yet a burden unto my lord the king?"

36. Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?"

37. Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what seemeth good unto thee."

38. And the king answered, "Chimham shall go over with me, and will do to him that shall seem good unto thee; and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee."

39. And all the people went over Jordan.

And when the king was come over, the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place.

40. Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him:

t u 1 And all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

41. And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, "Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought the king, and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan?"

u 2 42. And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is near of us, wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift?"

v 2 43. And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, "We have ten parts in the king, and ye have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king?"

And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

20. And there happened to be there a man of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew a trumpet, and said, "We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel."

3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 Then said the king to Amasa, "Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be then here present."
5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to Abishai, "Now shall we set this fellow's head to David oxide more harm than did Absalom: take" his thine lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us."

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, "Art thou in health, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died.

11 So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the People stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the People went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 And "he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-maachah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maachah, and they cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the People that were with Joab bated the wall, to throw it down.

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, "Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, 'Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.'"

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, "Art thou Joab?" And he answered, "I am he." Then she said unto him, "Hear the words of thine handmaid." And he answered, "I do hear."

18 Then she spake, saying, "They were wont to speak in old time, saying, 'They shall surely ask counsel at Abel:' and so they ended the matter.

Then there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David enquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, "It is for Saul, and for his house, because he slew the Gibeonites."

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites,

"What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the LORD?"

4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, "We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel." And he said, "What shall I do for you? and what shall I give you?"

5 And they answered the king, "The man that consumed us, and that devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel,

6 Let seven of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom the LORD did choose." And the king said, "I will give them."

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite:

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and all their children were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the street of Beth-Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa:

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father; and they performed all that the king commanded.
21. 19. II. SAMUEL. 22. 16.

19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was yet another battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he was also born to the giant.

21 And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah the brother of David slew him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and of the hand of his servants.

22 And David spake unto the Lord the words of this song in the day that the Lord had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul:

U 2 And he said,

i. The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;

ii. The God of my rock; in Him will I trust:

He is my shield, and the horn of my salvation,

My high tower, and my refuge,

My saviour; Thou savest me from violence.

V 1 A
4 I will call on the Lord, Who is worthy to be praised:
So shall I be saved from mine enemies.

B 5 When the waves of death compassed me,
The floods of ungodly men made me afraid;

6 The sorrows of hell compassed me about;
The snares of death prevented me;

7 In my distress I cried upon the Lord,
And cried to my God:

And He did hear my voice out of His temple,

And my cry did enter into His ears.

m C
8 Then the earth shook and trembled;

C The foundations of heaven moved
And shook, because He was wroth.

9 There went up a smoke out of His nostrils,
And fire out of His mouth devoured:

Coals were kindled by it.

10 He bowed the heavens also, and came down;

E And darkness was under His feet.

F 11 And He rode upon a cherub, and did fly:
And He was seen upon the wings of the wind.

E 12 And He made darkness pavilions round about Him,

Dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

D 13 Through the brightness before Him were coals of fire kindled.

14 The Lord thundered from heaven,
And the MOST HIGH uttered His voice.
15 And He sent out arrows, and scattered them;

Lightning, and discomfited them.

16 And the channels of the sea appeared,
The foundations of the world were discovered,
At the rebuking of the LORD,
At the blast of the breath of His nostrils.

Thou hast kept me to be head of the heathen:
A people which I knew not shall serve me.
Strangers shall submit themselves unto me:
As soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me.
Strangers shall fade away, and they shall be afraid out of their close places.

The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock;
And exalted be the God of the rock of my salvation.
It is the LORD that avengeth me, and That bringeth down the People under me,
And That bringeth me forth from mine enemies:
Thou hast lifted me up on high above that they rose up against me:
Thou hast delivered me from the violent man.
Therefore I will give thanks unto Thee, O Lord, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto Thy name.

Yet He hath made with me an everlasting covenant, Ordered in all things, and sure:
For this is all my salvation, and all my desire,
Although He make it not to grow.

Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Ezonite:
he lift up his spear against eight hundred, whom he slew at one time.
And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away:
10 ¶ he arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the LORD wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.
11 And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles: and the people fled from the Philistines.
12 But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great victory.
13 And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim.
14 And David was then in Ziklag, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem.
15 And David longed, and said, "Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate!"
16 And "the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, which was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD.
17 And he said, "Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: "is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives?" therefore he would not drink it.
These things did these three mighty men.
Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among thirty.
And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had the name among thirty.
20 And Benjaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he slew twenty "lions of Moab: he went forth to meet them in a valley.
A...A...snow. All these have the Art, as being a well-known exploit.

21 Goodly of appearance. Heb. = a sight to see.

I Chron. 11. 23 = stature.

With his own spear. Often done now spiritually by the servants of the true David, 23, 24.

24 Asahel. The third of the second three.

Brother of Joab, but not Joab. His name here but not himself, because when the time of the end comes, with its "last words", loyalty will be the one test.

Joab remained true in Absalom's rebellion, but fell away in Adonijah's. Hence in 1 Cor. 16. 23 "love" is the test, in the light of "Maran-atha", not the "strifes" of ch. 8, or the wrong judgments of ch. 4, or the uncleanliness of ch. 5, or going to law of ch. 6; not the fornication of ch. 7, not a wrong conscience of chs. 9, 10, not ecclesiastical disorders of ch. 11, not the misuse of special gifts (chs. 12, 13, 14), not orthodoxy (ch. 15), but "love" and loyalty to the Person of Christ, the true David, David's son and David's Lord.

34 these. Probably "Hanun", the son, &c. (1 Chron. 11. 49), making three named in this verse.

Son of Ahithophel. But not Ahithophel himself, on account of his disloyalty. See note on v. 24, above.

37 Armourbearer. Joab's armourbearer named, but not Joab himself. See note on p. 4, above.

39 Uriah. Doubly honoured, being named with his son; but Joab or Ahithophel are not named. Read Jer. 9. 23, 24.

Thirty and seven in all: i.e. first three + second three + thirty-one of vv. 24-39.

He moved. He suffered him to be moved. By Hebrew idiom (and also by modern usage) a person is said to do that which he permits to be done. Here we have the historical fact. In 1 Chron. 21. 1 we have the real fact from the Divine standpoint. Here the exoteric, in 1 Chron. 21. 1 the esoteric. For examples, see Ex. 4. 15; 5. 22. Jer. 4. 19. Ezek. 14. 9; 20. 15. Matt. 11. 28; 13. 11. Rom. 9. 18; 11. 7. 8. 2 Thess. 2. 11. God's permission, but Satan's suggestion (Isa. 1. 12, 14); or, p'sath, may be taken impersonally, "David was moved".

6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of "Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to "Dan-jaan, and "about to Zidon,

7 And came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to Beer-sheba.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the People. And David said unto the Lord, "I have sinned greatly in that I have done: now, I beseech thee, O Lord, take away the iniquity of Thy servant; for I have done very foolishly."

10 And David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the People. And David said unto the Lord, "I have sinned greatly in that I have done: now, I beseech thee, O Lord, take away the iniquity of Thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

11 For when David was in the morning, the word of the Lord came unto the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying,

12 "Go and say unto David, Thus saith the Lord, "Three things will I offer thee, and choose which of them thou wilt have.""

13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, "Shall three years be given unto thee, to suffer pestilence within thee? or shall three years be given unto thee, that thou go out before enemies? or shall there be three days' pestilence in thy land? will thou choose one of these things, O king?"

14 And David said unto Gad, "I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the Lord; for His mercies are great: and let me fall into the hand of man.")

15 So the Lord sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the evening: and there died of the People from Dan even to Beer-sheba seven thousand men.

16 And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented of the evil, and said unto the angel that destroyed the People, "It is enough: stay now thine hand." And the angel of the Lord was by the threshingplace of Araunah the Jebusite.

17 And David spake unto the Lord when he saw the angel that smote the People, and said, "Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? let Thine hand, I pray Thee, be against me, and against my father's house.")

18 And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, "Go up, rear an altar unto the Lord in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite," 19 And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up as the Lord commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground.

21 And Araunah said, "Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant?"

22 And David said, "To buy the threshingfloor of thee, to build an altar unto the Lord, that the plague may be stayed from the people."}

23 And Araunah said unto David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold, here be oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oxen for wood."

24 And the king said unto Araunah, "Nay: but I will surely buy it of thee at a price:
neither will I "offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing." So David bought "the threshingfloor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

25 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

So the LORD was intreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS,
COMMONLY CALLED,
THE THIRD BOOK OF THE KINGS.

1 Now king David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he had no heat.

2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, "Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat."

3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abigail a Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not.

5 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king:" and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, "Why hast thou done so?" and he also was a very goodly man; and his mother bare him after Absalom.

7 And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they following Adonijah helped him.

8 But Zadok the priest, and Benahadad the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimeal, and Rei, and the seven mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by En-rogel, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants:

10 But Nathan the prophet, and Benahadad, and the seven mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

THE STRUCTURE OF I AND 2 KINGS AS RELATED TO 1 AND 2 SAMUEL:

Kings. As compared with Chronicles, Kings and Samuel give the history from the human point of view, while Chronicles gives the same history from the Divine standpoint. The former, as man ruled the history; the latter, as God overruled it. Cp. Saul's death, 1 Sam. 31. 5, with 2 Chron. 10. 13, 14; and in Kings, three verses given to Hekeshiah's reformations, and in Chronicles, three chapters.

For the parallel passages in the Book of Chronicles, see Ap. 56, and note on Title of 1 Samuel, p. 366.

1. 1-2. 11 (B, p. 446). DAVID.
(Repeatees Alternation with Introversions.)

1 king David: occurs in 2 Sam. 6, 12, 16; 7. 18; 8. 8, 11; 9. 5, 13, 21, 39; 16. 5, 6; 17, 17, 21; 19, 11, 16. Book begins with king David and ends with king of Babylon. Opens with Temple built, and closes with Temple burnt. Begins with David's first successor on the throne of his kingdom, and ends with David's last successor released from the house of his captivity. Characters of all are tested by the standard of David. Old: about seventy. Cp. 2 Sam. 5, 4, 5.

3 servants: i.e. his advisers, probably medical. virgin: damsel. Heb. ṣāḥālāth.

7 Joab. This is why his name is not in 2 Sam. 23. See note on 2 Sam. 23. 8, 9, 16, 22.

11 Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon.

13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, "Didst thou not [thou] tell me, O king, swear unto thine handmaiden, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne'? " why then doth Adonijah reign?"

14 "Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.'

15 And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king.

16 And Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, "What wouldest thou?"

17 And she said unto him, "My lord, thou searest by the Lord thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.'

18 And now, "behold, Adonijah reigneth; and now, my lord the king, thou knowest it not:

19 And he hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called.

20 And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall "sleep with his fathers, that Zadok the son of Solomon shall be counted an offender."

22 And, "lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, "Behold Nathan the prophet." And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, "My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?"

25 For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest;

and, "behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, 'God save king Adonijah.'

26 But we, even we thy servants, and Zadok the priest, and Benaijah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called.
30 Even as I sware unto thee by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon the son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day."

31 Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, "Let my lord king David live for ever.""

32 And king David said, "Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." And they came before the king.

33 The king also said unto them, "Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon:

34 And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, "Hail, God save king Solomon."

35 Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah."

36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, "Amen: the LORD God of my lord the king say so too.

37 As the LORD hath been with my lord the king, even so be He with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord David.""

38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon:

39 And Zadok the priest took an horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the People said, "Hail, God save king Solomon."

40 And all the People came up after him, and the People piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

41 And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar?"

42 And while he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said unto him, "Come in; for thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings."

43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, "Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king:"

44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule:

45 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again. 2His is the noise that ye have heard.

46 And also Solomon sitteth on the throne of the kingdom.

47 And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, "O God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne." And the king bowed himself upon the bed.

48 And also thus said the king, "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, Which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.""

49 And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, "Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for, lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let king Solomon swear unto me to day that he will not slay his servant with the sword.'"

52 And Solomon said, "If he will shew himself a worthy man, there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die."

53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, "Go to thine house."
2. 1-10 (K. p. 447). ADVICE OF DAVID TO SOLOMON. (Introversion and Alternations.)

2. Now the days of David drew nigh that he should die;

p q r 921

and he charged Solomon his son, saying,

920

2 "Go to the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man;

920

2 And keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, and His commandments, and His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thysel self:

2 That the LORD may continue His word which He spake concerning me, saying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said He) a man of the house of Israel.

5 Moreover thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace.

7 But shew kindness unto the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so came to me to whom I fled because of Absalom thy brother.

8 And, behold, thou hast with thee Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I sware to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put thee to death with the sword.'

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: (for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou owest to do unto him); but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father.

13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, "Comest thou peaceably?" And he said, "Peaceably."" 14 He said moreover, "I have somewhat to say unto thee." And she said, "Say on." 15 And he said, "Zeruiah knew that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for it was his from the LORD,

18 And Bath-sheba said, "Well; 2 will speak for thee unto the king."

19 Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a 4 seat to be set for the king’s mother; and she sat on his right hand.

28 Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the 32 tabernacle of 3 the Lord; and, 8 behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, fall upon him."

30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of 3 the Lord, and said unto him, "Thus saith the king, 9 Come forth." And he said, "3 Nay; but I will die here." And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me."

31 And the king said unto him, "Do 24 as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And 3 the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two 17 men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to will, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace forever from 3 the LORD."

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.

36 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, "Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence 8 any whither.

37 For it shall be, that 3 on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron, thou shall know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon "thine own head.”

38 And Shimei said unto the king, “The saying is good: 24 as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do.” And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, “Behold, thy servants be in Gath.”

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, “Did I not make thee to swear by 3 the LORD, and protest unto thee, saying, ‘Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die?’ and thou saidst unto me, ‘The word that I have heard is good.’

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of 3 the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?”

44 The king said moreover to Shimei, “Thou knowest all the 3 wickedness which thin heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore 3 the LORD shall return thy 3 wickedness upon thine own head;

45 And King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before 3 the LORD for ever.”

48 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died.

And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

3 And Solomon made 3 affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh’s daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of 3 the LORD, and the wall of Jerusalem round about.

and 3 God said, “Ask what I shall give thee.”

6 And Solomon 3 said, “Thou hast shewed unto Thy servant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before Thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with Thee; and Thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that Thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, 1 I 3 LORD my 4 God, 3 thou hast made Thy servant king instead of David my father: and 3 am but 5 a little child: 8 I know not how to go out or come in.

8 And Thy servant is in the midst of Thy People which Thou hast chosen, a great People, that cannot be numbered, or counted for multitude.

9 ‘Give therefore Thy servant an understanding heart to judge Thy People, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this Thy so great a People?’

10 And the speech pleased the LORD, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And God said unto him, ‘Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment;

12 ‘Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

13 And I have also given thee that which thou hast asked not, both riches, and honour: so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all days.

14 And if thou wilt walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as ‘thy father David, then I will lengthen thy days.’

15 And Solomon awoke; and, beheld, it was a dream.

v And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

16 Then came there two women, that were harlots unto the king, and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, ‘O my lord, 3 and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.

19 And this woman’s child died in the night; because she overlaid it.

20 And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, beheld, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear.’

22 And the other woman said, ‘Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son.’ And this said, ‘No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son.’ Thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the king, ‘The one saith, ‘This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead:’ and the other saith, ‘Nay, but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living.’’

24 And the king said, ‘Bring me a sword.’ And they brought a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, ‘Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.’

26 Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, ‘O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it.’ But the other said, ‘Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.’

27 Then the king answered and said, ‘Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.’

28 And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the ‘wisdom of God was in him, to do judgment.

4 So king Solomon was king over all Israel.
And Benaijah the son of Jehoiada was over the host; and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests:

5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers: and Zabad the son of Nathan was principal officer, and Abiathar was the king's friend:

6 And Ahishar was over the household: and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the tribute. 7 And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victual for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision.

8 And these are their names: The son of Hur, in mount Ephraim:

9 The son of Devar, in Makaz, and in Sharmaim, and in Arothoth, and in Zebalim, and in the town that pertained Sochoh, and all the land of Hepher:

11 The son of Abinadab, in all the region of Dor; which had Taaphath the daughter of Solomon to wife:

12 Baana the son of Ahilud; to him pertained Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zaraath beneath Jezreel, from Beth-shan to Abel-meholah, even unto the place that is beyond Jokneam:

13 The son of Geber, in Ramoth-gilead; to him pertained the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; and to him also pertained the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, three score great cities with walls and brazen bars:

14 Abinadab the son of Iddo had Mahanaim:

15 Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; and also took Basmath the daughter of Solomon to wife:

16 Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth:

17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar:

18 Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin:

19 And Geber the son of Uri was in the country of Gilead, in the country of Sion king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer which was in the land.

20 Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.

21 And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty meases of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal.

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and roebucks, and fallowdeer, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tiphsah even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace on all sides round about him.

25 And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.

And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.

12 And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom. as He promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.

13 And king Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.
14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and Adoniram was over the levy.
15 And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountains;
16 Beside the chief of Solomon's officers which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people that wrought in the work.
17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.
18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the 'stonescutters'; so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

And it came to pass in the fourth and eighth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

And the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was three score cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.

And for the house he made windows of narrow lights.

And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the 'oracle: and he made chambers round about:

The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready: before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.

The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar.

And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying,

Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in My statutes, and execute My judgments, and keep all My commandments to walk in them; then will I perform My word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father:
13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel.”

14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

15 And he he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

18 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.

19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

20 And the oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 And within the oracle he made two cherubims of olive tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure and one size.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

31 And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall.

32 The two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm trees.

33 So also made he for the door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part of the wall.

34 And the two doors were of fir tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35 And he carved thereon cherubims and palm trees and open flowers: and covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work.

36 And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.

37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Zif:

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.
7. 2.

I. KINGS.

2 He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred thirty and seven cubits; and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that lay upon forty five pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks.

5 And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks.

6 And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them: and the other pillars and the thick beam were before them.

7 Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other.

8 And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work.

Solomon made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

9 All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, twelve sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

11 And above were costly stones, after the measures of hewed stones, and cedars.

12 And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the house of the LORD, and for the porch of the house.

13 And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre.

14 25 was a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and he was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass.

And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work.

15 For he cast two pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about.

16 And he made two chapiters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapiter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapiter was five cubits.

17 2 And nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapiter, and seven for the other chapiter.

18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapiter.

19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits.

20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the network: and the pomegranates were "two hundred in rows round about upon the other 16 chapter. And he set up the pillars "in the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof "Jachin: and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof "Boaz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

23 And he made a "molten sea, ten "cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five "cubits: and a line of thirty "cubits did compass it round about.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it, ten in a "cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 And it was an hand breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained "two thousand "baths.

27 And he made ten bases of brass; four "cubits was the length of one base, and four "cubits the breadth thereof, and three "cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had "borders, and the "borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain "additions made of thin work.

30 And every base had four brasen "wheels, and four plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had "undersetters: under the laver were "undersetters molten, at the side of every 29th addition.

31 And the mouth of it within the 16 chapter and above was a "cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a "cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their "borders, foursquare, not round.

32 And under the 28 borders were four 39 wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a "cubit and half a "cubit.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their "naves, and their "felloes, and their "spokes, were all molten.

34 And there were four 39 undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the 39 undersetters were of the very base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a "cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm trees, according to the two hundred. In v. 42 called four hundred, because two hundred reckoned to each, as in 1 Chron. 1. 18. In 2 Chron. 3. 16 they are called one hundred, because reckoned one hundred to each row. In Jer. 52. 23 they are ninety-two "on a side (Heb. rambah = to windward; i.e. exposed to the wind or open air. The others, within, or sheltered).

21 in the porch = for the porch. Jachin = He (God) will establish. Referring to His Bosn = In Him (God) is strength. 1 People Israel.

22 molten sea = brazen laver. "Sea" put by Fig. Metonymy (of Adjunct) for what contained it. a line of thirty "cubits. Here the proportion of the diameter to the circumference (1 : 5) was revealed, while human wisdom was still searching it out.

26 two thousand. 2 Chron. 4. 5 says three thousand. But 1 Kings 7. 26 speaks of what it did (usually) contain; while 2 Chron. 4. 5 speaks of what it could "receive and hold". No bath in use is filled to its full capacity.

28 borders = panels, or enclosures.

29 additions = connections. Probably wreaths. Occurs only here and Ex. 29, 30, 36.

30 wheels: showing that these lavers were movable, and indicating that when "that which is perfect should come" (viz. the washing with spirit, Acts 1. 6), the type (water) was to be wheeled away. plates = axletrees. undersetters = projections, or supports. at the side of = opposite. borders = panels. Removed by Ahaz (2 Kings 16. 17). Replaced by Hezekiah (2 Chron. 29. 19). Established at taking of Temple (Jer. 52. 17, 20).

33 naves = felloes. felloes = spokes. spokes = naves.

36 proportion: i.e. on a reduced scale, as the plates required.

40 lavers = cauldrons (for boiling the peace offerings). Some codices, with three early printed editions, Sept., and Vulg., read "pans". Cp. v. 40 and 2 Chron. 4. 1. made = made for.

41 networks = lattices.

42 upon = upon the face of. Fig. Pleonasm. Ap. 6.
7. 44. I. KINGS.

44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;
45 And the pots, and the shovels, and the basins: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, were of bright brass.
46 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarthan.

47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass found out.
48 And Solomon made all the vessels that pertain unto the house of the LORD: the altar of gold, and the table of gold, whereupon the shewbread was.
49 And the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold.
50 And the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple.

51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD.

8

Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, and the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.
2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.
3 And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.
4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even these did the priests and the Levites bring up.

5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude.
6 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims.
7 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof.
8 And they drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen in the holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day.
9 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the LORD.
11 So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD.
12 Then spake Solomon, "The LORD said that He would dwell in the thick darkness.

13 I have surely built Thee an house to dwell in, a settled place for Thee to abide in for ever."

14 And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood; 15 And he said, "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which spake with His mouth unto David my father, and hath with His hand fulfilled it, saying, 16 Since the day that I brought forth My People Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that My name might be there; but I chose David to be over My People Israel.' 17 And it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. 18 And the LORD said unto David my father, 19 Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto My name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart. 20 Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto My name." 21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is 'the covenant of the LORD, which He made with our fathers, when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.' 22 And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven:

23 And he said, "The LORD God of Israel, there is no God like Thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, Who keepeth covenant and mercy with Thy servants that walk before Thee with all their heart: 24 Who hast kept with Thy servant David my father that Thou promisedst him: Thou spakest also with Thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with Thine hand, as it is this day. 25 Therefore now, the LORD God of Israel, keep with Thy servant David my father that Thou promisedst him: Thou spakest also with Thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with Thine hand, as it is this day. 26 And now, O God of Israel, let Thy word, I pray Thee, be verified, which Thou spakest unto Thy servant David my father. 27 But shall dwell on the earth? Behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain Thee; how much less this house that I have builded?

23-30 (A1, above). GENERAL. (Alternation.)

25 so that — provided that.

28 Yet have Thou respect unto the prayer of Thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which Thy servant prayeth before Thee to day:

29 That Thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which Thou hast said, 'My name shall be there;' that Thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which Thy servant shall make toward this place.
30 And hearken Thou to the supplication of Thy servant, and of Thy People Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: and hear Zeph in heaven Thy dwelling place: and when Thou hearest, forgive.

31 If any man trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before Thine altar in this house:

32 Then hear Zeph in heaven, and do, and judge Thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head: and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

33 When Thy People Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against Thee, and shall turn again to Thee, and confess Thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto Thee in this house:

34 Then hear Zeph in heaven, and forgive the sin of Thy People Israel, and bring them again unto the land which Thou gavest unto their fathers.

35 When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against Thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess Thy name, and turn from their sin, when Thou afflictest them:

36 Then hear Zeph in heaven, and forgive the sin of Thy servants, and of Thy People Israel, that Thou teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon Thy land, which Thou hast given to Thy People for an inheritance.

37 If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness there be;

38 What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, by all Thy People Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house:

39 Then hear Zeph in heaven, Thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart Zeph knowest; (for Thou, even Zeph only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men.)

40 That they may fear Thee all the days that they live in the land which Thou gavest unto our fathers.

41 Moreover concerning a stranger, that is not of Thy People Israel, but cometh out of a far country for Thy name’s sake;

42 For they shall hear of Thy great name, and of Thy strong hand, and of Thy stretched out arm;) when he shall come and pray toward this house;

43 Hear Zeph in heaven, Thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to Thee for: that all people of the earth may know Thy name, to fear Zeph, as do Thy People Israel; and that they may know that this house, which I have builded, is called by Thy name.

44 If Thy people go out to battle against their enemy, whithersoever Thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the LORD toward the city which Thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I have built for Thy name:

45 Then hear Thou in heaven their prayer and supplication, and maintain their cause.

46 If they sin against Thee, (so there is no man that sinneth not,) and Thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near;
I. KINGS.

47 Yet if they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and shall supplicate unto Thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, 'We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness.'

48 And so return unto Thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto Thee toward their land, which Thou didst choose, the city which Thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for Thy name:

49 Then hear Thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven Thy dwelling place, and maintain their 49 cause.

50 And forgive Thy People that have sinned against Thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against Thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them.

51 For they be Thy People, and Thine inheritance, which Thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the flame of iron: That Thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of Thy servant, and unto the supplication of Thy People Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto Thee. Then Thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be Thine inheritance, as Thou spakest by the hand of Moses Thy servant, when Thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the Lord, he arose from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

56 "Blessed be the Lord, That hath given rest unto His People Israel, according to all that He promised: there hath not failed one word of all His good promise, which He promised by the hand of Moses His servant.

57 "The Lord our God be with us, as He was with our fathers: 'let Him not leave us, nor forsake us: That He may incline our hearts unto Him, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, and His statutes, and His judgments, which He commanded our fathers.

59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the Lord, be nigh unto the Lord our God day and night, that He maintain the cause of His servant, and the cause of His people Israel at all times, as the matter shall require:

60 That all the people of the earth may know that the Lord our God is one God, and that there is none else.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God, to walk in His statutes, and to keep His commandments, as at this day."
9 And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the Lord, and the king’s house, and all Solomon’s desire which he had pleased to do.

2 That the Lord appeared to Solomon the second time, as He had appeared unto him at Gibeon.

3 And the Lord said unto him, “I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before Me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, to Put My Name there forever; and Mine eyes and Mine heart shall be there perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walk before Me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep My statutes and My judgments:

5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, ‘There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.’

6 But if ye shall at all turn from following Me, or your children’s children, and will not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them:

7 Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for My name, will I cast out of My sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people:

8 ‘And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, “Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and to this house?”’

9 And they shall answer, ‘Because they forsook the Lord their God, Who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the Lord brought upon them all this evil.’

10 And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the Lord, and the king’s house, then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they pleased him not.
13 And he said, “What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother?” And he called them the land of “Cubal unto this day.
14 And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

I. KINGS.

18. For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomon's wife.

19. And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the nether, and Baalah, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land of Judah.

And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20. And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel

21. Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bondservice unto this day.

22. But the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

23. These were the chief of the officers that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the People that wrought in the work.

24. But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her house which Solomon had built for her:

then did he build Millo.

Offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt incense upon the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

26. King Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red sea, in the land of Edom.

And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

And they came to Ophir, and fetched thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

Millo — the Millo. Part of Jebusite city, or the filling up between Jebus and Moriah. Hezekiah strengthened it. Shechem had a Millo (Judg. 9. 6). Cp. v. 24; 11. 27. 2 Sam. 5. 9. 1 Chron. 11. 8. 2 Chron. 32. 14. the wall. Begun by David (2 Sam. 5. 9. 1 Chron. 11. 8). Solomon closed the breaches (11. 27).

Hazor, an old Canaanitish town (Josh. 11. 1).

Meggido, the same (Josh. 12. 21. Judg. 1. 27; 5. 19, and 1 Kings 4. 12).

Gezer. Gezer was formerly under the suzerainty of Egypt. Correspondence of the time of Amen-hotep III and IV, about 1450 b.c., has been found at Tel-el-Amarna explorations, which mentions Yapiaki as "king" of Gezer. Letters from Abdi-khiba. king of Jerusalem, complain of the Gezerites. First mentioned in Josh. 10. 35. Conquest only partial (Josh. 16. 10. Judg. 1. 29). Allotted to Levites (Josh. 21. 21). In excavation by Palestine Exploration Fund a contract was found, dated 649 b.c. (in Assyrian). Gezer then still under an Egyptian Governor. Another contract, dated 647 b.c., was found, showing an Assyrian occupation in the time of Manasseh. This may explain the "captains" of 2 Chron. 38. 11.

Present = dowry.

17. built = rebuilt and fortified.

22. make no bondmen. According to Lev. 25. 39. The levy of 5, 13; 11. 28, was a levy for free service. This was for bondservice (v. 21).

4. And. Note the Fig. Polygnyanodon (Ap. 6) vv. 4, 5.

5. Sitting = seated assembly.

Attendance = standing.

4. And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, he the house that he had built,

5. And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in him.

And she said to the king, "It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom.

7 Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom.

9 Blessed be the LORD thy God, Which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of the kingdom of Israel: because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made He thee king, to do judgment and justice."

10 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as sheeth which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

11 And the navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug trees, and precious stones.

12 And the king made of the almug trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen unto this day.

13 And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold, 15 Beside that he had of the merchantmen, and of the traffick of the spice merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governors of the country.

16 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of gold went to one target.

17 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

18 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays.

20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

21 And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

22 For the king had at sea a navy of Tharsish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharsish, bringing gold, and silver, and ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

20 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.

21 And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which the LORD God had put in his heart.

22 And the LORD gave Solomon riches and abundance beyond the kings of all the earth.

23 And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem.

24 And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycomore trees that are in the vale, for abundance.

15 For it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and joab the captain of the host was going up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Edom;
16 (For six months did joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom.)
17 That hadad fled, &c. and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; hadad being yet a little child.
18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.
19 And hadad found great favour in the sight of pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of tahpenes the queen.
20 And the sister of tahpenes bare him genubath his son, whom tahpenes waned in pharaoh's house: and genubath was in pharaoh's household among the sons of pharaoh.
21 And when hadad heard in Egypt that david slept with his fathers, and that joab the captain of the host was dead, hadad said to pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country."
22 Then pharaoh said unto him, "But what hast thou lacked with me, that, &c. behold, thou seest to go to thine own country?" And he answered, "Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise."
23 And god stirred him up another adversary, rezon the son of eliada, which fled from his lord hadadezer king of zobah:
24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when david slew from zobah: and they went to damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in damascus.
25 And he was an adversary to israel all the days of solomon, beside the mischief that hadad did: and he abhorred israel, and reigned over syria.
26 And jeroboam the son of nebat, an ephrathite of zereda, solomon's servant, whose mother's name was zeruah, a widow woman, even he lifted up his hand against the king.
27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: solomon built millo, and repaired the breaches of the city of david his father.
28 And the man jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of joseph.
29 And it came to pass at that time when jeroboam went out of jerusalem, that the prophet ahijah the son of shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field:
30 And ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces:
31 And he said to jeroboam, "Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the lord, the god of israel, 15 it came to pass, &c. cp. 2 sam. 8, 3-13.
32 But he shall have one tribe for my servant david's sake, and for jerusalem's sake, the city which i have chosen out of all the tribes of israel:
33 Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped ashtoreth the goddess of the zidonians, chemosh the god of the moabites, and milcom the god of the children of ammon, and have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did david his father.
34 Howbeit i will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but i will make him prince all the days of his life for david my servant's sake, whom i chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes:
35 But i will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.
38 And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in My ways, and do that is right in My sight, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as David My servant did; that I will be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee.

39 And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever.

40 Therefore as thou didst not command thy servants the prophets whom I sent thee speaking in My name, saying, ‘Hearken not unto them,’

41 Thou hast indeed heard them, and indeed hast indeed hearkened to them; therefore ye have not hearkened unto My prophecy, and ye have watched for your fathers’ sake;

42 Therefore thus saith the Lord; I will not any more be the weigher of that which is light, nor the divider of that which is heavy.

12 And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which was in Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of King Solomon,) and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt; 3 That they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, “Depart yet for three days, then come again to me.” And the People departed.

6 And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, “How do ye advise that I may answer this People?”

7 And they spake unto him, saying, “If thou wilt be a servant unto this People this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then will they be thy servants ever.”

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him:

9 And he said unto them, “What counsel give ye that we may answer this People, who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?’”

10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, “Thus shalt thou speak unto this People that speak unto thee, saying, ‘Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us.’” Thus shalt thou say unto them, “My little finger shall be thicker than thy father’s loins.

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke; my father laid upon you a yoke of iron, but I will add unto your yoke a yoke of iron; 12 So Jeroboam and all the People came to Rehoboam the third day, “as the king had appointed, saying, “Come to me again the third day.”

13 And the king answered the People roughly, and forsook the old men’s counsel that they gave him;

14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.”

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the People; for “the cause was from the LORD, that He might perform His saying, which the LORD spake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the 17 But as for the Children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel "stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee 6 to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

L 21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came unto Shemariah the man of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the People, saying,

24 'Thus saith the LORD, "Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the Children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is from Me."' They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel.

M 26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 'If this People go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this People turn again unto their Lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.'

28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt."

Ap. 33. The primitive text was "to your gods," because the sin here was apostasy from Jehovah's worship in Jerusalem. Two letters transposed made it read "to your tents." See note on 2 Sam. 20. 1, and cp. 2 Chron. 10. 16.

17 children = sons. Israel which dwelt in . . . Judah. Here was a nucleus of true worship; it constantly increased (1 Kings 12. 19. 1 Chron. 9. 3. 2 Chron. 10. 17; 11. 3, 14, 17; 15. 9; 16. 1; 19. 8; 23. 2; 30. 1, 5, 10, 11; 31. 6). In Ezra 1. 5; 2. 2, 69, 79; 7. 13; 9. 1; 10. 6; those returning of Judah's captivity are called "of Israel," and "all Israel," 2. 2, 70; 3. 1; 6. 23; 7. 10, 13; 8. 22, 9. 1; 10. 1, 2, 5, 10, 22. Neh. 2. 10; 7. 6, 7; 8. 17; 10. 33; 11. 2; 12. 47. Judah was thus always representative of "all Israel." Hence Acts 4. 27, "the People of Israel," and Acts 2. 14, 22, 36, "of Judah." The two words are used interchangeably, except where otherwise stated. See note on "all the house of Israel", Ex. 16. 31. Also on 1 Chron. 22. 17; 23. 2, 2. 12, 6; "princes of Israel", used of Judah before the division. Also, on the cause of the increase of Judah, see note on 1 Chron. 13. 2.

30 And this thing became a sin: for the People went to worship before the one, even unto Dan.

31 And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the People, which were not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. (So did he in Beth-el,) sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense.

13 And behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Beth-el: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense.

2 And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, the child shall be born unto the house of David. Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee.

3 And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.

4 And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, who had cried against the altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him.

5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.

7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward.

8 And the man of God said unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

9 For so was it charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest.

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

11 Now there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel; and his name was Gamaliel. He prophesied on the same day, saying, Hear, ye people, these words, 12 That which the LORD spake by the hand of his servant Moses, saying, How long transgress ye my commandments? see, all Israel cannot escape the sword: because ye transgress my covenant, not to keep the word of the LORD by doing euery man his own will.

13 And it came to pass, as they had seen what the man of God had done, that they said, No tar get before him: he doeth every work that he speaketh with his lips.

14 And the priest answered the man of God, with the words of the LORD, which he spake, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast contradicted the word of the LORD, thou shalt not have a son to set up the altar of the LORD.

15 Then the man of God wept with a lamentable voice, and said, O Lord God, forgive me my sin, which I have done to Jeroboam, and to his house; behold, I am in the midst of a great Israelite multitude.

16 And the Lord said, Go, return to the man of whom thou wast angry, and peace be to him. So the man of God returned to the messenger of the king, and peace was upon him.
18. He said unto him, "Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way thou camest.""

19 And he cried unto the 1 man of God that came from Judah, saying, "Thus saith the Lord, 'Forasmuch as thou hast disobedied the mouth of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandment which the Lord thy God commanded thee, 20 But camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of which the Lord did say to thee, 'Eat no bread, and drink no water,' thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.'"

21 And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

22 And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcase.

23 And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

24 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, "It is the 1 man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the Lord: therefore the Lord hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him, according to the word of the Lord, which He spake unto him..."

25 And he spake to his sons, saying, "Saddle me the ass." And they saddled him.

26 And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass.

27 And the prophet took up the carcase of the 1 man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn, and to bury him.

28 And he laid his carcase in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother!"

29 And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, "When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the 1 man of God is buried: lay my bones beside his bones:

30 For the saying which he cried by the word of the Lord against the altar in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass..."

33 After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but made again of the lowest of the People priests of the high places: who...

thing of thee for her son; for 11 is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for it shall be, when she cometh in, that cometh in, she shall feign herself to be another woman.

6 And it was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, "Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam; why feignest thou thyself to be another? for 3 am sent to thee with heavy tidings.

7 Go, tell Jeroboam, 'Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, 'Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the People, and made thee prince over My People Israel,' and rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it thee: and yet thou hast not been as My servant David, who kept My commandments, and who followed Me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in Mine eyes;

9 But hast done evil above all that were before thee: for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke Me to anger, and hast cast [25] behind thy back. 10 Therefore, I behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel, and will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man taketh away dung, till it be all gone.

11 Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat: and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the Lord hath spoken it.'"

12 Arise therefore, get thee to thine own house: and when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die.

13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him: for only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward the Lord God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

14 Moreover the Lord shall raise Him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: "but what?" even now.

15 For the Lord shall smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and He shall root up Israel out of this good land, which He gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their groves, provoking the Lord to anger.

16 And He shall give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin, and who made Israel to sin.

17 And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah: and when she came to the threshold of the door, the child died;

18 And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the Lord, which He spake by the hand of His servant Ahijah the prophet.

19 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

20 two and twenty years. In 15. 20 Nadab reigned two years, and began in the second year of Asa, which was the twenty-first of Jeroboam, so that Nadab's two years fall within the time of his father's twenty-two. But from 2 Chron. 15. 20 we learn that Jeroboam was stricken with a languishing disease, in which time Nadab reigned with him, and died the same year as his father. The number "twenty-two" is associated with disorganisation and disintegration (= 2 x 11). It is associated with the worst two reigns: Jeroboam, here; and Ahaz in 16. 29.

made an idol in a grove; and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brook Kidron.

14 But the high places were not removed: nevertheless Asa’s heart was perfect with the LORD all his days.

15 And he brought in of the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels.

16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

17 And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and of the treasures of the king’s house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

19 ‘There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; and come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.’

20 So Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the host which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maacah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.

22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had built; and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.

Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any of them breathing, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying of the LORD, which He spake by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite:

30 Because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

2 Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over My People Israel; and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made Israel to sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins; 3 Behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
4 Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat."

5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
6 So Baasha died with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead.

7 And also by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he killed him.

of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah.

And the People were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. 16 And the People that were encamped heard say, "Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king:" wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died.

19 For his 3 sins which he 2 sinned in doing 7 evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his 2 sin which he did, to 3 make Israel to 2 sin.
20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, "are not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

21 Then were the People of Israel divided into two parts; half of the People followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.

22 But the People that followed Omri prevailed against the People that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirtieth and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, twelve years: ('six years reigned he in Tirzah.)

24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, "owner of the hill, Samaria.

25 But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD "God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, "are not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel:

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him.

31 And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him.

32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

A C 2 And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah, which was the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the Lord greatly:)

4 For it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the Lord, that Ahab took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, “Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts.”

6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

D 7 And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, “Art thou that my lord Elijah?”

8 And he answered him, “I am: go, tell thy lord, ‘Behold, Elijah is here.’”

E c go, tell thy lord, “Behold, Elijah is here.”” d e 9 And he said, “What have I sinned, that thou wouldst deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?”

f g 10 As the Lord thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, ‘He is not there,’ he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not.

h 11 And now thou sayest, ‘Go, tell thy lord, “Behold, Elijah is here.”’

f g 12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the Lord shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the Lord from my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the Lord, how I hid an hundred men of the Lord’s prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, ‘Go, tell thy lord, “Behold, Elijah is here.”’

17 And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, "Art thou he that "trouseth "Israel?"

18 And he answered, "I have not troubled "Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the L ORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table."

20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, "How long halt ye between two opinions? if the L ORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him." And the people answered not him a word.

22 Then said Elijah, "I, even I, only, remain a prophet of the L ORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the L ORD: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God." And all the people answered and said, "It is well spoken."

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, "Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under."

26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called it, and called on the name of Baal of Naaman even until noon, saying, "O Baal, hear us." But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made.

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, "Cry aloud, for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure is asleep, and must be awakened."

28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And Elijah said unto all the People, "Come near unto me." And all the People came near unto him.

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, "Thus saith Ben-hadad, 3 'Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.'"

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, "My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have."

5 And the messengers came again, and said, "Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, 'Although I have sent unto thee, saying, 'Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children; 6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee to morrow about this time, and they shall 'search house by house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.'""

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, "Mark, I pray you, and hear how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I denied him not. 8 And all the elders and all the People said unto him, 'Hearken not unto him, nor consent,' 9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, 'Tell my lord the king, 'All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do.'" And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

10 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, "The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me."

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, "Tell him, 'Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.'"

12 And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, that he said unto his servants, "Set yourselves in array," and they set themselves in array against the city.

13 And, behold, there came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, "Thus saith the LORD, 'Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.'"

14 And Ahab said, "By whom?" And he said, "Thus saith the LORD, 'Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces.'" Then he said, "Who shall order the battle?" And he answered, "Zekki." 15 Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two: and after them he numbered all the People, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand:

16 And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, "There are men come out of Samaria."

18 And he said, "Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive."

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And they slew every one his man: and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on an horse with the horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22 And the prophet came to the king of Israel, and said unto him, "Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee."
23 And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

24 And do this thing, Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put 'captains in their rooms:

25 And the seven number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they." And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass at the 22 return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to "Aphek, to fight against Israel.

27 And the 'children of Israel 'were numbered, and were all present, and went against them the 'children of Israel pitched before them like two little 'flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.

28 And there came a "man of 'God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, "Thus saith the 'LORD, 'Because the Syrians have said, 'The 'LORD is 'God of the hills, but 'Sy is not 'God of the valleys,' therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that 3 am the 'LORD.'"

29 And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the 'children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to 'Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the 20 men that were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.

31 And his servants said unto him, "Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: peradventure he will save thy life.

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, "Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, 'I pray thee, let 'me live.'" And he said, "Is he yet alive? 'Is he my 'brother.'"

33 Now the 17 men did diligently observe whether 'any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, "Thy brother Ben-hadad.""

34 Then he said, "Go ye, bring him." Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

35 And Ben-hadad said unto him, "The cities, which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, 'as my father made in Samaria." Then said Ahab, "I will send thee away with this covenant." So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

36 Then said he unto him, "Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the 31 'LORD, 'behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee." And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him.

37 Then he found another 9 man, and said, "Smite me, I pray thee." And the 9 man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him.

38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with 'ashes upon his face.

39 And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and he said, "Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, 31 behold, a 20 man turned aside, and brought a 20 man unto me, and said, 'Keep this 20 man; if by any means he be missing, then shall thy 31 life be for his 31 life, or else thou shalt pay a 'talent of silver.'

40 And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone."

And the king of Israel said unto him, "So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it."

41 And he hasted, and took the 38 'ashes away from his face; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the prophets.

42 And he said unto him, "Thus saith the 'LORD, 'Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a 20 man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy 31 life shall go for his 31 life, and thy people for his people."

43 And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.
21. 1

I. KINGS.

21 And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, Give me thine vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, "The LORD forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee.

4 And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, "I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers." And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

5 But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, "Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?"

6 And he said unto her, "Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, 'Give me thine vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it.' and he answered, 'I will not give thee my vineyard.'"

7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, "Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee thine vineyard for money; and he answered, 'I will not give thee my vineyard.'"

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the People: 10 And set two men, sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, 'Thou didst blaspheme God and the king.' And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die."

11 And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the People.

13 And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the People, saying, "Naboth did blaspheme God and the king." Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth is stoned, and is dead."

15 And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

16 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17 And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

18 "Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it. And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, 'Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed and also taken possession?' And thou shalt speak unto him, saying,

Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even (if it be) a 7

20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD. And behold, I will bring upon thee that which shall make thee desolate, and whom thou hast reproved Me to anger, and made Israel to sin.

And Jezebel also spake to the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezeel.

Him that dideth in Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

But there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things that did the Amorites, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before Me? because he humbleth himself before Me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.

22 And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.

And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that Ramoth-gilead is ours, and we be still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria? And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle against Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my People as thy People, my horses as thy horses.

And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, of the word of the LORD to day;

Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they

2 came down. In every sense of the word; and this after 2 Chron. 17, 1. First was the matrimonial alliance (2 Chron. 18, 1), cp. 2 Kings 8, 18; and then the military alliance (v. 4 and 2 Chron. 18, 5). No mention here of the former, which was the secret cause that led up to it. Both fatal. Compare the commercial alliance of Jehoshaphat in 2 Chron. 20, 35-37, and the experience gained by Jehoshaphat in ch. 22, 48, 49.

7 And Jehoshaphat said, “Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him?”

8 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, “There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil.” And Jehoshaphat said, “Let not the king say so.”

9 Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, “Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.”

10 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria.

11 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made himself horns of iron: and he said, “Thus saith the LORD, 'With these shall Thou push the Syrians, until thou hast consumed them.’”

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, “Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the king’s hand.”

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, “Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.”

14 And Micaiah said, “As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak.”

15 So he came to the king. And the king said unto him, “Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear?” And he answered him, “Go, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.”

16 And the king said unto him, “How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD?”

17 And he said, “I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace.”

18 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?”

19 And he said, “Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by Him on His right hand and on His left.

23 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

24 But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah took him, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, ‘Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?’

25 And Micaiah said, ‘Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.’

I. KINGS.  22. 52.

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, "Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel."

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "Surely it is the king of Israel." And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, "Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded."

35 And the battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, "Every man to his city, and every man to his own country."

37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armour; according unto the word of the LORD which He spake.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless the high places were not taken away; for the People offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

44 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

1. 1 Moab rebelled. Moab had been subdued by David (2 Sam. 8, 2; 22, 20); and when the kingdom was divided it passed to Israel. It was greatly oppressed by Omri and Ahab, and, on the death of the latter (cp. 3, 5), Mesha, king of Moab, rebelled. See the record of the event on the "Moabite stone." Ap. 54.

The verse is introduced here to complete the symmetry of the interversion. See "G" in the Structure above. After the inscription on the Moabite stone leaves the exact date indefinite. Line five, "Israel perish!", may refer to the death of Ahab.

[THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS,
COMMONLY CALLED,
THE FOURTH BOOK OF THE KINGS.]

G 1 Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

F Ha a 2 And Ahabiah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, "Go, enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease."

b 3 But the Angel of the Lord said to Elijah the Tishbite, 'Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, 'Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?'

c 4 Now therefore thus saith the Lord, 'Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.' And Elijah departed.

J 5 And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, "Why are ye now turned back?"

J 6 And they said unto him, "There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, 'Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, 'Thus saith the Lord,' If it be not because there is not a God in Israel, that they sendest to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.'"

7 And he said unto them, "What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words?"

8 And they answered him, "He was an hairy man, and girt with a garment of leather about his loins." And he said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."

H a 9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, "bhold, he sat on the top of an hill. And he spake unto him, "Thou man of God, the king hath said, 'Come down.'"

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, "If I be a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty." And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, "O man of God, thus hath the king said, 'Come down quickly.'"

12 And Elijah answered and said "unto them, "If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty." And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.
13 And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, "O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight."

15 And the Angel of the Lord said unto Elijah, "Go down with him: be not afraid of him." And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

16 And he said unto him, "Thus saith the Lord: Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, 'is it not because there is no God in Israel to enquire of His word?' therefore thou shalt not come down on that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.'"

17 So he died according to the word of the Lord which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram reigned in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son. Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

2 And it came to pass, when the Lord would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went up to Gilgal. And Elijah said unto Elisha, "Tarry here, I pray thee; for the Lord hath sent me to Beth-el." And Elisha said unto him, "As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee." So they went down to Beth-el.

3 And the sons of the prophets that were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, "Knowest thou that the Lord will take away thy master from thee to day?" And he said, "Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace."

4 And Elijah said unto him, "Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the Lord hath sent me to Jericho." And he said, "As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee." So they came to Jericho.

5 And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said unto him, "Knowest thou that the Lord will take away thy master from thee to day?" And he answered, "Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace."

6 And Elijah said unto him, "Tarry, I pray thee, here; for the Lord hath sent me to Jordan." And he said, "As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee." And they two went on.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.
And Elisha saw it, and *cried, *"My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof!" And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

Then he took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan; and he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, \"Where is the LORD God of Elijah?\" And when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.

And when the sons of the prophets which were to view at Jericho saw them, they said, \"The *spirit of Elijah *doth rest on Elisha.\"

And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

And they said unto him, \"Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men: let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the *Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley.\" And he said, \"Ye shall not send.\"

And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, \"Send.\" They sent therefore fifty *men: and they sought three days, but found him not.

And when they came again to him, (for he turned at Jericho,) he said unto them, \"Did I not say unto you, *Go not?\"

And the sixteen men of the city said unto Elisha, \"Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground barren.\"

And he said, \"Bring me a new *cruse, and put salt therein.\" And they brought it to him.

And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and said, \"Thus saith *the LORD, *I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren *land.\"

So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

And he went up from thence unto *Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, \"*Go up, thou *bald head, *go up, thou *bald head.\"

And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of *the LORD. And there came forth two she *beasts out of the wood, and tare forty and two *children of them.

And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.
5 But it came to pass, when "Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel.

7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle?" And he said, "I will go up: I am as thou art, my People as thy People, and my horses as thy horses."

8 And he answered, "What way shall we go up?" And he answered, "The way through the wilderness of Edom."

9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom; and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey:

and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them.

10 And the king of Israel said, "Alas! that a the Lord hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab!"

11 But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not here a prophet of the Lord, that we may enquire of the Lord by him?"

And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, "Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hands of Elijah."

12 And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the Lord is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, "What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother."

14 And the king of Israel said unto him, "Nay: for the Lord hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

15 But now bring me a minstrel." And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the Lord came upon him.

16 And he said, "Thus saith the Lord, 'Make this valley full of ditches.'"

For thus saith the Lord, 'Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and thy cattle, and thy beasts.'

17 And this is but a light thing in the sight of the Lord: He will deliver the Moabites also into your hand.

18 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones."

20 And it came to pass in the morning, when the meat offering was offered, that, behold,

1 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to "put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as "red as blood:"

23 And they said, "This is blood: the kings are surely "slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil."

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they "went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.

25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast "every man his spear, and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in "Kir-haraseth left they the "stones thereof; "howbeit the slingers went about if, and smote it.

26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred "men that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom:

but they could not.

27 Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and "offered him for "a burnt offering upon "the wall. And there was great "indignation against Israel:

and they departed "from him, and returned to "their own land.

Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, "Thy servant my "husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear "the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be "bondmen."

2 And Elisha said unto her, "What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house?"

And she said, "Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil."

3 Then he said, "Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; "borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full."

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, "who brought the vessels to her; and "she poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, "Bring me yet a vessel." And he said unto her, "There is not a vessel more." And the oil stayed.

7 Then she came and told the "man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil, and pay thy "debt, and live thou and thy "children of the rest."

on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, "and a table, and a stool, and a 3 candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.""

And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his "servant, "Call this Shunammite." And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, "Say now unto her, 9 child, thou hast been 4 careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldst thou be 3 spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host?" And she answered, "3 dwell among mine own people."

14 And he said, "What then is to be done for her?" And Gehazi answered, "Verily she hath no 9 child, and her 9 husband is old." 15 And he said, "Call her." And when he had called her, she stood in the "door.

16 And he said, "About this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son." And she said, "Nay, my lord, thou art God, and dost not set thine handmaid."

17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

And when the "child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, "My head, my head." And he said to a lad, "Carry him to his mother."

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the 9 man of 9 God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her 9 husband, and said, "Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the 9 man of 9 God, and come again."

23 And he said, "Wherefore wilt thou go to him to-day? is it neither new moon, nor sabbath." And she said, "It shall be well."

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, "Drive, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee."

25 So she went and came unto the 9 man of 9 God to mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the 9 man of 9 God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his 9 servant, 9 Behold, yonder is that Shunammite:

26 Run "now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, 'Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the 9 child?'" And she answered, "It is well."

27 And when she came to the "man of 9 God to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the "man of 9 God said, "Let her alone; for her soul is vexed within her: and the 9 Lord hath hid it from me, and hath not told me."

28 Then she said, "'Did I desire a son of my lord? ' did I not say, 'Do not 'deceive me? '"

29 Then he 9 said to Gehazi, "Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thus way: if thou meet any 9 man, 9 salute him not; and if 9 any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the 9 child."

30 And the mother of the 9 child said, "As 9 the 9 Lord liveth, and as "thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee." And he arose, and followed her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the 9 child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, "The 9 child is not awakened."

32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the 9 child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them two, and prayed unto 9 the Lord.

34 And he went up, and lay upon the 18 child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the 18 child; and the flesh of the 18 child waxed warm.

35 Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the 18 child sneezed seven times, and the 18 child opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehazi, and said, "Call this Shunammite." So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, "'Take up thy 9 son."'

37 Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

38 And Elisha came again to Gilgal: and

5. 10

1 Now "Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria," was a great man with his master, and honourable, because "by him" the Lord had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife.

3 And she said unto her mistress, "Would God my lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he would recover of his leprosy." And one went in, and told his lord saying, "Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel." And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment.

4 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, "Now when this letter is come unto thee, I have sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover of his leprosy." And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray thee, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me."

5 And it was so, when Elisha the man of

'God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.'

9 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, "Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean."

495
11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, "Behold, I thought, he will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper."

12 "Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, "My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, 'Wash, and be clean'?"

14 Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the "man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

15 And he returned to the man of God, and all his company, and came, and stood before him;

16 and he said, "Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take of thy servants two mules' burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD."

17 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the "LORD pardon thy servant for this thing.""

18 And he said unto him, "Go in peace." So he departed from him a little way.

20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha, the man of God, said, "Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him."

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?"

22 And he said, "All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, "Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments.'"

23 And Naaman said, "Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him.

24 And when he came to the tower, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, "Whence comest thou, Gehazi?" And he said, "Thy servants went no whither.

26 And he said unto him, "Went not my heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants?

27 The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever." And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

24 And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver.

26 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king." And he said, "If the Lord do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the barnfloor, or out of the winepress?"

28 And the king said unto her, "What aileth thee?" And she answered, "This woman said unto me, 'Give thy son, that we may eat him to day, and we will eat my son to morrow.'"

29 So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I spake unto her the same day, 'Give thy son, that we may eat him to day,' and she hath hid her son.

30 And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the People looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth upon his flesh.

31 Then he said, "Go, and tell Elisha the son of Shaphat, shall stand on him this day."

32 But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him; and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "See ye how this son of a murderer hath sent to take away mine head? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold (not at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

33 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him: and he said, "Behold, this evil is of the Lord; what should I wait for the Lord any longer?"

8 And when these lepers came to the 10uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence 11also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said one to another, 12we do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, some 13mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household."

10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, 14"We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, 15behold, there was no 16man there, neither voice of 17man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and 18the tents
"as they were."

11 And 19he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, 20"I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.'"

13 And one of his servants answered and said,
"Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, 21be-hold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: 22behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed;) and let us send and see."

14 They took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, 23"Go and see."

15 And they went after them unto Jordan: 24and, 25lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 And the People went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a 1measure of fine flour was sold for a 2shekel, and two 3measures of barley for a 4shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

17 And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he 5leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the People trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the 6man of 7God had said, who spake when the 8king came down to him.

8. 21.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, “Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.”

7 And Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, “The 2 man of 2 God is come hither.”

8 And the king said unto 6 Hazael, “Take a present in thine hand, and go, meet the 2 man of 2 God, and enquire of 1 the Lord by him, saying, ‘Shall I recover of this disease?’”

9 And Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of 2 every good thing of Damascus, forty camels’ burden, and came and stood before him, and said, “Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, ‘Shall I recover of this disease?’”

10 And Elisha said unto him, “Go, say unto him, ‘Thou mayest certainly recover; howbeit 1 the Lord hath shewed me that he shall surely die.’

11 And he settled his countenance steadfastly, until 6 he was ashamed: and the 2 man of 2 God wept.

12 And Hazael said, “Why weepeth my lord?” And he answered, “Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto me. Behold, 1 thy daughter is 2 my lord’s daughter.”

13 And Hazael said, “But what, 6 thy servant 6 a dog, that he should do this great thing?” And Elisha answered, 1 “The Lord hath shewed me that 6th shalt be king over Syria.”

14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, “What said Elisha to thee?” And he answered, “He told me 6 that thou shouldst surely recover.”

15 And 6 it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it 6 in water, and spread it 6 on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, 6 Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah 6 began to reign.

17 Thirty and two years old was he when he 6 began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, 6 as did the house of Ahab: for the 4 daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he 6 did evil in the sight of 6 the Lord.

And he said, “Thus saith the LORD: ‘I have anointed thee king over Israel.’”

13 Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him upon the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, “Jehu is king.”

14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram.

15 But king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.

16 And Jehu said, “If it be your minds, then let none go forth nor escape out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel.”

17 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.

18 And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, “I see a company.” And Joram said, “Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, ‘Is it peace?’”

19 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, “Thou saith the king, ‘Is it peace?’” And Jehu said, “What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.” And the watchman told, saying, “The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.”

20 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, “Thus saith the king, ‘Is it peace?’” And Jehu answered, “What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.”

21 And Joram said, “Make ready.” And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Nabor the Jezreelite.

22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, “Is it peace, Jehu?” And he answered, “What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many?”

23 And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, “There is treachery, O Ahaziah.”

24 And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, “Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when Joram and Ahaziah rode together after Ahaziah’s father, the LORD laid this burden upon him:

31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, “Had Zimri peace, who slew his master?”
32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, “Who is on my side? who?” And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs.
33 And he said, “Throw her down.” So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot.
34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, “Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king’s daughter.”
35 And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.
36 Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, “This is the word of the Lord, which He spake by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel;
37 And the carcasse of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, ‘This is Jezebel.’”

10 And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to them that brought up Ahab’s children, saying,
2 “Now as soon as this letter cometh to thee, seeing thy master’s sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour;
3 Look even out the best and meetest of your master’s sons, and set him on his father’s throne, and fight for thy master’s house.”
4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, “Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand?”
5 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, “We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.”
6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, “If ye be mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master’s sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time.” Now the king’s sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up.
7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king’s sons, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel.
8 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, “They have brought the heads of the king’s sons.” And he said, “Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning.”
9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, “Ye are righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these?
10 Know now that there shall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the Lord, which the Lord spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the Lord hath done that which He spake by His servant Elijah.”
11 So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kinsfolks, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.
12 And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the shearing house in the way,
13 Jehu met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, “Who are ye?” And they answered, “We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen.”
14 And he said, “Take them alive.” And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them.
15 And when he was departed thence, he met on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him: and he saluted him, and said to him, “Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart?” And Jehonadab answered,

And he said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." So they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of 16 the LORD, which He spake to Elijah.

18 And Jehu gathered all the People together, and said unto them, "Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu shall serve him much.

19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live." But Jehu did it in subtility, to destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, "Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal." And they proclaimed it.

21 And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was full from one end to another.

22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, "Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal." And he brought them forth vestments.

23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, "Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only."

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore 21 men without, and said, "If any of the men whom 3 have brought into your hands escape, he let that him go, his 5 life shall be for the life of him."

25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, "Go in, and slay them; let none come forth." And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal.

26 And they brought forth the images out of the house of Baal, and burned them.

27 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it a draught house unto this day.

28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who 1 made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, 2 to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were 4 in Dan.

30 And 10 the LORD said unto Jehu, "Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in Mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in Mine heart, thy 13 children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel."

31 But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD; and became not such as 22 the heart of Jehoahaz his father, that went not after the sins of Jeroboam, which 27 made Israel to sin.

32 In those days 10 the LORD began to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel;

33 From Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan.

34 Now 9 the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 43 And Jehu slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.

36 And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

2 1 second year of Joash. According to 13. 10, Joash (king of Israel) began to reign in the thirty-seventh year of Joash (king of Judah). If Amaziah began in the second year of Josiah (king of Israel), he would have reigned only thirty-nine years. But he reigned forty (12. 1). All depends on mode of reckoning from Nisan, and counting parts of years for complete years. This would at once explain the difference. See Ap. 50. V. p. 58. 7 He slew. The account in Chronicles supplies additional particulars. See 2 Chron. 25. 5-11.

6 But the children of the murderers he slew not; according unto that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, wherein 5 the LORD commanded, saying, ‘The fathers shall not be put to death for the children; nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.”

7 8’slue of Edom in the valley of salt ten thousand, and took Selah by war, and called the name of it Joktheel unto this day.
8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoa-haz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us "look one another in the face."

9 And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give thy daughter to my son to wife; and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle."

10 Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thine heart hath lifted thee up; glory of this, and tarry at home: for why shouldst thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?"

11 But Amaziah would not hear. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.

12 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents.

13 And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, the son of Amasiah, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim unto the corner gate, four hundred cubits.

14 And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

17 And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash king of Israel fifteen years.

18 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 Now they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish; and slew him there.

20 And they brought him on horses: and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

21 And all the people of Judah took Azariah, which was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

22 Azr built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned forty and one years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 Azr restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath unto the sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which He spake by the hand of His servant Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, which was of Gath-hepher.

29 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zachariah his son reigned in his stead.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done;

4 So Save that the high places were not removed: the People sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places.

5 And the LORD smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a 'several house'. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the People of the land.

6 And 'the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?' 7 So Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

8 In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah did Zachariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria six months.

9 And he did 'that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.'

Hence, there were thirteen years interregnum (16-3 = 13). Amaziah died in the fourteenth year of Jeroboam. Therefore Azariah began to reign in the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam (18 + 14 = 32). 2 Twenty years old...sixteen. There is no reason for concluding that “there must be an error in one of the passages” (vms. 16. 2 and 18. 2), for Ahaz begins in 622 and reigns till 616. As he was twenty when he began, he was born in 652, and died when thirty-six. Hezekiah begins in 617, and reigns twenty-nine years, till 688. As he was twenty-five when he began he was therefore born in 642, and died when he was fifty-four. From this it is clear that Ahaz was between ten and eleven when his son Hezekiah was born. This sounds improbable only to Western ears. But, to Eastern ears and physiological phenomena, there is nothing unusual, and nothing to justify a conclusion that the text is corrupt—the usual excuse for ignorance of the facts. The LORD. Heb. Rezin and Pekah both attacked directly after his accession (successfully). But they Confederated unsuccessfully, came up. Hence the solemn warnings of Isa. 8. 13, 14, 19.

11 And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon.

13 And he burnt his burnt offering 12 and his meat offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, upon the altar.

14 And he brought also the "bran altar, which was before 2 the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between 1 the altar and the house of the LORD, 12 and put it on the north side of the altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the "bran altars burn the morning burnt offering, 13 and the evening meat offering, and the king's burnt sacrifice, and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the bran altar shall be for me "to enquire by."

16 Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

17 And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the "laver from off them; and took down the sea from off the bran oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones.

II. KINGS.

6 6 In the ninth year of Hoshea the 7 king of Assyria, 8 took Samaria, and 9 carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in 10 Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 For so it was, that the 7 children of Israel had 2 sinned against 3 the LORD their 4 God, Which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,

And walked in the statutes of the 5 heathen, whom 2 the LORD cast out from before the 7 children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

And the 7 children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against 3 the LORD their 4 God, and they built them high places in all their cities, 3 from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

And they set up 7 images and 8 groves in high hill and under every green tree:

And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom 2 the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke 3 the LORD to anger:

For they served 2 idols, whereof 3 the LORD had said unto them, "Ye shall not do this thing."

And they hardened their necks, 3 like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in 2 the LORD their 4 God. And they rejected 3 His covenant that He made with their fathers, and His testimonies which He testified against them; and they followed 7 vanity, and became vain after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom 2 the LORD had charged 3 them, that they should not do like them.

And they left all the commandments of 3 the LORD their 4 God, 5 and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a 10 grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

And they caused their sons 11 and their daughters 11 to 12 pass through the fire, and used 3 divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do 12 evil in the sight of 2 the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

Therefore 2 the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of 3 Judah only.

Also Judah kept not the commandments of 3 the LORD their 4 God, 5 but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

And 3 the LORD rejected 3 all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until He had cast them out of His sight.

And they left all the commandments of 3 the LORD their 4 God, 5 and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a 10 grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

And they caused their sons 11 and their daughters 11 to 12 pass through the fire, and used 3 divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do 12 evil in the sight of 2 the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

Therefore 2 the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of 3 Judah only.

Also Judah kept not the commandments of 3 the LORD their 4 God, 5 but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

And 3 the LORD rejected 3 all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until He had cast them out of His sight.

2 For He rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king; and Jeroboam drave Israel from following 2 the LORD, and 3 made them 3 sin a great sin.

x 4 For the 7 children of Israel walked in all the 7 sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;
23 Until the Lord removed Israel out of His sight, "as He had said by all His servants the prophets."

So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day. And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Hamath, and from Ava, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the Lord: therefore the Lord sent lions among them, which slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore He hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land."

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land."

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the Lord.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein the Lord dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made Succothbenoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima.

31 And the Avites made Taras, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared the Lord, and made unto themselves one of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared the Lord, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence.

34 Unto this day they do after the former manner: they fear not the Lord, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses.

35 With whom the Lord had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, "Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But the Lord, Who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, Who shall ye fear, and Who shall ye worship, and to Who shall ye do sacrifice?

37 And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, "which He wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods.

39 But the Lord your God shall ye fear; and He shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies."

40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations feared the Lord, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: "as did their fathers, so do they unto this day."

18 Now it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

and from the 3 pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave 2 of it to the king of Assyria.

17 And the 3 king of Assyria 4 sent 5 Tartan and Rab-saris and 6 Rab-shakeh from 7 Lachish to king Hezekiah with a 8 great host 9 against Jerusalem. And they went up and came 10 to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the 11 upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the 2 households, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

19 And 9 Rab-shakeh said unto them, 10 Speak ye now to Hezekiah, 11 Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, 12 What confidence is this wherein thou 13 trustest?

20 Thou sayest, 14 but they are but 15 vain words, I have counsel and strength for the war. Now 16 on whom dost thou 17 trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Now, 18 behold, thou 19 trustest upon the staff of this 20 bruised reed, 21 even upon Egypt, on which if a 22 man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh 23 king of Egypt unto all that 24 trust on him.

22 But 25 if ye say unto me, 26 We 27 trust in the LORD our 28 God; 15 is not that 30 of the Nodes, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 10 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy 32 trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am I now come up without 33 the LORD against this place to destroy it? 3 The LORD said to me, 34 Go up against this land, and destroy it.' 35

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, 36 Say,
I pray thee, to thy servants, this 37 king of Assyria, 38 Thus saith I, 39 and speak not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, 40 Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? 41 hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with thee? 42

28 Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, 43 Hear the 5 word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, 44 Let not Hezekiah 45 deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver 46 of out of 47 his hand:

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you 48 trust in the LORD, saying, 49 The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

31 Hearken not to Hezekiah: 50 for thus saith the king of Assyria, 51 Make an agreement with me by a present, and 52 come out to me, and then eat ye 53 every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern:

32 Until I come and take you away to 55 a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, 'The LORD will deliver us.'

33 Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? Have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?"

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not: for the king's commandment was, saying, "Answer him not,"

37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to 'Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, "Thus saith Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to 'reproach the living God'; and will reprove the words which the LORD hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that are left.'"

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And 'Isaiah said unto them, "Thus shall ye say to your master, 'Thus saith the LORD, "Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.'"

7 "Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

8 So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And when he heard say of 'Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "Behold, he is come out to fight against thee;' he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

10 "Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, "Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, 'Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.'"

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of doms of the earth; so thou hast made heaven and earth.
16 LORD, bow down Thine ear, and hear: open,
17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, and have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men’s hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.
19 Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech thee, save Thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that there art but the LORD God, even Thou only.'

20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, That which thou hast prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard.'

21 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him:
22 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? And against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? Even against the Holy One of Israel.
23 By thy messengers thou hast reproached the LORD, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, To the sides of Lebanon, And will cut down the tall cedar trees thereof, And the choice fir trees thereof: And I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, And into the forest of his Carmel.
24 Have digged and drunk strange waters, And with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places.'
25 Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it, And of ancient times that I have formed it? Now have I brought it to pass, That thou shouldst be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps.
26 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, They were dismayed and confounded; They were as the grass of the field, And as the green herb, as the grass on the house tops, And as corn blasted before it be grown up.
27 But I know thy abode, And thy going out, and thy coming in, And thy rage against Me.
28 Because thy rage against Me and thy tumult is come up into Mine ears, Therefore I will put My hook in thy nose, And My bridle in thy lips, And I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.'

29 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year which thou hast made heaven and earth. CP. GEN. 1. 1. Hezekiah, in his "Songs of the degrees", repeats this phrase as witnessing to the power of God, as Creator, to defeat the enemy. See Ps. 121. 1, 2; 125. 1; 124. 8; 134. 3. See Ap. 67. v.

33 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city,' saith the LORD.
34 For I will defend this city, to save it, for Mine own sake, and for My servant David’s sake."
35 And it came to pass that night, that the Angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, he beheld, they were all dead corpses.
36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.
37 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of "Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer "his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of "Armenia. And "Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

20 In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, "Thus saith the LORD, "Set thine house in order; for thou shalt "die, and not live."

2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying, "3 "I beseech thee, O LORD, remember now how I have "walked before Thee in truth and with "a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in Thy sight." And Hezekiah "wept sore.

4 And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle court, that the word of "the LORD came to him, saying, "5 "Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of My people, Thus saith the LORD, the "God of David thy father, "I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: "behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up into the house of the "LORD.

6 And I will add unto thee days "fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will "defend this city for Mine own sake, and for "My servant David's sake."

7 And Isaiah said, "Take a "lump of figs." And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, ""What shall be the sign that "the LORD will heal me, and that I shall "go up into the house of "the LORD the third day?"

9 And Isaiah said, "This sign shalt thou have of "the LORD, that "the LORD will do the thing that He hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten "degrees, or go back ten "degrees?"

10 And Hezekiah answered, "It is a light thing for the shadow to go "down ten "degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten "degrees."

22. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.

3. For he built up again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

4. And he built altars in the house of the Lord, of which the Lord said, "In Jerusalem will I put My name."

Generally associated with idolatry, the Lord is the high places. Restoring what his father had destroyed (18, 16, 16). A prophecy, given at the time of Hezekiah, foretelling a happier event; even the "good" of 20, 16, and note.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

7 And he set a graven image of the grove beside Fig. 21. Events. Cp. 588. the grove that he had made in the house, of which the LORD said to David, and to Solomons his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put My name for ever:

8 Neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that "My servant Moses commanded them."

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake by His servants the prophets, saying,

11 "Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his idols: 12 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle.

13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

14 And I will forsake the remnant of Mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies;

15 Because they have done that which was evil in My sight, and have provoked Me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.'"

16 Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

17 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

19 Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotham.

20 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh did.

21 And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them:

22 And he forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD.

23 And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.

24 And the People of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the People of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

II. KINGS.

22 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath.

And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

3 And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, "that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullem, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying,

4 "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the door have gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house,

6 Unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair "the house."

7 Howbeit there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

8 And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, "I have found "the book of the law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the word again, and said, "Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD."

10 And Shaphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

11 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that "he rent his clothes.

12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and "Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and "Achanbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying,

13 "Go ye, enquire of the L ORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great words.

12 Ahikam. The friend of Jeremiah (Jer. 26. 24) and father of Gedaliah (cp. 25. 22. Jer. 39. 14; 40. 1). See note on "Shaphan" (v. 2). Achanbor. Not the same person as Abdon, in 2 Chron. 34. 20. The two books are independent. 13 and for all Judah. Some codices, with two early printed editions, read "and for the remnant in Israel and in Judah."
513 is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that is written concerning us."

12 And Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; and she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college; and they communed with her.

15 And she said unto them, "Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, 'Tell the man that sent you to me, 16 Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, 'As touching the words which thou hast heard; 17 Because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore My wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.'"

18 But to the king of Judah which sent thee to enquire of the Lord, thus shall ye say to him, 'Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, 19 "As touching the words which thou hast heard; 20 Because then heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the Lord, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before Me; 3 also have heard thee," saith the Lord."

21 Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt gather into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place."

22 And the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.

23 And the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.

2 And the king went up into the house of the Lord, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the People, both small and great:

3 And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the People stood to the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the doors, to bring forth out of the temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and 14 the prophetess. Others mentioned are: Miriam (Ex. 15. 26, Mic. 6. 4); Deborah (Judg. 4. 4); Noadiah (Neh. 6. 14); Isaiah's wife (Isa. 8. 3); Anna (Luke 2. 36); and Philip's daughters (Acts 21. 9).

the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people.

7 And he brake down the houses of the sodomites, that were by the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the grove.

8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.

9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren.

10 And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech.

11 And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain, which was in the suburbs, and burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and brake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.

13 And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Moloch the abomination of the Moabites, and for Chemosh the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.

14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burned the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove.

16 And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.

17 Then he said, "What title is that that I see?" And the men of the city told him, "It is the sepulchre of the man of God which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Bethel."

18 And he said, "Let him alone; let no man move his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria.

19 And all the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel.

20 And he slew all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burned men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem."

22 Surely there was 21 not holden such a pass-

Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, or of the kings of Judah;
23 But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this passover was holden to 23 the LORD in Jerusalem.

24 Moreover the workers with 24 familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the 25 images, and the 26 idols, and all the abominations that were spred in the land of Judah and in Jeru-before him, that turned to 2 the LORD with all his heart, and with all his 28 soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any 29 like him.

26 Notwithstanding 2 the LORD turned not from the fierceness of His great wrath, wherewith His anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations that Manasseh had provoked Him withal.
27 And 30 the LORD said, "I will remove Judah also out of My sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said,
'My Name shall be there.'"

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, 31 are not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29 In his days 32 Pharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up against 33 the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah 34 went against him; and 35 he slew him at 36 Megiddo, when he had 37 seen him.

fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bands at Riblah in the land of Hamath, 40 that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of an hundred 41 talents of silver, and a 42 talent of gold.

34 And Pharaoh-nechoh made 43 Eliakim the son of Josiah king 44 in the room of Josiah his father, and turned his name to Jehoahaz, and took Jehoahaz away: and he came to Egypt, and 45 died there.

35 And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he 46 taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the People of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

37 And he 2 did that which was 3 evil in the sight of 4 the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

24 In his days 5 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon 6 came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years; then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And 4 the LORD sent against him 5 bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the 6 children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the covenant of 7 the LORD, which he spake by his servants the prophets.

3 Surely at the 8 commandment of 9 the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, 10 according to all that he did;

4 And also for the innocent 11 blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which 12 the LORD would not pardon.

5 Now 13 the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 14

6 So Jehoiakim 15 slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

7 And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land:

8 for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

8 16 Jehoiachin was 17 eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem 18 three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

9 And he did that which was 19 evil in the sight of 20 the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

10 At that time 21 the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants 22 did besiege it.

12 And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, 6 to, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his 23 officers:

2 and the king of Babylon took him in 24 the eighth year of his reign.

13 And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of 25 the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of 26 the LORD, as 27 the LORD 28 had said.

14 And he 29 carried away all Jerusalem, 11 and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the wives, and his 12 officers, and the mighty of the land. Those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

In the fourth year of Jehoiakim (Jer. 25. 1; 46. 2). Daniel says in third year (1. 1); but he writes from Babylon, whence Nebuchadnezzar set out, and here (cp. Jer. 46. 2), it refers to the actual coming. The Babylonian Servitude begins here (486 to 429 B.C.).

16 And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and 14 craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his father’s brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

20 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from His presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

25 And it came to pass, in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, with all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about.

And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

3 And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the People of the land.

And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army were scattered from him.

So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment upon him.

And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass,

And carried him to Babylon.

And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:

And he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king’s house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man’s house burnt he with fire.

10 And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

11 Now the rest of the People that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away.

12 But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.

13 And the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brased sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

14 And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

15 And the firepans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

16 The two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the height of the chapter three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work.

18 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

19 And out of the city he took an officer that was set over the men of war, and five men of them that were in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the host, which ministered of the people of the land, and threescore men of the People of the land that were found in the city:

20 And Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah:

21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath.

22 And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler.

23 And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

24 And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, "Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you."

25 But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah.

26 And all the People, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

27 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison; and he spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon;
29 And changed his prison garments: and he did eat bread continually before him all the days of his life.
30 And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

This chapter, compared with the last chapter of Jeremiah, points to his authorship. The (one) book of Kings brings the history of Israel and Judah down to the Captivity, and ends there. See the Structure, p. 413. The (one) book of Chronicles begins from Adam, and leads on from the Captivity to the book of Ezra-Nehemiah.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES.

1 Adam, Sheth, Enosh,
2 Kenan, Mahalaleel, Jared,
3 Henoch, Methuselah, Lamech,
4 Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

5 The sons of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.
6 And the sons of Gomer: Ashchenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.
7 And the sons of Javan: Eliashib, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

8 The sons of Ham: Cush, and Mizraim, Put, and Canaan.
9 And the sons of Cush: Seba, and Havilah, and Sabta, and Raamah, and Sabtecha. And the sons of Raamah: Sheba, and Dedan.
10 And Cush begat Nimrod; by him began to be mighty upon the earth.
11 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim.
12 And Pathrusim, and Casluhim, and (of whom came the Philistines,) and Caphtorim.
13 And Canaan begat Zidon his firstborn, and Heth.

17 The sons of Shem: Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram, and Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Meshech.
18 And Arphaxad begat Shelah, and Shelah begat Eber.
19 And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg; because in his days the earth was divided: and his brother's name was Joktan.
20 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah.
21 Hadoram also, and Uzal, and Diaph, and Ebal, and Abimael, and Sheba, 22 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.

24 Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah,

4 Shem. Cp. Gen. 5:32; 10:21. In cases where there are several sons of one father, the collateral are dealt with first, and the main line taken up later. Hence Shem's main line is not dealt with till v. 24, after the sons of Japheth and Ham have been given.
5 Japheth. Cp. Gen. 10:2, &c. 6 Riphath. Some codices, with four early printed editions, Syr, and Vulg., read "Riphath"); others "Raphath," owing to Heb. ט"כ (D) and ט"כ (R). 7 Dodanim, or Rodanim. See above note. 8 Cush. Recent discoveries at Periorm, in Cappadocia, show that the Babylonians called Cappadocia Kus. The great king of the Hittites had his palace there, and was called "king of Kus." The river Gihon (classic, Piramnus) flows into the Mediterranean. Cp. Gen. 10:6, 7. Is. 11:11. 10 Nimrod. Cp. Gen. 10:8. 11 Javan. Cp. Gen. 10:10. 12 Uz. . . Meshech were sons of Aram (Shem's youngest son). No error, for grandsons are often reckoned, by descent, as sons. See Laban (Gen. 29:5), Mephibosheth (2 Sam. 19:24). 13 Peleg. It is assumed that we are acquainted with Genesis, and shall supply the links dealt with here with such brevity. 19 Peleg—disruption. Isaac; Esau and Israel.

1896-1836

The sons of Esau:

Eliphaz, Reuel, and Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.

The sons of Eliphaz: Teman, and Omar, Ziph, and Gatam, Kenaz, and Timna, and Amalek.

The sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

And the sons of Seir: Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezar, and Dishan.

And the sons of Lotan; Hori, and Homam: and Timna was Lotan's sister.

The sons of Shobal: Alian, and Manahath, and Ebal, and Shephish, and Onam.

And the sons of Zibeon: Aiah, and Anah.

The sons of Anah: Dishon. And the sons of Dishon; Amram, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

The sons of Ezer: Bilhan, and Zavan, and Jakan, and Zekan.

The sons of Dishan; Uz, and Aran.

43 Now these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel; Bela the son of Beor: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.
44 And when Bela was dead, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.
45 And when Jobab was dead, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead.
46 And when Husham was dead, Hadad, the son of Bedad, which smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Avith.
47 And when Hadad was dead, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.
48 And when Samlah was dead, Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.
49 And when Shaul was dead, Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.
50 And when Baal-hanan was dead, Hadad reigned in his stead; and the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Meza-hab.
51 Hadad died also.

And the sons of Edom were; duke Timnah, duke *Aliah, duke Jeteth,
4 And "Tamar his daughter in law bare him Pharez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five.
5 The sons of "Pharez; Hezron, and Hamul.
6 And the sons of Zerah; Zimri, and Ethan, and Heman, and Calcol, and Dara: five of them in all.
7 And the "sons of Carmi; "Achar, the troubler of Israel, who transgressed in the thing accursed.
8 And the "sons of Ethan; Azariah.
9 The sons also of Hezron, that were born unto him; Jerahmeel, and "Ram, and "Chelubai.
10 And Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat "Naahshon, prince of the "children of Judah;
11 And Naahshon begat "Salma, and Salma begat Boaz, 12 And Boaz begat Obed, and Obed begat Jesse.

13 And Jesse begat his firstborn Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shimma the third,
14 And Nathan the fourth, Raddai the fifth,
15 Ozem the sixth, "David the seventh;
16 Whose sisters were "Zeruiah, and Abigail.
And the sons of Zeruiah; Abishai, and Joab, and Asahel, three.
17 And Abigail bare Amasa: and the father of Amasa was "Jether the Ishmeelite.
18 And "Caleb the son of Hezron begat children of Azubah his wife, and of Jerioth: her sons are these; Jesher, and Shobab, and Ardon.
19 And when Azubah was dead, Caleb took unto him Ephrath, which bare him Hur.
20 And Hur begat Uri, and Uri begat "Beza-leel.
21 And afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of "Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was threescore years old; and she bare him Segub.
22 And Segub begat Jair, who had "three and twenty cities in the land of Gilead.
23 And he took "Geshur, and Aram, with the towns of Jair, from "them, with Kenath, and the towns thereof, even "threescore cities. All these belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.
24 And after that Hezron was "dead in Caleb-ephrahath, then Abiah Hezron's wife bare him Ashur the father of Tekoa.
25 And the sons of "Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were, Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, "and Ahijah.
26 Jerahmeel had also another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.
27 And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were, Maaaz, and Jamin, and Eker.
28 And the sons of Onam were, Shammi, and Jada. And the sons of Shammi; Nadab, and Abishur.
29 And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bare him Ahban, and Molid.
30 And the sons of Nadab; Seled, and Appaim: but Seled died without children.
31 And the "sons of Appaim; Ishi. And the "sons of Ishi; Sheshan. And the "children of Sheshan; Ahlai.

6 sons. Put for "son" by Fig. Synecdoche (of Genus) Ap. 6.
7 Ethan. Not the same person as "Ethan the Ezrahithe" (1 Kings 4, 21), who was probably a Levite (see 1 Chron. 6, 27-29; 15, 17-19), and not of Judah, as the Heman and Ethan here.
9 Nahash. He led the van of Israel at the Exodus. Cp. Num. 2, 5, 9.
10 children = sons.

2, 13-55 (Cp., p. 531). COLLATERAL. (Division.)
11 Thirteenth to fiftieth genealogy.
12 Jesse's posternity.
13 Caleb, son of Hezron.
14 Caleb's children.
15 Caleb, the son of Hezron's eldest son.
16 Caleb, the son of Hezron's eldest son, which was one of the two sons of Judah.
17 Jether, the father of Jesse's wife, Abigail.
18 Caleb, the son of Hezron.
19 Caleb, the son of Hezron, who begat eight sons (1 Sam. 18, 1-32; and 17, 12-14). Here seven are numbered and named, and David is the seventh and the youngest; the eighth may have died young and left no issue. While it was proper to mention the eight in the history, it is unnecessary to do so in the genealogy.
20 Caleb, whom David took by force (1 Sam. 19, 24).
21 Machir, the son of Goiabeh, who was the husband of Caleb's daughter.
22 and twenty. Increased afterward to thirty (Judg. 10, 4).
23 Geshur. North-east of Bashan (Deut. 3, 14. Josh. 12, 5. 2 Sam. 15, 8).
24 dead in Caleb-ephrahath. Some wrongly affirm that this grandson of Judah must have died in Egypt. True, Hezron lived in Egypt, but did no one ever have Egypt? Had he not heard of Abraham's sepulture and Jacob's funeral? Had he no faith and no thoughts of God's promises? The difficulty is created gratuitously. His death there gave the name to the place, afterward called Beth-Lehem.
26 three and twenty. Increased afterward to thirty (Judg. 10, 4).
27 Jether. Cp. 1 Sam. 17, 26 (marg.). Another name was Ishra.
28 Caleb the son of Hezron. The ancestor of "Caleb the son of Jephunneh" (Num. 13, 6, 30; 14, 6, 24; 32, 12; 34, 19. Josh. 14, 6, 14), who is distinguished from this Caleb in 4, 15. This shows the present genealogy to be independent.
30 Beza-leel. Gifted for the construction of the Tabernacle (Ex. 31, 2; 35, 30; 86, 2; 87, 1). This proves those to be wrong who assume that the Caleb of c. 18 is the same as Caleb the son of Jephunneh, (Beza-leel's great-grandfather), thus creating their own difficulty.
32 and twenty. Increased afterward to thirty (Judg. 10, 4).

32 And the sons of Jada the brother of Shammai; Jether, and Jonathan: and Jether died without children.

533
33 And the sons of Jonathan; Peleth, and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

34 Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. And Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarah. And Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarah his servant to wife; and she bare him Attai.

35 And Attai begat Nathan, and Nathan begat Zabud.

36 And Zabud begat Ephraim, and Ephraim begat Obed, and Obed begat Jehu, and Jehu begat Azariah.

37 And Azariah begat Helez, and Helez begat Eliahah.

38 And Eliahah begat Sisamai, and Sisamai begat Shallum, and Shallum begat Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begat Elahah.

40 Now the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were, Mesha his firstborn, and Joel; and the sons of Caleb were, the sons of Basemath the wife of Caleb, her second son named Seraiah, and his third son named Jamin, and the fourth son named Kezirah.

42 And Caleb's concubine, born to him in Hebron, his concubine, bore him a son named Iphaal, and his concubine, born to him in Hebron, bore him a concubine named Tippah, and her concubine, born to her in Hebron, bore him a concubine named Rekem, and the concubine, born to her in Hebron, bore him a concubine named Jarcha.

50 These were the sons of Caleb the son of Hur, the first born of Ephrathah; Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim, and the half of the Manahathites, and the families of Kiriath-jearim, the Horites, the Pribites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishrathites; of them came the Zareathites, the Eshtaulites, and the Zobathites.

54 The sons of Salma; Beth-lehem, Netophath, and Aterath, the house of Joab, and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites.

55 And the families of the scribes which dwelt at Jabez; the Tirimathites, the Shimeathites, and the Siphaathites; these are the Kenites that came of Hamath, the father of the house of Rechab.

56 Now these were the sons of David, which were born unto him in Hebron; the firstborn Amnon, of Ahinoam of Jezreel; the second Daniel, of Abigail of Carmel; the third Absalom; the fourth of Maachah, the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fifth, Adonijah; the sixth, Shamgar; the seventh, Shebuel, the eighth, Eliphelet; the ninth, Eliphelet, the tenth, Jeuel; the eleventh, Jashua, the twelfth, Shelemiah; the thirteenth, Shattuah; the fourteenth, Absi. The chief officers were twenty and three, according to their lineages.

57 And these were their dwelling places; the Mesheites, the Zabulonites, the Hebronites, the Jahathites, the netophathites, the Kiriathites, the Siphaathites, the Tirmathites.

58 And Caleb the son of Hezron reigned in Hebron forty years. And he died in Hebron, and he was buried in the tomb of his father in the field of Achsah.

59 And Othniel, the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, had taken for his wife Hetzron, the daughter of the son of Harum. And he had sons, Zerah anduben Anak; and five sons of Anak were born unto him.

60 The sons of Caleb the son of Hezron were, Iphaal the father of the Menahites, and the houses of Hebron, Othniel, and Simeon, and Jada, and Joel, and Ahiebron, and Jera骺.

5. 1.  I. CHRONICLES.  5. 25.

5 Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, for his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright.

2 For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's.

3 The sons, say, of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezon, and Carmi.

4 The sons of Joel; Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son.

5 Micah his son, Reaia his son, Baal his son.

6 Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites.

7 And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned, were the chief, Jeiel, and Zerahiah.

8 And Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Oraer, even unto Neba and Baal-peon:

9 And eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Eufrates: because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead.

10 And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand: and they dwelt in their tents throughout all the east land of Gilead.

11 And the children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of Bashan unto Salcah:

12 Joel the chief, and Shapham the next, and Jaaalai, and Shaphat in Bashan.

13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were, Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven.

14 These are the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, upon their borders.

17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skillful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the war.

19 And they made war with the Hagrites, with Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab.

20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and He was intreated of them; because they put their trust in Him.

21 And they took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of men an hundred thousand.

birthright. See note on Gen. 35. 31.

2 Judah prevailed. Cp. Gen. 49. 8, referring to intertribal precedence.

came. Supply Fig. Ellipsis (Ap. 6) with "is", chief ruler. Referring to the regal line, and the coming of the Messiah. A. V., 1611, had "rulers".

2 carried away. This was the first carrying away, and took place in 724. Cp. 25. 2. The second was by Tiglath-Pileser (pul) in the reign of Pekah (649-629).

This was the Galilee-Naphthalite carrying away (2 Kings 15. 29. Isa. 9. 1) referred to in Matt. 4. 15. The third was the Samaria deportation in the ninth year of Hezekiah (642-631 B.C.), and ended the kingdom of Israel (2 Kings 17. 3-23; 18. 9-12). It was begun by Shalmanasar and ended by Sargon (618-611).

Aaz. Some codices, with four early printed editions, read "Azn", or "Aznz".

Aroer. Nebo. Baal-meen. All east of Dead Sea. See Num. 32. 34, 35. Deut. 2. 36.

10 Hagarites. Tracing their descent from Hagar through Ishmael. Cp. 7. 19 with 1. 31, and Ps. 83. 11 children = sons.

13 Heber. Some codices, with two early printed editions and Sept., read "Hebed", mistaking Resh, כ in Dageeth, כ in ח.

16 in Gilead: i.e. in part of it, other parts having been allotted to the half-tribes of Reubenites and Manassites (Num. 32. 39-46. Deut. 3. 13. Josh. 13. 34).

18 valiant men = sons of valour.

men. Heb. 'enosh. Ap. 14. 11. These two and a half tribes, east of Jordan, chose their own portions, but were nearest to the enemy, and were the first to be carried away. Cp. Lot, Gen. 13. 12, 11, 14. 11. Better to have our "lot" chosen for us by Jehovah (Gen. 13. 14. 10).

20 helped: i.e. by God (2 Chron. 32. 17. Ps. 28. 7), This victory should have shown them that there could have been no captivity had they obeyed God (see note on 4. 43).

22 until the captivity. Cp. 2 Kings 15. 29; 17. 6; 18. 9-12: i.e. that of Tiglath-pileser.

23 half: i.e. the half beyond Jordan.

25 transgressed = acted faithlessly. Ap. 44. xi.

people = peoples.

22 For there fell down many slain, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their steads until the captivity.

23 And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land: (fig increased from Bashan unto Baal-hermon and Senir, and unto mount Hermon.

24 And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Epher, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdai, "mighty men of valour, famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers.

25 And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them.
I. CHRONICLES.

26 And the "God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul, king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried away the Remonites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto Halach, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, unto this day.

6 The sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

2 And the sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.

3 And the children of Amram; Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam. The sons also of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Itamar.

4 Eleazar begat Phinehas, and Phinehas begat Abishua,

5 And Abishua begat Bukki, and Bukki begat Uzzi,

6 And Uzzi begat Zerahiah, and Zerahiah begat Meraioth,

7 Meraioth begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Ahitub,

8 And Ahitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Ahimaaz,

9 And Ahimaaz begat Azariah, and Azariah begat Johanan,

10 And Johanan begat Azariah; he it is that executed the priest’s office in the temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem; and 11 Azariah begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Ahitub,

12 And Ahitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Shallum,

13 And Shallum begat Hilkiah, and Hilkiah begat Azariah,

14 And Azariah begat Seraiah, and Seraiah begat Jehozadak,

15 And Jehozadak went into captivity, when the Lord carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

16 The sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

17 And these be the names of the sons of Gershon; Libni, and Shimei.

18 And the sons of Kohath were, Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.

19 The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushli. And these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers.

20 Of Gershon; Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son,

21 Joel his son, Ibido his son, Zerah his son, Jeaterai his son,

22 The sons of Kohath; Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son,

23 Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, and Assir his son, 24 Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziel his son, and Shaul his son.

25 And the sons of Elkanah; Amasaai, and Ahimoth.

26 As for Elkanah: the sons of Elkanah; Zophai his son, and Nahath his son,

27 Ellic his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son,

28 And the sons of Samuel; Micah his son, and Abishua.

29 The sons of Samuel; Micah his son, and Abishua.

30 Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son.

31 And these are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of the Lord, after that the ark had rested.

32 And they ministered before the dwelling place of the tabernacle of the congregation.
with singing, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem: and then they waited on their office according to their order.

33 And these are they that waited with their children, of the sons of the Kohathites: Heman the singer, (the son of Joel, the son of Shemuel,
34 The son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, 35 The son of Zoph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, 36 The son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, 37 The son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Eliaaph, the son of Korah, 38 The son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

39 And Heman his brother Asaph, who stood on his right hand, even Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea, 40 The son of Michael, the son of Baasiaiah, the son of Malchiah,
41 The son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, 42 The son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shime.
43 The son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.)

44 And their brethren also the Levites were appointed unto all manner of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

49 But Aaron and his sons offered upon the altar of burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, and were appointed for all the work of the place: most holy, and to make an atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

50 And these are the sons of Aaron; Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, 51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerubiah his son,
52 Merarjo his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, 53 Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.

54 Now these are their dwelling places throughout their castles in their coasts, of the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites: for theirs was the lot.

55 And they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and the suburbs thereof round about it.

56 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

57 And to the sons of Aaron they gave the city of Hebron, namely, Hebron, the city of refuge, and Libnah with her suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa, with their suburbs.

58 And Hilen with her suburbs, Debir with her suburbs, 65 which are called by their names: or, which are mentioned by name.
66 And the residue. Supply Fig. Ellipsis (Ap. 6).

7. 1 Now the sons of Issachar were — And to the sons of Issachar belonged. Issachar born 1746 B.C.
2 the sons of Tola. Descendants of younger sons are contrasted with his firstborn Uzzi (v. 3, 4). These names occur nowhere else, and prove Chronicles to be entirely independent.

8. 1 Now the sons of Benjamin were — And to the sons of Benjamin belonged. Benjamin born 1728 B.C.
2 their fathers. Fig. Ellipsis (Ap. 6), “their fathers (houses)”. 12 children = sons.

9. 1 The sons of Jediael; Bilhan: and the sons of Bilhan; Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tharsish, and Ahishahar.

10. All these the sons of Jediael, by the heads of their fathers, mighty men of valour, were seventeen thousand and two hundred soldiers, fit to go out for war and battle.

11. The sons of Naphtali; Jahziel, and Guniel, and Jezer, and Shillem, the sons of Bilhah.
Huppim and Shuppim, whose sister’s name was Maachah; and the name of the second was Zelophehad; and Zelophehad had daughters, 16 And Maachah the wife of Machir bare a son, and she called his name Peresh; and the name of his brother was Sheresh; and his sons were Ulam and Rakem. 17 And the sons of Ulam; 17. Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. 18 And his sister Hamnokeketh bare Ishod, and Abiezer, and Mahalah. 19 And the sons of Mahalah were Athan, and Aian, and Aniam, and Elshaddai. 20 And the sons of Ephraim; Shuthelah, and Bered his son, and Tahath his son, and Eldad his son, and Tahath his son, 21 And Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his son, and Ezer, and Elead, whom the men of Gath that were born in that land slew, because they came down to take away their cattle. 22 And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him. 23 And when he went in to his wife, she conceived, and bare a son, and he called his name Beriah, because it went evil with his house. 24 And his daughter was Sherah, who built Bethhoron the nether, and the upper, and Zeezen-zerah. 25 And Rephaiah was his son, also Resheph, and Telah his son, and Tahan his son, 26 Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, Elshama his son, 27 Non his son, Jehoshua his son. 28 And their possessions and habitations were, Bethel and the towns thereof, and eastward Naaran, and westward Gezer, with the towns thereof; Shechem also and the towns thereof, unto Gaza and the towns thereof: 29 And by the borders of the children of Manasseh, Beth-shean and her towns, Taanach and her towns, Megiddo and her towns, Dor and her towns. In these dwelt the children of Joseph the son of Israel. 30 The sons of Asher; Imnah, and Isah, and Ishuia, and Beriah, and Serah their sister. 31 And the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malchiel, who is the father of Birzavith. 32 And Heber begat Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shua their sister. 33 And the sons of Japhlet; Pasach, and Bimhal, and Ashvath. These are the children of Japhlet. 34 And the sons of Shamer; Ahi, and Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Arah. 35 And the sons of his brother Helam; Zophah, and Immah, and Amale. 36 The sons of Zophah; Suah, and Haran, and Harith, and Hazeleah, and Shalah, and Meremoth. 37 Bezer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and Ithran, and Beera. 38 And the sons of Jether; Jephunneh, and Pispah, and Ara. 39 And the sons of Ulla; Arah, and Haniel, and Rezia. 40 All these were the children of Asher, heads of their father’s house, choice and mighty men of valour, chief of the princes. And the number throughout the genealogy of them that were apt to the war and to battle was twenty and six thousand men.

8. 1 Benjamin. This tribe is now dealt with, and brought down to Saul and Jonathan. The date of writing is Post-Exilic. See v. 28; 9. 3, 27, and compare with Ezra 2 and Neh. 10, which show that Benjamin was brought back to the land after being nearly extinguished in Judg. 20. Loyalty to Judah and the house of God had been rewarded. Note the passages which connect Benjamin with Judah and with the blessings of the return from Babylon: Ezra 1. 5; 2; 4.1. Neh. 7; 11. 4, 7, 31; 12. 34. The genealogy of Saul leads up to the subject of the book, the kingdom. The former genealogy (7. 6-19) is not full, but specifies only the families to be dealt with later.

2 Noah . . . Rapha. Nowhere else mentioned in O.T. Cp. Gen. 46. 21. Perhaps grandsons. But these names show independence of Chronicles. 3 Addar. Called Ard in Gen. 46. 31. Cp. Num. 26. 40. 4 Gera. Name derived from a son of Benjamin (Gen. 46. 21). Repeated in v. 5. 5 Gera. Another Gera. Cp. v. 7. 6 These are the . . . tribe. Cp. Gaba. Near Gibeah of Saul (Josh. 18. 24. 1 Sam. 10. 26; 13. 5). Cp. Judg. 19. 12. And . . . w. They (the Gebaite) removed—were carried away, (same word as in 5. 28). The occasion is not known, but probably after they returned from captivity, as Geba is mentioned in Ezra 2. 26. Lod and Ono in v. 12 are named in Ezra 2. 33. and “the sons of Gibeon” in Neh. 7. 23. Cp. Ezra 2. 26. Other names found here are mentioned in Neh. 10. 14, 20, 22, 24, 26, 27: e.g. Meshullam (v. 17), Hanan (v. 23), Elam and Hananah (v. 24).
7 And Naaman, and Ahiah, and Gera, who removed them, and begat Uzza, and Amihud.
8 And Shaharaim begat children in the country of Moab, after he had sent them away; Hushim and Baara were his wives.
9 And he begat of Hodesh his wife, Jobab, and Zibia, and Mesha, and Malcam, 10 And Jeuz, and Shachia, and Mirra. These were his sons, heads of the fathers.
11 And of Hushim he begat Abihud, and Elpaal,
12 The sons of Elpaal; Eber, and Mesha, and Shaphan, who built Ono, and Lod, with the towns thereof.
13 And Beriah also, and Shema, who were heads of the fathers of the inhabitants of Ajalon, who drove away the inhabitants of Gath.
14 And Ahio, Shashak, and Jeremoth,
15 And Zebadiah, and Arad, and Ader,
16 And Michael, and Ispah, and Joha, the sons of Beriah.
17 And Zebadiah, and Meshullam, and Hezeki, and Heber, 18 Ishmerai also, and Jezliah, and Jobab, the sons of Elpaal,
19 And Jakim, and Zichri, and Zabdi,
20 And Elleni, and Zilthai, and Eliel,
21 And Adaiah, and Bernai, and Shimri, the sons of Shimhi;
22 And Ishpan, and Heber, and Eliel,
23 And Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan,
24 And Hananiah, and Elam, and Antothijah,
25 And Iphdeiah, and Penuel, the sons of Shashak,
26 And Shamerai, and Sheariah, and Athalib,
27 And Jaresiah, and Eliah, and Zichri, the sons of Jeroham.
28 These were heads of the fathers, by their generations, chief men. These dwelt in Jerusalem.
29 And at Gibeah dwelt the father of Gibeah, whose wife's name was Maachah:
30 And his firstborn son Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Nadab, 31 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zacher.
32 And Mikloth begat Shimeah. And these dwelt in their brethren in Jerusalem, over against them.
33 And Ner begat Kish, and Kish begat Saul, and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Elsh-baal.
34 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal, and Merib-baal begat Micah.
35 And the sons of Micah were Pithon, and Melech, and Tarea, and Ahaz.
36 And Ahaz begat Jehoaddah; and Jehoaddah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza.
37 And Moza begat Binea: Rapha was his son, Eneasah his son, Azel his son:
38 And Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.
39 And the sons of Eshek his brother were Ulam his firstborn, Jehush the second, and Eliphelet the third.
40 And the sons of Ulam were mighty men of valour, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, an hundred and fifty. All these are of the sons of Benjamin.

Ahiah. Supply Fig. Ellipsis (Ap. 6); and Ahihud [and Shaharaim]. And Shaharaim begat., &c.

8 of Moab. As Boaz did them: i.e. his wives.

9 Ishmerai: i.e. his Moabitish wife.

13 Beriah. See notes on 7, 23, 36.

Ajalon. In Josh. 19, 42, it was in Dan. In Josh. 21, 24 it was a Levitical city. In 2 Chron. 28, 18 it was occupied by Philistines, under Ahaz. But here occupied by Benjamites, because (1) of Dan's idolatry (see note on Gen. 49, 17), and (2) of different distribution after the exile.

Drove away. A reprimand later than 7, 21. See notes on 7, 23, 35.

18 Ishmerai. The Yod (י) being the abbreviation for Yah = Jehovah.

22 Heber. Most codices, and nine early printed editions, read "Heber". Some MSS. read "Heved".

28 These dwelt. Cp. v. 32; 9, 34. Neh. 11, 1-4. Another token of God's faithfulness to Benjamin (cp. Deut. 33, 12) for adhering to Judah and the worship of the true God.

29 at Gibeah. Repeated in 9, 33-44. Father = lord, chief, or ruler. Cp. 9, 35. Called Jehiel there.

33 Ner begat Kish. There are three genealogies of the house of Saul. We place the facts, (1) that persons often had two names (v. 34. Judg. 6, 32, &c.), and (2) that the same name recurs in the same family, against the assumption that the opposite is the case. It is this assumption which creates the difficulties in "reconciling" 1 Sam. 9, 1; 14, 51; and 1 Chron. 9, 38.

The following makes all the lists agree:

| Abdon, Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner (or Abiel, 1 Sam. 9, 1; 14, 51). |
| (Sam. 14, 51) Abner, Kish (1 Sam. 14, 51). |
| Saul (born 1050). |

Esh-baal. Another name for Ish-bosheth (2 Sam. 2, 8).

34 Merib-baal. Another name by which Mephibosheth was known. Cp. 2 Sam. 2, 8; 4, 4. See note on v. 33 above.

The addition "bosheth" (= shame) came to be substituted for "Baal" as the latter word became associated with idolatry. Cp. Judg. 6, 32 with 2 Sam. 11, 21.

38 Bocheru. Some codices, with Sept. and Syr., read "his firstborn" (Apkho).

9, 1 behold. Fig. Asterienos. Ap. 6.

9 all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and, behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, who were carried away to Babylon for their transgression.

2 Now "the first inhabitants that dwelt in their possessions in their cities were, the Israelites, the priests, Levites, and the Nethinims.

3 And in Jerusalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh; 4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Pharez the son of Judah. 5 And of the Shilonites; Asaiah the first-born, and his sons. 6 And of the sons of Zerah; Jeuel, and of their brethren, six hundred and ninety. 7 And of the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hasenuah, 8 And Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephathiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah; 9 And their brethren, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty and six. All these men were chief of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

10 And of the priests; Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin, 11 And Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God; 12 And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahaziah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer; 13 And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 And of the Levites; Shemaijah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari; 15 And Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph; 16 And Obadiah the son of Shemaijah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites. 17 And the porers were, Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren; Shallum was the chief; 18 Who hitherto waited in the king's gate eastward: they were porers in the companies of the children of Levi. 19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their brethren, being over the host of the LORD, were keepers of the entry.

20 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him.

2 the first inhabitants: i.e. after the reoccupation on the return from Babylon, under Zerubbabel, Joshua, Nehemiah, and Ezra, 454-400 B.C. See Ap. 60, V, VI, p. 60 and VII (9), p. 67. The Israelites. Heb. "Israel"; i.e. the "Israel of God". Cp. Neh. 11. 2. See note on "Israel" (Gen. 25. 28; 43. 5; 45. 26, 28). Called "Israel", although only the return of Judah and Benjamin. See note on Kings 12. 17. Levites = the Levites. the Nethinims. Taken from the people in proportion of one in fifty to assist the Levites (Num. 31. 47, Ezra 6. 20).

3 Jerusalem. As distinct from the Land (v. 2). Cp. Neh. 11.11. children = sons.

Ephraim, and Manasseh. So that others beside Judah and Benjamin were included in the People now known as "Jews". Cp. Ezra 6. 21. Neh. 10. 28, 29. See note on 1 Kings 12. 17. 8 Shilonites = Shelonites. Not from the place Shiloh, but from Sheelah the son of Judah. Cp. 2. 3. Num. 26. 28. Neh. 9. 5. So that some from each of the three lines of Judah were included, viz. Pharez, Sheelah, Judah. Asheir i.e. Uthai (v. 4) and Assiah (v. 5); (Jewish) six hundred and ninety. These were the sons of Zerah. The 468 in Neh. 11. 6 were sons of Perez (i.e. Pharez).

7 Sallu. At the head of the Benjaminites (Neh. 11. 7). Hasenuah. In Neh. 11. 8 called Sennuah.

9 nine hundred and fifty and six. In Neh. 11. 8 we have 928. The dates of the enumeration are independent and not identical.

14 Shemaiah. Cp. Neh. 11. 15. 15 Asa. Some codices, with two early printed editions (one marg.), and Syr., read "Asaph".

dwelt in the villages. Till the priestly cities were rebuilt.

18 hitherto. Referring to the ancient practice of the king's gate. Leading from the royal palace to the Temple.

19 Korahites. The descendants of Korah. Cp. Num. 16; 26; 9-11; and see Pes. 42; 44-49; 54; 65; 67; 68. gates = thresholds.

20 Phinehas. Cp. Ex. 6. 23. in time past: i.e. previous to the writing of this history. 1483-1883.
21 And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the "door of the 19tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these which were chosen to be 17porters in the 19gates were 6two hundred and twelve. 3These were reckoned by "their genealogy in their 19villages, whom David and 7Samuel the seer 6did ordain in their set office.

23 So they and their 3children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the 19LORD, namely, the house of the tabernacle of the congregation, by 2wards.

24 In four 8quarters were the 17porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brethren, which were in their 16villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them.

26 For their Levites, the four 9chief 17porters, were in their 9set office, and were over the 8chambers and treasures of the house of 11God.

27 And they lodged round about the house of 11God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertaining to them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the 10ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out 6by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, 5and all the instruments of the sanctuary, 5and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the "spices.

30 And some of the sons of the priests 5made the ointment of the spices.

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the 26set office over the things that were made 5in the pans.

32 And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the shewbread, to prepare it 5every sabbath.

33 And 9these are the singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the chambers were 5free: for they were employed in that work day and night.

34 And 8chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

35 And in Gibeon dwelt the 5father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whose wife's name was Maachah:

36 And his firstborn son Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, 37 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren.

39 And 9Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat Saul; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal.

40 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal: and Merib-baal begat Micah.

41 And the sons of Micah were, Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, 5and Ahaz.

42 And Ahaz begat Jarah; and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza:

43 And Moza begat Binea; and Rephahah his son, Eleashah his son. Azel his son.

44 And Azel had six sons, whose names are the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armourbearer, "Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and "abuse me." But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to every tidings unto their idols, and to the people.

10 And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened "his head in the temple of Dagon.

11 And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul.

12 They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under "the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against "the LORD, even against the word of "the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, "to enquire of it.

14 And enquired not of the LORD: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse.

I. CHRONICLES.

11. 1—12. 40 (J, p. 545). DAVID. ACCESSION.

(Introduction and Alternation.)

J  L | 11. 1—2. Accession over all Israel.
M | N | 11. 4. The taking of Jebus.
O | 11. 6. Forces. (Chief, Joab.)

L | 12. 38—40. Accession over all Israel.

953. 4 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “Thou shalt not come hither.” Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

954. 5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “Thou shalt not come hither.” Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

955. 6 And David said, “Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain.” So Joab, the son of Zeruiah, went first up, and was chief.

956. 7 And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called it the city of David.

957. 8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

958. 9 So David waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

959. 10 These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

960. 11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had:

961. 2 Jashobeam, an Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

962. 12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodai, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty.

963. 13 Also was with David at Pasdammim, and there the Philistines gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines.

964. 14 And they set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.

965. 15 Now three of the thirty which went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam, and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

966. 16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines’ garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

967. 17 And David longed, and said, “Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!”

968. 18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD.

969. 19 And said, “My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it.” Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty ones.

970. 20 And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them; and had a name among the three.

971. 21 Of the three, he was more honourable than the two; for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not to the first three.

972. 22 Benai the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts; he slew two lionlike men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day.

546

23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

24 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the thirty mighty men.

25 Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

26 Also the valiant men of the armies were, Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,

27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

28 Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abi ezer the Antothite,

29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite,

31 Eliphal the Temanite, Hananiah the Pirathonite,

32 Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,

33 Azmaveth the Benjaminite, Eliahu the Shaalbonite,

34 The sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shage the Hararite,

35 Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Elphal the son of Ur,

36 Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

37 Hezro the Carmelitte, Naaraai the son of Ezbai,

38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Haggar,

39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beronathite, the armourbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah,

40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai,

42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,

43 Hanan the son of Maachah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,

44 Uzza the Ascherathite, Shama and Jehiel the sons of Hothan the Aroerite,

45 Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite,

46 Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaiah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, 47 Eliel, and Obed, and Jesi the Mesobaite.

31 children—sons.

38 Joel the brother of Nathan. Not to be confused with Igal the son of Nathan. The lists are supplementary and independent, Chronicles being of later date, and adding several names after Uriah (6. 41).

47 The Mesobaite. Sept. and Vulg. read "of (or from) Zobah".

7 And Joelah, and Zabadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the hold to the wilderness men of might, and men of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as the roes upon the mountains;

9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliaab the third.

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh.

14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: one of the least was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.
12. 15. L CHRONICLES. 12. 33.

15 These are they that went over Jordan in the first month, when it had overflown all his banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, "If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it." Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

18 Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, "Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee." Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, "He will fall to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads."

20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of the Lord.

23 And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war.

25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred;

27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred;

28 And Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains.

29 And of the children of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment.

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all instruments of war.
And David and all Israel played before the LORD with all their might. And with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

And when they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and He smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before the LORD. And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day.

And David was afraid of the LORD that day, saying, "How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?"

So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months.

And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that was therein.

Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him an house.

And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed his kingdom over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of His People Israel.

And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters. Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon.

And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet, and Asaiah.

And Nadak, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

And Elishama, and Bealia, and Eli-phalet.

And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them.

And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

And David enquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt Thou deliver them into mine hand?" And the LORD said unto him, "Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand."

So they came up to Baal-perazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, "God hath broken in upon mine enemies before mine hand, like the breaking forth of waters." therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

And with all their might. Cp. 2 Sam. 6. 6. No need to arbitrarily make this correspond. They are two independent books, complementary in their information.

And. Note the Fig. Polyptoton (Ap. 6) in this verse, emphasising each item.

timbrels. See note on Ex. 15. 20.

cymbals. Heb. w될fim: two metal discs, making a clashing sound. Always rendered. Not to be confounded (as in A.V. and R.V.) with с渚им - timbrels, which make a rustling sound, but rendered "cymbals" in 2 Sam. 6. 5. Ps. 150. 9.

Chidon. See 2 Sam. 6. 8; where he has another name, Nachon.

And when they had gone, there was he called Perez-uzza to this day.

3. More wives. Cp. 3. 9. 2 Sam. 5. 13-16.

5. Beeliah. In 2 Sam. 5. 16 called Eliada, which was a later name, perhaps changed from Beeliah because of the name "Baal", or Lord, which, at first innocent, came to be associated with idolatry. See note on 8. 34.

8. 8-17 (W. p. 549). THE KINGDOM. ITS DEFENCE. (Invasion, and Extended Alternation.)

9. Seek = search for. Heb. בְּקַשׁ, especially to seek for blood or life. Cp. 2 Sam. 6. 14, "require".

went out against them. 2 Sam. 5. 17 says, "went down to the hold." But this was earlier; for the later command was "thou shalt bestir thyself", which corresponds with the command "Go up" (v. 10) here, as well as with "thou shalt bestir thyself" of 2 Sam. 5. 26.

9 Rephaim = Rapha. See note on 11. 15.

10. God. Heb. Elohim. Ap. 4. I. In 2 Sam. 5. 18 it is Jehovah. Here, it is God's power as Creator. In 2 Sam. 5. 18 it is Jehovah's faithfulness to David. Both pleas were in David's mind, and the accounts are complementary. Cp. them in this narrative. Here, Elohim six times; Jehovah once. In 2 Sam., Jehovah six times; Elohim not once.

12. Left their gods. Cp. 1 Sam. 4. 7. they were burned with fire. This is supplementary information. In 2 Sam. 5. 21 David "took them away"; i.e. to burn them, as recorded here.

16. Gibeon. In 2 Sam. 5. 21 David "took them away": this is how they were burned, as recorded here.

13. And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14. Therefore David enquired again of the Lord; and God said unto him, "Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

15. And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines."

16. David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.
15. And David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent. Then David said, "None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for they have the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto Him forever." And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it. And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites: Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twenty: Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty: Of the sons of Gershon; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty: Of the sons of Elizaphan; Shemaiath the chief, and his brethren two hundred: Of the sons of Hebron; Elieel the chief, and his brethren fourscore: Of the sons of Uzzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve. And David called for the Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, of Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiath, and Eliel, and Amminadab. And said unto them, "Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it. For because ye did not at the first the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought Him not after the due order. So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD. And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be bears of the ark of instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy. So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah. And with them their brethren of the second degree; Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleth, and Mikneiah, and Obad-edom, and Jeiel, the porters. So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass; O Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleth, and Mikneiah, and Obad-edom, and Jeiel, the porters. 16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be bears of the ark of instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy. So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah. And with them their brethren of the second degree; Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleth, and Mikneiah, and Obad-edom, and Jeiel, the porters. So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass; O Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleth, and Mikneiah, and Obad-edom, and Jeiel, the porters. 17 And the fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

1 the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.
26 And it came to pass, when the ark of the Lord came into the house of Obed-edom, and they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.
27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.
28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the Lord with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.
29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out from a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

I. CHRONICLES.

18. 10.

Thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O 1 LORD 2 God.

18 What can David speak more to Thee for the honour of Thy servant? for 300th knowest Thy servant.

19 O 1 LORD, for Thy servant's sake, and according to Thine own heart, hast Thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

20 O 1 LORD, there is none like Thee, neither is there any 2 God beside Thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And 18 what one nation in the earth is like Thy People Israel, whom 3 God went to redeem to be His Own People, to make 9 Thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before Thy People, whom Thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For Thy People Israel didst Thou make Thine Own People forever; and 300th, 1 LORD, becamest their 2 God.

23 Therefore now, 1 LORD, let the thing that Thou hast spoken concerning Thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as Thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that Thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, 1 The Lord of hosts is the 2 God of Israel, even a 3 God to Israel: and let the house of David Thy servant be established before Thee.

25 For 300th, O my 2 God, hast told Thy servant that Thou wilt build him an house:

1 therefore Thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before Thee.

26 And now, 1 LORD, Thou art 2 God, and hast promised this goodness unto Thy servant:

27 Now therefore let it please Thee to bless the house of Thy servant, that it may be before Thee for ever: for 300th, 1 LORD, and it shall be 0 blessed for ever.''

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and He answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the Angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 At that time when David saw that the Lord had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then 'he sacrificed there.

29 (For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeah.)

30 But David could not go before it to enquire of the Lord: for he was afraid because of the sword of the Angel of the Lord.

Then David said, "'The house of the Lord God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.'

And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails of the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without weight;

Also cedar trees in abundance: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

And David said, "Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for the Lord must be exceeding magnificil, "of fame and of glory " throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it." So David prepared abundantly before his death.

Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the Lord God of Israel.

And David said to Solomon, "My son, as for Me, it was in my mind to build an house unto the name of the Lord my God:

But the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 'Thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in My sight.

Behold, a son shall be born to thee, whose..."
shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

106 & shall build an house for My name; and 3 will be My son, and 3 will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as He hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD o give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: o be strong, and of good courage: dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now, behold, o in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and 1 the LORD be with thee."

17 David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

18 "Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath He not given you rest on every side? for He hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before His People.

19 Now set your heart and "your soul to seek the LORD your God: arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of 1 the LORD God, to bring 1 the ark of the covenant of 1 the LORD, and the 0 holy vessels of 1 God, into the house that is to be built to the name of 1 the LORD."

20 So when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

21 And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

22 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, o man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

23 Of which, twenty and four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of 1 the LORD; and six thousand were officers and judges:

24 Moreover 4 thousand were porters; and four thousand praised 1 the LORD with the instruments which I made, said David, "to praise therewith."

25 And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah the son of Nathaniel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, proof that this is a mistaken “obscure and ancient 27 dedicate = set apart.

28 had dedicated. A practice dating from the time of Moses (Num. 31. 28-47), and Joshua (6. 24).

29 outward business = outside the Temple (Neh. 10. 32-39; 11. 16), as distinguished from the worship within (which was the "business of the house of God", Neh. 11. 22).

officers and judges. See Deut. 16. 18 (same Heb.), 6000 appointed. Provision made for them in Ex. 18. 13-26.

27. 1 children = sons.

chief fathers = heads of the fathers.

captains of thousands. The host comprised all males over twenty. From this were organised twelve divisions of 24,000 men, commanded by twelve of the thirty. David's 600 (1 Sam. 23. 13, &c.) divided into three of 200 each (consisting of ten subdivisions of twenty each, commanded by the "thirty"), commanded by the three. The commander of the "three" was not one of the "three", but next below them. See notes on ch. 11 and 2 Sam. 23.

2 Jashobeam. Cp. 11. 11.

3 Perez = Pharez, son of Judah. See note on 25. 11.

chief = head.

27 Now the children of Israel after their number, to wit, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers that served the king in any matter of the courses, which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and four thousand.

2 Over the first course for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel; and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

3 Of the children of Perez was the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month.

4 And over the course of the second month
1. The second captain was the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

2. The third captain was the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

3. The fourth captain was the son of Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

4. The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamshueth the Izrahite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

5. The sixth captain for the sixth month was Obadiah the son of Iggith: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

6. The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

7. The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zeruhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

8. The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

9. The tenth captain for the tenth month was Zabdi the son of Ahlai, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

10. The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Helez the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

11. The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Igal the son of Joseph: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

P. Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maaziah:

Q. Of the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel:

R. Of the Aaronites, Zadok:

S. Of Judah: Elihu, one of the brethren of David:

T. Of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael:

U. Of Zebulun, Ishmaah the son of Obadiah:

V. Of Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel:

W. Of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah:

X. Of the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedahiah:

Y. Of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gillad, Iddo the son of Zechariah:

Z. Of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Ahner:

D. Of Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

E. But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the LORD had said He would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens.

F. Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath for it against Israel; neither was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

G. And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziah:

H. And over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub:

I. And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite:

J. And over the olive trees and the sycomore trees that were in the low plains was Baalhanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash:

K. And over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai:

L. Over the camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite:

M. And over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagerite. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.
I. CHRONICLES.

27. 32. Also Jonathan was David's uncle, a wise man, and a scribe: and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons: 33. And Ahithophel was the king's counsellor: and Hushai the Archite was the king's companion: 34. And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada, the son of Benalath, and Abiathar: and the general of the king's army was Joab.

28. And David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the porters, and of all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2. Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, "Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, I have had in mine heart to build an house for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to exalt the name of the LORD my God, to set up an everlasting kingdom for my name: and I have set up a son over my house and over my kingdom. 3. But God said unto me, 'Thou shalt not build an house for My name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood. 4. Howbeit the Lord, the God of Israel, chose me before all the house of my father, to be king over Israel for ever: for He hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father He liked me to make king over all Israel: 5. And of all my sons, (for the Lord hath given me many sons,) He hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel. 6. And He said unto me, 'Solomon thy son, shall build My house and My courts: for I have chosen him to be My son, and will be his father. 7. Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do My commandments and My judgments, as at this day.' 8. Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the Lord your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9. And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek Him, He will be found of thee; but if thou forsake Him, He will cast thee off for ever. 10. Take heed now; for the Lord hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.'

11. Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof; and of the place of the mercy seat,

28. 32. David's uncle. In 20. 7 and 2 Sam. 21. 21 Jonathan is the son of Shimea, David's brother. The Heb. may thus be used of a brother's son as well as a father's brother's son. 34 general prince. army host.

of the treasuries of the house of 2God, and of the treasuries of the 2dedicated things:
13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of 1the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of 2the LORD.
14 He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for every instrument of every kind of service:
15 Even the weight for the 2candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every 2candlestick, and for the lamps thereof: and for the 2candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the 2candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every 2candlestick.
16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of shewbread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver:
17 Also pure gold for the fleshhooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden 2basons he gave gold by weight for every 2bason; and likewise silver by weight for every 2bason of silver.
18 And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot 0of the cherubims, that spread out 0their wings, and covered 0the ark of the covenant of 2the LORD.
19 All this 0said David, 2the LORD made me understand in writing by His hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.
20 And David said to Solomon his son, 00Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for 2the LORD 2God, even my 2God, will be with thee; 2He will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of 2the LORD.
21 And, 00behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of 2God: and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing skillful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the People will be wholly at thy commandment.
29 Furthermore David the king said unto all the 2congregation, 00Solomon my son, 0whom alone 2God hath chosen, is yet 0young and tender, and the work is great: for 2the palace is not for man, but for 2the LORD 2God.
2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my 1God the 2gold for things to be made of gold, 00and the 2silver for things of silver, and the 2brass for things of brass, the 2iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; 0onyx stones, and 0stones to be set, glistening stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.
3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my 1God, 0I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my 1God, 0over and dedicated 0this-holy. See note on Ex. 3. 5.

5 The gold for things of 2gold, and the 2silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing 0to consecrate his service this day unto 2the LORD? 0
6 Then the 1chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,
7 And gave for the service of the house of 1God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand 4drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.
8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of 1the LORD, 0by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.
9 Then the People rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to 'the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 Wherefore David blessed 'the LORD before all the congregation: and 'David said, "Blessed be 'the LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

11 Thine, O 'LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is Thine; Thine is the kingdom, O 'LORD, and Thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honour come of Thee, and 'Thou dost keep all power and might; and in Thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our 'LORD, we thank Thee, and praise Thy glorious name, and Thy greatness.

14 But "who am I, and what is my People, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of Thee, and of Thine own have we given Thee.

15 For "we are strangers before Thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is "none abiding.

16 O 'LORD our 'LORD, all this store that we have prepared to build Thee an house for Thine holy name cometh of Thine house, and is all Thine own.

17 I know also, my 'LORD, that "Thine ownest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy Thy People, which are present here, to offer willingly unto Thee.

18 O 'LORD God of 'Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this heart and your covenant for ever:

19 And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep Thy commandments, Thy testimonies, and Thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build 'the palace, for which I have made provision.'

20 And David said to all the 'congregation, "Now bless 'the LORD your 'LORD," And all the 'congregation blessed 'the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and "worshipped 'the LORD, and the king.

21 And they 'offered sacrifices unto 'the LORD, and 'offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel:

22 And "did eat and drink before 'the LORD on that day with great gladness.

And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him unto 'the LORD to be the chief governor, and "Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of 'the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the princes, and "the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, "submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

25 And 'the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and "bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

26 Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

27 And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem,
28 And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honour: and Solomon his son reigned in his stead.

29 Now the acts of David the king, first and last, are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer. With all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over the kingdoms of the countries.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES.

1 AND Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the covenant, and all the glory thereof.

4 But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover the brazen altar, that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the Lord: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brazen altar before the Lord, where was the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

7 In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead.

9 Now, O Lord God, let Thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people, like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go forth and come in to contend with the ungodly in judgment: for who is able to contend with this people? As for me, God hath shewed me whom I shall set over this people.

11 And David said to Solomon, My son, be strong and of good courage: for Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, the Jews, bestrong and strong with thee; and Zerubbabel shall build this house.

12 And he shewed him the pattern of the temple, even of the chambers, and the precious things therein.

13 And David said to Solomon, My son, be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed:

14 For the Lord God of armies is with thee, even the God of David thy father; and he will not suffer thee to fail in anything thou shalt set thy heart to, if thou seek God with all thy heart:

15 10. If then thou wilt obey my commandments, and keep my judgments, which I command thee this day, I will set up thy kingdom, that it may be as the days of David: and I will give Israel a son after the heart of David, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people:

16 3. And it shall be, when they name thee after me, as saying, after the manner of David his father, so shall thy days be.

17 15. Then it shall be, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, which I command thee this day: 7. And the Lord will again appoint a place for this house, and my throne, even upon the throne where I have set up my name, for ever.

18 3. To thy seed after thee, which shall come forth from thy loins, I will set up a permanent kingdom.

19 15. If then thou wilt walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, which I command thee this day:

20 10. The Lord my God will set up a house for me, and my throne, as he said unto my father David, saying, I will set up a house for thee, and thy seed after thee for ever.

21 15. And if they will obey me with all their heart, and with all their soul, so that they keep my commandments and my statutes, which I command them this day:

22 10. Then will I set up a dwelling-place for my name, and it shall be, that my throne shall be established for ever:

23 3. And I will establish the throne of thy kingdom, that it may be for ever:

24 15. If they will not, the reason shall lie with them that have forsaken the Lord, and with their kings, because they have forsaken the Lord, and the God of their fathers.

25 10. Now therefore arise, and be thou strong, for this work is in your power. As for me, my presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

26 For David my servant, and for Solomon my son, whom I have chosen, I have made an everlasting covenant with them, and will keep mine oath which I have sworn.

27 I will give thee both the rain of thy land in due season, and the seasonings thereof, and the a fruitful way.

28 And I will give peace in thy time, both within and without, that thou shalt not have trouble; and thou shalt be the least of all kingdoms.

29 And I will give unto the rain of thy land in due season, and the fruitful way, and the corn thy land, and the new wine, and oil, and the掌柜 shall abound.

30 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

31 Then to Solomon came all the wives of Pharaoh. And the concubines said unto the women of Egypt, Behold, he hath taken to him wives of the daughters of Pharaoh: shall we also go and take wives unto our husbands?

32 And it came to pass at the end of the year, that Solomon began to reign in Jerusalem in the seventh month.

33 And Solomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst do for David my father, so deal thou likewise unto me.

34 For David my father could not build an house unto the name of the Lord his God; because of the war which was round about him, and also because of other labours which he had to perform; therefore was it not possible for him to build an house unto the name of the Lord his God.

35 Now therefore, let God, who hath promised good unto David, set up the name of his king upon his throne, as he hath spoken unto him.

36 For it was not possible for David to build an house unto the name of the Lord his God; because of the blood which he shed, and because of the sacrifices which he used to burn.

37 But Solomon his son shall build an house unto my name, because he is a man of peace, and because he is mine servant, and hath done my will in all things that I commanded him.
II. CHRONICLES.

2. 10.

2 And Solomon determined to build a house for the name of the LORD, and a house for his kingdom.

3 And Solomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, 'As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I will build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to Him, and to burn before Him sweet incense, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever for Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods.

6 But who is able to build Him an house, seeing the heavens and heaven of heavens cannot contain Him? who am I then, that I should build Him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before Him?

7 Send me now therefore a cunning man to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue,
2 Then Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount Moriah, where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

3 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

13 Now these are the things wherein Solomon was instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And the greater house he cieled with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains.

6 And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the most holy house he made two cherubims of image work, and overlaid them with gold.
II. CHRONICLES.

11 And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and the cherubims stood on their feet, and their faces were inward.

14 And he made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon.

15 Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand "Jachin," and the name of that on the left "Boaz.

Moreover he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

2 Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

3 And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten cubits in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

4 And he stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

5 And the thickness of it was an hand breadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies; and it received and held three thousand baths.

6 He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 And he made ten candlesticks of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made an hundred basons of gold.

9 Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.

10 And he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.

11 And Huram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basons.

And Huram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God;

12 To wit, the two pillars, and the six pommels, and the chapiters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were on the top of the pillars;

13 And four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were upon the pillars.

14 He made also bases, and lavers made he upon the bases;

15 One sea, and twelve oxen under it.

16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did Huram his father make to king Solomon for the house of God, the Lord of bright brass.

17 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathan.

18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.

19 And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the shewbread was set;

20 Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn after the manner before the oracle, of pure gold;

21 And the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that of perfect gold.
5 Thus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon; and they did the ark of the covenant of the LORD before the king.

4 And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the priests and the Levites bring up.

6 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto the place, into the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims.

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there it is unto this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that all the priests that were present sanctified themselves, and did not wait for apparel.

12 Also the Levites which were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets.

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanksgiving unto the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, saying, "For He is good; for His mercy endureth for ever:"
2 But I have built an house of habitation for Thee, and a place for Thy dwelling for ever.'

3 And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood.

4 And he said, 'Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, Who hath with His hands fulfilled that which He spake with His mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth My People out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that My name might be there; neither chose I any 'man to be a ruler over My People Israel:

6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, that My name might be there; and have chosen David to be over My People Israel.'

7 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

8 But the LORD said to David my father, 'Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for My name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart:

9 Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for My name.'

10 'The LORD therefore hath performed His word that He hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and I am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

11 And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, that He made with the children of Israel.'

12 And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands:

13 For Solomon had made a brasen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven,

14 And said, 'O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like Thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; Which keepest covenant, and shewest mercy unto Thy servants, that walk before Thee with all their hearts:

15 Thou Which hast kept with Thy servant David my father that which Thou hast promised him; and spakest with Thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with Thine hand, as it is this day.

16 Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with Thy servant David my father that which Thou hast promised him, saying, 'There shall not fail thee a man In My sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in My law, as thou hast walked before Me.'

17 Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, let Thy word be verified, which Thou hast spoken unto Thy servant David.

18 But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Thee; how much less this house which I have built!

19 Have respect therefore to the prayer of Thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which Thy servant prayeth before Thee:

20 That Thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whither Thou hast said that Thou wouldest put Thy
II. CHRONICLES.

21 Hearken therefore unto the supplications of Thy servant, and of Thy People Israel, which they shall make toward this place:

22 If a man's sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before Thine altar in this house;

23 Then hear Thou from heaven, and do, and judge Thy servants, by requiting the "wicked," by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by "justifying the righteous," by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 And if Thy People Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against Thee; and shall return and confess Thy name, and pray and make supplication before Thee in this house:

25 Then hear Thou from heaven, and forgive the "sin" of Thy People Israel, and bring them again unto the land which Thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

26 When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against Thee; yet if they pray toward this place, and confess Thy name, and turn from their "sin," when Thou dost afflict them;

27 Then hear Thou from heaven, and forgive the "sin" of Thy servants, and of Thy People Israel, when Thou hast taught them the "good" way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon Thy land, which Thou hast given unto Thy People for an inheritance.

28 If there be earth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillers; if their "enemies" besiege them in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness there be:

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any "man," or of all Thy People Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this house:

30 Then hear Thou from heaven Thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart Thou knowest; (for Thou only knowest the hearts of the "children of men")

31 That they may fear Thee, to walk in Thy ways, so long as they live in the land which Thou gavest unto our fathers.

Moreover concerning the stranger, which is not of Thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for Thy great name's sake, and Thy mighty hand, and Thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray "in this house:

33 Then hear Thou from the heavens, even from Thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to Thee for; that all people of the earth may know Thy name, and fear Thee, as doth Thy people Israel, and may know that this house which I have built is called by Thy name.

34 If Thy People go out to war against their enemies by the way that Thou shalt send them, and they pray unto Thee toward this city which Thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for Thy name;

35 Then hear Thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and "maintain" their cause.

36 If they "sin" against Thee, ("for there is no" man which is "sinneth not,) and Thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;

37 Yet if they be "lawless." Heb. rasha'. Ap. 44. x and forgive Thy People which have sinned against Thee.

40 Now, my God, let, I beseech Thee, Thine eyes be open,
And let Thine ears be attend unto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Now therefore arise, O LORD, God, into Thy resting place,
Then, and the ark of Thy strength:

Let Thy priests, O LORD, God, be clothed with salvation,
And let Thy saints rejoice in Thy goodness.

42 O LORD, turn not away the face of Thine Anointed:
Remember the mercies of David Thy servant.

7 Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD’s house.

3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, “For He is good; for His mercy endureth for ever.”

7 Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.

8 Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly:

for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the People away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel His People.

11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king’s house: and all that came into Solomon’s heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

12 And the LORD appeared to Solomon. This was thirteen years after the dedication. Cp. 7.1 and 8.1. 1 Kings 6.37; 8.1. The fire from heaven was the immediate answer to Solomon’s prayer. 14 And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the 14 courses of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required: the 14 porters also by their courses at every gate: for so had David 14 the man of 2-God commanded.

15 And they departed not from the 15 commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the 15 treasures.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared 16 unto 1 the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of 1 the LORD was perfected.

17 Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to Elath, at the sea side in the land of Edom.

18 And Huram sent him 18 unto the hands of his servants 18 ships, and servants 18 that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to 18 Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty 18 talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

9 And 9 when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her 2 questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the 3 wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his cupbearers also, and their apparel; and his "ascent" by which he went up into the house of 4 the LORD, there was no more "spirit in her."

5 And she said to the king, "It was a true report which I heard in mine own land of thine acts, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

8 Blessed be 8 the LORD thy 8 God, Which delighted in thee to set thee on His throne, to be king for 8 the LORD thy 8 God: because thy 8 God loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore made He thee king over them, to do judgment and "justice."

9 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty 9 talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And Rehoboam went to Shechem for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him.

So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 "Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous

13 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred talents of gold.

14 Beside that which chapmen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays:

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold; and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22 And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

25 And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots; and twelve thousand horsemen whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 And he reigned over all the kings from the river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the low plains in abundance.

28 And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilohite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.
servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee."

5 And he said unto them, "Come again unto me after three days." And the People departed.

6 And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel give we to answer this People?"

7 And they spake unto him, saying, "If thou be kind to this People, and plese them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever."

But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, "What counsel give ye that we may return answer to this People, which have spoken to me, saying, 'Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?'"

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, "Thus shall thou say unto the People that spake unto thee, saying, 'Thy father made your yoke heavy, but I will put it somewhat lighter for you;' thus shalt thou say unto them, 'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.'"

11 For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, 3 will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but 3 will chastise you with scorpions."

12 So Jeroboam and all the People came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, "Come again to me on the third day."

13 And the king answered them roughly: and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men,

14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but 3 will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but 3 will chastise you with scorpions.""

15 So the king hearkened not unto the People: for the cause of God, that the LORD might perform His word, which He spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the People answered the king, saying, "What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to 3 own tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house." So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the "children of Israel" that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram that was over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

C 11 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand men chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 And the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 "Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 'Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done of Me.'" And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,

10 And Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their coasts.
14 For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest’s office unto the LORD:
15 And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made.
16 And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.
17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong. three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;
19 Which bare him three children: Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.
20 And after her he took Maachah the daughter of Absalom; which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.
21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines: and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)
22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.
23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them victual in abundance. And he desired many wives.

10 instead of which king Rehoboam made
12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: and also in Judah things went well.

13 So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned; for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which his father Solomon had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemariah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

17 Abijah had eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

18 And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel. Ought ye not to know that the LORD, God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?"

19 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath rebelled against his lord.

20 And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them.

21 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods.

22 Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the heathen gods?" of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.
10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken Him; and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business:
11 And they burn unto the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense: the shewbread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening; for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him.

12 And, God Himself is with us for our captain, and His priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

13 But Jeroboam caused an ambusment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.
14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.
15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand.
17 And Abijah and his People slew with a great slaughter; so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.
18 Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD
God of their fathers.
19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof.
20 Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD struck him, and he died.

21 But Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.
22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.

14 So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.
2 And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of *the LORD his God:
3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake down

8 Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.
9 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, He delivered them into thine hand.
10 For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew Himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him. Herein thou hast done foolishly; therefore from henceforth thou shalt have war.

10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the People the same time.

11 And, "behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.

13 And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortyth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres among the kings of Israel. And Asa had taken a thousand chariots, and ten thousand horses.

17 And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in His commandments, and not after the doings of Israel.

5 Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

6 And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

7 Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

8 And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zedaniah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elizaphan and Jehrera, priests.

9 And they taught in Judah, and had of the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the People.

10 And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat.

11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he goats.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him?"

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say so."

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, "Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla."

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets' 'prophesied before them. 10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, "Thus saith the LORD, 'With these shalt thou push Syria until they be consumed.'"

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king." 12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, "Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one 'assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good."

13 And Micaiah said, "As the LORD liveth, what my God saith, that will I speak."

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?"

15 And he said, "Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand." 16 Then said he, "I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, 'These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.'"

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil?"

18 Again he said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon His throne, and all the host of heaven standing on His right hand and on His left. 19 And the LORD said, 'Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner. 20 Then there came out a 'spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, 'Wherewith?'

21 And he said, 'I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, 'Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so."

22 Now therefore, 'behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee."

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, "Which way went the spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?"

24 And Micaiah said, "Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself."

25 Then the king of Israel said, "Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; 26 And say, 'Thus saith the king, 'Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.'"

27 And Micaiah said, "If thou certain return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me." And he said, "Hearken, all ye people."

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. 29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes."
So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, "Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel."

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "31 It is the king of Israel." Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot man, "Turn thine hand, "that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded."

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel fought against the Syrians. And the Syrians said among themselves, "We will now draw off, and depart from the Syrian; for they are weaker than we."

19 And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.

2 And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate thee? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD."

3 Nevertheless there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seek God."

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the People from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD, God of their fathers.

5 And he set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city,

6 And said to the judges, "Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, Who is with you in the judgment."

7 Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts."

8 Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, "Thus shall ye do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon they went— they entered. But some codices, with two early printed editions, Aram., Syr., and Vulg., read "he entered." Cp. 1 Kings 22. 39.

II. CHRONICLES.

20

It came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, the children of Ammon, and with them other beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, "There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and, "behold, they be in Hazazon-tamar, which is En-gedi.""

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD: and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court.

6 And said, 1 This is the word of the LORD God of our fathers, Art not ye His God, and the God of our fathers, from the days of old to this day? 2 And will ye not henceforth provide for the LORD? 3 And now, behold, the children of Moab, and Ammon, and with them other beside the Ammonites, set themselves against thee in battle. 4 Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's. 5 Tomorrow show yourselves against them in battle: for they shall come up in small numbers to-morrow, and in the morning they shall forsake one another. 6 And when we see them, we shall act according to all the counsel, to which the LORD our God shall answer us: and we have done so. 7 And when we were in distress, we sought the LORD our God, and He answered us, and delivered us from the hand of all our enemies.

8 And now, behold, we come to Thee; as it was said, saying, "The LORD thy God will set Thee over all the nations, even over all the nations of the earth." 9 And now, therefore, 1 stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed, to morrow go ye against them: for the LORD will be with you."
20. 20.

II. CHRONICLES.

21. 1.

20 And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekos: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe His prophets, so shall ye prosper."

21 And when he had consulted with the People, he appointed singing unto the LORD, and that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, "Praise the LORD; for His mercy endureth for ever."

22 And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and beheld, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his People came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil; it was so much.

26 And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Beracha; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Beracha, unto this day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the LORD had made them rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psaltery and harps and trumpets unto the house of the LORD.

29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his God gave him rest round about.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the ways of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD.

33 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: for as yet the People had not prepared their hearts unto the LORD of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, who is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, which did very wickedly:

36 And he joined him self with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works." And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

21 Now Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David.

And Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.
2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram; because he was the first-born.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as He promised to give a light to him and to his sons for ever.

8 In his days the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, "Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, 'Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,'"

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:

14 "Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy People, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shall have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.""

16 Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians: And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was 18 And after all this the Lord smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

22 And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Athaliah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Athaliah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2 Forty and two years old was Ahaaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

3 She also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the Lord like the house of Ahab: for they were his counselors after the death of his father to his destruction.

5 He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.

6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

7 And the destruction of Ahaaziah was of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the Lord had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaaziah, that ministered to Ahaaziah, he slew them.

9 And he sought Ahaaziah: and they caught him (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: "Because," said they, "he is the son of Jehosaphat, who sought the Lord with all his heart."

So the house of Ahaaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

10 But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.

11 But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him in a bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, "the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years, and Athaliah reigned over the land.
23. 1. II. CHRONICLES. 23. 19.

G 1 3 r

23. "And in the 'seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obad, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elissaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God.

s And he said unto them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD hath said of the sons of David.

r 4 This is the thing that ye shall do: A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the doors; 5 and a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 But let none come into the house of the LORD save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites: they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.'

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses.

9 Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the People, every man having his sword in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, "God save the king.'

F 13 r

12 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the People running and praising the king, she came to the People into the house of the LORD.

G 13 r

13 And she looked, and, "behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the People of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of musick, and such as taught to sing praise.

F 1 Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, "Treason, Treason.'

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, "Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword.' For the priest said, "Slay her not in the house of the LORD.'

15 So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering of the horse gate by the king's house, they slew her there.

16 And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the People, and between the king, that they should be the LORD's People.

17 Then all the People went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests of the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained by David.

19 And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter.

II. CHRONICLES.

20 And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the People, and all the People of the land, and brought down the king from the house of 2 the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the People of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

24 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Joash did that which was right in the sight of 4 the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded to repair the house of 4 the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said unto them, 4 Go out unto the cities of Judah, and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of 9 Moses the servant of 4 the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?"

7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of 4 God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of 4 the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of 2 the LORD.

9 And they made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to 2 the LORD the collection that 4 Moses the servant of 4 God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the People rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus did they day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of 2 the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of 2 the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of 2 the LORD.

the house of 2 the LORD, even vessels to minister, 3 and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of 2 the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; 4 an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward 3 God, and toward His house.

M 17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and 4 made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of 2 the LORD, and God of their fathers, and served 5 groves and 6 idols: and 7 wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 Yet He sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto 2 the LORD; and 8 they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And the 9 Spirit of 8 God came upon 10 Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the People, and said unto them, 11 Thus saith 5 God, Why transgress ye the commandments of 2 the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken 2 the LORD, He hath also forsaken you."

N 21 And they conspired against him, and 5 stoned him with stones 9 at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of 2 the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, 2 12 The LORD look upon it, 9 and require it."

L 23 And it came to pass at the end of the year, 13 that the 5 host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and 5 destroyed all the princes of the People from among the People, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of 5 men, and 2 the LORD delivered a very great 23 host into their hand, because they had forsaken 2 the LORD, 6 God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

K 25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the 5 sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him 7 not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; 6 Zabath the son of Shimmeat an Ammonitess, and 7 Jehozabad the son of 6 Shimrith a Moabitis.

H 27 Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the 6 burdens laid upon him, and the 7 repairing of the house of 8 God, 8 behold, they are written in the 9 story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah 8 his son reigned in his stead.

17 made obeisance. With the view of obtaining the king's consent to their renewal of idolatry.

19 they testified against them. The Vulg. reads quo protestantes = who in protesting against them.

20 Zechariah. The first instance of the substantival constant is found in the Vulgate, and not in the history of the Reformation. Pro = for, and testamens = witnessing, is positive, not negative. It denotes a witnessing for God and His truth, not merely against evil.

21 stoned him. One of nine persons stoned. See note on Lev. 24. 16.

23 host = force.

25 sons. Put by Fig. Stereogram (of Genus), Ap. 6, for Jehoiada's one son: thus emphasising the son who was slain (vv. 20, 21). The Sept. and Vulg. read it "son" (without the Fig.).

26 Zabath. Jehozabad. Slaves, but the executors of God's judgment. Zabath had another name (Jozechar), used in 2 Kings 12. 21.

Shimrith. In 2 Kings 12. 21 he has another name, "Shomer," if not his father's name.

3 Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he slew his servants that had 'killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did 'as it is written in the law of the book of Moses, where 'the LORD commanded, saying, 'The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but 'every man shall die for his own 'sin.'

T w (p. 597)

5 Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand men able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God, saying, 'O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for 'the LORD is not with Israel, to go with thee.' And the man of God answered, 'The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.'

8 But if thou wilt go, do it; 'be strong for the battle: 'God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for 'God hath power to help, and to cast down.'

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, 'But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel?' And the man of God answered, 'The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.'

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And another ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

R S (p. 596)

14 Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and 'set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of 'the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and He sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, 'Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand?'

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, 'Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? 'Then the prophet forbade, and said, 'I know that 'God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.'

17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jezreel, king of Israel, saying, 'Come, let us see one another in the face.'

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, 'The 'thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give thy daughter to my son to wife:' and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the 'thistle.

21 Then all the People of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.
22 He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king's sleep with his fathers.

6 And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.
7 And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Meunims.
8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.
9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.

and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal.

Y And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

V d 16 But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, "If appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God."

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out thence; yea, himself hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son began to reign in his stead, judging the People of the land.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write.

23 So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged unto the kings; for they said, "He is a leper:" and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

27 Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet corruptly.

3 Jotham built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of the Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 Jotham fetched also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand measures of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he
28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; but he did not that which was right in the sight of the Lord, like David his father:

5 Wherefore the Lord his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all valiant men; because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the Lord was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the Lord God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, He hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the Lord your God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the Lord is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizakiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war.

13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the Lord already, ye intend to add more Ap. 51. to our sins and to our trespasses: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.
And the men which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feele of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

18 At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

19 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives.

20 And Teghath-piineser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: "This is that king Ahaz.

23 For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, whom he smote: and he said, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of the God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of the God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of the Jerusalem, and made in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the God of his fathers, and slew with his fathers, but shut up the doors. And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street.

5 And said unto them, *Hear me, ye Levites, sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken Him, and have caused His sanctuary and His habitation to be desolate;

7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and He hath delivered them to the and turned their backs.

9 For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, be not now negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and that ye should minister unto Him, and burn incense.

12 Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Jehoiakim the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joha:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan: Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaijah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, *We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he
II. CHRONICLES.

29. 21.

616 commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD. 22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them.

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

25 And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the LORD by His prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD.

32 And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings.

33 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was three-score and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests were sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings,
4 And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the Lord God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, "Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and He will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the Lord God of their fathers, Who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now be ye not stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the Lord, and enter into His sanctuary, which He hath sanctified for ever: and serve the Lord your God, that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the Lord, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the Lord your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away His face from you, if ye return unto Him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the Lord.

13 And there assembled at Jerusalem much People to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the Lord.

16 And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses: the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the Lord.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did please — was right in the eyes of, throughout all Israel. The king, Hoshoea, not objecting. Cp. 2 Kings 17.2, had not done it. Not since the division of the kingdom.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the strangers that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwell in Jerusalem, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem; for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the People:

31 Now when all this was finished, all the cities of Judah that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwell in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and His People Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, "Since the People began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed His People; and that which is left is this great store."

11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them.
12 And brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jeremoth, and Jozabad, and Eliezer, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Be-niaiah, were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and 10 Azariah the ruler of the house of 10 God.

14 Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter 14 toward the east, was over the free will offerings of 14 God, to distribute the offerings of 2 the LORD, and 3 the most holy things.

15 And next him were 2 Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their 3 set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small:

16 Beside their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of 3 the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges 6 according to their courses;

17 Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges 6 by their courses;

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the 6 congregation: for in their 3 set office they sanctified themselves in holiness:

19 Also of the sons of Aaron the 6 priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the 6 men that were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.

20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and true before 2 the LORD his 8 God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of 8 God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his 8 God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

32 After these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought 9 to win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib came, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men 9 to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and 9 the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, 9 Why should the 9 kings of Assyria come, and find much water?

5 Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised 7 up to the towers, and another wall without, and 9 repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the People, and gathered them together to him in the 9 street of the gate of the city, and 9 spake comfortably to them, saying,

8 With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles.

And the People rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Wherefore dost thou trust, that ye abide in the siege in Jerusalem?

Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The God of Jerusalem shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away His high places and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver their people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against His servant Hezekiah.

He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands had not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver His people out of mine hand.

Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to afflict them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.

And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

After this. Omitting the account of the surrender of 2 Kings 18. 14-16, send his servants. Cp. 2 Kings 18. 17-37; 19. 1-35. Isa. 10. 8-11; 37; 36; 37; against Lachish. A difficult task, for Rabshakeh found Sennacherib had abandoned the siege (2 Kings 19. 8). Joshua had found it the same (see note on 'second siege' Ap. 2 Kings 18. 21, 22). In Jer. 54 it still belonged to Judah. power = royal retinue.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24-25 But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the Lord came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour; and he made him treasures for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much.

30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 Howbeit in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, 15 God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good works, and how he built him Upper and Lower Pool, and reservoirs in the upper valley of Onoah.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and was buried in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem shall My name be for ever."

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.
II. CHRONICLES.

34. 2

7 And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of the LORD, of which Moab had played and to Solomon his son. "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put My name for ever:" 8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; "so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses." 9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his People:

but they would not hearken.

11 Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto Him:

and He was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD his God was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD his God, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD their God only.

17 Nevertheless the People did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, 19 His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.

20 So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

33. 21—25 (G17, p. 545). AMON. (Introversion.)

21 °Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, °as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them;

23 And humbled not himself before °the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; °but Amon °trespassed more and more.

24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 But °the People of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the People of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

34 °Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declared neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joash the son of Jehozadak the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD to repair and amend the house:

11 And of the officers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick.

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found a book of the law of the LORD given by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.
20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying, 21 "Go, enquire of the Lord for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the 11th book that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the Lord, to do after all that is written in this 11th book."

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the 2nd college;) and they spake to her to that effect.

23 And she answered them, "Thus saith the Lord of Israel, 'Tell ye the man that sent thee unto me, 24 'Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah: 25 Because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore shall My wrath be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.'"

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent thee to enquire of the Lord, so shall ye say unto him, 'Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, "Tell ye the man that sent thee unto me, 27 'Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humbly thyself before the Lord, when thou hearest His words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before Me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before Me; 28 have ev"er condoned thee also.'" Thus saith the Lord."

28 "Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that shall bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same.'"

So they brought the king word again.

29 Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the Lord, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small:

31 and he read in their ears all the words of the 11th book of the covenant that was found in the house of the Lord.

32 And the king stood in his place,

33 and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep His commandments, and His testimonies, and His statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.
and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD.
3 And said unto the Levites that taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, o o
4 Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and His People Israel,
5 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son.
6 And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the People, and after the division of the families of the Levites.
7 So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses."
8 And Josiah gave to the People, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.
9 And his princes gave willingly unto the People, to the priests, and to the Levites; Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.
10 Conmania also, and Shemaijah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.
11 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.
12 And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.
13 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the People, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.
14 And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the People.
15 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were bidden in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.
16 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.
17 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.
18 And there was no passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

35. 19.
20 After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates:
and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, "What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from medling with God, Who is with me, that He destroy thee not."

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but "dispersed himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Have me away; for I am sore wounded."

24 His servants therefore took him out of that charriot, and put him in the second chariot which he had: and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spoke of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his "goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the Lord, were they not written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

36 Then the People of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt put him down at Jerusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim.

And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

6 Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar, a And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

b 5 Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

d 6 Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon.

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

e Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

10 And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD.

13 And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by the God:

but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel.

14 Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the People, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15 And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by His messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because He had compassion on His People, and on His dwelling place:

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised His words, and misused His prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against His People, till there was no remedy.

17 Therefore He brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: He gave them all into his hand.

18 And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

21 To fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfill threescore and ten years.

22 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

23 "Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD of God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his People? Let the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up unto his throne."!

SPECIAL NOTE ON 2 Chron. 36. 21.

THE "SERVITUDE", THE "CAPTIVITY", AND THE "DESOLATIONS".

Three Periods of seventy years are assigned to these three respectively, and it is necessary that they should be differentiated.

i. The "Servitude" began in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, and the first of Nebuchadnezzar, when the Kingdom passed under Chaldean rule for seventy years (Jer. 25. 1). This period closed with the capture of Babylon by Darius the Mede (Astyages), and the "Decree" of Cyrus to rebuild the Temple. It lasted from 490-426 b.c.

ii. The "Captivity" commenced, and is dated by Ezekiel from the carrying away to Babylon of Jehoiachin, in the eighth year of Nebuchadnezzar (2 Kings 24. 8-16). This was in 489 b.c. Consequently, when the "Servitude" ended in 426 b.c., the "Captivity" had lasted for sixty-three (9 x 7) years.

Seven years later Cyrus died, in 419 b.c. That year (419) is further notable for:

1. The appointment of Nehemiah as Governor of Jerusalem by Cambyses (Neh. 5. 14).
2. The completion of "the wall" in fifty-two days (Neh. 6. 15); and
3. The fact it marks the end of the fifth of the "seven sevens" of Dan. 9. 25. (See Appendix 50. VI, p. 69; and 56. VII (6), p. 67. The "Captivity" lasting from 489 to 419 b.c.

iii. The "Desolations" commenced with the beginning of the third and last siege of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar in 479 b.c., and cover a period of "seventy years", ending in the second year of Darius Hystaspis: i.e. in 409 b.c.

This "threescore and ten years" which is referred to here (2 Chron. 36. 21), is the fulfilment of Lev. 26. 32-35, and has reference to the "Land".

It is this period of which Daniel says he "understood by books", as being the number of the years that Jehovah "would accomplish in the Desolations of Jerusalem" (Dan. 9. 2).

The Darius here (Dan. 9. 1) is evidently Cyrus, the son of Astyages (see notes on p. 618, and Ap. 57); and as the first year of his reign was 426 b.c. it follows that seventeen years had, then, yet to run before the "Desolations" of the Land were ended, in 409 b.c.

Hence, Daniel's prayer, that follows, resulted in the giving to him the famous prophecy of the "seventy sevens" of years contained in Dan. 9. 20-27.

* In Hebrew manuscripts of the Bible, and the early printed editions of the Hebrew text, these two books are always treated and reckoned as one book: the 685 verses being numbered from the first verse of Ezra to the last verse of Nehemiah; the middle verse of the one book being given by the Masorites as Neh. 3. 22; while of the ten Sedarim (or Cycles for public reading), the fourth begins at Ezra 8. 35 and ends with Neh. 2. 16. See note at foot of p. 692. Moreover, the notes which the Masorites place at the end of each book are placed at the end of Nehemiah, and not at the end of Ezra. Cp. note on the books of SAMUEL, KINGS, AND CHRONICLES, p. 966.

The Structure of the one book is set forth as above, the two Divisions being given in their Canonical Order.

Ezra confines himself mainly to the events connected with the Temple.

Nehemiah confines himself mainly to the events connected with the Wall and the City.

Ezra comes first in the Canonical Order, because the Temple is more important than the Wall, morally and spiritually.

Nehemiah follows, because the Wall is of secondary importance.

When the whole of the events are looked at in their Chronological and Historical order, a different Structure is necessarily observed; this Structure is determined by certain fixed points, common to both Orders. These fixed points determine the place of the remaining events recorded in the two parts respectively. See Table of Events and Chronological Structure on p. 618, and the Harmony of Events in Ap. 58.

† The letters of this fount (in brackets) correspond with the same letters in the Chronological Structure on page 617.
CERTAIN FIXED POINTS IN THE TWO DIVISIONS OF THE JOINT BOOKS

May be exhibited as follows, in brief: a complete list of all the events will be found in Appendix 58.

EZRA.

1. 1-4. The People. Emancipation.

2. 5-10. The Return under Zerubbabel.
   (The Temple still desolate: and for sixteen years later. Hag. 1. 1-4.)

4. 1-6. 15. The Temple: building.

5. 16-22. Dedication of the Temple.

7. 9-14. Feast, &c., of the Seventh Month (404 b.c.).

9. 10-44. Strange wives put away, and the Covenant made.

NEHEMIAH.

2. 7-9. The condition of the city. (People few. Houses not built.)

NOTES TO THE CHRONOLOGICAL STRUCTURE (p. 617).

The Chronological Order of Events, and the Structure based thereon, revolutionizes the traditional view, which treats this one book as two books; places Ezra historically as preceding Nehemiah; and inserts the book of Esther between Ezra, chapters 6 and 7, instead of before Ezra-Nehemiah. (See date, Est. 1. 3.)

Those who thus dislocate the two divisions of this book proceed to speak of certain portions as being "misplaced", and "not original", and as having "false connections". These so-called "discrepancies", after having thus been first made by the commentators, are charged home on the inspired writers themselves.

That the "difficulties" exist only in the minds of the critics will be seen if we note the following facts:

1. The fixed points, common to the two parts of the book, determine for us the true position of all the other parts, and result in giving us the Chronological Structure of the whole on page 617.

2. The traditional view places the building of the temple by Ezra as coming many years before Nehemiah 1. But this is inconceivable in view of the report brought by Hanani to Nehemiah concerning the desolations (Neh. 1. 3) and repeated to the king (Neh. 2. 3).

3. Nehemiah would surely have inquired about the welfare of the 42,360 exiles who are supposed to have returned to Jerusalem, and not about "the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity" (Neh. 1. 2).

4. When the wall was finished, "the houses were not yet builded" (Neh. 7. 1-4).

5. When the Feast of the seventh month was kept (Neh. 8), "the foundation of the temple of the Lord was not yet laid" (Ezra 3. 1-5).

6. When the people dwelt in their "ciled houses", the house of the Lord still lay waste (Hag. 1. 1-4). These facts are more certain than all chronology, and are more important and conclusive than all reasoning.

7. The names of some of the kings mentioned have been hitherto regarded as proper names; whereas, according to Sir Henry Rawlinson, Professor Sayce, The Encyclopedia Britannica, and The Century Encyclopedia of Names, three at least are appellatives (like Pharaoh, Abimelech, Czar, Shah, Sultan); viz. Ahasuerus, which means "The venerable king", Artaxerxes, which means "The great king", and Darius, which means "The maintainer". See the Genealogy of the Persian kings (Ap. 57). If these appellatives denote separate and different individual kings, no place can be found for them all on the page of history.

8. See the longer notes on special passages at the end of Nehemiah, page 655.
1 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, 2 the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, 3:1 The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (of which) is in Jerusalem.

4 And whatsoever remaineth in any place where ye sojourn, let the men of his place help him with silver and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that were about them strengthened them with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand silver chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives,

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

And these were they which went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, Addan, andImmer: but they could not shew their father's house, and their seed, whether they were of Israel: the children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nabig, six hundred sixty and two. And of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai which took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name: these sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they as polluted, put from the priesthood. And the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim. The whole congregation together was four and two thousand three hundred and threescore, beside their servants and their maid-servants of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women. Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five; their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of the Lord which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God to set it up in his place: 69 They gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.

And when the seventh month was come, the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.

69 They gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.
3. 2.

E 2 Then stood up Jehu the son of Zerubbabel, and his brethren the priests, and the altar of the God of Israel, and built up the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. 3 And they set the altar upon its bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries; and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the Lord, even burnt offerings morning and evening.

C 7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedars from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

D 9 Then stood Jehu with his sons and his brethren, Khadmiel, and his sons, and of the sons of Jehu, together; and set forward the workmen in the house of the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the Lord.

h 5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the Lord that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free will offering unto the Lord.

D 6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the Lord. But the foundation of the temple of the Lord was not yet laid.

with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

4 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity built the temple unto the Lord God of Israel;
Then they came to the Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, “Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto Him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.”

But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, “Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God: but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.”

Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the People of Judah, and troubled them in building,

And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

(6) And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Targelians, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Sasai, the Dehavites, and the Elamites,

And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and at such a time.

This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king; “Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.

city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be built, and the walls set up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so the king shall endanger the revenue of the kings.

14 Now because we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king;

15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause this city destroyed.

16 Sir, certify the king that, if this city be built again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river."

17 Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions, that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, "Peace, and at such a time:

18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

19 And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

21 Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not built, until another commandment shall be sent from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?"

23 Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes's letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of the house of Sherelem, which is at Jerusalem.

5 So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

3 Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

2 Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of Sherelem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.
6 The copy of the letter that "Tatnai, the governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the "Apharsachites, were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king:

7 They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus: "Unto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the "province of Judea, to the house of the great "Jerusalem, which is built with the "great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, 'Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?'

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the "men that were the "chiefs of them.

11 And thus returned we answer, saying, "We are the servants of the house of heaven and earth, 12 But after that our fathers had provoked the "house of heaven unto wrath, 13 But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of the "house of heaven.

14 And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of the "Jerusalem, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, they did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was "Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;

15 And said unto him, 'Take these vessels, go, set them into the temple that "is in Jerusalem, and let the house of the "Jerusalem be built in his place.'

16 Then came the same "Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of the "Jerusalem, which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished.'

17 Now therefore, if it seem good unto the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at "Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of the "Jerusalem at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.'
5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God, unto whom the heaven was given.

6 "Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence: Let the work of this house of God begin; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.

7 Moreover I make a decree that whatsoever it shall cost for sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, salt, wine, and oil, and all that he shall require for prayer, let it be given them day by day without fail:

8 That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.

11 And I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

12 And the God of heaven shall shew the kingdom unto the son of man, that shall come to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. And Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

13 Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so did they speedily.

14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and of Darius, and of Artaxerxes king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

16 And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy, 17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

7 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia,

Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah,

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzl, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and of the singers, and the porters, and of the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king to 1st Ab

1st Nisan

9 For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

11 Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of His statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, of the law of the heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time.
